Finding the Sweet Spot

Balance. It is not easy to find, but definitely worth the effort! This Lent, why not make assessing the balance in our spiritual life, and ‘finding the sweet spot’ a goal? Finding balance in our practice of prayer, in fasting and the place of sacrifice in our life, and in our almsgiving and service? Our Gospel on Ash Wednesday will highlight one side of the fulcrum.

Prayer. In Matthew 18:20, Jesus tells us that when two or three gather in his name, he is present. He often prayed together with his disciples. Think of him giving thanks, praying with a huge crowd during the multiplication of the loaves & fish. He prayed too with smaller groups, think of the last supper. There is an echo of each every time we gather for Mass. But this Wednesday, he will remind us that prayer alone is also essential to a balanced prayer life. His prayer in the desert which we will commemorate next Sunday highlights the importance of solitude. Public prayer, solitude – do we find adequate time for both? Is our spiritual life balanced in that regard? Lent is a good time to take inventory!

Fasting. There is value to fasting together, as when Jesus, his family, and his disciples would have observed Passover. Public fasting has merit, for it can be a witness to the importance of sacrifice and emptying, and we can encourage one another. But showing off our fasting and sacrifice as a badge of honor – the value is seriously compromised! Like prayer, finding a balance between sacrifices we share with others, and those which we only share with God – that is finding a sweet spot.

Almsgiving. In recent weeks Jesus told us not to hide our light under a bushel basket. Let our light shine, so that others may see our good works and give glory to the Father. Ash Wednesday, Jesus will point to the other side of the scales: almsgiving in secret is also part of a healthy spiritual life. Fasting for show is bad. Never letting our light shine is also problematic. Praying to find the right balance, so that some of our generosity encourages others, but some is just between us and God – that is a balance worth examining this Lent.

Is solitude encouraged at times in your household? Also praying together? Are there times you fast or sacrifice together? Is everyone encouraged to make some ‘secret sacrifices’? What about a work of mercy you all participate in? But not forgetting of course that some ‘secret’ almsgiving, or giving of oneself is vital. Lent – a wonderful time to keep working toward ‘the sweet spot’.

To be real concrete – how will the little black books we all have fit into the balance this Lent? A few minutes for just you and God – spend some time, as it will invite us each day? At Home with the Word? How about reading the readings together, and using for prayer? Check out the bulletin board too! Peace always, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - March 5

Holy Word

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Isaiah 49:14 – 15
I will never forget you

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 4:1 – 5
A steward of the mysteries of God

Gospel: Matthew 6:24 – 34
Beyond worry

Maternal Instinct

Today’s first reading today is a song of consolation. First, Isaiah gives voice to his people’s fear. Has God forgotten and forsaken us? Is that why we are suffering in Exile? God’s response is resounding: NO! “You know the powerful attachment a mother has to her child? That pales in comparison to the lasting, tender Love I have for you!” The truth is even more vividly expressed if you read on to verse 16 for the next image: “I have carved you in the palm of my hand.”

Is being abandoned part of the spiritual journey? Even Jesus himself prayed: ‘My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?’ We too can feel abandoned at times. When feeling that abandonment, scripture can help. We read it. We meditate on it. We enter into the images. The goal is not simply to understand the words though. The goal is to meet the one who speaks to us, who does love us even beyond maternal instinct, to place ourselves into that hand into which we have been carved.

Beyond Worrying

The Sermon on the Mount invites us to conversion. The conversion, transformation placed before us today is an essential one. Every creature in the animal kingdom has a survival instinct, and so do we. Our animal circuitry is geared to taking care of ourselves – making sure we have food, water, shelter, and all the basic needs. For us humans, that instinct can go haywire, with the thought ‘if enough is good, more is better’. Do we need 10 times more than enough to feel secure? Perhaps 100 times? A thousand? Rather than save for a rainy day, it might look like we are saving for the great flood. From excessive self reliance, it is only a short step to writing God out of the picture. Jesus’ corrective: look at the freedom the birds of the air and the lilies of the field enjoy. God takes care of them. God provides for us as well. Everything we gain ‘on our own’ can disappear in a heartbeat. The deepest gifts we receive from God, mercy, peace and being loved beyond measure, cannot be wrested away from us. Look at some simple beauty of nature today, and let it speak to you.

Looking Ahead:

First Sunday in Lent

1st Reading: Genesis 2:7 – 9; 3:1 – 7
Out of the Garden of Eden

2nd Reading: Romans 5:12, 17 – 19
Jesus brings grace and life to all

Gospel: Matthew 4:1 – 11
We do not live on bread alone

Little Black Books

Little Black Books – It isn't just the content, it is also the method. Little Black books in Lent are an invitation to make prayer and reflecting on Scripture a part of every day; an invitation to ponder a spiritual question and 'spend some time with the Lord', at home, at work, or whenever you have 6 minutes to spare. Pick one up in church. Reflections will be based on the Passion according to John. Reflections begin February 26, 2017 and end Easter Sunday, April 16, 2017.

LENTEN REGULATIONS

The following regulations for Lenten sacrifice are based on the 1983 Code of Canon Law.

- All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat for Catholics over age 14. Anyone with a chronic illness or in a weakened condition receives dispensation automatically.
- Ash Wednesday (March 1) and Good Friday (April 14) are days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. Fasting means taking only one full meal and two smaller meals that, taken together, do not equal one full meal.
- Throughout Lent, Catholics are especially encouraged to perform voluntary acts of penance.

NOTRE DAME LEARNING CENTER

Notre Dame Learning Center (NDLC) located at 71 Parkway, Rochester 14608 resides in the Charles Settlement Building. This ministry of the School Sisters of Notre Dame was established in 2004 to address the needs of Rochester children having difficulty in school. Many city children have poor study habits, and lack basic reading and math skills, and need help outside the regular classroom setting. No matter how dedicated their school teachers are, some children fall through the cracks. Students come from the Rochester City School District as well as public, Catholic, charter and private schools. Some parents or guardians are reluctant or unable to help with homework because of their own educational background, or lack of it. Some children have no one who is really interested in them or who can give them one-on-one attention.

At the Notre Dame Learning Center, children are tutored on an individual basis. Each student works on an academic area of Reading/English Language, Arts and Mathematics, suggested by the parent, teacher, or as a result of diagnostic testing. Their volunteer tutors are kept up-to-date on the common core curriculum. Tutors not only help the children in their academic year of need, but also help them gain self-confidence and inspire them to be the best they can be. Parents say the bond formed between student and tutor is as beneficial as the academic help. NDLC serves over 40 school children each semester. Tutoring is free; however, there is a $10 per child per class registration fee for those who can afford it. There is now a High School Equivalency preparation program and a course for adults in basic computer literacy. Visit us at www.ndlcenter.org. Tutors come from all walks of life and training is provided. To volunteer as a tutor, for other volunteer opportunities, to give a gift from our wish list, or for more information, please call Sr. Evelyn Breslin at 254-5110 or by email at ndlc@frontiernet.net. Prayers are always welcome.

Education renders a huge strike at the causes of poverty.

Tri-Parish Lenten Retreat ~ March 13, 14, 15
St. Louis, Church of the Transfiguration and St. Catherine of Siena

Our remarkable leader, Pope Francis, invites all of us Catholics to become "missionary disciples" – people who follow Jesus with our hearts AND our feet. We are invited to feel how Jesus felt; and we're invited to go where Jesus went. Our faith does not allow us to sit secure in a world where our sisters and brothers cry out in desperation and abandonment. How will we find the courage and energy to care in this very wounded world? To be active as a caring, loving follower of Jesus is certainly a challenge. But it can be done! And it can be done with joy! Come hear Jack Jezreel speak to the place where caring for our neighbor and faith and spirituality intersect.

Saint’s Place has been blessed to witness an outpouring of generosity in the wake of the Executive Order temporarily barring refugees from entry into the United States. While the order is still unsettled, and refugees continue to arrive, we are busy with business as usual.

Many donors have called asking what did Saint’s Place need, how can they help? Here are just a few examples of our community’s desire to be active:

- Starbuck’s offered to do a collection of needed items at their stores throughout Rochester. They are also assisting us in securing a grant from “corporate”. Messner Carpets is collecting new socks for men and women and have also posted the request on their Facebook page. Nazareth students and an Irish dancing class have come forward to initiate a toiletry drive for the refugees.

Then we witness the everyday kindness … a lady stops by Saint’s Place and will purchase diapers on a weekly basis for the babies. The local colleges have come forward to volunteer at the Clothing Closet once a month. They include St. John Fisher College, Nazareth College, Roberts Wesleyan and Rochester Institute of Technology.

On February 28th, we will host a luncheon meeting at the Clothing Closet for seven Mormon Bishops. They want their churches to work with Saint’s Place and help the refugees. The Church of the Latter Day Saints has been very generous to our Ministry over the last year. Almost every day, two to four Elders assist with pickups and deliveries. Big Lots in East Rochester once again gave Saint’s Place the “reduced” price on mattresses. This is a huge blessing to our Ministry.

The times are challenging but the energy and dedication of our volunteers, donors, schools and Churches and the wonderful parishioners of St. Louis Church and St. John of Rochester simplify our tasks and motivate us to do more. God Bless you!
New Hymnal Dedications

After over 15 years of wear and tear, and due to the changes in the Order of Mass, we must replace our current hymnals. We need 750 hymnals for our parish and hope to raise the money and purchase the new Gather hymnals before Easter Sunday 2017.

Each hymnal is valued at approximately $20.00. You can donate as many hymnals as you like. Each hymnal you donate can be dedicated to the memory of a loved one or in honor of your family or friends. A nice remembrance!

Your generosity and commitment will ensure our success, and anything you can give toward the purchase of our new hymnals will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for considering a donation toward the purchase of our new hymnals. (see p.3)

If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to contact me. I will follow up with a phone call in the next couple of days. Sincerely in Christ, Stephanie Honz, Pastoral Associate of Music and Liturgy 585-586-5675 x251 or shonz@rochester.rr.com.
