New Life

Spring is a time when new life bursts forth from the frozen ground. Easter is a time when renewed faith and the joy of the resurrection can lead new possibilities bursting forth for us individually, and as a community. Check out the inside of the bulletin this week and count how many possibilities you see!

On page five check out the initiative of our tri-parish Caring for God’s Creation ministry. Recall Pope Francis’ encyclical Laudato Si? His exhortation fell on receptive ears! Have you ever thought of making that vital, life-giving and holy connection between a passion for the environment and the holiness to which we are all called? What better time than around Earth Day? Put your toe in the water!

Are you in the medical field? Did you know there is a guild of the Catholic Medical Association here in Rochester, and that the board meets here at St. Louis regularly? That you could be a member of the guild? That they have put together a great conference, together with the Buffalo and Syracuse guilds of the CMA? Check it out on page four – could be part of your call to holiness!

Pastoral Care, the Sunshine Luncheon – the call to holiness could lead there as well. In his new Apostolic Exhortation, Pope Francis writes beautifully about the beatitudes. The bereavement group, blessed are those who mourn: another connection.

As you know, we have many ways in which members of our parish reach out, active social ministries like Saint’s Place, The Haiti Task Force, Habitat for Humanity, RAIHN, etc. We soon will be putting together a new Social Ministry Team. Check out the conference highlighted on page nine. A perfect way to get the big picture, to see how action on behalf of those in need is the way to holiness.

Do you have a hunger to learn more? Page Eight highlights two great opportunities!

Last thought: do you think church documents are dry, technical, and basically might put you to sleep? Check out Pope Francis’ most recent Exhortation, on the Call to Holiness. You will be amazed how practical so much of it is. Yes, Easter is about hearing the call to holiness, and responding. How is God calling you to holiness? We are all called, and God will give us the grace to respond. Speak Lord, we are listening! Peace to you and those you love, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - April 22  The Highlands - Darlene Huver  Heather Heights - Mary Ann Monley
Brought to Fulfilment
Historians in ancient times, both Greek and Roman, found that penning speeches was an effective and compelling way to communicate history. Speeches can convey much about an individual character, the spirit of the times, the impact the ‘speaker’ had on others. Was it assumed that the historian was present with pen and paper? No. But they did their best to portray the kind of speech the individual would have given. With Acts of the Apostles, composed by Luke, the many speeches are Luke’s effort to preserve some of the first ideas presented in the preaching of the Apostolic Age. The text of our 1st reading today is an effort to capture the spirit of Peter’s preaching. The phrase ‘the Holy and Righteous One’ was probably a title given to Jesus very early on, and used by Peter. The recognition of the suffering of Jesus as a fulfilment of prophecy, like the servant songs in Isaiah, was also a theme that characterized the first preaching about Christ. Repentance, and sin being wiped away – those themes stretch all the way back into the Old Testament. The realities also stretch right up to 2018 – Jesus is still the Holy and Righteous One. We are still called to repent and be converted. When we do, our sins are wiped away just as they were when Peter preached!

Knowing Jesus
Our 2nd reading reiterates a title for Jesus from the 1st reading, ‘the Righteous One’, while adding another, ‘an Advocate with the Father.’ John gives a beautiful balance. “I am writing … so that you do not commit sin”; “If any one does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father.” Looking for a fresh approach to prayer? Have a conversation with Jesus, asking him to advocate on your behalf with the Father. That is putting into practice what John is teaching, and a way to experience the love of God being perfected in us!

Sound familiar?
Recall the explanation when the latest revision of the Roman Missal came out? Namely, that in part the translation was to make clearer how prayers for the Mass are often right off the pages of the Bible? In our Gospel today, we hear “he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.” That truth echoes beautifully in the Eucharistic Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions: “as once for the disciples, so now for us, he opens the Scriptures….” Even more, reflecting the story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, the full text is: “Blessed indeed is your Son, present in our midst when we are gathered by his love, and when, as once for the disciples, so now for us, he opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread.” And blessed are we who are fed by the Word, and by his Body and Blood!

Our Weekend Scriptures:

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Repent and be converted

2nd Reading: 1 John 2:1-5a
We have an Advocate with the Father

He opened their minds to understand scripture

Looking Ahead:

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

1st Reading: Acts 4:8-12
He has become the cornerstone

2nd Reading: 1 John 3:1-2

First Communion Gifts
The Sisters of Saint Joseph Gift Shop has many First Communion items for your gift giving needs. Stop by and browse gift sets, rosaries, books, picture frames, purses and much more.

The gift shop is located at the SSJ Motherhouse on 150 French Road in Pittsford.

Gift shop hours are Monday – Friday, 10 AM to 3:30 PM, or call (585) 641-8137.

Pray and Encourage
Next Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Easter is always Good Shepherd Sunday, and also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Rather than just a generic prayer for vocations, try thinking of one or two of the young folks who are involved in our parish, and pray that God might call them to ministry, and that they will hear and respond. Or, pray, listen, and see if the Lord needs you to offer a word of encouragement to consider a vocation to someone in our parish!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Notre Dame Learning Center

Notre Dame Learning Center (NDLC) located at 71 Parkway, Rochester 14608 resides in the Charles Settlement Building. This ministry of the School Sisters of Notre Dame was established in 2004 to address the needs of Rochester children having difficulty in school. Many city children have poor study habits, and lack basic reading and math skills, and need help outside the regular classroom setting.

At the Notre Dame Learning Center, children are tutored on an individual basis. Each student works on an academic area of Reading/English Language, Arts and Mathematics, suggested by the parent, teacher, or as a result of diagnostic testing. Tutors not only help the children in their academic year of need, but also help them gain self-confidence and inspire them to be the best they can be. To volunteer as a tutor, for other volunteer opportunities, to give a gift from the wish list, or for more information, please call Sr. Evelyn Breslin at 254-5110 or by email at ndlc@frontiernet.net. Prayers are always welcome. Education renders a huge strike at the causes of poverty. For more information, visit ndlcenter.org.

Caring for God’s Creation Ministry
In their own words . . .

My name is Steve Heinzelman, and I have recently joined the Caring for God’s Creation Ministry. This is an 11-year-old ministry, focused on protecting the environment, that was started at the Church of the Transfiguration but has recently become tri-parish. It has undertaken many projects including running a community garden, commissioning energy audits, and establishing recycling programs. We’re currently brainstorming our next projects.

I’ve enjoyed being able to share my passion for our natural world and the divine beauty that it contains with a group of like-minded people that are interested in doing their part to help implement solutions. I’m excited that we’re able, in some small way, to help heed and amplify the Pope’s message in his encyclical Laudato Si', that our Christian faith, caring for God’s creation, and a concern for justice for all people – particularly the poor – are inextricably linked. Indeed, a healthy environment helps reduce disease, poverty, and violence. That’s something I’m eager to work towards.

We meet the third Thursday of each month at 7:00, currently alternating between St. Louis and Transfiguration. I encourage you to keep an eye on the bulletin for meeting announcements and please make note of the upcoming Earth Day events (see right.)
