The Bible’s Hymnal
Even though the melodies are not provided, the book of Psalms is the song book of the Old Testament. Songs/prayer can be found for almost every spiritual need and occasion; times of joy and gratitude, times of loss, times of illness, and many more. No wonder the Book of Psalms is the most loved and widely read section of the Old Testament! One more superlative: Psalms are quoted and alluded to more often in the New Testament than any other part of the Hebrew Scriptures (at least 93 times). As we hear from Acts of the Apostles this Easter Season, we’ll hear many of those references — psalms apparently were a key part of early Christian preaching. For the quote today: “The stone rejected by the builder has become the cornerstone”? Straight out of Psalm 118. Jesus knew and prayed the psalms. When we pray them, we can pray them with Christ, and with Christians and Jews around the world. Awesome!

How is your spiritual life these days? Becoming more familiar with the variety, depth, spiritual and emotional richness of the psalms can be a great help to our spiritual life. Give Psalm 118 a try this week! (If it isn’t so familiar, use it in your prayer a number of days in a row, and watch how your praying it deepens and grows.)

The Bible Provides More Prayer
If you have attended a funeral recently, the conclusion of our 2nd reading today may sound familiar. We hear: “Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.” At funerals during the Eucharistic Prayer: “There we hope to enjoy forever the fullness of your glory, when you will wipe away every tear from our eyes. For seeing you, our God, as you are, we shall be like you for all the ages and praise you without end, through Christ our Lord, through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.” Spend a bit of prayer time with this reading, and with the excerpt from the Eucharistic Prayer. In the future, when you are grieving a loved one, these words will have much more power to penetrate your grief and touch your soul!

He Knew Ezekiel Too!
Jesus familiar with the psalms; the prophets were also part of his spiritual heritage. Recall Jesus teaching: “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things new and old.”? Jesus illustrated how to go about it, when he pulled from the 23rd psalm the image of the Good Shepherd, and then from Ezekiel, prophetic words about those shepherds who failed in the mission entrusted to them, and the promise that God himself would shepherd his people. The new treasure — the true Good Shepherd will lay down his life for the flock. Read chapter 34 of Ezekiel as you reflect on our Gospel for this week.

A Gospel Question
So, how connected are you feeling to the vine? How fruitful? Good reflection questions as we look ahead to next weekend!

Pastoral Care Team Meeting
Thursday, April 26
9:30 am Parish Meeting Hall

Please consider joining our team.
Have you always wanted to volunteer, but just didn’t have a lot of time? We have many events throughout the year so this is the perfect opportunity for you to volunteer for an event that fits your schedule and talents!

If you have any questions or concerns, please email Cathy Malik, Pastoral Associate for Pastoral Care at Catherine.Malik@dsor.org or call 586-5675, ext. 228, or email Peggy Midgley at pompomidgley@yahoo.com or call 383-8879. The meeting will last about one hour.

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT NOTRE DAME LEARNING CENTER

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ST. MICHAEL’S WOODSHOP

St. Michael’s Woodshop was founded in 1967 by Sister of Mercy Sr. Pat Flynn to teach the skill of woodworking while offering character building to Rochester urban students over the age of 14. Today under the direction of James Smith and several volunteer mentors, young people learn to be contributing members of their family and their community.

Located at 691 St. Paul St. in Rochester, the Woodshop refinishes furniture and makes picture frames for customers while filling orders from local businesses. It builds small free libraries to be placed around the city and bookshelves for the Rochester Area Literacy Program. Watch for sales of their craftsmanship held throughout our community.

St. Louis' Haiti Team is grateful to the Woodshop for handcrafting the beautiful crosses for our 37th annual Ornament Sale to benefit St. Damien Pediatric Hospital in Haiti, the monumental effort of parish friend Fr. Rick Frechette, Passionist priest and physician. Presently, they are designing a wood ornament for St. Louis’ 38th Annual Gifts of Love fundraiser.

Learn more about the Woodshop at stmichaelswoodshop.org. View a short video from the Catholic Courier at bit.ly/2H1KvlG.

To donate wood, tools, sandpaper or wood finishing products or to volunteer there, please call: parishioners Jack Cargill 385-4705 or Marcia Mendola, 381-6872.

Please hold in prayer all involved in this effective ministry.

“Catholic Perspectives on Modern Day Health Care” is the title of an upcoming conference jointly organized by the Catholic Medical Guilds of Rochester, Buffalo, and Syracuse. Featured speakers include Wesley J. Smith, JD; Anne Nolte, MD, and Fr. Robert McTeigue, SJ, PhD. This event is particularly relevant to Catholic physicians, nurses, attorneys, clergy, and is open to the general public. Timely issues that impact Catholic medical professionals will be discussed, including: physician-assisted suicide, conscience protections, moral courage in medical practice, and the threat of utilitarian bioethics. The day culminates with the White Mass for Medical Professionals celebrated by Rochester Bishop Salvatore R. Matano. Pre-Registration is required. CME/CEU Credits Available.

- Adopt a Grandparent at HH
- Serving Dinner for the Homeless
- Night at Seabreeze in July
- Monthly Movie Nights
- “Great Hunt” Scavenger Hunt
- ...TONS MORE!!!!!
St. Gianna Beretta Molla
Born into a large Catholic family in Italy, St. Gianna studied medicine and became a physician. She married Pietro Molla and they had three children: two girls and a boy. Their fourth pregnancy was so risky, an abortion was recommended. St. Gianna refused; she was willing even to die if her child could live. St. Gianna gave birth to a girl and died a week later. She is the patroness of mothers, physicians, and unborn children.

Choose forgiveness
When we have been hurt, forgiveness is the right choice we can make in response. It may not be the choice we want to make but the “Our Father” prayer Jesus gave us asks God to “forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.” Forgiving our wrongs is how we want God to treat us.

“Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord” (Colossians 3:20).

Faith Formation Family Zone

St. Louis Church

Raising good decision makers

At the root of every sin is a bad decision. Children’s inexperience and lack of perspective often leads to bad choices that get them into trouble. A well-formed conscience, accountability, and learning to make good choices are powerful ways to raise happy, healthy and holy decision makers.

Conscience is the ability to decide what is right or wrong. Basic ways to form a Catholic conscience include taking families to weekly Mass, regular Confession to a priest, making parish religious education classes a priority, and expecting and modeling Gospel-centered behavior at home.

Accountability is loving parents holding children responsible for their own decisions. When confronted by their bad behavior, youngsters may try to shift blame, refuse to acknowledge or follow rules, or attempt to avoid consequences. Set standards, give consequences, and follow through.

Good decision-making begins in childhood. The first step is to encourage children to stop and think before acting. A moment or two of hesitation can prevent sin. Next, teach them to ask “why am I about to make this choice?” Sin is a deliberate choice to disobey God. Choosing right takes practice and awareness.

Finally, asking “If I do this, what will happen?” can be a deterrent to sin. Even simpler, “Will this get me into trouble?” If the answer is “yes,” or even “maybe,” don’t do it.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday?

In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina Kowalska, a simple Polish nun, with his hand raised in blessing and two rays of light radiating from his heart – a red and a pale one. He told her to paint the vision with the words, “Jesus, I trust in you.” He also asked that the Sunday after Easter become the “Feast of Mercy,” and promised that anyone who approaches him as the King of Mercy would receive special graces and great mercy.

Defending the Faith
July 29-31, 2017
Standing for the Church with Boldness, Zeal, and Love
In a time when the faith and love of many of our fellow Catholics have grown cold, the Church needs modern missionaries committed to rebuilding the faith through knowledge and holy witness.

Applied Biblical Studies
July 26-28, 2017
The Book of Acts: How the Holy Spirit Leads the Church Through Hard Times
“The disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.” – Acts 13:52

A conference can revitalize your faith, clarify your questions, and provide an unforgettable time of fellowship. A group of St. Louis parishioners will be going to Steubenville, Ohio to hear some of the best Catholic presenters IN PERSON! To register, please contact Kathryn. By registering as part of our group you will save on your registration if we get 10 or more people! Opportunities for carpooling will be available.
