We Pray
Angry Feelings
Jealousy, rivalry, animosity, anger: such raging feelings led to the warfare between King Saul and David, his God-anointed successor. When one feels cornered by the events and circumstances of one’s life, it is a natural response to want to lash out, to hit back, to do violence. In this, humans are not much different from their animal companions on the planet. Every angry impulse in our heart (or gut) carries with it the implicit message, “I could kill you!” And even if we can sit on such feelings in a given instance, those feelings do not dissolve. Rather, they drop into a well of angry feelings within us, ready to spring out with even greater force. Just think about your anger when driving: does it really come because of the drivers around you, or does it come from somewhere else?

The Two Natures of the Baptized
Those who are baptized into Christ, on the one hand, remain fully human in their nature, and yet, on the other hand, are transformed by the grace of God into spiritual beings. So for example, we are never delivered from angry feelings in response to life’s circumstances. But we have our God-given abilities to reason and reflect on those circumstances, as well as the grace and gifts of the Holy Spirit to rise above mere animal reactions. In other words, we have resources that we can draw from to help us dissolve the feelings of anger and find our way forward to ‘love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, fidelity, gentleness and self-control’ (see Galatians 5:16-25).

Radical Demands
The teachings of Jesus urge us still further, to what is seemingly impossible: loving our enemies, doing good to those who hate us, blessing those who curse us, praying for those who mistreat us. Stop judging, stop condemning, forgive? Really? Jesus is addressing the practical, concrete interactions of people, knowing as he does their first human responses, but knowing also their spiritual capabilities. At the heart of all these challenges is the so-called Golden Rule: “Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.” And the caution: “The measure with which you measure will be measured back to you.” Lent is soon upon us. Wouldn’t it be a great time to draw upon our spiritual resources and root out our sinful responses in our interactions with one another?

Have you ever been to a Steubenville Summer Youth Conference in Steubenville, Ohio? If you have, you would probably speak enthusiastically about the time spent praising God there in song! The experience can be difficult to adequately describe, but a good description is found in an e-mail I received regarding the upcoming Steubenville Night of Worship to be held at Guardian Angels Church on Friday, May 3rd from 7-9pm which reads:

"As many of you know from experience, Steubenville's charism for worshipping the Lord produces an amazing peace and joy deep within - even in troubled times. (Scripture tells us that God actually dwellsin His people's praises -Psalm 22:3). So this will not just be an 'event', but a real encounter with the Living God who heals us with Love, brings forth reconciliation among us, and renews us in our Christian mission! It will richly benefit parishioners of all ages; but I am reaching out especially to our Youth, who are the up-and-coming Church."

I hope that many young people from our parish will mark their calendars for May 3rd! Look in upcoming bulletins and e-mails for more information about how you can sign up for this very special experience. Come, Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with praise and thanksgiving!

In Christ, Mr. Dominic Salamida

At two ceremonies this past week, nine high school seniors from Saint Louis Parish were honored with the Hands of Christ Award by the Diocese of Rochester. This annual award recognizes the way graduating seniors have been the “Hands of Christ” in the parish, their schools, the community, and/or at home. This year’s honorees and the schools they attend are:

- Alexandra Best (Mendon)
- Aiden Holvey (McQuaid)
- Laura Kunz (Sutherland)
- Kidane Malik (Greece Arcadia)
- Caroline Miller (Rush Henrietta)
- Benjamin Murray (Pittsford Mendon)
- Melanie Pitcher (Our Lady of Mercy)
- James Schnell (McQuaid)
- Mary Rose Skelton (Sutherland)

While congratulations are in order here, it might be better for the parish to say “thank you” for the witness these young people have given by their faith and service, and for the living reminder they are to the rest of us to be witnesses ourselves by what we say and do. So, congratulations, thank you, and keep up your good work!

CHRIS PADGETT
FEBRUARY 27, 2019
7:00-8:30 P.M.
HERMANCE FAMILY CHAPEL OF ST. BASIL THE GREAT ST. JOHN FISHER COLLEGE

What would make a nationally known Christian musician, raised in an Assembly of God home, attend a Baptist college, even consider becoming Catholic? Chris Padgett’s journey into the Catholic faith was both exciting and terrifying. A family member disclosed to him, “You becoming Catholic is the most hurtful thing you’ve ever done.” In Easter of 1999. Chris and Linda Padgett along with their children entered the Catholic Church and their lives have never been the same!
