Sunday in Assisi

As you are reading this, I am in Assisi, praying for all of our parish family. Though a twist of fate, a last minute opportunity to join a pilgrimage to Assisi opened up a few weeks ago, and the dates worked with my schedule. While several other priests are going, most of the group are secular Franciscans, and the pilgrimage, “In the Footsteps of St. Francis” will be led by Fr. Anthony David Baetzold, who grew up in St. Lawrence Parish, Greece, and is now a Franciscan Friar of the Renewal.

After three days in Assisi, we travel to Loretto, to visit the shrine of the Holy House of Loretto, a pilgrimage site with a fascinating history. The story begins with the Emperor Constantine, who built a Basilica over what was believed to be the home of the Holy Family in Nazareth. St. Francis visited the house in Nazareth when he traveled to the Holy Land. When the Basilica was destroyed by the Saracens in 1291, tradition claims that the small house survived under the rubble, and then was miraculously carried by angels, to eventually end in Loretto, Italy. Though tradition speaks of angels carrying the home to its new destination, recent research indicates that the Angelis family brought it by boat from the Holy Land, to protect and preserve it after the defeat of the Crusaders. The materials and design are consistent with 1st century construction in Nazareth. Many miracles have been attributed to the site, and it has been visited by believers from around the world. Pilgrims there include many saints and Popes, most recently St. John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI.

On Tuesday we head to La Verna, where St. Francis is said to have received the Stigmata. St. Francis founded a small church, Santa Maria degli Angeli in La Verna in 1216. He went there on retreat at times. A major Franciscan pilgrimage site, La Verna now includes a monastic complex with a monastery, church, museum, chapels, and a cave that was Francis’ cell.

The next day, as we travel to Rome, we will make our way through Spoleta, Trevi, Grecchio, Rieti, all visited by Francis, and with significant Franciscan history.

Our pilgrimage will end with a short stay in Rome, and then a flight back home. Not to worry about safety. Did you know that Our Lady of Loretto is the patron Saint of pilots, airmen and flight attendants? Aviators often make pilgrimages to Loretto, and gather at the shrine for special prayers, a procession and festivities on September 8th each year. So we will pray for safe travels at the perfect shrine!

Next weekend will be a special one here at St. Louis. As you can see on the schedule, we will make our way through Spoleta, Trevi, Greccio, Rieti, all visited by Francis, and with significant Franciscan history.

Sunday Communion Service - April 26

Requiem Aeternam
Cora Pizzutelli
Brought to Fulfilment

Historians in ancient times, both Greek and Roman, found that penning speeches was an effective and compelling way to communicate history. Speeches can convey much about an individual character, the spirit of the times, the impact the person had on others. In the case of Acts of the Apostles, while composed by Luke, the many speeches preserve some of the first ideas presented in the preaching of the Apostolic Age. In the sermon of Peter in our 1st reading today, the phrase ‘the Holy and Righteous One’ was probably a title given to Jesus very early on, and used by Peter. The recognition of the suffering of Jesus as a fulfilment of prophecy, like the servant songs in Isaiah, was also a theme that characterized the first preaching about Christ. Repentance, and sin being wiped away – those themes stretch all the way back into the Old Testament.

Knowing Jesus

Our 2nd reading reiterates a title for Jesus from the 1st reading, ‘the Righteous One’, while adding another, ‘an Advocate with the Father.’ John gives a beautiful balance. “I am writing ... so that you do not commit sin”; “If any one does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father.” Looking for a fresh approach to prayer? Have a conversation with Jesus, asking him to advocate on your behalf with the Father. A good way to put what John is teaching this weekend into practice!

Sound familiar?

Recall the explanation when the latest revision of the Roman Missal came out? Namely, that in part the translation was to make clearer how prayers for the Mass are often right off the pages of the Bible? In our Gospel today, we hear “he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures”. That truth echoes beautifully in the Eucharistic Prayers for Various Needs and Occasions: “as once for the disciples, so now for us, he opens the Scriptures....” Even more, reflecting the story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, the full text is: “Blessed indeed is your Son, present in our midst when we are gathered by his love, and when, as once for the disciples, so now for us, he opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread.” And blessed are we who are fed by the Word, and by his Body and Blood!

Preparing: Easter Continues

A Special Visit!

Next Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Easter is always Good Shepherd Sunday, and also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our shepherd, Bishop Matano, will be joining us to preside at the 5PM Mass that Sunday. Please begin praying for vocations now, and also mark your calendar: April 26, 5PM Mass, Bishop Matano prays with us at St. Louis! An outdoor reception will follow (weather permitting) with an opportunity to meet Bishop Matano.

Priesthood Ordination & 1st Mass!

Speaking of vocations, Deacon Carlos Sanchez will be ordained a priest on June 20th, 10AM at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Have you ever attended an ordination? Here is a perfect opportunity to support Carlos, and to experience the beauty and spiritual richness of priesthood ordination. The Cathedral, mother church of our diocese, priests from around our diocese concelebrating and joining in the laying on of hands, young men ordained and missioned: do mark your calendar now! St. Louis is Carlos’ home parish away from home in Medellin, Colombia, so he will be celebrating his first Mass as a newly ordained priest here at St. Louis, Sunday, June 21st at 11:00 AM. Another opportunity not to be missed! Mark your calendar now, and watch for details!

There are many ways a young person can hear God’s call and begin to discern their vocation. Often members of their community seeing gifts in them, seeing a special something, and asking if they have ever thought of priesthood or religious life, is the first nudge. Have you encouraged vocations today??
Handy Hands – Help Wanted

Before we put away all the Triduum supplies, we could use some help with two things:

- The curtains we use to transform the Meeting Hall into the Altar of Repose need to be shortened to fit the windows. For someone handy with sewing, this job would be a breeze!
- The cups that hold the individual candles for Easter Vigil need to be cleaned, to be ready for Christmas Eve—yes, that’s right. Someone who loves to clean and polish would find satisfaction in this job! It can be done here on campus or taken home.

Please call Sally at the Ministry Center (586-5675, ext. 235) or email sschrecker@dor.org for more info or to offer your time. Thank you.
INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

We become Christians by a process of conversion - metanoia - in Greek, which means literally “turning around”. Conversion is a process of turning from a life of selfishness and sin to a life of Spirit-filled generosity and love. The Sacraments of initiation, Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist are an ongoing invitation into this lifelong process of conversion.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, RCIA, is a process of our faith journey to become a Catholic. The Catholic perspective sees everything as being intrinsically created good. It honors the individual intellect and well-formed conscience and encourages members to use their minds to think things through. The Catholic Church educates its members to use their ability to reason and to apply laws of ethics and a natural moral law. Catholicism tries to integrate faith into all things.

Catholics are required to live a Christian life, pray daily, participate in the Sacraments, obey the moral law and accept the teachings of Christ and his Church. The RCIA is the process that assists you in your faith journey with Christ and the Catholic Church.

HERE ARE A FEW COMMENTS FROM THOSE WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED THE RCIA:

“I became Catholic because I believe the old adage that ‘a family that prays together, stays together’. It became increasingly important to me that I convert in order to participate fully in my family’s religious experience and that we worship together as a family.” — Natasha

“I entered the RCIA so I could grow in my faith and become a fully initiated Catholic. Through the RCIA my eyes have been opened to so many new things. The entire church has been immeasurably supportive and loving. It is truly an honor to be a part of this family.” — Honus

“I made the decision to become Catholic because I want to be a part of something bigger than myself and I feel this is the right decision for myself and my family. The RCIA process has been very helpful. We received wonderful resources, and it was enjoyable sharing thoughts about religion and life with others.” — Rachel

THE RCIA PROCESS AT ST. LOUIS IS YEAR ROUND AND WE:
• meet people where they are on their faith journey
• design a process of initiation that will work for them
• study together and at home

If you have been coming to the Catholic Church for years and have not become fully initiated we hope that this is the time to take that step. If you have not practiced a faith, we ask you to learn more about becoming Catholic. We are here to walk with you wherever you are on your faith journey.

For more information about RCIA please contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org.

Norms for Words of Remembrance at Funerals in the Diocese of Rochester
Promulgated on May 20, 2012

As Catholics we believe the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life therefore, we are blessed with a funeral liturgy that is the Lord’s gift to us and a great source of consolation at the time of death. It is through the funeral liturgy the Church commends the dead to God’s merciful love.

While the opportunity to share one’s grief and memories is certainly part of the mourning process, these interactions more suitably take place among family and friends at the funeral home or reception where reminiscing and supportive, informal conversation occur.

The Words of Remembrance are not intended to be a eulogy and are optional and therefore not a requirement of the Order of Christian Funerals. To be faithful to and respectful of God’s gift of this most perfect prayer, the following guidelines for Words of Remembrance will be followed:

- The most appropriate time for Words of Remembrance is at the Vigil for the Deceased, commonly known as the wake.

- Eulogies (reminiscing and toasting speeches) are not permitted.

- One person only speaks in the name of all when the Words of Remembrance occur at the Funeral Mass or Funeral Liturgy outside Mass.

- Words of Remembrance are brief: no more than 3-4 minutes, one typed page.

- The Words of Remembrance are to be in good taste and respectful of the dignity of the liturgy.

- The Words of Remembrance are to be prepared beforehand and reviewed by the pastor of the church one day prior to the funeral.

- The Words of Remembrance are a reflection of God’s action in the life of the Deceased and how God’s blessings upon that person have enriched the world around them.
Dear Teens,

Happy Spring!

Every day God speaks to us. He speaks to us through the voices of other people, through our own thoughts and dreams, or through nature. This is such a beautiful time of year to recognize how God shares His love for us through the chirping birds, budding flowers and sunshine (finally!) Sometimes we are so surrounded by the noises of life (cell phones, tv, music, friends) that the most important voice (God’s) can be drowned out. Take some quiet time this week to listen! Youth Group can be a great opportunity to re-connect with God. Join us this Sunday after the 5pm mass. You are always welcome to bring a friend.

Hope to see you soon. Have a great week!
Molly and Mr. McBride

Life! . . . In Focus

"The authentic life begins with the simple desire to be who God created us to be and cooperate with God by playing the part He has designed for us in human history. The adventure of salvation begins when we stop asking, 'What's in it for me?' and turn humbly to God in our hearts and ask, 'How may I serve? What work do you wish for me to do with my life? What is Your will for my life?' "

~ Matthew Kelly, Catholic author and speaker

The ‘Year of Mercy’: What Shall We Do??

Let’s talk put our heads, hearts and spirits together, May 7 at 7:00pm in the Parish Meeting Hall. Help us start planning now for this wonderful gift given to all by Pope Francis! Pope Francis announced the extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, to begin 7 months from now on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. It will end on the Solemnity of Christ the King, Nov. 20, 2016. Jubilee Years are rooted in the Mosaic law. Every fiftieth year was to be holy for the Jewish people. Debts were canceled, slaves freed, and lands restored to their “original owners.” This jubilee Holy Year of Mercy flows from Christ's command in Luke 6:36, “Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.”

How shall we prepare, participate and celebrate this holy year? Let’s brainstorm on Thursday, May 7 at 7:00pm in the Parish Meeting Hall. This will be the first of several sessions. We need:

• all ministry groups, and you!
• ideas that will focus on parish, families, individuals and the larger community
• willingness to dedicate time, energy and follow-through to make ideas happen
• an open heart, open mind, collaborative spirit

For more information about this exciting opportunity to serve and honor Pope Francis, our parish, and especially our Lord and the Blessed Mother, contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org or 586-5675.

Next weekend April 25/26 is our First Communion weekend! There will be a First Communion Mass on Saturday morning at 11:00AM. First Communions will also be at the Saturday, 4:30PM, and Sunday, 9:00AM and 11:00AM Masses. Please pray for all of the children preparing to come to the Table of the Eucharist for their 1st time!
