Where Shall We Go For Dinner?

Wisdom literature in the Old Testament (that is Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, Wisdom & Sirach) provides us with wonderful images. This weekend we encounter one. Wisdom is personified as Lady Wisdom, who sets a table providing us with rich nourishment: the meat of divine teaching, the wine of understanding and virtue. Our short passage this weekend is just part of the picture. Reading further, we would discover there is another choice. In contrast to what Lady Wisdom offers, Folly is the alternate hostess. Her banquet: stolen bread and the water of deceit and vice. One banquet leads to life, the other to death. A detail not to miss: Who does Lady Wisdom invite to the banquet? The simple, and those lacking understanding. Apparently, without a bit of humility, we may not miss place or ignore the invitation. Something to talk over with the Lord!

Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs

The second reading this weekend, from Ephesians, is also a wisdom instruction, contrasting foolishness and prudence. While the author counsels addressing one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, it is doubtful that he meant singing to one another at the breakfast table. When we sing the opening hymn at Mass, have you ever thought that joining in is a way to address those around us? Perhaps we should. As the cantor sings the refrain of the responsorial song, and we echo it back, have you ever considered that we are addressing one another? This passage invites us to ask the question, and points to an answer. When we sing a hymn at Mass, try considering it as a way of worship God, praying, but also addressing those around you. How could that change your focus?

The Real Presence

Becoming truly familiar with chapter 6 in John’s Gospel would be time extremely well spent. Not because we can use it to argue with those who don’t believe in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Rather, familiarity with this Biblical teaching can provide Biblical support if we wish simply to share what we believe and why. Have you ever shared with someone who is not Catholic what the Eucharist means to you? Or the sacraments? Pray about how you might go about it, so when the opportunity presents itself, you aren’t struggling for words. Better yet, sign up for Christ Life and learn how while also making new friends and forming and nurturing a life-giving relationship with Jesus.

St. Augustine Said What?

So now, if you want to understand the body of Christ, listen to the Apostle Paul speaking to the faithful: "You are the body of Christ, member for member." [1 Cor. 12:27] If you, therefore, are Christ's body and members, it is your own mystery that is placed on the Lord's table! It is your own mystery that you are receiving! You are saying "Amen" to what you are: your response is a personal signature, affirming your faith. When you hear "The body of Christ", you reply "Amen." Be a member of Christ's body, then, so that your "Amen" may ring true! St. Augustine on the nature of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, sermon 272.

St. Louis Knights of Columbus

Next Meeting: Monday, August 20, Parish Meeting Hall

The Knights of Columbus had an Installation of Officers in July for the newly elected officers.

It is great to be a part of an organization that is strong in our church and community.

Offerings and Gifts

Taking up the collection (thank you, ushers, for your faithful service each week!!) and bringing up the gifts isn’t just something we have to do, or a “down time” in the celebration — it is a spiritual part of the mystery of the Eucharist. Our offerings give Christ something to work with. Think about it.

Here is what the Bishops at the Second Vatican Council had to say regarding the offering of the laity: “Their work, prayers and apostolic endeavors, their ordinary married and family life, their daily labor, their mental and physical relaxation … all these become spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. During the celebration of the Eucharist these sacrifices are most lovingly offered to the Father along with the Lord’s body. Thus as worshipers whose every deed is holy, the lay faithful consecrate the world itself to God.” Lumen Gentium 34

CYO Basketball Seeks Players From Grade 3 to 12!
St. Louis has a terrific program for youth in grades 3 through 12 for boys and girls. The CYO Basketball Program starts in October and runs into February. It is a program whereby teams will play other parishes throughout the Diocese. This is a program primarily for parishioners and St. Louis School families. Non-parishioners are allowed to play when the need arises to round out a team, and may make up only 1/3 of a team’s roster.

Games will be on Saturdays and Sundays (dates and teams TBD).

Our philosophy is to learn the game, teamwork, sportsmanship, as well as have fun. There are no cuts as everyone has an equal opportunity to enjoy being involved.

We need coaches, managers, team parents & volunteers to work with the young people as well as help in the administration of the program. Please contact the Faith Formation office at pslouisff@dor.org if you would like to become involved in this exciting ministry.

Philosophy
Our philosophy at St. Louis is that athletics and recreation are important to the well-being of the person. Sports and competition can help us to grow into a better person, but we must always put people before competition. We do not have any team that requires making cuts or limiting the participation of many in favor of the few. We recognize the competitive world our young people are raised in, and we believe that our Church must be a safe haven where kids and youth are free to play and enjoy, and where families can refresh.

It is with great pleasure that our parish provides constructive opportunities that lead to positive youth development through CYO Athletics. It is our mission to provide a program that emphasizes the proper ideas of ethical conduct and sportsmanship. We want to offer all children in the parish and school the opportunity to develop their spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being as a team player. We emphasize that an athletic event is "just a game" and we provide coaches and adult role models who instill the proper respect, courtesy, and leadership that our young people need and deserve.

Together, the parish, young St. Louis players, and all our generous volunteers will work together to build a program we are proud of and is worthy of the St. Louis name!!!
Not to be Missed!

Parishioners Growing in the Faith

These are some of the St. Louis parishioners who attended the faith formation conferences this July at Franciscan University at Steubenville.

We were inspired, learned so much about our faith, had fun, and met great people from around the world there.

“The best part of the Steubenville Conference “Defending the Faith” was the flawless presentations of the nationally known Catholic speakers.

The immediate positive impact will be on our relationship to St Louis Parish and to personal prayer in our daily lives.

Would we go to the Steubenville Conference again? We can’t wait for the 2019 online registration!”

—Carol and Mike Giglia

“One of the things we like most about attending the Steubenville conferences are the incredible speakers. They are engaging, inspiring, humorous, captivating, moving and completely entertaining. You absolutely can not leave without having been impacted.”

What is it like to volunteer in the Gift Garden?

Pieter Werner came to our parish a few weeks ago, fresh out of RIT and eager to volunteer. It turned out that the Gift Garden, located behind Church of the Transfiguration, was a great fit. The garden is a work of love, and everyone can join in, coming once or committing to regular days.

There are the usual tasks of weeding and watering and harvesting as well as washing the vegetables to prepare them for donation. Each year the Gift Garden supplies up to a ton of fresh, organically grown vegetables to: Pittsford Food Cupboard, Blessed Sacrament Meal Program, and St. Joseph’s House of Hospitality.

I arranged to meet Pieter there one evening last week and found him peacefully weeding, surrounded by the sounds of birds, with another woman harvesting peppers close by.

I asked him some details about his experience as a new volunteer there. He told me that there are two people who oversee the garden and once you arrange your visit, they will meet you at the garden gate, assign you a task and help you with anything you are not sure about. Garden hours for volunteers are Thursdays and Saturdays at 9:00 a.m. and Sundays and Tuesdays at 7:00 pm. He said “It’s nice to give back to others, something that is often taken for granted”

If you would like more information on working in the Gift Garden contact: Terry Jahnke at terry.jahnke24@gmail.com (585-381-9826) or Diana Hamann at kwhamann@rochester.rr.com.
