Throw Open the Door

Two weeks ago, as tens of thousands looked on, Pope Francis pushed open the great bronze Jubilee Year Holy Door at St. Peter’s, opening the Year of Mercy. The following Sunday, in Cathedrals around the world, Bishops and Cardinals opened Holy Doors, symbolizing a worldwide invitation. An invitation to make a pilgrimage. An invitation to step through the door of mercy, to step into God’s forgiving love. We are all invited to step into God’s mercy, so that we can leave behind all that weighs us down, keeps us trapped, all that would hold us back from being channels of mercy, compassion, forgiveness to others. Our Bishop too, Bishop Matano opened a holy door at Sacred Heart Cathedral, inviting us all to make a pilgrimage to the mother church of our diocese, but most importantly, to make an internal, spiritual pilgrimage.

What might that look like? We each have places inside that we keep closed off to the outside world, perhaps closed off to God’s healing, forgiving love, sometimes even closed off to ourselves. This Year of Mercy offers a particularly graced opportunity. Walking through a door of mercy, we then invite the Lord to enter into some of the places inside that we have carefully kept closed. It could be a past sin, something we did, and we just can’t seem to forgive ourselves. It can be a hurt we suffered, and we really don’t want to forgive the one who hurt us so. It can even be anger at God for something that seems so unfair.

Other possibilities exist. One place we may keep closed off, a door that we should consider opening: we may be aware that God is calling us to something, but we know that saying yes will take us out of our comfort zone – so we leave the door shut, and hope the Holy Spirit will leave us alone. Stranger yet – love may be knocking on our door. But we know accepting love changes us, a risk we may not be ready to take.

Back to pilgrimages: a pilgrimage is different than just getting from point A to B. Pilgrims don’t just focus on the end point, and get there quickly, hastened by having blinders on. They take their time. They look around. They pray about what they see. The journey is the destination, not a necessary evil. Being a pilgrim, we meet people on the way, we hear their stories, share ours, and discover that God can be found in everyone’s story. We aren’t the only one with doors inside that need opening. We aren’t the only one with secret fears to face. We aren’t the only one who knows in our head that God loves and forgives, but struggle at times to get that message to our hearts. We aren’t the only one who needs others, and needs community, but suffers from our foolish need to do it alone. The door is open. Let’s enter in! Peace, Fr. Bob

The Visitation

Third Edition

Remember back in college – there was the syllabus, but the second edition of Organic Chemistry was unacceptable. Got to get the 3rd, or maybe even the 7th edition. With many books in the Bible, we don’t have the first edition. We have the final edition, often shaped and edited by God over decades, sometimes even centuries. Micah’s first prophecies were uttered in the 8th century BCE, in the time of Hezekiah and Ahaz. Most were dark, foreseeing the consequences that increasing injustice in the society would have on the nation. His words proved true. Exile came. Yet rather than the end of hope, new stirrings of hope, deeper awareness of God’s call to mercy emerged. The final edition of Micah we have today includes that hope, fresh promises, and the word we hear today of one who will shepherd the flock, and not only bring peace, but be peace. In these last days of Advent, we can pray “Lord, help me to comprehend what it means to say that you are peace.”

I Come to Do Your Will

Ever hear of Lectio divina? It is a way of reading the Bible that is much different than the way we read the newspaper. Evelyn Woods speed reading is just the opposite. Lectio divina involves reading a passage once at our normal pace perhaps, but then stopping, slowing down, and reading it again slowly, chewing on each thought and word. Another stop, and then we read it one more time, letting it enter into our heart, even letting the words become our words. Today’s passage from Hebrews is a perfect one to read in this ancient, yet ever fruitful way.

Maybe It Isn’t Just A Kick

Mom’s: you’ve heard this passage many times; infant John the Baptist leaping in Elizabeth’s womb. Here is a thought to bring it home. When you were pregnant, was every kick the same? Did your state of mind, or the things going on around you ever change how that moving inside was interpreted? Elizabeth had longed for a child for many years. Most kicks would have been a reminder of God blessing her with child. But being in the presence of Mary, as Jesus was being shaped in her womb; experiencing Mary’s love and goodness in coming to visit; for a mom who found joy in every little movement, this one stood out far beyond the rest. Anyway, let’s all pray for expectant mom’s as we hear this beautiful passage today.

Looking Ahead:
Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

1st Reading: Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28
I prayed for this child

2nd Reading: 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24
We are children of God

Mary kept all these things in her heart

Lectors!

We are now immersed in cycle C, filled with all manner of readings, just begging to be brought to life as you proclaim God’s Word. Don’t go it alone. The authors of the lector workbook can help you! Pick up your copy in the sacristy, from the window sill. It is amazing what a second opinion on how to proclaim a passage can do! Not to mention, the insights offered in the Lector Workbook can bring the Word to life for you, all the better for you then bringing it to life for us!

Local Door of Mercy

One door of mercy is always open, whether it is a Jubilee Year or not. It may take a pilgrimage to get there, but it is a pilgrimage well worth taking. The door? The door to the reconciliation room, the confessional!

The St. Louis Ministry Center will be closed:
Wednesday, December 23
At 3:00 pm
Thursday, December 24
Friday, December 25

Advent House is an outreach ministry of Perinton Ecumenical Ministries, Inc., a corporation of thirteen churches in Perinton. It is a two bed, non-profit, comfort care home that provides an alternative living arrangement to the terminally ill when they can no longer be cared for in their own homes. It is staffed mainly by volunteers in conjunction with a certified home health agency and the resident’s physician. Loving care is not only provided to them, but to their families and friends as well. Since there are no fees for the residents and they receive no insurance reimbursements, Advent House depends solely on the time, talent and loving care provided by their volunteers and the financial generosity of the community at large. Advent House serves our local community and its residents by affirming the dignity of human life in its final stages with an atmosphere of gentle, peaceful and compassionate care befitting a "child of God" in their last precious days of life. The Advent House ministry also embraces the families and friends of its residents by offering emotional support and grief counseling for up to thirteen months after a loved one has died. Advent House is entering its 25th year of caring for the dying. For additional information please email the Advent House at: theadventhouse@frontiernet.net.

Thank you to all of those who have generously responded to the Catholic Ministries Appeal so far! Please remember, the CMA is our fair share of the budget for the ministries supported by our diocese. Any shortfall comes out of our parish budget, so your generosity is important! Especially if you haven’t participated in the past, PLEASE consider making a pledge this year. If you are moved to take an envelope and give a bit more than you already have, bless you!!

Ending the Year Well
We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis of Pittsford, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany - it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Birdie Proctor at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2015 will need to be received by December 31, 2015.

Our Gift to the Lord
Returning to the Lord with increase from the many gifts we have been given can take many forms. Each Sunday, grateful that the Lord has given us another week of life and health, we come together at Mass to give thanks. Knowing the Lord has given material well-being, we contribute to our parish. Aware of strengths for ministry God has given, we find ways to offer our time and talents in service. Advent is a great time to ask the Lord “What should I do?” Should I be a bit more supportive of my parish community? Is it time to register, and make St. Louis my church home? Is it time to check out what is happening, and to come to something in addition to coming to Mass? What about getting involved in some way? Opportunities abound! For choosing St. Louis as the place you believe, belong, and return to the Lord with increase from God’s goodness to you, THANK YOU!
ST. LOUIS EUCHARISTIC ADORATION – Q&A

Q. “I have a very prayer-filled experience at Eucharistic Adoration and I think it is wonderful that St. Louis has begun a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration program. But why are we having it at St. John of Rochester instead of our own church location?”

A. That is great that your prayer life is enhanced at Adoration – a primary purpose is to allow that personal prayer time with Our Lord, and many, many people throughout the diocese participate in adoration programs or in weekly or monthly Holy Hours. St. Louis does offer a weekly Holy Hour (with communal prayers), from 7-8 pm on Thursday evenings, and monthly Adoration on First Fridays from 11:30 am – 4:00 pm.. But having the St. Louis adorers program at St. John’s side chapel brings (at least) 3 primary advantages:

1. Security – the chapel is a nearly ideal setting for adoration, whereas adoration within St. Louis church would require that the whole church be open, 24/7. In addition, there is a camera in the chapel, with live feed. Finally, there would also be an adorer from St. John’s sharing your hour with you (during most of the hours).

2. Quiet time for personal prayer – outside scheduled Mass times, St. Louis church hosts many functions and gatherings (wedding rehearsals, events and event practices, etc.), and cleaning or work crews are also resident, often enough.

3. Increased partnership with St. John’s – many St. Louis parishioners are already regular adorers at St. John’s, and this program will provide an increase in this relationship. Also, St. Louis has already established a very successful partnership with St. John’s in regards to Saint’s Place.

The Real Presence of Our Lord is generally available to adorers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at Adoration. The St. Louis Eucharistic Adoration program has begun and sign-ups are on-going. Adorers can commit to a specific hour each week to be with Our Lord, or be available as a substitute, if needed. Also, everyone is invited to stop in at any time, day or night, even for just a few minutes.

If you have a general question about adoration, would like to be an adorer, or would like to know more about St. Louis Eucharistic Adoration, please see Deacon Dave, or contact him at 1deacondave@gmail.com, or Barb Snyder at twosnyders@gmail.com. You may also fill out one of the yellow sign-up cards located in the church pews and leave it with an usher or at the parish office, or drop it in a Eucharistic Adoration box located at the church entrances.

Moms & Dads ... Share Your Thoughts!

The Diocese of Rochester Department of Catholic Schools is seeking 10-16 parents/guardians of school-aged childern that have not attended Catholic schools to participate in one of two focus groups to discuss how different alternatives may positively impact the future enrollment of Catholic schools in the Diocese of Rochester.

Focus group participants will be asked about 5 different alternatives to potentially help increase enrollment. It is estimated that each focus group will last 45 minutes. We will hold the focus groups at Siena Catholic Academy in Brighton on January 6, 2015 at 6:30 PM and at St. Mary’s in Canandaigua on January 7, 2015 at 6:30 PM.

CENTENARY TOUR OF IRELAND

Veteran tour leader Deirdre McKiernan Hetzler, retired pastoral and campus minister, will again lead a tour to Ireland in the lovely month of May. 2016 is the centenary of the final push for Irish independence, so the tour will highlight some of the associated history, along with some off-the-beaten-track scenery. Dates are May 12-24, 2016. View the itinerary at mckiernanirishtours-sites-google.com or call Deirdre at 388-8892 with questions.
Catholic Courier’s On-line Advent Calendar
Remember the anticipation of opening Advent Calendar Windows to reveal a daily sweet or trinket? You can relive that experience or introduce it to your children or grandchildren. This online Advent Calendar is filled with multimedia treats designed to help families and individuals prepare for the birth of Christ. Visit each day during the rest of Advent. (You can “open” the days from November 28 to catch up but, no peeking ahead!) Find it at www.catholiccourier.com/adventcalendar! Rave reviews, try it! Fun for “children” of all ages.

Sharing the Good News
Thanks to your generosity, our parish can provide At Home with the Word, and Little Blue Books each Advent. Imagine someone who just happened to come one Sunday, happened to pick up a Little Blue Book, and then gave it a try, praying a little every day. You don’t need to imagine. It happens every year. A number of folks are gently invited to give it a try, and then next thing you know, their spiritual life and connection to the community grows!

GREAT GIFT IDEA FOR THE LADY IN YOUR LIFE!
Love One Another, the third annual Rochester Catholic Women’s Conference is coming on March 12, 2016 to the Aquinas Institute in Rochester. This is a wonderful gift idea for your wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt or best friend! She will appreciate the opportunity to be refreshed spending the day with other Catholic women. Thank You for Your Generosity and Support

Thank You to all the very generous parishioners who have purchased Angel Tree gifts for the newly arriving refugees. You allow Saint’s Place to share the Christmas spirit with our families throughout the year. During 2015, we have assisted 817 newly arrived refugees to the Rochester area. Each year, the number of refugees served by Saint’s Place increases, and somehow with God’s help, we are able to meet the challenge. This would not be possible without your continued support and prayers. Sharing your treasures with those less fortunate is an admirable act. During the Christmas season, please keep our families in your prayers, those whose lives you’ve changed and whose hearts you have touched. They are truly grateful for your help in starting a new life in Rochester.

SOMEHOW, NOT ONLY FOR CHRISTMAS

Somehow, not only for Christmas,
But all the long year through,
The joy that you give to others,
Is the joy that comes back to you.
And the more you spend in blessing,
The poor and lonely and sad,
The more of your heart’s possessing,
Returns to you glad.

~ John Greenleaf Whittier

Saint’s Place will be closed from Friday, December 23 until Monday, December 28.
We will also be closed New Year’s Eve and New Year’s Day.
