Avoid the crush of Xmas Eve. Please consider coming to quiet, beautiful Christmas Day Masses.

Peace

St. Paul invokes the God of peace in our joyful second reading this weekend. Soon we will be singing beautiful hymns celebrating the birth of the Prince of Peace. Wouldn’t peace be the greatest Christmas present in the world? It can seem like an impossible dream, when we look at all the tensions and conflicts around the world, in our own country, and at times, even in our families, or our own heart. But Jesus was born to bring the gift of peace, and it is not unattainable! We just need to keep in mind the words of another song/invitation, Let There Be Peace On Earth: “Let peace begin with me …”

Our invitations to enter into silence this Advent, our beginning the Mass with a call to worship and silence are based on a simple spiritual premise.
Peace begins with me when I’m not (to use one of my mother’s expressions) wound up tighter than an 8 day clock. Not that being quiet is the goal. However, when we are too wound up, it is evident to those around us that we have not the time or energy or inclination to listen or become aware of their needs, even if all we need to do is listen and share their challenges in that humble way. That’s not good for warm, loving relationships.
Ultimately it is not good for our own spiritual or physical health either.

So where to begin? I suggest finding some time this week when you can genuinely slow down, quiet down, and spend some time quality time with the Lord through this weekend’s readings. (You did pick up a copy of At Home with the Word - didn’t you?) Is it selfish to stop doing all the good we want to do in order to spend quiet time in peace with the Lord?
Absolutely not! We can’t give what we don’t have. Without a sense of peace that we have experienced and valued, how can we help others experience peace? A healthy spiritual rhythm includes public and private prayer, formal and informal prayer, quiet time in God’s presence with others, quiet time in God’s presence alone.

Now to a very practical matter. This coming weekend, we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Advent at 4:30 PM on Saturday, 7:30 AM & 9:00 AM on Sunday. Then we move on to celebrating The Vigil of Christmas, followed by Christmas Day Masses on Monday. Make sure to take in the 4th Sunday of Advent, and seriously consider celebrating Christmas at one of our Christmas morning Masses. Peace can begin when you find a parking place, continue when you find a place to sit in church, and truly entering into a prayerful celebration of Christmas, you can have a peace to carry right into the New Year!

May God bless you and yours in these last days of Advent, at Christmas, and into the New Year! Fondly, Fr. Bob

Part of the Family

We are all part of a diocesan family that does amazing good work around our diocese. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is the primary way we kick in our share of the family expenses. We would love to wrap up the appeal and reach both our financial goal, and our goal to increase the participation rate by the end of the year. PLEASE, if everyone makes a contribution, our campaign will be a success regardless of the dollar amount!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support

St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support

A Meal & More Soup Kitchen

A Meal & More is one of the longest continuing ministries of Christ Church at 131 East Avenue in Downtown Rochester. Since 1979, it has been serving well-balanced meals of the highest quality to anyone who wishes to come to their Sunday or Wednesday noon meals. A public service helping others, they have always seen preparation and serving their guests as an extension of the hospitality of the Lord's Table in the Holy Eucharist.

They serve about 10,000 guests at their noon meals throughout the year. Financial support comes from donations by area churches, service bureaus, charitable organizations, individuals, businesses and federal grants. Most of the food is provided by Foodlink’s Supplementary Nutrition Assistance Program. Fresh seasonal produce comes from the vegetable gardens at St. John’s and St. Mark’s Episcopal Church in Rochester and occasionally from area food cupboards. At the heart of their ministry is the dedicated corps of volunteers who come from all over Monroe County. They would especially welcome people from St. Louis Church who could make a Wednesday or Sunday each month a St. Louis Day! You can learn more about this vital ministry at www.amealandmore.org.

Ending the Year Well

We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith-filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end gifts and donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany - it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Shannon Toot at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2017 will need to be received by December 31, 2017.
Our Weekend Scriptures:
Third Sunday of Advent

1st Reading: Isaiah 61:1 – 2a, 10 – 11
Sent to heal the broken hearted

2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:16 – 24
Rejoice always! May the God of peace make you holy

Gospel: John 1:6 – 8, 19 – 28
The testimony of John the Baptist

Remember Your Confirmation?
Our reading from the Hebrew Scriptures next week will be a familiar, beloved oracle from the prophet Isaiah. One of the readings often used at Confirmation is taken from this 61st chapter in Isaiah. Anointed, being given a mission—it applies to the Messiah, but also applies to each of us. We Believe. We Belong. We Prepare. We prepare, not just to celebrate the birth of the Messiah, who was anointed, sent to bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to captives, and release to prisoners; we prepare to become more fully his disciples. There are poor brothers and sisters in the world today, desperately longing to hear glad tidings. They won’t, unless we announce the Good News. You know some who are broken hearted, and so do I—think of them and pray for them to prepare for next weekend’s healing Word! People of our day can be held captive to many things, imprisoned by unhealthy addictions, in destructive relationships, in need of Gospel freedom. We were anointed at our baptism, and again in Confirmation—the Spirit of the Lord is on us! Remember last week’s word, typology? God is consistent. As the eternal source of good news for the poor, healing for the brokenhearted, and liberty for captives, God puts that spirit into prophets, it is the spirit of the Messiah, is the spirit bestowed on all disciples, the spirit we are called to embody in our lives. Let’s pray for the Holy Spirit to set our hearts on fire so we can carry on the mission!

Short, Sweet and To The Point
Next week we will hear St. Paul encouraging the people in Thessalonica, and us, to rejoice always, pray without ceasing, and give thanks. Paul will also offer some great advice. Do not quench the Spirit. (Listen carefully to others, don’t discourage graces we may not understand.) Test everything; retain what is good (an examination of conscience at the end of our day is one way to do that). Remain blameless (the sacrament of reconciliation/confession can help!) Let God’s peace dwell in you (find that peace in a prayerful Advent silence, centering ourselves in God’s love). St. Paul preached the same Gospel of Joy Pope Francis encourages us to live.

Pointing the Way
This week, John the Baptist bursts onto the stage of salvation history, and into our Advent. Next week St. John the Evangelist will reiterate what we hear from Mark today. John baptized with water, pointing to the Christ. Jesus will baptize with the Spirit. In each case, the baptism led to becoming a disciple. How are we doing as disciples? How are you? Good thing to pray about this Advent!

Gaudete Sunday
Traditionally this Sunday of Advent is called Gaudete Sunday. There is joy in the readings, joy in the prayers, and we pray for joy in our hearts as we get closer to Christmas, prepared ever more fully to celebrate the great Feast of the Incarnation. Joy to as we are ever more prepared to receive Christ in our hearts.

Christ has no online presence but yours,
No blog, no Facebook page but yours,
Yours are the tweets through which love touches the world,
Yours the posts through which the Gospel is shared,
Yours are the updates through which hope is revealed.

Preparing for the Fourth Sunday of Advent

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 7:1 – 5, 8b – 12, 14a, 16

2nd Reading: Romans 16:25 – 27
Glory to God through Jesus Christ

May it be done according to your will

What is a Manger Moment?

The Giving Manger, located on the Faith Formation bulletin board in the Narthex hallway, inspires your family to focus on giving gifts of service and good deeds. These small acts of kindness can spark lots of fun, heart felt conversations, and so many wonderful moments that you will treasure as a family. We rarely remember the gifts we received in the past, but we seldom forget when someone does something unexpectedly kind for us!

We invite kids of all ages 1-100 to write the acts of kindness your family is doing this Advent Season on pieces of “hay” to fill our manger in preparation of the arrival of the Savior.
Prepare the Way

Prepare your heart during Advent!

Prepare the Way of the King
By Dr. Scott Hahn

Dr. Scott Hahn, one of the most eminent Catholic theologians in our country today, reveals what scholars now know about the shepherds, the mysterious Magi, and King Herod. Your Advent journey will take on new meaning as you prepare your heart for the birth of our Lord. This illuminating presentation is sure to help you grow in appreciation of the greatest gift ever given to mankind — Jesus Christ. Find this audio under “Listen”, “Advent and Christmas”.

Come, Lord Jesus
By Mother Mary Francis, P.C.C.

These Advent reflections by the abbess of a Poor Clare monastery, an accomplished spiritual writer, focus our attention on the coming of Jesus into our lives. There is a double movement to this coming; both our active preparation to be ready for him and our patient waiting for the Lord to arrive in his own good time. There is also an art to this simultaneous preparation and waiting, and no one knows better than beloved Mother Mary Francis how to encourage us in our attempts to master this art. That Sparks My Interest!

Building bridges and discovering ways to work together: These things don't happen on their own. Our diocese has an Office of Ecumenical and Interfaith Affairs that is committed to building bridges and working relationships with other faith communities. They are also looking for a lay parishioner in each parish who is interested in interfaith activities. As an Interfaith Parish Liaison, this person would act as a conduit between the diocesan ecumenical and interfaith office and the parish, communicating ongoing interfaith bible studies and meetings as well as publicizing special events. Needed: someone at St. Louis interested in being an Interfaith Liaison, who is a good communicator. It is not at all time consuming. Another positive: liaisons learn a lot about what goes on in the big picture of Rochester interfaith, discovering key events of real interest. Interested? Want to know more? Please contact Fr. Bob.

Another Successful Holiday Pie Sale!!

Thanks to parishioner generosity, Habitat Interfaith Partnership’s (HIP) Holiday Pie Sale and associated donations raised about $2,500 in profits, matching last year’s proceeds. At this rate, these revenues, combined with annual pie sales the next two years, should build to $7,500. This will give us a good head start towards raising the $65,000 required to buy building supplies for our next Habitat for Humanity house planned for 2019.

St. Louis can be proud as it again led coalition churches with its sale of 175 pies, accounting for over 50% of HIP’s sales and revenues. We are grateful that during the Pie Sale a number of parishioners thoughtfully made donations to Habitat, some independent of any pie order. Credit also goes to the following parishioners who helped conduct the pie sale: Rick Cusker, Mary Ellen and Curt Anderson, Kathy and Jacob VanderZwaag, Kathleen Anderson, Louise Vanni, Chuck and Nancy Pelozi, and Rosemary and Bob Scholl.

Fr. Juan and Don Murray are hosting a reflection group called “Word of Life”, which is part of the Focolare spirituality. You are most welcome to join us on the third Monday of each month at 7:15 pm in the O’Connor Library in the Manse. (This is the brick building to the right of the main church entrance.) (Meets this Monday, Dec. 18)

The Word of Life, a sentence of Scripture, is offered monthly as a guide and inspiration for daily life. We read that sentence and the commentary (which is translated into 96 different languages and dialects and reaches more than 14 million people worldwide), and then offer our thoughts about how it applies to our lives. At the start of the next session, we share how we applied that verse in our lives as we encourage each other to imitate Christ.

For more information please email Fr. Juan at Fr.Juan.Benitez@dor.org or Kathryn at kathryn.mcalarney@dor.org.

Christmas Book Give-away

Do you want to know why we sabotage ourselves, feel overwhelmed, set aside our dreams, and lack the courage to simply be ourselves? Come to Christmas Mass at St. Louis! We will be handing out Matthew Kelly’s book, Resisting Happiness. He proposes that it is resistance that stands between you and happiness.

Thanks to the generosity of three families and the Dynamic Catholic book program, we will be able to hand out to each family a great Catholic book. We are planning book chats in January. Stay tuned for details!

If you would like to sponsor this gratifying tradition in the future, please contact Kathryn McAlarney at 586-5675, ext. 224 or Kathryn.mcalarney@dor.org.
