April 10, 2016

It is a picture: a lakeside breakfast, a charcoal fire, friends reconnecting. We step into the scene, then realize the scene is meant to be recreated by us! Let Jesus become an important part of our life, and we discover his friends are our friends. Check inside: lots of possibilities!

Easter Blessings to you and those you love, Fr. Bob

Jesus said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” And none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

Sunday Communion Service - April 17
The Highlands - Darlene Huver       Heather Heights - Carol Duffy
A Prophecy Fulfilled
Right from the beginning of Luke’s two volume work (Luke-Acts), he has faithful, devoted Jews, Anna & Simeon offer prophecies about Jesus. By Gospels’ end, the prophecies are fulfilled. Early in the Acts of the Apostles, in the verses omitted in our 1st reading, Gamaliel, a wise Jewish leader and member of the Sanhedrin offers advice, a prophecy that will be fulfilled by the end of Acts. "So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action is of men, it will be overthrown; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found fighting against God." Did you know that in Christian tradition, Gamaliel and his son eventually converted to Christianity, were baptized by Peter and John, and that Gamaliel is venerated as a saint?

All About Worship
If anyone ever tells you “I don’t get much out of Mass”, patiently ask what they mean. Listen with love. Just saying “You only get out of it what you put in” is likely to shut the door and not open one. Instead, after listening, let them know you will think about what they said. Then, you might say “I guess I see things differently”. Our second reading, and much of the book of Revelation offer great insight into worship (and thus Mass). Worship is not about satisfying the needs, wants and personal tastes of the worshiper. It is about focusing, centering on God. Praising God for who God is and what God does. Centering on Christ; his life, death and resurrection, which is our hope and our salvation. When Revelation was written (not unlike today), there were terrible things going on in the world. Beasts and evil abounded. Believers kept focusing on God, engaging in true worship, and broke the power of evil for believers. If you decide to read through Revelation, notice how the scene constantly shifts from evil and destruction on earth, to worship and heavenly liturgy. The early chapters capture the story of chaos and suffering on earth, with brief scene shifts to worship around the throne. The proportions continually change. By book’s end, evil has been defeated, absent from the last two chapters. That structure is no accident. Think about it!

Symbols: Not Just In Apocalyptic
The Evangelist, John, was a master with symbols. Recall Peter warming himself around a charcoal fire in the Passion on Good Friday? Hmm … three denials, now we hear three opportunities to profess his love for Christ, and there is that charcoal fire again. A huge catch of fish, but the net is not torn? Jesus predicted he would not lose any of those the Father gave to him, except the one destined to betray him. Fish and bread to feed his disciples – the multiplication of the loaves and fish come to mind. And glorification? God is glorified in Jesus’ offering himself and his sacrificial death; today the risen Christ lets Peter know that his martyrdom will glorify God.

Looking Ahead:
Fourth Sunday of Easter
1st Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52
Filled with joy and the Holy Spirit
2nd Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17
God will wipe away every tear
Gospel: John 10:27-30
My sheep hear my voice

This Week's Tithing Will Support Rochester Area Interfaith Hospitality Network

Next Week's Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

The Pittsford Food Cupboard is a food pantry serving more than 4,000 households in Monroe County “Feeding Hope One Family at a Time”.

Suzy Ward, a St. Louis Parishioner, is the current Executive Director. The Pittsford Food Cupboard’s mission is to help alleviate hunger for families in need who live in a six zip code area between the City of Rochester, Pittsford, Brighton and East Rochester by supplementing 10 days of food supplies, ultimately contributing towards clients’ independence. Clients come from all walks of life, many just needing a little help to get through a period of unemployment or illness. Others need assistance because of inadequate fixed incomes, a disability or uninsured medical bills, single parenthood or an increase in household size.

In 2015, the cupboard served 9,476 people through the tireless work of over 100 volunteers. The cupboard has a variety of flexible volunteer programs that make it easy for members of the community, adults or students, to get involved and volunteer at group or individual levels. Besides collecting food, assisting clients, helping with office work, stocking shelves or picking up food, volunteers can “Adopt-A-Shelf”, hold can and bottle drives, or be a sponsor and coordinate food drives at their organization. This is a great opportunity for our scouts to assist and they have done an outstanding job in providing resources.

For details, visit www.pittsfordfoodcupboard.net or contact Suzy Ward directly at 585-746-5676.

Thank you for your prayers, your food donations, and your critical financial support.

Pastoral Care Team

The Pastoral Care Team will meet on Thursday, April 14 at 9:30 am in the Parish Meeting Hall to plan upcoming activities. We will discuss the Annual Sunshine Luncheon for the home bound on Thursday, May 19 and the next Women's Bereavement Group. We will also review the Good Friday Blood Drive and the Flower delivery during Holy Week. Our meetings are short-usually 1 hour. Please consider attending and helping share your talents and offering God's mercy to others. Please consider joining our team and offering your service to this very important ministry. Please contact Cris Wensel, Pastoral Associate at cwensel@dor.org or 586-5675 ext. 224, or Peggy O'Neil Midgley at pomidgley@yahoo.com or 383-8879.
Family Faith Members Show Mercy!

As part of their 2015/2016 religious education curriculum; the Year of Mercy and embracing the Corporal & Spiritual Works of Mercy, Family Faith members have spent time each month living out their Gospel call to help those in need - right here in our own community! Below is a wonderful note we received from the leader of project Open Meal at St. Catherine’s Church in Mendon. We too, are proud of their kindness & generosity!

"Thank you to the Family Faith VOLUNTEERS at St. Louis for everything you do each and every month! At every meal you prepare delicious dishes and serve with hearts filled with compassion. Thank You for all of your generosity and support with the Open Meal! Because of your MERCY, we feed our guests, people in our community, and people at the House of Mercy! This could not continue without all of you. The children who volunteer are truly amazing too! They serve our guests with smiles and care! I am honored every month to serve with all of you! EAT, PRAY, FAITH, HOPE, AND FEED WITH MERCY!!!! Happy Easter!

Warmly, Nicole D’Anna and the St. Catherine’s Open Meal Ministry."

Tutors Needed!

Monday & Thursday Evenings

Our Monday tutoring program which meets from 4:45-6:00 pm at Guardian Angels School at 2016 East Henrietta Rd. needs tutors for Iraqi women.

Our Thursday program which meets from 4:45-6:00 pm at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Spirit at 835 South Ave. near Highland hospital is also in need of tutors. - Unique miracles of Jesus mentioned in the Quran not in the Bible
- Understand and support of all on global scale for world peace

Dr. Rumi is a pioneering active member of the Islamic Center of Rochester and has served in leadership roles for over 32 years. He has been speaking on Islam at numerous events in the greater Rochester area and in Washington D.C. He has also participated in international Interfaith Conferences. Why on Earth am I here?

A boat without a rudder usually ends up in the weeds. That's not where God wants you! God has a purpose for your life…to bring Christ to the world with your hands and your voice. It's your VOCATION. Next Sunday, we celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations and pray for all Christian vocations – married, single, ordained, and consecrated religious.

May Mary, Mother and guide of Jesus, intercede for our faith community, so that, made fruitful by the Holy Spirit, it may be a source of true vocations for the service of the holy People of God. Amen

from Message of His Holiness Pope Francis on the Occasion of the 53rd World Day of Prayer for Vocations, April 17, 2016

If you would like to talk with someone about a possible vocation to priesthood, please contact the Diocesan Office of Priesthood Vocation Awareness at 585-328-3210 ext. 1373 or visit www.ROCpriest.org for more information.
