Well Done!

Once again, thanks to so, so many people, Lent and Holy Week at St. Louis have been amazing! It can’t happen without having the church ready for each change of scene, Ash Wednesday through Easter; setting up the chapel of adoration, the gym for Easter, managing the traffic and parking challenges (thank you Sally, Jose, Laura, Darryl and volunteers and all who generously assisted you!) Planning and having schedules and ministers in place is also vital, and a huge undertaking (thank you Bea, Sue, Peggy, all the staff, and you who serve in ministries faithfully week after week!). Music adds a wonderful solemnity and beauty to our liturgical life here, with Lent and Holy Week being particularly demanding (thank you Stephanie, choirs, cantors, and all the musicians who added to our celebrations!). Providing the technological know how and time to make sure we have sound and video in church and gym, preparing our catechumens and candidates, the list goes on and on ... thank you all! Set up, clean up, making everyone feel welcome; planning, preparing so that everything unfolds like clockwork, even when the unexpected pops up: what a grace to see how everyone works together! Lent and Holy Week are not just for adults, but for all of us (thank you teachers, and young folks who provided living stations, beautiful art for the Stations, who lent a voice, served, and otherwise added to so much to the season!). Putting together Living Stations is a major undertaking. Yet both the fifth graders and the young folks in faith formation, together with the adults who guided and directed them, prepared so well you would never know all the work involved. We depend on our young people, on parents, on those who are retired. Just think what a gift our senior priests are, whom we celebrated this Saturday, and who added so much to Lent and Holy Week! A parish is truly a multi-generational affair. Well done, all, and many, many thanks!

The stewardship goes on, for we celebrate Easter for 50 days. With the Easter season comes Baptisms, Confirmation, 1st Communion; our sacramental celebrations blossom just like the trees and flowers that make Spring so beautiful. Much more to prepare, more ministries, more welcoming, more ways to let the light of Christ and the joy of the resurrection shine. Yet knowing what an incredible team we have here, staff and parishioners, I know nothing will stand in the way of being ‘overcome with paschal joy’. That phrase is not original with me; we’ll hear it regularly during the Preface of the Eucharistic Prayer throughout Easter. I hope and pray you are moved deeply by paschal joy throughout this holy season. Soak in the joy! Celebrate it with others. Let it spill into every part of your daily life. Think how you might share Easter joy with others, especially those who are desperate for some joy in their life. We have a great gift to share in the Risen Lord. Let’s do it! Peace, Fr. Bob

Holy Meal Time
The excerpt from the Acts of the Apostles today paints an idyllic picture of the early Christian community. We all know, people will be people; from Paul's letters, and elsewhere in Acts, it is clear challenges and conflicts did surface. Yet there is a ring of truth to 'They ate their meals in exultation and sincerity of heart.' What made meal times so blest? When they broke bread in their homes, they knew Jesus had risen, and was with them. They shared a sense of community, and communion. The humble way my grandmother used to put it: 'Food always tastes better with company.' Be sure to have some holy meals this Easter season!

Indescribable and Glorious Joy
Listening to our second reading, we have to know: this author has tasted a little slice of heaven. Read this passage slowly, several times, to let all that joy of the Gospel sink in. Even when speaking of trials, rather than communicating a sense of one being worn down, an expected impact of trials, the thought here concludes with praise, glory and honor. Lord, raise us to experience mercy, new birth and living hope!

Walking in Their Shoes
In his homily on Palm Sunday, Pope Francis recommended contemplating which character we might be in the Passion. That same spiritual exercise can apply to almost any Gospel. For instance, with this weekend's Gospel, we could step into the shoes of any one of the disciples huddled in fear on that first day of the week. What was going on inside before Jesus appeared? After he appeared? As he showed his hands and side? When he breathed on them, gave the Holy Spirit, and gave a mission? How did they react to Thomas's doubts? Did his honestly speaking his doubts, and his need for help to believe, lead them to a deeper understanding of their own journey from fear to joy and belief? We could also step into Thomas's shoes. Is that a stretch, or quite easy, actually? Notice how fear and doubt walk hand in hand. See too how hearing those reassuring words 'Peace be with you' has the power to change everything. Jesus says that to us at every Mass!

FOR LENT FOR LIFE

Thank you for participating in CRS Rice Bowl!

During the past six weeks, our parish community has prayed, fasted and given alms with a special focus on the poorest members of our global community. Our lives were touched by stories from Kenya, Guatemala, the Philippines, Malawi, Haiti, and the United States. Through our Lenten prayers and donations, we have touched the lives of millions of people served by Catholic Relief Services, your representative to the poorest communities in the world. To ensure that our donations will be put to use as soon as possible, please return your Rice Bowl by Sunday, April 27. Please make any checks payable to St. Louis Church. Please write “CRS Rice Bowl” in the memo line of the check. Your contributions can be placed in specially marked containers in church. Thank you for your generosity.

Many dioceses right here in the United States do not have enough priests and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place this weekend to support these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training. Please be generous in this Appeal and share your resources to strengthen the Church at home.

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday!

In 2000, Pope John Paul II (to be canonized today!) called for Divine Mercy Sunday to be added to the Church’s liturgical calendar. The readings on this Sunday are always about mercy, trust, and the forgiveness of sins. Jesus appeared to a young Polish nun, Sister Maria Faustina Kowalski (1905-1938), entrusting her with spreading the message of His Divine Mercy for us. In her diary, Sr. Faustina wrote that Jesus spoke to her of this day:

"On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. .... I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet" (Diary of St. Faustina, #699). There are free pamphlets at the entrances to St. Louis that provide more details and discuss the Divine Mercy Chaplet prayers that Sr. Faustina promoted at Jesus’ request.

Do you know who is playing the organ for the Cardinals at the Vatican today? Our very own Stephanie Honz!

Do We Need to See, to Believe?

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising; the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried. Thomas's human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are “blessed” because we believe without having seen.

Many of us can relate to Thomas's response to the news that the disciples had seen Jesus. We want to see for ourselves too, but we grow in faith, trusting the experience and knowledge of others.

Many of us have heard the saying “Seeing is believing.” As your family gathers, take some time to consider what that saying means. What are some things we believe because we see them? Is there anything we believe without seeing? Today's Gospel reminds us that faith sometimes asks us to believe things we cannot see with our eyes. Think about Thomas's response to the reports about the risen Lord. Is Thomas's doubt reasonable? How does Jesus respond to Thomas? Jesus grants Thomas the evidence that Thomas needs to believe, but Jesus also affirms the faith of those who will be called upon to believe without first-hand experience. We are among those whom Jesus calls blessed. Discuss with your family the basis of each member's faith in Jesus—the witness of the first disciples, the Gospels, the continuing activity of the Holy Spirit, the community of the Church.

Pray together that your faith in Jesus will be strong. Pray an act of faith together.
