Sitting with Elijah

Ancient Hebrew prophets like Elijah, Elisha, Jeremiah or Ezekiel can seem like strange characters, a world apart from us. Yet if we look beyond the attire, patterns of speech or other features from a different time and place, we may discover powerful spiritual guides, even soulmates. Connecting the dynamics of their experience with ours, they may be easier to relate to than we might ever guess.

Elijah’s showdown with the prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel can seem surreal, as can broom trees, hearth cakes and walking forty days and nights. But look at it this way. Elijah was dealing with a world that seemed upside down. Rather than being the shepherd he was called to be, King Ahab was anything but. Sin was rampant in Israel. Many of those who should have been guardians of truth were either looking the other way or in denial. Elijah did his best to call the question, but it sapped even his powerful spirit. So in today’s passage, he is bone tired and ready to throw in the towel. But God needed him to help restore the faith that was in jeopardy. Rather than withdraw, God needed him to walk the walk, and anoint new leaders.

Many people of good faith are just as worn down today, scandalized by the terrible failures of some of the leaders of the church, or the polarization in the political realm. In both cases truth and virtue can seem to be the biggest casualties. Who isn’t ready to voice with Elijah: “It is enough!” God let Elijah pour out his heart, listening with love. Then God sent an angel of encouragement: “Get up and eat.” Not once, but twice. God provided the food and water that would sustain Elijah, just as God had supplied his ancestors in the desert. The subtext: “don’t thrown in the towel. You’ve seen the face of sin, but you have also tasted grace. I have a journey for you to take, and I’ll be with you.”

I believe it is no accident that we are in the middle of John’s discourse on the bread of life these days. God can and wills to provide us with nourishment for the journey, to help us regain our strength. But the true food is neither manna nor hearth cakes, not water from the rock or a jug of water. It is the Eucharist, the ultimate gift, spiritual food – the gift of himself. With Elijah it is good to collapse under a tree and pour out our hearts to the Lord. Good to have faith the Lord will send an angel of encouragement, and once encouraged, perhaps we can be that angel for someone else. While history is filled with various horror stories of sin, we also have a great cloud of witnesses to spur us on. Lord, give us the grace! We see how risky it is to trust in humans. Helps us always center our trust in you! Peace to you, Fr. Bob

When Events Take a Toll
When hearing our first reading this weekend, the backstory is crucial. For years, Elijah had tried to pull King Ahab out of heresy, away from the corrupting influence of Queen Jezebel. At the same time, Jezebel was doing her best to wipe out the traditional worship of Yahweh, to replace it with her religion, worship of Baal. Just before today’s passage, Elijah had arranged the famous showdown on Mt Carmel with the false prophets of Baal. Though he succeeded in calling down fire, it appeared that he may have won the battle, but lost the war. Jezebel was infuriated, and committed to murdering Elijah. Bone weary, depressed, Elijah asks God to take his life. The struggle is too great. The answer to his prayer? God sends an angel, along with food and water to strengthen this great, but worn down man of God.

God still sends angels to provide encouragement, to help point to the hearth cake and jug of water, if you will, though most angels don’t have shining wings and flowing robes. Has an angel ever helped you find your way to strength and nourishment? Does God need you to be an angel for someone else this week? Spend some time with the Lord and talk it over!

The Great Banquet
Quoting Isaiah (25:6) to describe what we can find in our second reading this weekend seems right, given the first reading and the Gospel. “On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.” Read Ephesians 4:30-5:2 slowly, several times. Chew on it! How do we live in love (vs 5:2)? Check out the preceding verses!

Grumbling, Murmuring and Mercy
Last week, the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. God’s response: raining down bread from heaven and quail from the sky, to satisfy their hunger. This week in the Gospel, the Jews murmur against Jesus as he speaks of himself as the bread that came down from heaven. Jesus’s response: to provide scripture to help them understand, and then launch into the deepest teaching: how he is the living bread, which is not food for the day, but food for eternal life. Want a deeper understanding? Come to Bible Study, watch Presence on FORMED, or come to one of the many opportunities to gather with fellow parishioners and dig deeper into our faith!

Sister Regis Food Cupboard

The Sister Regis Food Cupboard was named for Sister Regis Straughn who started the food cupboard in 1965 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Woodward Street in Rochester. Several years ago the pantry, serving the Northeast neighborhood of Rochester for over 55 years, moved to its current location on Bay Street in the same building as Matthew’s Closet.

- The pantry serves approximately 963 households in a month. Many who come are receiving public assistance for the first time. Eligible clients can visit the Food Cupboard once a month on a walk-in-basis. Prospective clients must bring criteria such as identification cards for each family member, financial income information, etc., for proof of eligibility. The cupboard is open Monday & Tuesday from 12-3 pm and Thursday from 12-2 pm.

- Mercy Sister Julia Norton is the director of the Sister Regis Food Cupboard, and she very much appreciates our help to meet the needs of those experiencing tough times in Rochester. Thank you for your continued generosity and prayers for the clients and volunteers of the food cupboard.

To learn more of many volunteer opportunities such as stocking the shelves, or taking care of the clients, cleaning and doing the necessary business and secretarial work, contact Sister Julia at (585) 454-6766.

With Open Hands…

As the Body of Christ, we help each other out and hold each other up by joining our spiritual hands in prayer for one another. We can pray in the comfort and quiet of our own homes, privately in a public place or with the assembly of God’s people. Prayer is an activity open to people of all ages and all stations in life. There are truly no limits!

“With all prayer and supplication, pray at every opportunity in the Spirit.” [Ephesians 6:18]

We accept prayer requests, share them with only those in the network, and pray for each other, our loved ones and friends through the challenges of life. If you would like to participate in a prayer network for the needs and people of St. Louis Church, please call Cathy Malik in the Ministry Center at 585-586-5675.

The panel will consist of David Attridge of Recovery Now NY/Gates to Recovery, Chief Steve Clancy of East Rochester P.D., Marc Assini Town Supervisor of Gates, Craig Johnson of Huether Doyle, and Olinda Ford of Trillium just to name a few. After the forum everyone will be welcome to attend a Narcan Opioid Overdose Prevention Training and receive a free Narcan kit.

Faith formation is breathing in and service to others is breathing out.

Be sure to add both to your life to grow spiritually!
Show others the way to God

God has called all of us to follow him but we are also called to lead. Aiding another’s spiritual growth in simple ways can lead others to Christ.

Be on the watch. Ask God to reveal to you those who don’t know him. Record their names and commit to praying for them daily.

Go to Mass together. Inviting a friend or someone seeking a spiritual home to attend Sunday Mass with you is a great way to spend time together and show commitment to the faith.

Offer prayer cards. Promote prayer and a devotion to the saints by sending an occasional prayer card featuring a saint relevant to his or her life issues.

Build bridges. Spend time with those seeking God. Show them what a life with him looks like. Invite seekers to dinner, go for coffee, listen to their problems. In other words, be a friend.

Share his love. God’s love breaks down barriers and removes prejudices. Act with love toward others. A little kindness may open the door for the Gospel.

from Scripture

John 6:60-69, To whom shall we go?

This reading comes at the end of Jesus’ Bread of Life Discourse, in which he explained the meaning of the Eucharist. Jesus said that he is the Bread of Life. Unless we eat his flesh and drink his blood, we will not have eternal life. Many of his listeners left, horrified.

The Apostles were also shocked. The day before, enthusiastic crowds were ready to make Jesus king. Now they were running away and Jesus let them go. He understood that the truth is more important than popularity.

Jesus turned to the Apostles and asked if they wanted to leave, too. Peter, speaking for the group, replied, “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life” (John 6:68). They all recognized Jesus as the source of eternal life. They believed him, even though they didn’t fully understand him. Followers of Christ know that there is always hope even in times that appear hopeless. We remember Peter’s words: “Master... you have the words of eternal life.” With God, we all can have hope. He can bring us eternal life.

Q & A

Is it okay to tell a “white lie”?

The Eighth commandment directs us to tell the truth always (Exodus 20:16). While a “white lie” told to avoid hurting someone else’s feelings may seem harmless, telling lies is never acceptable. Here are some suggestions to help:

“Does this look good on me?” A dishonest “yes” creates the wrong impression in the wearer’s mind. Instead of brutal honesty—“You look fat!”—offer a truthful positive—“It’s a great color on you. This is a mental reservation,” and is better than lying.

That’s personal...“Questions about your personal life, family, and financials don’t require explanations. If the seeker has no right to know. A simple, “That’s personal,” should get the message across. This goes for seeking others’ personal information as well (CCC #2489).

Tell the truth with love. What is right and wrong is not decided by popular vote. Admonishing the sinner is actually a spiritual act of mercy. “Whoever fears the Lord directs his friendship aright, for as he is, so his neighbor [will be] also” (Jeremiah 6:17).

Feasts & Celebrations

Aug. 7 – St. Cajetan (1547). St. Cajetan worked to reform the Church by founding the Theatines, a religious order modeled on the teachings of the Apostles.

Aug. 11 – St. Clare of Assisi (1253). Born to a noble family in Assisi, Italy, St. Clare followed St. Francis of Assisi into poverty at age eighteen and founded a sister order to the Franciscans called, the “Poor Clares.”

Aug. 15 – Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (1950). Declared a dogma of our faith in 1950 by Pope Pius XII, the Assumption celebrates Mary’s being taken up into Heaven body and soul at the end of her life.

Aug. 24 – St. Bartholomew (1st Century). One of the Twelve Apostles and the son of Tolomaia, Bartholomew is thought by some scholars to be the Apostle Nathanael, who went with Philip to see Jesus. After Jesus’ ascension, he spread Christianity to India and in Armenia, where he was martyred. He is the patron saint of Armenia and Belgium, among other places.

STAND OUT FOR LIFE FIRST TIMERS!

“This was my first time participating in Stand Out for Life and it was a good experience. We prayed for the women, babies and the employees. I would encourage all members of the Body of Christ to unite and carry this cross together. Love WILL end abortion”

ECO FRIENDLY GIFT WRAPPING IDEAS

Ribbons and Bows

Instead of tying plastic, non-bio degradable ribbon on all your packages, decorate them with natural fiber raffia or yarn and instead of a bow, try dried flowers, feathers or buy pretty old broaches from thrift stores. If two out of three households conserved an arm’s length of ribbon, the amount saved could tie a bow around the earth!

How to Get Rid of Old Prescription Drugs

Flushing drugs may contaminate water, and tossing them in the trash may not be any safer.

Disposing of expired or partially used prescriptions in a safe responsible way protects our water sources from contamination but also keeps harmful and addictive drugs out of the hands of those who may want to abuse them.

CVS Pharmacy at 2100 Monroe Avenue in Brighton has a box by the pharmacy where you can leave your old prescriptions and they will safely dispose of them. (No liquids or needles)
