Giving Witness

Two nouns. Or, could be a noun and a verb. Apostle // Witness. Apostle means one sent. For us, one sent to share the good news of Christ coming into the world, his life-giving ministry, and the transforming power of his life, death and resurrection. Witness, as a noun, is quite similar: one who has seen the power, the explosion of God’s grace in the ministry of Jesus, and in the Paschal mystery. Witness, as a verb: to share what one has seen, heard and experienced. Peter is an apostle, one sent; he also makes it clear in our first reading that he is a witness. What he does in the first reading is give witness to what Jesus did prior to his last days in Jerusalem, and how he experienced the risen Christ along with the other witnesses, chosen by God in advance. We too are called to be witnesses, and give witness. We give witness to how we have experienced the risen Christ, how faith in him has changed our life, and how what we hear and read in the Gospels rings true to our experience of Christ in our lives. As we are sent forth at the end of Mass: Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord! Or, Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life!

Looking up

A few weeks ago we heard the story of Susanna at weekday Mass (Daniel 13:1-62). Preparing us to understand their sin (lustng after Susanna, and then presenting a false accusation after being rebuffed), the author told us that the two wicked elders who had been appointed judges “suppressed their consciences; they would not allow their eyes to look to heaven.” The result: a mockery of justice, a depraved disregard for virtue, truth, and even human life. But Daniel stepped up as the virtuous one, defending truth, and the life of an innocent victim. Those who ‘refused to look up’, lost their lives. Daniel’s looking up saved an innocent victim. This is a very practical application of Paul’s message to the Colossians: seek what is above. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.

For an examination of conscience: Where have I been looking lately?

Not Just Peter & John

The account of the empty tomb tells us that on witnessing the empty tomb, “they did not understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead.” We aren’t born understanding this mystery, and even baptism and confirmation may not bring it totally home for us. Working to understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead is part of the journey of faith we all make. If Peter & John needed time to sort it all out, is it a surprise that we need to as well? May God help us all stay on the path to understanding!

Divine Mercy Novena

A good way to prepare for Divine Mercy Sunday is by reciting the Divine Mercy Novena. At St. Louis we will be reciting the novena as follows:

♦ April 22nd - April 26th after the 11:00 AM Mass
♦ April 27th after the 9:00 AM Mass

There will be pamphlets in Church with directions for praying the novena. If you are unable to join us at Church you can pray the novena at home.

May the blessings of the Lord guide you, protect you & be with you on Easter & always.

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

The Pittsford Food Cupboard is a food pantry serving more than 4,000 households in Monroe County “Feeding Hope One Family at a Time.” The Pittsford Food Cupboard’s mission is to help alleviate hunger for families in need who live in a six zip code area between the City of Rochester, Pittsford, Brighton and East Rochester by supplementing 10 days of food supplies, ultimately contributing towards clients’ independence. Clients come from all walks of life, many just needing a little help to get through a period of unemployment or illness. Others need assistance because of inadequate fixed incomes, a disability or uninsured medical bills, single parenthood or an increase in household size.

This past year, the cupboard provided food supplies to over 4,000 households, totaling over 9,400 people. The Cupboard typically serves over 400 families per month. PFC relies on its staff of over 100 volunteers. The Cupboard has a variety of flexible volunteer programs that make it easy for members of the community, adults or students, to get involved and volunteer at group or individual levels. Besides collecting food, assisting clients, helping with office work, stocking shelves or picking up food, volunteers can “Adopt-A-Shelf,” hold can and bottle drives, or be a sponsor and coordinate food drives at their organization.

For details, visit www.pittsfordfoodcupboard.net. Thank you for your prayers, your food donations, and your critical financial support.

“The Good News is no mere matter of words: it is about leaving ourselves behind and encountering others.” – Pope Francis

Easter Son-shine for our Shut-Ins

Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Help us share Easter joy with our parish shut-ins! If you know of parishioners who have recently become homebound or shut-in, please contact Cathy Malik, Pastoral Associate for Pastoral Care (Catherine.Malik@dor.org) in the Ministry Center 586-5675. We will have some Easter gifts of sunshine for our parish shut-ins available for pick-up during the first week of the Easter season. Verily! He is Risen! Alleluia!
Our Holy Father has written a beautiful letter to our young people following the Synod of Bishops. I encourage you to read this letter with your family that is filled with so much hope in our world that seems hopeless to some.

This quote is one of many that will give our children and teens food for the journey:

“Dear young people, make the most of these years of your youth. Don’t observe life from a balcony. Don’t confuse happiness with an armchair, or live your life behind a screen. Whatever you do, do not become the sorry sight of an abandoned vehicle! Don’t be parked cars, but dream freely and make good decisions. Take risks, even if it means making mistakes.

Don’t go through life anesthetized or approach the world like tourists. Make a ruckus! Cast out the fears that paralyze you, so that you don’t become young mummies. Live! Give yourselves over to the best of life! Open the door of the cage, go out and fly!”

To read the rest of the letter, visit stlouischurch.org/young-people.

Do you struggle to know when or if it’s appropriate to step in to help a teen or child who seems stressed, anxious, or depressed? Do you know the signs to look for to determine whether a child or teen is in distress?

Directors of Faith Formation and Youth Ministry professionals around our diocese are embarking on a book study on this resource that outlines the challenges our young people face, younger than ever, along with a practical road map for anyone to help and guide a struggling youth.

If you would like to attend a book study or are interested in more information on this topic, please contact Michelle Andrews-Smith or Dominic Salamida at the Ministry Center. Also check out the podcast: roypetitfils.com/todays-teenager-podcast.
HAPPY EASTER from Saint’s Place

What we do …

Clothing

➢ Saint’s Place provides incoming and existing refugees with needed clothing. All arriving refugees are given a warm winter coat, hat, gloves and boots to prepare them for our harsh winters. They are assisted by volunteers who help them select enough clothing of their choosing. They are welcome to return to the clothing closet at any time to obtain additional clothing and shoes for job interviews, special occasions or other circumstances. We do not foresee an end to this need in the future and we measure success by the number of people we serve per year at our clothing closet. Saint’s Place operates the largest clothing closet in Rochester and in addition to refugees, we welcome clients from other non-profits by appointment. From 2016-2018 we served 4,412 individuals at our clothing closet.

Home Furnishing

➢ Furnishing the homes of newly arrived refugees is accomplished with donated furniture from the Rochester community and supplemented with items purchased through fundraising and grants. Each new refugee receives a new mattress, box spring and pillow. The apartments are secured through Catholic Family Center, and Saint’s Place delivers couches, table and chairs, dressers, rugs, lamps, artwork, dishes, pots and pans and bathroom accessories. We turn a dingy apartment into a warm, safe, welcoming home. The number of set-ups fluctuates according to how many refugees are sent to the Rochester area. We also assist numerous non-profits in Rochester with any surplus donated furniture. From 2016-2018 we set up 769 homes.

Educational Needs

➢ School supplies are essential for all refugee children. Each arriving child receives a new backpack filled with school supplies. Success is measured by the number of backpacks we hand out – 300 per year. All incoming refugees are given access to tutoring provided twice per week at two locations. Success is measured in children raising their grades at school, adults passing citizenship tests and watching confidence grow as refugees become more confident communicating in the English language. We tutor 100 refugees per week.

➢ The Saint’s Place Scholarship Fund is our newest program. Refugees who receive aid in the form of a laptop, payment of school fees, books, partial tuition or vocational certification costs have measurable success. We can see their grades improve and we see their lives change as they secure good employment with benefits. Many of our recipients are on the Dean’s list at MCC and St. John Fisher and both vocational student scholarship recipients secured good jobs with medical benefits upon completion of their programs. Since it began in 2018, we have given $35,000 in educational assistance to 26 refugee students.

We have been able to achieve all these wonderful accomplishments because you have cared to make a difference in the lives of those in need. If you would like more information or would like to become a volunteer, please call 385-6860. Thank you for your endless support.

BIG HABITAT PROJECT UPDATE!
Thank you to all who signed up last month at St. Louis Church to volunteer on our 2019 Habitat Interfaith Partnership (HIP) project with other organizations from Pittsford. Many of our St. Louis volunteers have already registered on the Flower City Habitat for Humanity website RochesterHabitat.org and have scheduled work days or have already worked on our 2019 project, renovation of a house at 356 Campbell Street.

We recently learned that work has been temporarily suspended on the Campbell Street house and that Flower City Habitat has offered our HIP coalition an opportunity to sponsor a higher priority project, building a large new five bedroom house on Holworthy Street for an extended family – one of four new Habitat houses to be built on Holworthy Street in 2019.

When we break ground on the Holworthy Street house in May or June we will notify all our St. Louis volunteers so that you can schedule work days on this exciting new HIP project. We also plan to recruit additional St. Louis volunteers for the new project at that time. In the meantime, HIP volunteers are welcome to sign up on the Flower City Habitat website to work on several other Habitat house which are nearing completion.

If any St. Louis volunteers have questions, they may contact volunteer coordinators Rick Cusker at rickcusker@gmail.com or Bob Scholl at schollroch@gmail.com.
We invite you to grow in your faith at St. Louis Church!

If you are looking for a book study, a Bible study, faith-sharing and fellowship with other parishioners, or online resources, we’re here to help you!
