Sunday Communion Service - January 7
The Highlands - Mary Ann Monley  Heather Heights - Peggy O’Neil Midgley
Thank you for celebrating Christmas with us! This week we celebrate the Holy Family. Thank you for being part of this holy family! We appreciate your praying with us. We appreciate your offering your share of support to the family.

We are also part of a diocesan family, which we support through the Catholic Ministries Appeal. To all who have already generously responded to the CMA, thank you!! Our diocesan family is at over 77.64% percent of goal. With under half our parish responding so far, we are at 74.95% of our goal. Our goal for participation is 700 donors. Please remember, the CMA is our fair share for ministries that serve people throughout our diocese. Chaplains at colleges and hospitals, folks at Catholic Charities, those who provide HR, IT, Faith Formation, and many other services to each parish are funded through CMA contributions.

Remember too, any shortfall comes out of our parish budget, so your generosity is important!

If you haven’t participated in the past, PLEASE consider making a pledge to this year’s campaign. Please go to The Catholic Diocese of Rochester website (www.dor.org), click on Catholic Ministries Appeal, and donate whatever you can to the CMA. God bless you! St. Louis, Pittsford, parish # 300

Ending the Year Well
We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith-filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end gifts and donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany - it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Shannon Toot at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2017 will need to be received by December 31, 2017.

Nativity Preparatory Academy is a Catholic middle school dedicated to transforming the lives of underserved students through strong academics coupled with a sense of spirituality, morality, and personal responsibility. They deliver a uniquely effective education through an extended school day and school year, dedicated and caring teachers, personal mentoring, and continuing support—all within a secure and nurturing environment that encourages personal development. Nativity Preparatory Academy opened its doors in September 2009, after the McQuaid Jesuit High School Board of Directors and the leadership of Sisters of St. Joseph recognized the need for a quality school specifically designed for inner-city students in Rochester.

Students come from a variety of diverse backgrounds, with more than 20 nationalities and multiple faith traditions represented. They come from economically disadvantaged families who truly care about education. The intensive program, geared to accelerate students’ academic progress, also helps to promote their social development, physical well-being, and understanding of themselves.

The typical day runs from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and includes academic classes, afternoon sports, fine arts activities, study hall sessions with individual tutoring, and three meals. Students also attend Saturday sessions for enrichment activities and field trips, as well as a three-week summer program that combines academics with leadership exercises and camp activities. 90% of Nativity school students graduate from high school. More than 50 are enrolled in Catholic High Schools or other college preparatory high schools. Learn more about Nativity Preparatory at http://nativityrochester.org/.

Bridging Old and New

Today Luke brings on to the scene a prophet and prophetess, Simeon and Anna. Both had lived long lives, were faithful Jews, had seen much sorrow, and longed for a sign of hope. Both are Old Testament figures, looking toward the future; bridges between the Old Testament and the New. As Mary and Joseph brought the infant Jesus to the Temple, Anna and Simeon saw not just a glimmer of hope; they saw salvation: a child who would save his people, enlighten the way for gentiles, far more than they had ever hoped. On this Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, in prayer, try to join Mary and Joseph, Simeon and Anna in the Temple, all, taken by this precious infant. What will this child come to mean? What will this holy one mean for you?

Then and Now

In its day, people would have seen Isaiah’s oracle about splendor, radiance, glory and light as a reference to the return from exile in Babylon, a fulfillment of earlier prophecies in Isaiah. For us, it is in Jesus’ coming into the world that those earlier prophecies are truly fulfilled. The abundant offerings from the nations speak for us of the magi coming to Nazareth.

Finally Worked Out

The letter to the Ephesians was written significantly after the first letters of Paul, like Galatians, Thessalonians and Corinthians. One of Paul’s dreams was a church where believers in Christ, whether of Gentile origin or Jewish, could live, pray, and share the Eucharist side by side. It was a long hard battle working out how Gentiles would fit into the faith. But by the time the passage we will hear next week was penned, the matter had been largely resolved. Ephesians tells the story by announcing that ‘Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise.’ Matthew brings home this message with magi (Gentiles) coming from the East to worship Christ at his birth.

Dreaming

Messages in dreams play a role in Matthew’s Gospel, especially as the Gospel opens. It is in a dream that Joseph was reassured about taking Mary as his wife. The magi, in contrast, received warning in a dream about avoiding Herod on their way home. This tradition, that dreams are worth paying attention to, is well attested in the Old Testament. It continues in the New Testament, and right up to today. Often it is in dreams, or that numinous space between sleeping and waking that God can break through our defenses. Could this reality have a significance in your inner life?

Hearing God’s Word

Did you know our church is fitted with a hearing assistance loop? If you have a hearing aid with a Telecoil setting, simply use the “T” switch; sound from the microphones will be transmitted directly to your hearing aid, without other sounds in the church being amplified and interfering. The loop covers the entire main seating area of the church. Microphones used in the sanctuary and side choir area would compromise the effectiveness of the system, so those areas have not been ‘looped’. If you do have a hearing aid and use the “T” switch, you may wish to try sitting in different areas to see where the ‘perfect’ location is for your personal hearing level.

A New Year’s Prayer

May God make your year a happy one!
Not by shielding you from all sorrows and pain,
But by strengthening you to bear it, as it comes;
Not by making your path easy,
But by making you sturdy to travel any path;
Not by taking hardships from you,
But by taking fear from your heart;
Not by granting you unbroken sunshine,
But by keeping your face bright,
even in the shadows;
Not by making your life always pleasant,
But by showing you when people and their causes need you most,
and by making you anxious to be there to help.
God’s love, peace, hope and joy to you for the year ahead.

A Gift to You

Please pick up a copy of At Home with the Word, one of our gifts to you. It could be the answer! Read the introduction to the Gospel of Mark, the Gospel of John, and to St. Paul and his letters.

Use At Home with the Word to prepare you for the bible readings you will hear at Mass, increasing your ability to really engage those passages. In time, you will have stepped into every part of the Bible. Each week At Home with the Word offers a section, Scripture Insights, which provides just enough background to open up readings, sending the advance Bible reader to new insights, while helping the beginner get their feet wet. Happy New Year!

That’s My Favorite

If members of your family or a good friend were asked to name your favorite scripture passage, or Gospel story, your favorite psalm, or song, would they know what it is? Or would they have to just guess? Sharing things, like particular scripture passages that move us the most, and why, is a very good thing. It helps us to get to know one another better. It can deepen our faith, and it is a way to share faith. Having a number of passages we know and love can be a resource when someone we love needs help praying, or needs encouragement, or hope – we can share a psalm, a bible prayer or a Gospel that helped us through a hard time, and it could be just what the spiritual doctor ordered. When you are feeling really grateful, are there any psalms that help you center the feeling in prayer and words? What are your favorites? If none come to mind, why not start a list in your Bible or prayer journal?

“All we want for New Year’s is a 4x4…”

Do you know someone who might have one to donate? Send us any “leads” or “resources” you may know of...
