THE SPIRIT IS MOVING!

Throughout the Easter season, our scripture readings practically pulse with a sense of new life, new possibilities, Spirit-led growth. The orations at Mass echo that theme, giving voice to prayers that rejoice in what is possible in each of our lives, and in our life together. How is that playing out right here at St. Louis?

This weekend, there is great joy for our First Communicants and their families. Please share the joy, congratulate your favorite young one receiving the Lord for the first time, and pray that it will be the beginning of a wonderful journey with Jesus, a life enriched, guided, and fed through the sacraments. Next week, it will be our terrific Confirmation candidates who will take center stage, as we celebrate the Rite of Sending at the 5PM Mass. Confirmation will be May 12th at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Please pray for these young men and women and their families too. Even more, if you can help them put their newly understood and strengthened gifts to work in our community, please, jump to it! God bless all who assisted in both preparation for First Communion and our Confirmation program!!

Speaking of God-given gifts, using them, and making a difference in the world, this weekend is Good Shepherd Sunday, and World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In this Year of Consecrated Life, let’s give an extra push not only to praying for vocations, but to looking around at those in our community who are ready to begin contemplating a life’s vocation, or who are perhaps of an age that a seed planted might bear rich fruit. The question is so simple: have you ever thought of religious life? I could see you making such a contribution through that vocation. Have you ever thought of priesthood? Or, you seem to be a pretty prayerful person. Have you ever considered whether a religious community might be your calling? Bishop Matano will be with us this weekend at the 5PM Mass, no doubt encouraging vocations. We’ll greet him warmly before and after the Mass.

There are also new things bubbling up at our school. The PTO has a great event planned, Trek For Tech, May 29th at 6PM. This fun walk-a-thon will help raise funds to keep our school high-tech. It is also a great community builder. Included in the event is a barbecue catered by Sticky Lips. Feel free to bring lawn chairs to the playground area. A delicious barbecue, an Italian Ice truck from 7-8. I’m licking my lips already!

Did I say the Spirit is moving? The latest initiative for our school is really exciting. Having majored in science when I started my college career, I am thrilled to announce that next year we will be launching a STEM program at St. Louis School. Science, Technology Engineering and Math programs link the various disciplines, and are cutting edge in education. Watch the school page in the bulletin for more details. Alleluia! Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - May 3

Reading the Hymnal

While the melodies are not provided, even so, the book of Psalms is the song book of the Old Testament. Reading a hymnal must not be so bad – the book of Psalms is also the most loved and widely read section of the Old Testament. One more superlative: Psalms are quoted and alluded to more often in the New Testament than any other part of the Hebrew Scriptures (at least 93 times). That will be evident as we continue readings from the Acts of the Apostles this Easter Season. For the quote today: “The stone rejected by the builder has become the cornerstone”? Straight out of Psalm 118. Jesus knew and prayed the psalms; when we pray them, we can know these prayers were once prayed by Jesus during his time on earth. They continue to be prayed by his body, the church, throughout the world.

How is your spiritual life these days? Becoming more familiar with the variety, depth, spiritual and emotional richness of the psalms can be a great help to our spiritual life. Give Psalm 118 a try this week! (If it isn’t so familiar, use it in your prayer a number of days in a row, and watch how your praying it deepens and grows.)

More Material for the Missal

If you have attended a funeral recently, the conclusion of our 2nd reading today may sound familiar. From the reading today: “Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.” From the Roman Missal, Eucharistic Prayer III, (funeral insert): “There we hope to enjoy forever the fullness of your glory, when you will wipe away every tear from our eyes. For seeing you, our God, as you are, we shall be like you for all the ages and praise you without end, through Christ our Lord, through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.” Spend a bit of prayer time with this reading, and with the excerpt from the Eucharistic Prayer. In the future, when you are grieving a loved one, these words will have much more power to penetrate your grief and touch your soul!

Preparing for next weekend:
Fifth Sunday of Easter

He Knew Ezekiel Too!

Not only was Jesus familiar with the psalms; the prophets were also part of his spiritual heritage. Recall him teaching: “Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings out of his treasure things new and old.”? Jesus illustrated how to go about it, when he pulled from the 23rd psalm the image of the Good Shepherd, and then from Ezekiel, prophetic words about those shepherds who failed in the mission entrusted to them, and the promise that God himself would shepherd his people. The new treasure – the true Good Shepherd will lay down his life for the flock. Read chapter 34 of Ezekiel as you reflect on our Gospel for this week.

Welcoming Our Shepherd

At the 5:00 pm Mass this weekend, we welcome Bishop Matano, shepherd of our diocese. He will also be joining our school community and blessing our St. Louis School children on June 24, first thing in the morning at the closing Mass of the school year. Plan to come – greet Bishop Matano, and see why we are so proud of our school!!

A Gospel Question

So, how connected are you feeling to the vine? How fruitful? Good reflection questions as we look ahead to next weekend!

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND, APRIL 25 & 26

Many dioceses right here in the United States do not have enough priests and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place this weekend to support these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training. Please be generous in this Appeal and share your resources to strengthen the Church at home.

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT NATIVITY PREPARATORY ACADEMY

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ST. DAMIEN PEDIATRIC HOSPITAL-HAITI

Imagine yourself carrying your sick child all day to get to Golisano Children’s Hospital in Rochester. When you arrive, your child (now even sicker) is denied treatment because you have no money. In Haiti, 80% of the population lives on less than $2/day. St. Damien is Haiti’s only hospital where children can receive free medical care. It has the only Pediatric Oncology Department in the entire country. Poor sanitation causes 10% of children to die of diarrhea and pneumonia before their fifth birthday. Almost ½ of all the 5 year olds have stunted growth and brain development. After many other hospitals and clinics were destroyed in the 2010 earthquake, there was an overwhelming need for St. Damien to expand its services. Since then, the number of children treated at St. Damien has tripled; the need keeps increasing but funding and resources have diminished, increasing the risk of turning away sick children.

The main goals at St. Damien’s are to diminish child mortality, provide high-risk maternity care and combat HIV/AIDS. Its Community Outreach Programs and Outpatient Clinic serve 80,000 Haitians annually. The staff is now 100% Haitian, a benefit to the Haitian economy. Please pray for all those who serve and who are served at St. Damien and its community outreach. To learn more about NPH (formerly called Friends of the Orphans), St. Damien Pediatric Hospital, and Fr. Rick Frechette’s programs designed with goals of self-sufficiency for Haitians, please visit: www.nphusa.org/stdamien.

A Word from Our Stewardship Council

At our Stewardship meeting this month, one of the topics we discussed was mentoring. Many organizations establish this healthy pattern: someone serves as president or chair of the organization, while the vice-chair learns the ropes. Then, when the chairperson steps down, the vice-chair assumes the mantle, a new vice-chair is selected, and the process continues, providing stability and sustainability. In some cases, the past president also may assist, through continued mentoring. It is all part of succession planning, essential to the long term success of any group with a mission. This also helps encourage recruiting; continually bringing in new blood.

So our Stewardship Council encourages us all to pray. How can I contribute to the long term success of our various missions and ministries here at St. Louis? Have I been in a role for a long time, and should I step up efforts at recruiting, and prepare to do some mentoring? Have I stood on the sidelines? Is it time to step up and get involved? Maybe my gifts and talents are just the new blood needed to keep us growing and evolving. Is it time to share what I have learned in one capacity, by moving to another committee or ministry? This Easter season, as we move, Spirit-led, to Pentecost, is a great time to bring these questions to prayer!

TUTORS NEEDED!

The Saint’s Place Tutoring Program that meets on Thursdays at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Spirit is in need of 10 tutors. Our college tutors leave the beginning of May. The commitment is for 8 weeks (May 7 - June 18). We are located at 835 South Ave. near Highland Hospital. We tutor from 4:45p.m. - 6:00p.m. If you cannot make it every week, we can still use your help. Tutors are needed for 1 girl (5 yrs. old), 5 boys (7-12 yrs. old) and 3 adult women. We also need help in the PreK with 5 (3-5 year olds). Our tutors are high school students, college students, and adults. The experience is sure to enrich your life. If you can help, contact Geri Dolan at 278-8244 or gdola45@rochester.rr.com.

Handy Hands – Help Wanted

Before we put away all the Triduum supplies, we could use some help with two things:

- The curtains we use to transform the Meeting Hall into the Altar of Repose need to be shortened to fit the windows – For someone handy with sewing, this job would be a breeze!
- The cups that hold the individual candles for Easter Vigil need to be cleaned, to be ready for Christmas Eve – yes, that’s right. Someone who loves to clean and polish would find satisfaction in this job! It can be done here on campus or taken home.

Please call Sally at the Ministry Center (586-5675, ext. 235) or email sschrecker@dor.org for more info or to offer your time. Thank you.
PASTORAL CARE AND OUR PARISH FAMILY

INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

We become Christians by a process of conversion - metanoia - in Greek, which means literally “turning around”. Conversion is a process of turning from a life of selfishness and sin to a life of Spirit-filled generosity and love. The Sacraments of initiation, Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist are an ongoing invitation into this lifelong process of conversion.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, RCIA, is a process of our faith journey to become a Catholic. The Catholic perspective sees everything as being intrinsically created good. It honors the individual intellect and well-formed conscience and encourages members to use their minds to think things through. The Catholic Church educates its members to use their ability to reason and to apply laws of ethics and a natural moral law. Catholicism tries to integrate faith into all things.

Catholics are required to live a Christian life, pray daily, participate in the Sacraments, obey the moral law and accept the teachings of Christ and his Church. The RCIA is the process that assists you in your faith journey with Christ and the Catholic Church.

HERE ARE A FEW COMMENTS FROM THOSE WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED THE RCIA:

“I became Catholic because I believe the old adage that ‘a family that prays together, stays together’. It became increasingly important to me that I convert in order to participate fully in my family’s religious experience and that we worship together as a family.” —~ Natasha

“I entered the RCIA so I could grow in my faith and become a fully initiated Catholic. Through the RCIA my eyes have been opened to so many new things. The entire church has been immeasurably supportive and loving. It is truly an honor to be a part of this family.” —~ Honus

“I made the decision to become Catholic because I want to be a part of something bigger then myself and I feel this is the right decision for myself and my family. The RCIA process has been very helpful. We received wonderful resources, and it was enjoyable sharing thoughts about religion and life with others.” —~ Rachel

THE RCIA PROCESS AT ST. LOUIS IS YEAR ROUND AND WE:

• meet people where they are on their faith journey
• design a process of initiation that will work for them
• study together and at home

If you have been coming to the Catholic Church for years and have not become fully initiated we hope that this is the time to take that step. If you have not practiced a faith, we ask you to learn more about becoming Catholic. We are here to walk with you wherever you are on your faith journey.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT RCIA, PLEASE CONTACT CRIS WENSEL AT CWENSEL@DOR.ORG.

Norms for Words of Remembrance at Funerals in the Diocese of Rochester
Promulgated on May 20, 2012

As Catholics we believe the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of Christian life therefore, we are blessed with a funeral liturgy that is the Lord’s gift to us and a great source of consolation at the time of death. It is through the funeral liturgy the Church commends the dead to God’s merciful love.

While the opportunity to share one’s grief and memories is certainly part of the mourning process, these interactions more suitably take place among family and friends at the funeral home or reception where reminiscing and supportive, informal conversation occur.

The Words of Remembrance are not intended to be a eulogy and are optional and therefore not a requirement of the Order of Christian Funerals. To be faithful to and respectful of God’s gift of this most perfect prayer, the following guidelines for Words of Remembrance will be followed:

- The most appropriate time for Words of Remembrance is at the Vigil for the Deceased, commonly known as the wake.
- Eulogies (reminiscing and toasting speeches) are not permitted.
- One person only speaks in the name of all when the Words of Remembrance occur at the Funeral Mass or Funeral Liturgy outside Mass.
- Words of Remembrance are brief: no more than 3-4 minutes, one typed page.
- The Words of Remembrance are to be in good taste and respectful of the dignity of the liturgy.
- The Words of Remembrance are to be prepared beforehand and reviewed by the pastor of the church one day prior to the funeral.
- The Words of Remembrance are a reflection of God’s action in the life of the Deceased and how God’s blessings upon that person have enriched the world around them.
Dear Teens,

Christ calls us to serve one another. It is easy to become so busy that we forget about this call. We have opportunities every day to serve others in simple ways. We can serve our parents by being obedient and grateful. We can serve our friends and classmates by being loyal and supportive. We can serve a stranger through a small act of kindness.

Challenge yourself this week to serve others. And remember that through your actions, you are serving God.

Have a great week! Hope to see you on Sunday night!
Molly and Mr. McBride

THE ‘YEAR OF MERCY’:
WHAT SHALL WE DO??

Let’s talk put our heads, hearts and spirits together, May 7 at 7:00pm in the Parish Meeting Hall. Help us start planning now for this wonderful gift given to all by Pope Francis! Pope Francis announced the extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, to begin 7 months from now on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. It will end on the Solemnity of Christ the King, Nov. 20, 2016. Jubilee Years are rooted in the Mosaic law. Every fiftieth year was to be holy for the Jewish people. Debts were canceled, slaves freed, and lands restored to their “original owners.” This jubilee Holy Year of Mercy flows from Christ's command in Luke 6:36, “Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.”

Pope Francis said, “It’s a journey that starts with a spiritual conversion. I am convinced that the whole Church will find in this Jubilee the joy needed to rediscover and make fruitful the mercy of God, with which all of us are called to give consolation to every man and woman of our time. From this moment, we entrust this Holy Year to the Mother of Mercy, that she might turn her gaze upon us and watch over our journey.”

How shall we prepare, participate and celebrate this holy year? Let’s brainstorm on Thursday, May 7 at 7:00pm in the Parish Meeting Hall. This will be the first of several sessions. We need:

- all ministry groups, and you!
- ideas that will focus on parish, families, individuals and the larger community
- willingness to dedicate time, energy and follow-through to make ideas happen
- an open heart, open mind, collaborative spirit

For more information about this exciting opportunity to serve and honor Pope Francis, our parish, and especially our Lord and the Blessed Mother, contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org or 586-5675.
