There Shall Be A Sign
Trust in God, or trust in human alliances? Ahaz had a plan, so when Isaiah invited him to ask for a sign from God, he had no interest – after all, what if God’s plan didn’t match his? What was going on? The Northern Kingdom (Ephraim) and Aram were together attacking Judah, Ahaz’ kingdom, because Ahaz would not join their anti-Assyrian alliance. As they besieged Jerusalem, Isaiah counseled the king to trust in God to deliver his people. But Ahaz had decided to trust in the might of Assyria instead. While Ahaz won’t ask for a sign, Isaiah offers one. Most likely in Isaiah’s mind, the one to conceive would be the king’s wife. The meaning of the sign: the line of David would endure. Disciples of Jesus would agree! Not only would the line of David endure; it reached fulfillment in Jesus. Dig into the Bible, and you will discover often that prophetic messages often take on new meanings in new eras. That encourages us to pray about the possible meanings in our day and time.

Dear Friends
Believe it or not, today’s second reading is simply Paul’s greeting to the Romans as he writes to them, in anticipation of a visit. This is St. Paul of course, so we have a profound greeting in a theologically dense letter! St. Paul’s other letters were to churches he had founded. This one is a letter of introduction, opening the door for Paul’s visit to Rome. Right in the greeting, Paul lays out the Gospel he preaches, so the recipients will understand that they and Paul share the same faith. We hear this passage today because it speaks of the mysterious union of human and divine in Jesus; descended from David according to the flesh (human), but Son of God in power (divine). (Hypostatic union, to be technical.) At each Mass, the prayer that accompanies adding a bit of water to the wine speaks of this union: ‘By the mystery of this water and wine, may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.’ Back in the day, wine was almost always mixed with water, and so it was at Mass too. But as the prayers of the Mass developed, this prayer was added, inviting us to see the practical action of mixing water and wine as a reminder that in Christ, divinity (wine) and humanity (water) mingle. In the Incarnation, divinity was poured into humanity. Through our sharing in Eucharist, the divinity of Christ is poured into us. Knowing our humanity comes naturally. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you see how, through the sacraments, divine life is ‘poured’ into you.

Infancy Narratives
Matthew and Luke each give us their unique tradition regarding the birth of Jesus. Echoes from the Old Testament shape both accounts. An angel appears in both infancy narratives. Both angels counsel: ‘Do not be afraid.’ Each brings a divine message, an invitation to accept a vital mission. Luke’s narrative focuses on Mary, while Matthew spotlights Joseph. But another difference – the angel appears to Joseph in a dream, not during waking hours. This isn’t the first Joseph to have his life’s mission revealed in a dream. In the Book of Genesis, Jacob’s son Joseph has a dream in his youth that at first endangered his life when his brothers became jealous, but a dream that ultimately shaped his life, and in the end, saved Egypt and his own family from starvation. That Joseph became known for interpreting dreams. Mary’s husband Joseph doesn’t interpret dreams for others, but he does have a second important dream. Jesus’ life is in danger, and Joseph’s dream leads him to take the family to Egypt to keep Jesus safe. Ponder the connections, and never underestimate what God can do through dreams!

Looking Ahead:
The Nativity of the Lord
1st Reading: Isaiah 9:1-6
Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace
2nd Reading: Titus 2:11-14
A people eager to do what is good
Glory to God in the highest!

Welcome Juan!
This Spring we will be blessed to have a transitional deacon join us, Deacon Juan Benitez. Juan is a seminarian from Columbia, who will be moving into our rectory at the beginning of February, to minister here and take one last course at St. Bernard’s School of Theology and Ministry before being ordained a priest for our diocese in June. Please be prepared to welcome Juan warmly!

An Exchange of Gifts

We are deeply grateful for every contribution to our parish, no matter how large or small. The gratitude your contributions express, in proportion to your blessings, is a good and holy thing. Thank you to all who have completed a pledge card. Thank you to everyone who has made a generous pledge to the Catholic Ministries Appeal as well. Your generosity is an inspiration to others.

Many people choose to make year-end gifts and donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal if you have not yet made a pledge. Remember, the CMA is our fair share of the ministries funded by the diocese. Any shortfall comes out of our parish budget, so especially if you have not participated in the past, consider doing so this year.

Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Birdie Proctor at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2016 will need to be received by December 31, 2016.

Gifted as we are, return a gift to the Lord.

When Will We Go This Christmas?

Did you know that Vigil Masses early on Christmas Eve (like our 3PM & 5PM) are designed, in the Roman Missal, to be not so much full-out celebrations of the birth of Christ, but more an anticipation of celebrating Christmas? It is the Mass in the Night (like our 10PM) that is geared to fully celebrate the birth of Christ, with a beautiful balance of quiet and peace, combined with glorious music as we are sent forth; the balance of Silent Night and Joy to the World. Christmas Day Masses also have that unique combination of peace, joy, silence and sound, the sacramental presence of Christ that we build toward through Advent. In recent years, the earliest Vigil Masses on Christmas Eve (our 3:00 and 5:00PM, for instance) have taken on a life of their own. Last year, we packed 1500 people into the church, the gym, the meeting room and the hallways at the 3:00 PM Mass. Believe me, we tried to maintain beauty and peace, an inspiring celebration of our faith, and the birth of Christ. But it was so much easier to do that at 10PM, and on Christmas Day at 9:00AM, 11:00AM and 12:30PM.

We have entered a new church year. Our Advent readings speak of anticipating something new, the beauty and wonder of God breaking into our world. Consider a modest suggestion, to have a spiritual Christmas you will truly remember. Try forgoing the 3:00 or 5:00PM Vigil Masses for Christmas, and experience the beautiful 10PM with music that will be breathtaking, and a peace that is palpable. Or join us for Mass on Christmas Day, with the beauty and peace that are so much easier to experience when finding a parking place or a seat is so much easier and peaceful!
Calendar Reminders for Seasons of Faith and Living Faith:

We will be serving pastries to mark the birth of Jesus on Sunday, December 18 for Seasons of Faith. We will be serving pizza on Tuesday, December 20 for Living Faith.

Living Faith will resume on Tuesday, January 3. Seasons of Faith will resume on Sunday, January 8. May the seasons of Advent and Christmas bring you ever closer to our loving Jesus.

Attention Pastoral Care Team: The angels will be available for pick up in the Ministry Center Monday-Friday from 8:30 am-4:30 pm. If this time is not convenient, please let Birdie or Shannon know and an alternate arrangement can be made.

For those of you curious about the matrix of black and white blocks shown on the cover of the bulletin, it is a QR code. The QR code (abbreviated from Quick Response Code) is a type of matrix barcode (or two-dimensional barcode). The QR code is read by a smartphone app and is linked to the Parish Support page on our website stlouischurch.org. That page describes the various ways of financially supporting our parish. One of the newer options is a link to a web page which will accept an online offering using a credit card. This will allow someone who attends Mass to make an offering online by scanning the QR code from the bulletin, selecting online offering, and entering credit card information for the offering. This is being offered as a convenience. Free smartphone apps for this use are available for all types of smartphones.

The St. Louis Ministry Center will be closed:

- Friday, December 23
- Monday, December 26
- Monday, January 2

Saint’s Place will be closed for Christmas from Thursday, December 22 and reopen on Tuesday, December 27.

Saint’s Place is closed for New Year’s on Friday, December 30 and reopens on Tuesday, January 3.

Life’s Greatest Lesson Christmas Book Give Away

With great joy, four anonymous parishioners have donated the books we will be giving away this Christmas. This is the third year we are partnering with the Dynamic Catholic Book Program to bring these books to our parish. Many parishioners have told us that these books are changing their lives. Listen to what one donor says about this year’s book, Life’s Greatest Lesson, by Allen Hunt. “A short, simple read with a great message. At one level, it is a good story about a boy and his relationship with his grandparents. On a different level, to quote the book, it discusses ‘what I’ve learned from the happiest people I know’”. The book then lays out an easy to follow plan for achieving that same type of happiness. A plan that my spouse and I have taken to heart and are working on right now.” This year’s title was chosen by the donors because of the impact this story has had on their outlook on giving to others and happiness. We hope it will be as life-changing for you as it has been for them.

Prayer for National Migration Week

January 8-15

Loving Father,
Remembering that the Holy Family fled violence and lived for a long time as refugees, we ask that you protect all refugee families fleeing persecution, and provide them a place of safety and comfort. For children who are making perilous journeys, often alone and without the protection of loved ones, we ask that you reunite them with their families and protect them from violence on the journey. For all migrants, that they not feel compelled to migrate but have opportunities in their homelands where they can thrive and live fully human lives. Open our hearts so that we may provide hospitality for those who come in search of refuge, through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen
All Lives Are Worth Living
God becoming one of us is the ultimate confirmation of the inherent dignity of human life. That dignity does not depend on how functional or productive we are. We have dignity because we ARE. Yet the elderly, the disabled, those who are not getting the care they need, are vulnerable in the face of the push to legalize physician-assisted suicide here in New York State. Learn more and advocate to protect the dignity of all human lives. Check out www.dor.org, click on Public Policy (lower left sidebar) for more info. Sign a letter or petition to your legislators opposing assisted suicide on Public Policy Weekend February 4-5.

“Closeness to the poor, the refugee, the immigrant, the sick, the exploited, the elderly living alone, prisoners and all God’s other poor, will teach us a different way of resting, one which is more Christian and generous.”
~ Pope Francis

Creating a Culture of Encounter
National Migration Week, January 8-15
Creating a Culture of Encounter
For nearly a half century, the Catholic Church in the United States has celebrated National Migration Week, which is an opportunity for the Church to reflect on the circumstances confronting migrants, including immigrants, refugees, children, and victims and survivors of human trafficking. The theme for National Migration Week 2017 draws attention to Pope Francis’ call to create a culture of encounter, and in doing so to look beyond our own needs and wants to those of others around us. In the homily given at his first Pentecost as pope, he emphasized the importance of encounter in the Christian faith: "For me this word is very important. Encounter with others. Why? Because faith is an encounter with Jesus, and we must do what Jesus does: encounter others."

With respect to migrants, too often in our contemporary culture we fail to encounter them as persons, and instead look at them as others. We do not take the time to engage migrants in a meaningful way, but remain aloof to their presence and suspicious of their intentions. During this National Migration Week, let us all take the opportunity to engage migrants as children of God who are worthy of our attention and support.
