Ask 10 people why they come to Mass each week, you might get 10 different answers. But dig deeper, beyond the first response, and one reason will almost surely rise to the top: to be fed. Just as a healthy body requires nourishment, and craves food when undernourished, so too the healthy soul requires nourishment, giving us hunger pangs should we fail to feed it. A good conversation to engage this month, prior to Lent – ask your partner, a parent or a child, a good friend - even someone you see coming to Mass, or after the dismissal: how does the Mass feed your soul? Learning how others experience being fed helps us to evangelize. Understand the answers, and not only might we be better nourished; we can help others find nourishment that could save their soul from starvation. That’s a good thing!

For me, even thinking about heading to Mass can serve as a great appetizer. So does coming into a beautiful, holy place, sanctified through generations of people praying there. Gathering with all who come in, some with infant in arms, some with older children in tow, some coming alone, some in a wheelchair, adolescents eager to see their friends – it’s a wonderful, nutritious soup, each terrific assembly that gathers, 4:30, 7:30, 9:00, 11:00 and 5:00. At a salad bar, we all have our favorite items, while other things may seldom get on to our plate. For me, a group of people singing together in praise of God is profoundly nourishing, for others perhaps not so much. But one of the beauties of Mass? Like a salad bar, it offers so many things! The space in which we gather, the inspiring assembly of people, music, greetings and dialogues, prayers, scripture and explanation, silence and reflection, the sounds of voices praying as one, ministers serving together, the Lord praying with us, drawing us into the paschal mystery through the Eucharistic prayer, inviting us to table, feeding us with his body and blood, the communion procession, announcements about so many opportunities, blessings … food for the soul, food for everyone! Please, think about ways you have been fed through the years. Engage a conversation with others about spiritual nourishment.

Every sacrament nourishes the soul, since every sacrament is an encounter with Christ. Through a special Mass, renewal of vows, sharing and a reception, on Friday evening February 14th, nourishment will come through the sacrament of marriage. Those who attended last year can tell you all about going home very well fed! Nourishment for everyone, nourishment for your relationship.

Yet another opportunity to feed the soul: the Catholic Women’s Conference, March 1st. Women, check out the details inside, and register, so that you don’t miss out on this grand buffet. Be a part of history in this first annual event.

Bible study can feed the soul – check inside. So too can engaging in ministry. Yes, in giving we are fed. God does provide us with a rich banquet. Let us feast! Fr. Bob

Question and Answer

The book of Malachi (my messenger) has a distinctive style: Q & A. A proposition is offered. The people ask questions, and God, through the prophet, responds. A great way to get the point across, then and now! It is a short book, fairly straightforward, and you can see the back and forth dialogue – try reading Malachi (the last book in the Old Testament) this week.

With concern for getting the nation, and worship in Jerusalem back on the right track, and with a passion for justice, the prophet proclaims that 1) God will send a messenger announcing the covenant, 2) God will come to the temple, 3) God will purify the temple and its ministers, so that pure sacrifices can be offered. We hear from Malachi on this feast since we believe the prophecy is fulfilled in: 1) God sending John the Baptist, 2) Jesus being brought to the temple by Mary & Joseph, which we commemorate today, and 3) the Eucharist is the pure sacrifice.

Right Out of the Bible

At the beginning of the 3rd Eucharistic prayer, we hear: ‘you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a perfect sacrifice may be offered to your name.’ Concern about a pure sacrifice being offered: read Malachi. In fact, read Malachi 1:11, and discover just how biblical our catholic faith is, and where our prayers come from – right out of the Bible!

Being Tested

Do ever feel your faith is being tested? Our 2nd reading tells us that being tested is part of being human. It also reminds us that Jesus too was tested through what he suffered. When we are tested, spending time with the Jesus is the answer. We might even put ourselves in the garden of Gethsemane, and pray with him there.

Pillars of the Temple

In telling us about Mary and Joseph bringing the infant Jesus to the Temple, Luke’s Gospel introduces two individuals, Simeon and Anna. Often Luke balances stories. Gabriel appears to Zechariah, Gabriel appears to Mary; we hear of the widow of Zarephat, then Naaman the Syrian; a parable of a man planting a mustard seed, a parable of a woman mixing flour and yeast; a parable of a man with a lost sheep, a parable of a woman and a lost coin. In this case, both Simeon and Anna are up in years, and pillars of the Temple. They also serve as a bridge between the Old Testament and the New Covenant, much like Zechariah and Elizabeth. Faithful, prayerful figures at home in the Old Testament world, they have been waiting for the Messiah. After holding Jesus (Simeon) or seeing him (Anna), they praise God. Now they can now die fulfilled.

Opening the Mail

St. Paul wrote to the believers in Corinth, but he was writing to us as well. Don’t let his letter just sit in the mailbox! Come to Bible study on Saturday morning, in the Manse, right after the 9AM Mass. No experience needed. A good conversation guaranteed. We’ll try to keep it to 45 minutes. Don’t worry about missing the first two sessions – just give it a try! Come for a taste of Bible study. Two weeks left, February 9 & 15, at 9:30 am in the Manse. This could be the Bible study for you! See you there, Fr. Bob

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE OF ROCHESTER

Is offering a 10-week hope and healing program for those who are separated, divorced or widowed. Weekly sessions will be held from 7-9 p.m. here at the Manse building at St. Louis Parish, 52 S. Thank you for braving the winter weather and joining us for Mass! Do you realize what an inspiration it is to your priests, to lectors, cantors, and servers to look out into the church and see folks of all ages and walks of life, gathering, praying together, singing together, coming forward to share in Eucharist? A holy moment indeed!

Thank you to all who contribute as well, and all who have increased your offering. Last weekend before the 11AM Mass, the blower on the church heating system gave out. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to replace it this week, and not worry ‘how will we pay for this’? While no one brought ‘a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons’, as our Gospel tells us that Mary and Joseph brought to the Temple, you brought just what we need … contributions to support the ongoing life of our parish.

Hospitality

Week in and week out, families and individuals provide hospitality on Sunday mornings by hosting coffee hour after the 7:30 and 9:00 Mass.

Please join in a big thank you to:

THE 7:30 AM CREW ~ Beverly & Tom Cummings, Rosemary & Bob Scholl, Marcia & Dick Hilliard, Mary Terry and Carlos Rodriguez, Barbara Chiaccharini, Joan & Bob Farnam;

THE 9:00 AM CREW ~ Mary Kay Sanna, Beth Murray, Leanne Bestram, Rachel and John Eilertsen, Bernie Eilertsen, Mary Sue and Frank Dehn, Marlene and Matt Giacobbi, Marjorie Noye and Family, Andrea and David DiLiberto, Anne and Doug Jeff, Chris and Janine Mooney, Ted and Christine Arosest, Jeff and Andrea Calabrese, Glenn and Julie Latulipe; and a special thank you to Rachel Eilertsen who coordinates the 9:00 am coffee hour schedule and to Sally Schrecker who coordinates the Ministry and Maria Shafer who shops for the supplies!

(Do you know how coffee hours began here? A group of folks in the parish got together and said ‘This would be a good thing to do. Let’s do it!’ The rest is history ….)

Stewardship Prayer

Loving God, you are the source of every good gift; gifts of creation that surround us, the mysteries and gifts of human life within. We praise you and thank you for all these treasures, and for your tender, faithful love.

Center us in gratitude. Open our eyes to how blessed we are, and what a blessing we can be. Teach us the joys of generosity. Give us the courage to give as freely as we have received. Help us to believe, to belong and to make this parish all that it can be.

Together we can accomplish amazing things in your name. Help us open our hands and hearts, becoming a blessing to others, to your honor and glory, Amen.

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Saint’s Place

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

In March of 1998, the Pittsford Clergy Association opened a food cupboard in the Old Pickle Factory on Grove Street. The Pittsford Food Cupboard is now an independently incorporated agency. In April 1998, Deacon Tom Driscoll became the director and the food cupboard served 10 households a week, with food and making referrals to agencies that help folks get back on their feet.

Since then, the Pittsford Food Cupboard has grown to serve over 300 families each month. From its operation in the Old Pickle Factory, the cupboard serves people from six ZIP codes, including Rochester, East Rochester, Brighton and Pittsford. Anita Conlin, a St. Louis Parishioner, is the current director of the Pittsford Food Cupboard. Clients come from all walks of life, many just needing a little help to get through a period of unemployment or illness. In the last two years, the food cupboard has seen a 43 percent increase in family needs.

Thank you for your prayers for the clients, the 55 volunteers and staff, and for your food donations and the critical financial support.

We Invite You to Celebrate Your Marriage

St. Louis is sponsoring a St. Valentine’s evening for married couples. Whether you have been married 6 months or 60 years, please join us on Friday night, February 14th at 7:00 pm for a special Mass. You will have an opportunity to renew your wedding vows. We will hear reflections from couples, followed by a reception in the Parish Meeting Hall. Through all our joys and struggles, let us appreciate the gift we are to each other. Please bring an appetizer or dessert to share and RSVP with what you’re bringing to Dan and Kate McBride at 385-5631 or stlouisyouthgroup@rochester.rr.com. If you would like to help out, please let us know. Thank you.

The Conversion of Saint Paul

My dear sisters in Christ:

As the newly installed Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester, it is my pleasure to extend this invitation to you and to encourage you to attend The Heart of the Matter, the first ever Rochester Catholic Women’s Conference, to be held March 1, 201 at Aquinas Institute, in Rochester.

This Conference, honoring the dignity of women and desiring to assist women of all ages in their exalted vocations, will include the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, uplifting music and engaging speakers addressing relevant topics, all of which will prepare the attendees for the holy season of Lent, which begins the following week.

It is my prayer that this Conference will contribute to the build up of the Catholic faith in the Diocese and serve as an important part of the New Evangelization called for by Blessed Pope John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI and now our Holy Father, Pope Francis. I am grateful for the organizers of this event who worked closely with the staff at the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester, for their initiative, prayers and planning. I hope that you are able to be present for this Conference to discover, or even rediscover, Jesus Christ as the Heart of the Matter.

Asking the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the woman of courageous and extraordinary faith to intercede for you, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Salvatore R. Matano
Bishop of Rochester

“Ask Father Bob”

Thanks to our new Holy Father, Pope Francis, many people are interested in the Catholic faith. Now more than ever it is a time to learn about our faith so that we can be prepared to answer questions about Catholicism. This evening Father Bob will help us by answering questions about Church teaching and how to best respond to those sometimes difficult questions.

Bring your questions and be enlightened!

The annual “Jesus Classic” Charity basketball game between St Louis CYO Varsity and Transfiguration CYO Varsity will be held on Thursday February 6 at 8PM at Calkins Road Middle School. This year’s event is a fundraiser to benefit the children of the DeJoy, Murry and Baglieri families. Tickets are $5.00 and available at the door. Refreshments will be available. Please come out and watch some very entertaining basketball between these heated rivals as well as supporting a great cause.

Stephen Ministers Are Care-Givers, God Is the Cure-Giver

The role of a Stephen Minister is to give care. They listen, empathize, encourage, pray, and provide emotional and spiritual support on a weekly basis to hurting people for as long as the need persists. God works in and through them to bring hope and healing. If you are feeling lonely, experiencing a crisis, struggling through a difficult time, or simply find yourself stressed by everyday life, contact Cris Wensel or call our confidential phone line at 586-5675 ext. 324 to learn more about Stephen Ministry.

Maternity and Early Childhood Foundation

The Maternity and Early Childhood Foundation (MECF) is a not for profit agency founded in 1983 in response to the high number of teenage mothers and low income single-parent families who were receiving late or no prenatal care. Its mission is to ensure a safe and healthy birth of the child and the well-being of the mother by supporting and promoting services to those pregnant and parenting women who are most in need.

One example of the programs supported by MECF funding is

which helps young mothers who are without family support.

Mercy Community Services provides a continuum of supportive housing and services for pregnant and parenting teens and young women and their children, from emergency shelter and transitional housing to supportive community-based apartments. The programs offer case management and life skills education in a nurturing environment.

Using a holistic approach, women are empowered to develop healthy relationships, become effective parents and work toward self-sufficiency.

Opened in 1980, the programs were founded by The Sisters of Mercy and the Catholic Worker movement to create a safe, stable environment for young women for the duration of their pregnancy and beyond.

Most of the families served by MECF funded programs are living in extreme poverty with unstable housing, lack of transportation and little or no employment. More than 40% of the parents enroll in the program prenatally - the best time to make a positive impact on health of the baby and the mother.

The Maternity and Early Childhood Foundation has seen its funding reduced through the years, that is why we are asking Governor Cuomo and the Legislature to provide $3 million for this initiative which truly Strengthens Families.

FAITH FORMATION

JESUS, THE PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the temple. The Presentation, which is celebrated 40 days after Christmas, is not mentioned in the other Gospels. Only Luke tells the story, most likely because he writes for Gentile Christians who are not familiar with the Jewish rite of presentation and purification. In addition, the intent of Luke’s Gospel is to show that God’s promise to Israel, fulfilled in Jesus, extends to Gentiles.

Luke recognizes Joseph and Mary as faithful Jews who bring Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem. Here they present their firstborn son to the Lord. Jesus is thus consecrated as required by the Law of Moses. Present in the temple at this time are Simeon and Anna. Both are awaiting the restoration of God’s rule in Israel.

Simeon had been promised by the Holy Spirit that he would see Christ the Lord, the Messiah, before he died. The holy man immediately recognized the infant Jesus as the promised Savior, a “light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” Anna also recognized Jesus as the fulfillment of the promise of redemption and spoke about him to all. To these two holy people, he was recognizable as the Redeemer who had been promised.

We too are called to recognize Jesus as Lord. Together as a family discuss ways to recognize Jesus as Lord by praying and attending Mass, fasting, and serving others. As a family, decide on one specific sacrifice you can make in order to alleviate the suffering or need of someone you know.

FIRST COMMUNION PREPARATION

If you haven’t already done so, and you feel your child is ready to receive First Communion in 2014, please register your children NOW for this preparation program. The deadline for registration is Monday February 3rd at 5:00 p.m. You can register on line at the church website or pick-up a registration form in the Ministry Center. Please remember that before your child’s registration is complete, we must have a copy of their baptismal certificate (even if they were baptized at St. Louis).

We offer these guidelines for the readiness of your child for this program:

- A candidate should be second grade or higher
- Families need to be registered members of St. Louis Parish.

First Communion preparation begins in March. A packet of information for registered families will be available to pick up at the religious education bulletin board in the Narthex area the weekend of February 8th and 9th.

Please see the schedule below and mark your calendars.

- If you have any questions or concerns please contact Sue Payne at 586-5675 or email spayne@dor.org

The Best of France ~ November 4-13, 2014

Here is something for all you travelers to consider for next year: The choirs of St. Louis and St. Rita's have been invited to sing a formal concert in Lourdes, France. It is that time when I open up the trip to non-singers, friends, and family. We feel this itinerary will appeal to many, since we will see three important areas of France. We will begin the 9 day tour with a straight flight to Paris from Toronto. We usually charter two buses to the Toronto airport.

The trip will begin in Normandy with a special service in the American cemetery, a visit to Rouen, and Lisieux. We will experience the cuisine and wines of this area before proceeding to Paris where the sky is the limit. Versailles, the Louvre, high mass at St. Sulpice and Notre Dame, along with a night cruise down the Seine are just some of the highlights. Lastly, we will travel down to the south of France and visit the beautiful shrine of Lourdes. An evening candlelight rosary is one of the special features of the shrine, as well as the evening concert of sacred music given by our choirs. We hope you will consider joining us. Please contact Stephanie at 586-5675 x251 or shonz@rochester.rr.com for further inquiries.

The Hickey Center for Interfaith Studies and Dialogue is pleased to invite you to a Seminar:

“Faith Based Initiatives in the African American Struggle for Freedom and Justice in the Greater Rochester Area”

Dr. Martin Luther King’s leadership in “non-violent” resistance to bigotry is vital testimony to the success of the freedom movement in Twentieth Century America. King’s profound journey into American practices evokes the vision of a Beloved Community, a world in which “trust triumphs over fear and hatred.”

Where: Nazareth College, Otto Shults Community Center Forum

When: February 4, 2014 at 7pm

An illuminating review of key elements in the freedom movement, unfolding in the Greater Rochester region, will be led by:

Rev. Dr. John Walker, scholar and Pastor, Christian Friendship Baptist Church

Rev. Dr. Marvin McMickle, President, Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School

Imam Hanif Abdul-Wahid, Rochester native and activist, and founding member, Rochester-Monroe County Freedom Trail Commission.

Moderator: Dr. David Anderson, Visiting Community Scholar, Nazareth College

This event is free and open to the public!

Cosponsored by: Religious Studies, The Institute for Pluralism, and the College Lecture Committee
