The Spiritual Works of Mercy

Corporal works of mercy address physical, bodily human needs. Spiritual works of mercy respond to needs of the soul. After all, poverty of the spirit, drains life of energy, joy, and sense of purpose, and is one kind of poverty that can last forever. Our spirits long for the nourishment of truth, good ess, and beauty to be healthy and strong, to grow in sanctification and be prepared for the life to come. Hence in addition to corporal works of mercy, the Church outlines spiritual works of mercy. These are preventative medicine for poverty of the spirit. They are:

(1) Admonish sinners.
(2) Instruct the uninformed.
(3) Counsel the doubtful.
(4) Comfort the sorrowful.
(5) Be patient with those in error.
(6) Forgive offenses.
(7) Pray for the living and the dead.

Let’s explore these spiritual works of mercy, to see how we can serve God by putting these works in action.

(1) Admonish Sinners

This work of mercy, "tough love," is one of the hardest to practice in the western world today. Why? Because we live in the "I'm OK-you're OK" culture. As such, I have my own personal set of values, and you have your own personal set of values; we are each free to practice those values to our heart's content, as long as we do not do grievous bodily harm to others (although that limitation is waived when the "others" in question are unborn children, the chronically ill, and elderly).

Want to be unpopular? Risk getting a punch in the nose? Try admonishing someone today for swearing in public, wearing provocative clothing, or talking loudly in church. What about malicious gossip? Try objecting to the prevalence of pornography; try engaging in non-violent protests outside an abortion clinic.

Nine times out of 10, attempts to "admonish sinners," no matter how gently and compassionately, brand one as intolerant. What is more politically incorrect in an "I'm OK-you're OK" culture than to tell others, "You're not OK; you're harming yourself and others, spiritually and psychologically, perhaps even physically and sociologically?"

Many in our society have not made much real psychological or moral progress since adolescence. Stumbling through life with an adolescent understanding of love, they understand being ‘loved’ to mean being

Not Just a Practical Matter

It’s not hard to figure out – for a parish to exist, to have a church in which to gather, ministries for worship, education, pastoral care, and the many other facets of parish life, there needs to be financial support, and the primary way that happens is through the Sunday offering. But our 1st reading today makes it clear – it isn’t just about human practicalities, it is about divine worship. Why take up the collection when we do? During Mass there is a logic to the flow of our prayer. We gather. We acknowledge our need for mercy. We pray. We listen to the Word. We intercede. In the second half of Mass, our worship flows from the paschal mystery. Jesus offered himself for us, so we join our offering (our contribution, and our very selves) with his. We remember the Last Supper, so that our offering is connected to that central event. You know the rest of the story. But hear it in our first reading, long before Jesus’ incarnation. Bring your offering, set it before the Lord, and bow in God’s presence. So we are instructed, and so we do!

The Mailbox Is Full

We may hear that when trying to leave someone a message, but when we call upon the Lord, as St. Paul encourages us through the letter to the Romans, we will never get that response! Could Paul be any more clear? “For ‘everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved’.” As you use the little black book through Lent, think of it as a great time each day to ‘call upon the name of the Lord.’ How would you describe the way you spend those 6 minutes each day of Lent?

Right Priorities

The Spirit led Jesus into the desert, the symbolic place of testing, and each temptation was dramatic. But look closely – at the heart of the temptations: put yourself first. Abandon obedience to God and the commandments, to fulfill your needs, to win power, to put yourself as the top priority, rather than putting God at the center of your life. At Home with the Word has excellent reflections on the Gospel, the other readings, and the ‘Practice of Faith’, specifically fasting. Check it out.

This Week’s Tithing Will Support House Of Mercy

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Sister Regis Food Cupboard

The Sister Regis Food Cupboard was named for Sister Regis Straungha who started the food cupboard in 1965 at Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Woodward Street in Rochester. Several years ago the pantry, serving the Northeast neighborhood of Rochester for over 55 years, moved to its current location on Bay Street in the same building as Matthew’s Closet. Our own Fr. Ray Booth was a good friend of Sister Regis; both served at Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish for many years. In March of 2011, a fire devastated the food pantry but they came back stronger than ever with the help of many people and organizations in the community.

- The pantry serves approximately 963 households in a month. Many who come are receiving public assistance for the first time. Eligible clients can visit the Food Cupboard once a month on a walk-in-basis. Prospective clients must bring criteria such as identification cards for each family member, financial income information, etc., for proof of eligibility. The cupboard is open Monday & Tuesday from 12-3pm and Thursday from 12-2 pm.

- Mercy Sister Julia Norton is the director of the Sister Regis Food Cupboard, and she very much appreciates our help to meet the needs of those experiencing tough times in Rochester. Thank you for your continued generosity and prayers for the clients and volunteers of the food cupboard.

To learn more of many volunteer opportunities such as stocking the shelves, taking care of the clients, cleaning and doing the necessary business and secretarial work, contact Sr. Julia at (585) 454-6766. If you would like to assist with delivering the food collected at St. Louis for the Sr. Regis Food Cupboard, please contact Christine Wensel, Pastoral Associate, at the Ministry Center: (585) 586-5675, ext. 224 or cwensel@dor.org.

Top Ten Reasons

There are at least 10 solid reasons for contributing to the church. Today’s first reading lays out the #1 reason: God has given us what we have; in gratitude we return a portion. True, that connection was, and still is much clearer in an agrarian society. We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land; but it is fed and watered by God’s almighty hand. He sends us snow to our livelihood and to our needs. We heard in the 1st Epistle of Peter, and in communion are part of God giving to us. We heard in the 1st Epistle of Peter, and in communion are part of God giving to us. We heard in the 1st Epistle of Peter, and in communion are part of God giving to us. We heard in the 1st Epistle of Peter, and in communion are part of God giving to us.

How can you translate firstfruits and products of the soil to your livelihood and offering to the Lord?

Hungering for Opportunity in Columbia

Option for the Poor: Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Option for the Poor, Jesus tells us to care for those most in need, reminding us of our Christian duty to give a voice to those who are unheard and to help those who are most vulnerable.

Maria’s Story: Fighting between armed forces made life in Cumbitara, Colombia so dangerous for Maria and her family that 8 years ago they left their home with nothing but a suitcase of clothes to make a new life in Nariño, a region of Colombia known for its coffee. People made fun of Maria and her family because they were outsiders. It was hard to find work, so Maria’s father left home for months at a time to do dangerous work in a mine. All that changed when the family bought a little piece of land through the CRS Borderlands project. On it, they grow gourmet coffee that is sold in the United States. Maria, now 18 years old, was chosen for a special program and is earning a degree in farming. The program, run by the local university and CRS’ Borderlands project staff, trains young people to become leaders in the coffee industry. Maria has a new career goal: to help neighboring coffee farmers make a living growing the best coffee possible.

St. Louis Council Knights of Columbus

Next Meeting, Monday, February 15 in the Parish Meeting Hall.

Our meeting begins with the Rosary at 6:45 PM followed by a business meeting at 7:00 PM. The meeting agenda includes a report on the Children's Poster contest at St. Louis School. We are very happy to have 3 winners whose posters will go on to the Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus to be judged. We are the only Council who had winners in the Rochester District.

The Holy Family Prayer Service was well attended. The prayer service was led by our Pastor Bob Ring and Officers of St. Louis Council led us in the Rosary. The Holy Family I-Con was on display at all the Masses; it was a special day as it was the Feast of the Holy Family.

The Work of Our Hands (WOOH), a Spiritual Knitting & Crocheting Group, is a joint ministry of the Church of the Transfiguration and St. Louis Church. We are a small community of caring, laid back folks who gather to create beautiful items with knitting needles, crochet hooks and yarn which are gifted to those in need. In 2015, we donated over 2700 warm hats, scarves, shawls, blankets, baby items and more for organizations that nurture the poor of our county. This includes projects like the Christmas basket program at Transfiguration, and agencies such as Saint’s Place, Mary’s Place, Matthew’s Closet, Open Door Mission and many more. We joined a national on-line challenge last November and garnered over $180 for the UN refugee services in Europe by simply posting photos of our donations on Instagram. All this was accomplished while sharing prayers, love and laughter.

How can you help? Join us once, twice or three times a month, your choice; no experience necessary! We teach, provide needles, hooks, patterns and yarn. Can’t come on Thursdays? Bring us your gifts created at home and we will find a special home for them. Find yourself drowning in a stash of yarn you no longer want? Have you found or been given a pile of yarn from someone’s attic/craft room or from a garage sale? We gratefully take donations of many types of yarn and craft them into beautiful items. Have an unfinished project? Send it along and we will try and adopt it. We even accept cash to increase our “stash”; we are not proud. We meet the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of the month from 1:00 – 3:00 PM, and the 3rd Thursday of the month from 6:00 – 8:00 PM in the Education Building at Transfiguration (upper floor). For more info or to donate contact Rosemary Utz, djones6703@aol.com or 585-261-2086 (Transfiguration); Karen Giovagnoli, 385-6517 or kareng10@frontiernet.net (St. Louis); Kathleen McMahon, kmcmahon@rochester.rr.com or 703-6025.

The Chocolate Rose Sale for Project Rachel and Elizabeth Ministry was a big success thanks to all our Knights and volunteers, but most of all to our Parishioners who bought the Roses for a very worthwhile cause.

We will also discuss our involvement with Saint’s Place, and our planned Parish Recruitment Drive in April. Please keep in mind that the Council has sponsored a shelf at the Pittsford Food Cupboard for another year under the direction of our Warden, Walt McCanna.

Men of the Parish interested in becoming a Member of St. Louis Council can pick up one of the applications by our bulletin board in the Narthex hallway or contact one of our members.

REMEMBER: W. W. J.
