In the Kitchen

Sure, we can see a photograph of food plated in a restaurant, but is that ever the same as tasting it? We could even read the recipe. But doesn’t watching chefs at work on the Food Network give a much richer level of appreciation? And being in the kitchen with the chefs … now that clearly kicks it up a notch!

Reading books like What Happens At Mass or The Lamb’s Supper: The Mass as Heaven on Earth can clearly deepen our appreciation of the Eucharist. Realizing that we are an important ingredient, and how to go about entering into the celebration definitely kicks it up a notch. Another way to deepen your experience of the sacred mysteries? Get involved in one of the ministries. Whether assisting as altar server, proclaiming the Word, assisting in preparation as sacristan (liturgical assistant), leading sung prayer as a cantor, ushering – each is a way to get into the flow of the action in a deeper way. Interested? Please contact Bea Hack. Feel free to ask questions as well. Or if questions surface at home, don’t hesitate to e-mail Fr. Bob (ring@dor.org).

Hidden in the Details

Last week in the homily we looked at big picture items in the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Among things we didn’t get to: once bread and wine are placed on the altar, in preparing the wine, the priest or assisting deacon adds a few drops of water to the wine. Historically, wine was often heavy and strong, and frequently water was added before consuming. The custom came into the celebration of Mass. Over time, a prayer was added, to provide a spiritual meaning: “By the mystery of this water (us) and wine (Christ), may we share in Christ’s divinity, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.”

Ever hear grace prayed in a Jewish family? “Blessed are you, Lord Our God, King of the Universe, who brings forth bread from the earth.” Sound familiar? It should. This is the origin of the prayer as the gifts are prepared. By the way, these prayers can be either proclaimed aloud, or quietly. As with adding water to the wine, so washing the presider’s hands began as a practical matter, but a prayer was added, and the focus shifted to entering the sacred mystery with interior purity (that external/internal dynamic).

Just as the significance of folks bringing up the gifts may easily be lost, so too a crucial gesture before communion. The Communion Rite begins with the Our Father, and concludes with the Prayer after Communion. Of central importance: the Fraction Rite, or Breaking of the Bread. Jesus did it at the last supper, he was recognized at Emmaus through the gesture, and ‘the breaking of the bread’ became another name for the Eucharist. Breaking and then sharing bread is a powerful image of being in communion with one another, an experience with meaning in every culture. There is one additional mingling . . . check inside on page 3. ### Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6
The table of wisdom

2nd Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20
Psalms, hymns & spiritual songs

Gospel: John 6:51-58
Whoever eats this bread will live forever

Where Shall We Go For Dinner?
Wisdom literature in the Old Testament provides us with wonderful images. This weekend we encounter one. Wisdom is personified as Lady Wisdom, who sets a table providing us with rich nourishment: the meat of divine teaching, the wine of understanding and virtue. Our short passage this weekend is just part of the picture. Reading further, we would discover there is another choice. In contrast to what Lady Wisdom offers, Folly is the alternate hostess. Her banquet: stolen bread and the water of deceit and vice. One banquet leads to life, the other to death. A detail not to miss: Who does Lady Wisdom invite to the banquet? The simple, and those lacking understanding. Apparently, without a bit of humility, we may not get the invitation. Something to talk over with the Lord!

Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs
The second reading this weekend, from Ephesians, is also a wisdom instruction, contrasting foolishness and prudence. While the author counsels addressing one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, it is doubtful that he meant singing to one another at the breakfast table. When we sing the opening hymn at Mass, have you ever thought that joining in is a way to address those around us? The simple, and those lacking understanding. Apparently, without a bit of humility, we may not get the invitation. Something to talk over with the Lord!

The Real Presence
Becoming really familiar with chapter 6 in John’s Gospel would be time well spent. Not because we can use it to argue with those who don’t believe in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Rather, familiarity with this Biblical teaching can provide Biblical support if we wish simply to share what we believe and why. Have you ever shared with someone who is not Catholic what the Eucharist means to you? Or the sacraments? Pray about how you might go about it. Be prepared, so when the opportunity to share about your faith presents itself, you aren’t struggling to find words!

Preparing for next Sunday: Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b
We will serve the Lord

2nd Reading: Ephesians 5:21-32
We are members of His body

Gospel: John 6:60-69
Master, to whom shall we go?

St. Augustine Said What?
So now, if you want to understand the body of Christ, listen to the Apostle Paul speaking to the faithful: "You are the body of Christ, member for member." [1 Cor. 12.27] If you, therefore, are Christ's body and members, it is your own mystery that is placed on the Lord's table! It is your own mystery that you are receiving! You are saying "Amen" to what you are: your response is a personal signature, affirming your faith. When you hear "The body of Christ," you reply "Amen."

Parish Library
Tuesday, August 18 at 7PM at the Ministry Center, we’ll be having our first meeting about organizing a parish library. Interested? We'll see you then!

A Subtle Sign of Unity
In the second century, a custom developed in Rome of the Pope sending some hosts he consecrated to churches around the city. Later that day, when priests celebrated Mass, they would break a particle off and add it to the chalice, expressing Eucharistic communion with the Bishop of Rome. With time this grew impractical, but the practice of adding a particle of the host to the chalice perdured, becoming a different sign of unity; uniting the Body and Blood of Christ. May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it. See any connection to our Gospel today?

Pastoral Care Needs Your Help!

We are in need of volunteers willing to give one hour each month to provide Sunday communion services at two of our local assisted living facilities. Each Sunday, parishioners from St. Louis provide a short communion service at The Highlands of Pittsford and Heather Heights. Here is what you are asked to do:

- Pray with residents
- Read Sunday scripture
- Share a brief reflection on those readings
- Distribute the Eucharist to those in attendance

Training and shadowing are provided. Readings and reflection material is also provided. The services are at 10:30 am on Sundays. If we have the help of just a few more individuals or couples, we may be able to schedule you for once every 6 weeks. For more information please contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org or call the Ministry Center, 586-5675, ext. 224.

Dear Fr. Ring and St. Louis Parishioners,

Thank you so much for your generous gift of $1,000.00. Your kindness will allow us to provide safe, decent housing for hundreds of women and children in our community this summer, along with the counseling and life skills training these families will need to be successful in their new homes. As you know, Sojourner House at PathStone is much more than just a shelter for our families - for them, it is a resource center, a safe haven, and a fresh start. Thank you for believing in the Sojourner House women and children. Thank you for giving them the chance to work through the issues that caused their homelessness and take control of their lives. Because of your compassion, these women are not just getting by - they are following their dreams, from becoming a full-time chef, to earning a college degree, to being a sober mom for their kids.

With your contribution, you share in the success of each woman and child, and you ensure that families in crisis will always have a safe, nurturing place where they can receive the support that they need.

On behalf of the entire Sojourner House family, thank you for your support!

Sincerely, Beth MacAller, Executive Director

HELPING OTHERS AFTER A TIME OF LOSS
THURSDAY, AUGUST 27TH @ 7:00PM, MINISTRY CENTER
St. Louis often has the honor and privilege of celebrating funeral liturgies. It is usually a very busy time for families from the time of death until the celebration of the funeral Mass. Arrangements have to made, guests welcomed, and the energy it takes just to get through the next day can be overwhelming. But what happens after the funeral can be just as overwhelming. All the work of the funeral is complete, the guests have returned home and family is left to carry on. The time after the funeral is probably one of the loneliest times for individuals and families who have lost a loved one. St. Louis wants to assist them through this most difficult time.

We currently have an active Women’s Bereavement Group starting in September and have interest in supporting the start-up of a men’s group. If you are interested in helping to support either group, you are invited to join us. We will be reviewing the first women’s group program and planning for the start of the September women’s group.

On Thursday, August 27 @ 7:00PM in the Ministry Center there will be a gathering for those who may be interested in this type of ministry. Hope you can come! Cris

Deadline Monday, August 17

2015-2016 REGISTRATION FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND SACRAMENT PROGRAMS

The deadline for Faith Formation has passed as of August 1st. The date can only be extended one more week as we need to place orders with our vendors. Please have all registrations in by this Monday, August 17 if you wish to have your child/teen enrolled in our programs this year. Please keep in mind that all children/teens need one year prior of Faith Formation to register and prepare for sacramental preparation.

In order to be good stewards of your money, it is helpful to have all registration information in so we can place our orders at once due to the high cost of shipping. I realize that families are away this summer, but please be sure to get your form to me by August 17.

If you have any questions please contact Michelle Andrews-Smith at 586-5675 (Ext. 233) or email mandrews-smith@dor.org.

Registration forms were distributed through your child’s program on their last day of class and are available at the Faith Formation bulletin board in the Narthex hallway and at the Ministry Center.

THE MYSTERY OF MERCY
Recall last Sunday’s homily? The word mystery has a rich meaning when we use it to refer to a sacrament. In the sacrament of reconciliation, the visible and audible part, the concrete matter may be a priest and a penitent, along with words of confession, an act of contrition, and words of forgiveness. The hidden part? Divine mercy, healing, forgiveness and peace. Mark your calendar now for Monday, August 31 at 7:00 PM in the church. Prepare for the Year of Mercy by coming to reflect on the incredible sacrament of reconciliation.

May He grant you joy of heart
and may peace abide among you.

St. Louis Council
Knights of Columbus

The Officers of the St Louis Council Knights of Columbus were installed by District Deputy Anthony Angotti on Saturday, July 25. We had the great honor of having our own Supreme Director, Art Harris install our Grand Knight, Rick Whelehan. Father Bob did the blessing for the officers and stayed for our picnic. "Thank you Fr. Bob!" It was great having you there. Our former District Deputy Bill Stewart and his wife Christa joined us for both events.

Our invited guests and all our families enjoyed the pot luck picnic. Our Grand Knight grilled the hot dogs and hamburgers. A wonderful time was had by all. We will have pictures posted on our bulletin board soon.

Joseph DiPrima was honored as the Knight of the Year for his hard work on membership; Michael Savka and his family were honored as the Family of the Year for his dedication to family and the Knights. Our Grand Knight, Rick Whelehan presented the honors which are for 2015-2016. Both Joseph and Michael have been true Knights of Columbus.

On Saturday and Sunday September 26 and 27, the Council will hold our C & B drive after all Masses. This is our Charity by the State Council that goes to help the Diocese as well as Seminarians.

Our next Council meeting is on Monday August 24, in the Parish Meeting Hall.
We will begin with the Rosary at 6:45 PM and the business meeting will follow at 7:00 PM. Our monthly meeting date was changed because all the Officers will be attending a meeting with the State Membership Director on August 17 at St Joseph’s Council in Penfield. (This change was just for August.)

Our Business meeting agenda will consist of our C & B sales, schedule of events for the coming year, Saint’s Place, and miscellaneous business.

Please contact one of the members, or our Worthy Grand Knight, and come and Join us! Any Questions? Grand Knight Richard Whelehan can be reached at 585-797-4638 or wheels282@rochester.rr.com.
Saint’s Place and Fr. Bob are pleased to announce that Sandy Moore has joined the Saint’s Place staff as Financial/Administrative Coordinator. She is replacing John Lynch who will retire on August 15.

Final numbers for the sale are almost ready, but it appears we made about $77,000+. A little short of our ambitious goal, but we are very pleased.

During August and September we are anticipating the arrival of 200 new refugees from all corners of the world. Saint’s Place has welcomed its first Syrian refugees. A family of six, including an 84 year old grandmother. They are a delightful family. So grateful to be in the United States. The family values education and is looking forward to have their three children resume their studies which have been disrupted because of the war.

Saint’s Place will be starting a new tutoring program in the fall at St. Marianne Cope Parish, the Guardian Angel Church on East Henrietta Road. This program, which will be directed by Lisa Magguilli and Karen Mawn, will be held on Tuesday evenings from 5:00 - 6:00PM. More details to follow. The program is scheduled to start on Tuesday, September 22.

Saint’s Place is no longer accepting books for adults. We do not have the storage space to save them for our Annual Super Sale and the refugees do not need them. We will continue to accept children books.

“YOU” Can Make A Difference - Volunteer - as the summer begins to fade away and our thoughts turn to fall, school and other activities, please consider sharing your time and talents with Saint’s Place. We always need volunteers.

The Historic Gate Houses at Holy Sepulchre

In the shadows of downtown, important milestones are represented at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. No matter where you turn, this history of the people that made our city surrounds you. It is an everlasting example of the ‘garden’ cemetery that was envisioned by Rochester’s first Bishop, Bernard McQuaid in 1871 when the cemetery was founded.

Holy Sepulchre has restored the historic gate houses that greet visitors to the east side of the cemetery. Originally built as waiting areas for the Rochester trolley line, these gate houses are now available for various uses that are beneficial to our community.

The gate houses may be reserved for receptions following funerals, parish meetings or retreats, non-profit meetings and gatherings, and other community events. They can accommodate 25 in each building, and these picturesque buildings are heated and air-conditioned for visitor comfort, and can be reserved individually or together. They are also equipped with state of the art technology including wireless internet. For information, call 585-458-4110, or go to www.holysepulchre.org

In Lieu of Flowers

Are you in the habit of reading obituaries? Wouldn’t it be nice to see: “In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Louis Church, (or Saint’s Place, or St. Louis School)?”

A Lasting Memory

Our Gospels for the next few weeks will lead us deeper and deeper into the mystery of the Eucharist, the bread of life and the cup of salvation. This Fall we hope to replace our breakable communion ware with ciboria and chalices befitting the preciousness of the gifts they hold, the Body and Blood of Christ (and in keeping with the General Instruction on the Roman Missal). If you would like to contribute a communion cup or ciboria in memory of a loved one, please contact Bea Hack, bhack@dor.org or Birdie Proctor, bproctor@dor.org.

You only take with you what you have given away!
