Partnership in the Gospel

This week and next, our second reading is from St. Paul’s letter to the Philippians. As I’ve suggested before, let me recommend again: if you haven’t cracked open the Bible in years, this brief letter from St. Paul is an excellent place to start. Paul loved each of the churches he founded. Some he loved as a parent loves a son or daughter, even when they have wandered off the path: Corinthians and Galatians. In that correspondence, you see Paul’s anger flare, but can also tell it is anger coming from love, fueled by hurt. The community in Philippi Paul loved as a parent loves the kid who never seemed to get into trouble, and was a joy to raise. If looking for a scripture to raise your spirits, Philippians is your go to place.

Paul’s prayer for that community, and for us, is perfect this Gaudete Sunday. His joy explodes off the page. It is perfect in one other regard as well. Central to Paul’s cause for joy: the ‘partnership in the Gospel’ he experienced with this community. They supported his ministry, stayed in touch, sent assistance; no, St. Paul was not a lone ranger. He always had a partner with him in his travels, and communities behind him, like the one in Philippi - part of the team.

For biblical inspiration about supporting the annual Catholic Ministries Appeal, look to St. Paul’s letter to the Philippians. The CMA is all about partnership in the Gospel. As the Philippians supported Paul’s efforts around Asia Minor, so we are called to support the Bishop, his staff, chaplains, those working for Catholic Charities and others who work around the diocese. We do it through a pledge to the CMA. I pray with joy for all who have already pledged!

When you hear the term ‘local church’, what do you think it means? Perhaps St. Louis, or our neighbors at Transfiguration, or St. John of Rochester, or St. Thomas More? Actually, any time you see the term ‘local church’ in church documents, that is NOT what it means. Yes, we all belong to a local church, but the local church is the diocese. We are a local community that is part of a local church (diocese). We support our local church (including us) through the CMA.

Reading about the Year of Mercy, you will see more about the local church (the diocese). You will also see the term ‘mother church’. Our local church (bishop, clergy, and all the people of the church) is invited to make a pilgrimage to the mother church, Sacred Heart Cathedral, especially if unable to make the much longer pilgrimage, to St. Peter’s in Rome. THE holy door is at St. Peter’s. The holy door for our local church (the diocese) is at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Is the idea of a CMA a recent innovation? No, it goes back to St. Paul. So too, the idea of the local church being bigger than one congregation.

Peace, church! Fr. Bob

Hope and Joy
Pope Francis has made “The joy of the Gospel” a commonplace expression. But don’t think this is an innovation! The Old Testament does have genealogies, battles, mayhem, detailed laws and even more detailed descriptions for constructing the Tabernacle, all of which can make for hard reading. Yet along with the prose, there is a wealth of poetry. Not only the psalms, but the prophetic books too have an abundance of spiritual nourishment that is easily accessible, poems filled with hope and joy. The prophets had amazingly sharp vision. True, it allowed them to see sin and its consequences far more clearly than most. Yet the same acute vision revealed to them God’s goodness and love breaking into our world over and over. Building on Isaiah 40, today’s passage from Baruch is a powerful example of “The joy of the Old Testament”.

Salvation history is the unfolding of deliverance after deliverance. The deliverance from slavery in Egypt gives imagery and language to name the deliverance from exile. Later, God’s redeeming love is hymned again when the Maccabees free the nation. We prepare in Advent for the greatest liberation, inaugurated by the coming of Christ in the Incarnation.

How did the authors of scripture reimagine deliverance in the past as a way to name the experience of God’s goodness and grace in the present? Read the first two verses of our 1st reading. Read them again, but think about the Easter Vigil, and baptism: taking off street clothes, and putting on a white baptismal garment; leaving behind one way of life, and embracing a new one. Being named by God ‘the peace of justice, the glory of God’s worship.

A Great Way to Pray!
Praying for friends or family members who are going through a difficult time, or who are in need of healing is clearly an important part of our prayer life. We are introduced to the idea of interceding for others early in our journey, and bringing others to the Lord in prayer comes quite naturally. But as we grow in faith, our prayer life develops much more richness and variety. In our second reading today, remember that as St. Paul prayed with joy during his lifetime for the believers in Philippi, he prays now with joy for us as well. Soak in that love and prayer. But then consider. How often do I pray with joy for others? Do I ever pray that others grow in love more and more, and that they will be able to discern what is of value? Is this Advent a good time to try praying for someone with the affection of Christ Jesus? Ask St. Paul!

Who Cares About the Politics?
OK, so the first verse in our Gospel may give us more information than we really care about; who was the emperor, who was governor where, which tetrarchs were related to whom. Yet Luke isn’t just getting warmed up. These details have a central theological purpose. Luke is about to tell the story of the most amazing thing – the Incarnation! Jesus, the Son of God, was born in time, at a particular time, in a particular place. God isn’t just time-less and eternal. God chose to enter human history. These details make it clear. What Luke is about to relate is not a ‘once upon a time’ kind of thing. It is history about the most decisive moment in human history, the Incarnation.

Looking Ahead:

I’ll Try
The season of Advent, a Jubilee Year, the Year of Mercy – a perfect time to step out of our comfort zone, and into performing spiritual works of mercy! Do you know anyone who has been away from the church, or who doesn’t have a parish home? They could be doubtful (1), or not realize the importance of community and worshipping together (2). They may have strayed from the path (3), or may need the comfort reconnecting could provide (4). Now is a perfect time to invite them to come to church with you. We Believe. We Belong. We Invite!

Ending the Year Well
We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis of Pittsford, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany – it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:

- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Birdie Proctor at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2015 will need to be received by December 31, 2015.

Thank you to all of those who have generously responded to the Catholic Ministries Appeal so far! Please remember, the CMA is our fair share of the budget for the ministries supported by our diocese. Any shortfall comes out of our parish budget, so your generosity is important! Especially if you haven’t participated in the past, PLEASE consider making a pledge this year. If you are moved to take an envelope and give a bit more than you already have, bless you!!
Eucharistic Adoration and the Year of Mercy

As we begin the Jubilee Year of Mercy this coming week, please note the importance of Eucharistic adoration, highlighted by “24 hours for the Lord, a day-long period of Eucharistic adoration” as one of the twelve big events scheduled by Pope Francis during this Jubilee Year.

The pope also noted, “How good it is to stand before a crucifix, or on our knees before the Blessed Sacrament, and simply to be in His presence! How much good it does us when He once more touches our lives and impels us to share His new life! What then happens is that ‘we speak of what we have seen and heard’ (1 Jn 1:3).”

During Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration (PEA), the Real Presence of Our Lord is generally available to adorers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The formation of a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration (PEA) group at St. Louis has now begun and sign-ups are on-going. St. Louis adorers are sharing the side chapel at St. John of Rochester (which presently offers PEA), alongside St. John's adorers. Adorers can commit to a specific hour each week to be with Our Lord, or be available as a substitute, if needed. Also, everyone is invited to stop in at any time, day or night, even for just a few minutes.

Each week, certain hours will be focused as priority hours to consider. This week, we are again focusing on Tuesday hours as a priority. If you can commit to an hour on Tuesday, or at another time during the week, or would like to know more about St. Louis PEA, please see Deacon Dave, or contact him at ddeacondave@gmail.com, or Barb Snyder at twosnyders@gmail.com. You may also fill out one of the sign-up cards located in the church and leave it with an usher or at the parish office.

Worthy Vessels

The song ‘Earthen Vessels’ extolls a humble acknowledgement that, though sinners, frail in our humanity, God has chosen us to bear Christ to others. Yes, we are earthen vessels. But when it comes to consecrated vessels which hold the precious body and blood of Christ, the long standing tradition, and current discipline of the church indicates that we honor the sacredness of the Eucharist with worthy, unbreakable vessels. We’ve checked out the choices other churches have made, handled samples, and now are ready to order new communion ware that are in fact worthy and unbreakable. Would you like to contribute? We welcome any contribution. Perhaps you would like to donate a communion cup in memory of a loved one. You could have one engraved. Please contact Birdie for the pricing and details.

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE ANGEL TREES?

There are still many Angels on the trees. Please consider taking one or two Angels. A simple act of kindness, like purchasing a gift, can forever change the lives of others. It is also a beautiful Corporal Work of Mercy. So many refugees are in need, right here in our community. Every day they struggle to feed their family, heat their apartments and purchase clothing for the family. You can have a meaningful impact on someone’s life this Christmas by taking an Angel home.

Have you forgotten to take an angel from the tree? No problem. Purchase a pair of warm winter gloves for a man or woman, or a small man’s winter jacket, or a pair of men’s boots (size 8 or 9), or a soccer ball or a warm blanket. You do not need an Angel to ensure that a newly arriving refugee is very welcomed in our community.

Please return unwrapped gifts to the bins near the Angel Tree or to Saint’s Place at 46 South Main Street.

PART-TIME JOB

Saint’s Place has an immediate opening for a part time driver/crew manager

What you should know about…

Opening the Holy Door of Mercy in Local Churches

December 13, 2015
Sacred Heart Cathedral
2:00 pm

The ritual opening of the Holy Door of Mercy at the Basilica of St. Peter in Rome takes place on December 8, 2015, the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. That will mark the official opening of the Year of Mercy.

On the Third Sunday of Advent (December 13, 2015) “in every local church, at the cathedral, a Door of Mercy will be opened for the duration of the Holy Year.” (MV, 3)

The specific gesture that marks the beginning of the Extraordinary Holy Year is the opening of the Door of Mercy and the solemn procession of the local church – the bishop, clergy and people – into the cathedral, the Mother Church of all the faithful. (CM, 59)

From that moment, which will mark the solemn beginning of the Holy Year in each and every Diocese, particular churches and local communities will see to it that the Jubilee is lived, particularly through the liturgy by all the People of God. (MV, 3)

How to receive a Plenary Indulgence in the Year of Mercy for yourself or a person who may be in Purgatory:

Make a pilgrimage to Sacred Heart Cathedral and pass through the Holy Door of Mercy. Also within several days:

- make a good confession
- celebrate the Holy Eucharist,
- make a profession of faith,
- and pray for the pope and his intentions for the good of the Church and the whole world.
SOUNDS OF THE SEASON

CALLING ALL YOUNG MUSICIANS!

If you have been thinking of giving our teen choir a try, now is the perfect time. The teens usually sing the first Sunday of every month. We are opening up the group to any who want to try singing with us at the 3:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass. The teens traditionally provide the music for this liturgy. Many of our college students return to help us out as well. We rehearse with refreshments just one hour before the crowds arrive and do a lovely selection of carols and instrumental solos before mass. This year the group will be working up their rendition of the Leonard Cohen “Hallelujah” (with an appropriate Christmas text of course), and Amy Grant’s “Breath of Heaven”. If interested, please give Stephanie a call at 586-5675 ext. 251, or shoot an email to shonz@rochester.rr.com. Hope to hear from YOU!

The Lyric Chorale, directed by Chrisanne Yule, presents a holiday concert:

St. Louis Church, 60 South Main St., Pittsford

Tickets: $15 adults; $13 seniors & students. Advance tickets available at St. Louis Ministry Center (586-5675) or at www.lyricchorale.org.

Please join The Lyric Chorale as it presents “Gloria!”- magnificent choral music for the holiday season featuring Vivaldi’s Gloria. The program also includes works by Charpentier, Telemann, Nelhybel, and beloved carols such as Bring a Torch Jeannette Isabella, Pat-a-Pan, and He is Born.

IS CHRISTMAS A DIFFICULT TIME FOR YOU?

At this time of year, many of us begin our Christmas celebrations remembering the year’s events with joy and happiness. However, for many, the Christmas season is not a time to celebrate joy and happiness, but a time that brings loss, loneliness, grief, depression and the sense of just wanting the season to be over. You are not alone.

St. Louis Bereavement Team is inviting anyone who may be experiencing a difficult Christmas this year to join us for a Special Prayer Service in Church on Tuesday, December 15 at 7:00pm.

Your family here at St. Louis will walk with you during what can be a very difficult Christmas time.

Please come and be surrounded by the peace of Jesus, the prayer of friends and the comfort of knowing you are not alone.
