WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE CARE OF CREATION

The created world is a gift. As children of God, we are called to be stewards of the rich, natural heritage that surrounds us. Pope Francis has declared September 1st the “World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation” and invites us to be the guardians of God’s great handiwork!

Chief of Staff

We don’t know much about Shebna, the master of the palace, except that he was probably a chief cabinet minister for King Hezekiah. One likely responsibility was controlling access to the king. (the key of the House of David). He proved untrustworthy, and had to be removed from office, replaced by someone honest, reliable, with the king’s and the nation’s best interest at heart. It isn’t hard to see why this reading was chosen to precede today’s Gospel. Read this scripture, then the Gospel. Fathers of the Church and theologians recognize the unfolding of God’s plan when they read Isaiah’s prophecy, and then look at our passage from Matthew. The keys of the House of David were a sign of controlling access to the temporal sovereign. When fulfilling the Kingdom of David by ushering in the Kingdom of God, Jesus entrusts keys to the kingdom to Peter. Authority to bind and loose is a development of the authority to open and to shut we see in Isaiah. The power of the keys designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after his Resurrection: "Feed my sheep." The power to "bind and loose" connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgements, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom he specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom.

What About Those Keys?

Remember Jesus’ critique of those who ‘bind heavy burdens and lay them on men’s shoulders, but they are unwilling to move a finger to budge them’? Pharisees claimed the power to bind and loose – the power to interpret the law. Was a person restricted by a particular law (bound) or not (loosed)? Was a particular action forbidden or permitted? A day could be ‘bound’ by declaring it a fast day.

A sharper focus, the power to forgive sins, comes into view in light of Jesus’ critique noted above, and his Pentecost declaration: ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven then, whose sins you retain are retained.’ Pulling it all together, the Catechism teaches:

553: Jesus entrusted a specific authority to Peter: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. The "power of the keys" designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after his Resurrection:" Feed my sheep." The power to "bind and loose" connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgements, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom he specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom.

More on Isaiah

What is housed in the Shrine of the Book in the Israel Museum, has been dated to around 150 -100 BC, and is about 24 feet long? The Great Isaiah Scroll, one of the first Dead Sea scrolls discovered by Bedouin shepherds in 1947. It is the oldest complete copy of the Book of Isaiah known, 1,000 years older than the oldest manuscripts prior to its discovery. Traditionally, all 66 chapters of the book of Isaiah were viewed as written by one man, Isaiah – possibly in two periods between 740 BCE and c. 686 BCE, separated by approximately 15 years. Many scholars now would see the first half of the book (chapters 1–39) as originating with oracles of the historical prophet, interspersed with prose commentaries from the time of King Josiah a hundred years later. The remainder of the book is seen as dating from immediately before and immediately after the end of the exile in Babylon, almost two centuries after the time of the original prophet. But at any rate, it is clear now that before 100 BC, the anthology was considered a unified composition.

Saint’s Place Tutoring Program Orientation

The Saint’s Place Tutoring Program for legal refugees will begin tutoring for the 2017-2018 school year on Monday, September 11th at 4:45p.m. at the old Guardian Angels School which is now part of the Marianne Cope tri-parish at 2061 E. Henrietta Rd. The Thursday program will begin at 4:45 p.m. at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Spirit at 835 South Avenue, Rochester on September 14th. Both programs end at 6:00 p.m.

There will be an orientation and training session at the St. Louis Parish Meeting Hall beginning at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday September 7th. The Orientation is mandatory for new tutors and optional for returning tutors. There is always something new to learn and a refresher is often beneficial. Our returning tutors always have helpful insights to add that benefit both our old and new tutors. Teens, college students and adults of any age are welcome to tutor. Orientation lasts about one hour followed by pizza and refreshments.

This experience will enrich your life as well as your students!

If you have any questions, please contact Geri Dolan at gdola45@rochester.rr.com or 278-8244.

I would like an R.S.V.P. as to whether you will be attending the orientation to plan for materials and food. Thank you, Gerry

In Her Own Words . . .

Did you read last weekend’s article about Children’s Liturgy of the Word beginning this September? I have been doing Children’s Liturgy of the Word for a long time and I still love it! I love working with the precious children and I love the preparation because I spend days mulling over the readings and looking up commentaries on them. (Sometimes I go to the Tuesday morning Sunday’s Scriptures – which is a wonderful group that explores the readings for the coming Sunday. I highly recommend this session!) FOCUS also has video commentaries on the readings. Doing Children’s Liturgy has really enriched my appreciation of the Sunday readings. I find myself reflecting about themes and teachings to a much greater extent than is necessary for little children. Then I work on focusing on one simple part of the gospel and making it come alive for the children. It’s a wonderful challenge! And no matter how much you plan, the children will always delight you with their comments, insights, questions, and prayer requests! If you think you might want to become a Children’s Liturgy of the Word leader or helper, contact me at Chrissy Carpenter (755-4747-cell) or wmc1952@aol.com.

Give Me More!

The homily, a paragraph or two in the bulletin – want to get even more out of the Sunday readings? Start the day a little earlier, and come on Tuesday mornings, 7:30 AM to the Parish Meeting Hall for Bible study and scripture sharing. Look back at what you heard Sunday, and prepare for the next weekend’s message. No prior experience required, just hunger for the Word.

TEMPORARY DONATION SCHEDULE

Due to the ongoing Executive Ban affecting the entrance of refugees into the United States, Saint’s Place is no longer accepting donations on Fridays, Saturdays or Sundays. In an attempt to manage the overwhelming amount of donations we receive, combined with the declining number of refugees we assist, until further notice, no donations can be accepted on the weekends. We are sorry for the inconvenience.

Please know that we are continuing assisting refugees already settled in Rochester to rise above poverty.

Donations will be accepted Mondays through Thursdays from 8AM – 4PM. At this time we do not need sofas, bookcases, desks, entertainment centers or China cabinets.

We do need kitchen tables and chairs, small dressers, end tables, nightstands and coffee tables.

Thank you for your understanding.

We pray this is a very temporary situation and that refugees will again be able to enter the United States. When that happens, Saint’s Place will be here ready to welcome them.
