Prayer of Pope Francis for the Jubilee Year of Mercy

Lord Jesus Christ,
you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father,
and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.
Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money;
the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things;
made Peter weep after his betrayal,
and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.
Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us,
the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman:
“If you knew the gift of God?”
You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy:
let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.
You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error:
let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.
Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm, may bring good news to the poor, proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind.
We ask this of you, Lord Jesus, through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.
Amen.

Sunday Communion Service - December 20
The Highlands: Pete & Gerry Shea    Heather Heights: Mary Ann Monley
An Oracle of Salvation

Oracles were at the heart of the mission of the prophets. Simply put, an oracle is a message from God, spoken by the prophet. In the Old Testament we find 3 major types of oracles, oracles of judgement, warnings and admonitions, and oracles of salvation. Some oracles of judgement are against Israel’s enemies, ‘oracles against the nations’. Some are judgement upon Israel or Judah. In either case, the die is cast. Admonitions warn about the consequence of the failure to repent, and call for repentance; the disaster can be avoided. While much of Zephaniah is dark, with threat of impending disaster, today’s passage is tremendously hopeful, an oracle of salvation. What an image! “God will rejoice over you with gladness, renew you in his love, sing joyfully because of you…” But remember, ‘you’ is not about one individual, it is about daughter Zion, the entire nation. Fast forward to today, God doesn’t pull one of us out of the congregation and start to dance, God rejoices over us all, over a community. Try thinking about the people who sit around you, and the whole congregation that prays with you at Mass. Now envision God singing with joy over the whole assembly!

An Antidote to Anxiety

If you are carrying particularly onerous burdens, if cares are weighing you down, and anxiety has the upper hand, the bubbly passage we hear from St. Paul today may be tough to take. But Paul was no Pollyanna. He experienced incredible hardships, attacks, beatings, sufferings, and was well aware of the hardships others had to endure. But he also knew a powerful antidote to anxiety: prayer, petition and thanksgiving. Bring our concerns to the Lord, give thanks for as much as we can, and rejoice as best we can in God’s blessings and goodness. Then, as Paul points out, the peace of God will guard our hearts and minds. Kindness is another antidote to anxiety. And when our kindness can be seen by others, it helps lift some of their anxiety too.

Keep It Simple

Reread our Gospel for today. Picture John the Baptist, the rugged, rustic prophet, preaching and baptizing. Given the impact he was having, those seeking advice on how to be saved may well have been looking for something really deep. He keeps it amazingly simple! If you have more than you need, share with people who don’t have enough. Be honest. Don’t be greedy or cheat. Be content. Simple goodness! Notice, it is never “What should I do?” it’s “What should we do”. So now picture you and some friends approaching John. Ask “What should we do”. In prayer, try to discover his response.

Ending the Year Well

We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis of Pittsford, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany - it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Birdie Proctor at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2015 will need to be received by December 31, 2015.

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT SAINT MICHAEL’S WOODSHOP

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT SISTER REGIS FOOD CUPBOARD

The Sister Regis Food Cupboard was named for Sister Regis Straughn who started the food cupboard in 1965 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Woodward Street in Rochester. Several years ago the pantry, serving the Northeast neighborhood of Rochester for over 55 years, moved to its current location on Bay Street in the same building as Matthew’s Closet. Our own Fr. Ray Booth was a good friend of Sister Regis; both served at Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish for many years. In March of 2011, a fire devastated the food pantry but they came back stronger than ever with the help of many people and organizations in the community.

- The pantry serves approximately 963 households in a month. Many who come are receiving public assistance for the first time. Eligible clients can visit the Food Cupboard once a month on a walk-in basis. Prospective clients must bring criteria such as identification cards for each family member, financial income information, etc., for proof of eligibility. The cupboard is open Monday & Tuesday from 12-3 pm and Thursday from 12-2 pm.

- Mercy Sister Julia Norton is the director of the Sister Regis Food Cupboard, and she very much appreciates our help to meet the needs of those experiencing tough times in Rochester. Thank you for your continued generosity and prayers for the clients and volunteers of the food cupboard.

To learn more of many volunteer opportunities such as stocking the shelves, taking care of the clients, cleaning and doing the necessary business and secretarial work, contact Sr. Julia at (585) 454-6766. If you would like to assist with delivering the food collected at St. Louis for the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard, please contact Christine Wensel, Pastoral Associate, at the Ministry Center: (585) 586-5675, ext. 224 or cwensel@dor.org.

Our Gift to the Lord

Returning to the Lord with increase from the many gifts we have been given can take many forms. Each Sunday, grateful that the Lord has given us another week of life and health, we come together at Mass to give thanks. Knowing the Lord has given material well being, we contribute to our parish. Aware of strengths for ministry God has given, we find ways to offer our time and talents in service. Advent is a great time to ask the Lord “What should I do?” Should I be a bit more supportive of my parish community? Is it time to register, and make St. Louis my church home? Is it time to check out what is happening, and to come to something in addition to coming to Mass? What about getting involved in some way? Opportunities abound! For choosing St. Louis as the place you believe, belong, and return to the Lord with increase from God’s goodness to you, THANK YOU!
ST. LOUIS Eucharistic Adoration – Q&A

Q. “I visited the chapel, and found it very spiritually uplifting. I’ve been thinking about signing up, but my personal schedule is too busy between work and family commitments. Do I really need to commit to an hour at adoration each week?”

A. That is great that you found it spiritually uplifting – many, many others do also! There are several solutions to your question. Whatever you decide, however, if you feel that your personal schedule is too busy at this time, maybe you truly need that prayerful break away from the busyness of your life.

- Perhaps you could find a family member or friend who could take turns with you or fill in for you when needed.
- If it is an occasional absence, we could find a substitute for those times you cannot make it (with sufficient notice).
- Another option – consider adding your name to the substitute list, with days and times that you might be available.
- Maybe you could think of yet another solution.

During Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, the Real Presence of Our Lord is generally available to adorers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The formation of a St. Louis adoration group has begun and sign-ups are on-going. St. Louis adorers are sharing the side chapel at St. John of Rochester (which presently offers Perpetual Adoration), alongside the St. John's adorers. Adorers can commit to a specific hour each week to be with Our Lord, or be available as a substitute, if needed. Also, everyone is invited to stop in at any time, day or night, even for just a few minutes.

If you have a general question about Adoration, would you like to pray in this way, or would like to know more about St. Louis’s adoration at St. John’s, please see Deacon Dave, or contact him at 1deacondave@gmail.com, or Barb Snyder at twosnyders@gmail.com. You may also fill out one of the yellow sign-up cards located in the church pews and leave it with an usher or at the parish office.

Have you noticed the Angel Trees?

There are still many Angels on the trees. Please consider taking one or two Angels. A simple act of kindness, like purchasing a gift, can forever change the lives of others. It is also a beautiful Corporal Work of Mercy. So many refugees are in need, right here in our community. Every day they struggle to feed their family, heat their apartments and purchase clothing for the family.

You can have a meaningful impact on someone’s life this Christmas by taking an Angel home.

Have you forgotten to take an angel from the tree? No problem. Purchase a pair of warm winter gloves for a man or woman, or a small men’s winter jacket, or a pair of men’s boots (size 8 or 9), or a soccer ball or a warm blanket. You do not need an Angel to ensure that a newly arriving refugee is very welcomed in our community.

Please return unwrapped gifts to the bins near the Angel Tree or to St. Saint’s Place at 46 South Main St.

ST. LOUIS AT PITTSFORD CANDLELIGHT NIGHT

Last Tuesday, December 1st, St. Louis had a joyful presence at Candlelight, at the four corners in the village. The Year of Mercy committee distributed free hot chocolate in cups with a picture of Pope Francis and the Year of Mercy logo. Our beautiful St. Louis school choir shared their faith and talent by caroling down the street. Thirsty's helped out, filling our urns with water for great hot chocolate: Thank You! Thanks too, to Maria DiGiambattista, Lisa and Larry Magguilli, Teresa, Ellie and Caitlyn Bergen, and the entire Year of Mercy Committee for making such a happy event possible.

Light in the Darkness ~ Advent Walk of Mercy

Sunday, December 13, Reddington Hall Gym
After All Masses

We invite you to walk on a candlelit path through the St. Louis “Door of Mercy.” Come celebrate Pope Francis’ invitation to recognize God’s mercy in our lives, and embrace our call to bring that mercy and light to those who suffer in darkness.

All are welcome to experience this 30 minute illuminated, prayerful and peaceful event!

Sharing the Good News
Thanks to your generosity, our parish can provide At Home with the Word, and Little Blue Books each Advent. Imagine someone who just happened to come one Sunday, happened to pick up a Little Blue Book, and then gave it a try, praying a little every day. You don’t need to imagine. It happens every year. A number of folks are gently invited to give it a try, and then next thing you know, their spiritual life and connection to the community grows!
Celebrating the Extraordinary Year of Mercy

Schedule of Special Masses at Sacred Heart Cathedral

The Extraordinary Year of Mercy is to be the “living experience of the closeness of the Father, whose tenderness is almost tangible, so that the faith of every believer may be strengthened and thus testimony to it be ever more effective.” (Pope Francis).

Periodically, Jubilee Years are called by the Sovereign Pontiffs to lead the faithful to a closer relationship with God and as a sign of unity and charity. The Extraordinary Year of Mercy, (December 8, 2015 – November 20, 2016) is the first Holy Year (hence, extraordinary) which does not commemorate an anniversary of some kind, but focuses our attention on the attribute of God the Father which is exalted in both the Old and New Testaments, His Mercy. In announcing the Year of Mercy, our Holy Father wrote: “The Church makes herself a servant of this love of Christ and mediates it to all people: a love that forgives and expresses itself in the gift of oneself. Consequently, wherever the Church is present, the mercy of the Father must be evident.”

Pope Francis asks that Catholics make pilgrimages

In each of the Jubilee years since the fifteenth century, a “Holy Door” has been used as a ritual expression of conversion. Pilgrims and penitents pass through it as a gesture of leaving the past behind and crossing the threshold from sin to grace, from slavery to freedom, travelling along the road, making his way to the desired destination. “The practice of pilgrimage has a special place in the Holy Year, because it represents the journey each of us makes in this life. Similarly, to reach the Holy Door of Mercy in Rome or in any other place in the world, everyone, each according to his or her ability, will have to make a pilgrimage. This will be a sign that mercy is also a goal to reach and requires dedication and sacrifice...May pilgrimage be an impetus to conversion: by crossing the threshold of the Holy Door, we will find the strength to embrace God’s mercy and dedicate ourselves to being merciful with others as the Father has been with us.” (Pope Francis). In accordance with the rich tradition of the Church, these pilgrimages to the Holy Door of Mercy are associated with prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession).

Holy Door at Sacred Heart Cathedral to be opened December 13

The Holy Door of Mercy, which Pope Francis asked to be designated at each Cathedral in all of the Dioceses throughout the world, will be the inside main center entrance of Sacred Heart Cathedral, 296 Flower City Park, Rochester. Through the course of the Year of Mercy, the Cathedral will be open for private, group and parish pilgrimages, specifically at Diocesan celebrations listed below. At these celebrations, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and Confession will be readily available to the faithful.

Obtaining a Plenary Indulgence

Pope Francis has declared that passing through the Holy Door of Mercy will offer the possibility of obtaining a Plenary Indulgence, a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, through certain pious exercises, namely: celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation; the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist; praying for the Holy Father and the intentions he bears in his heart; and praying the Profession of Faith (the Creed) which unites us to the universal Church. These indulgences may be obtained for ourselves or for those who are deceased. When we have made this pilgrimage and committed ourselves to live by mercy, “the Jubilee Indulgence is thus full, the fruit of the very event which is to be celebrated and experienced with faith, hope and charity.” (Pope Francis).

Sounds of the Season

Calling All Young Musicians!

If you have been thinking of giving our teen choir a try, now is the perfect time. The teens usually sing the first Sunday of every month. We are opening up the group to any who want to try singing with us at the 3:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass. The teens traditionally provide the music for this liturgy. Many of our college students return to help us out as well. We rehearse with refreshments just one hour before the crowds arrive and do a lovely selection of carols and instrumental solos before mass. This year the group will be working up their rendition of the Leonard Cohen “Hallelujah” (with an appropriate Christmas text of course), and Amy Grant’s “Breath of Heaven”. If interested, please give Stephanie a call at 586-5675 ext. 251, or shoot an email to shonz@rochester.rr.com. Hope to hear from YOU!

Is Christmas a Difficult Time for You?

At this time of year, many of us begin our Christmas celebrations remembering the year’s events with joy and happiness. However, for many, the Christmas season is not a time to celebrate joy and happiness, but a time that brings loss, loneliness, grief, depression and the sense of just wanting the season to be over. You are not alone.
