All Things To All

The ‘Scripture Insights’ section in At Home with the Word this week poses an interesting question. Does our second reading today identify St. Paul as a workaholic, trying to be all things to everyone? Tossing that around at Bible Study Tuesday morning, we recognized a different dynamic. While driven, passionate to share the Gospel and to care for the churches he founded, here Paul is imitating Christ (next week’s 2nd reading). Christ met people where they were. He didn’t insist on them coming to him in order to receive grace, he went to them, meeting them where they were, bringing God’s love and mercy into all kinds of circumstances. As church, we strive to do the same.

How did Bistro Night become a regular function? Many activities in church center on families, while opportunities to share community and Christian fellowship for single or widowed folks can be few and far between. Voila! Bistro Night! Less than a week later, this Friday, we’ll have an event for couples, to celebrate the sacrament of marriage, renew vows, and find mutual support in that vocation. This Sunday is World Marriage Day. It is also the World Day for Consecrated Life. This year the church is engaged in the Synod on Family, yet it is also the Year of Consecrated Life. This weekend anointing will be offered to those with serious health concerns.

Wednesday is World Day of Prayer for the Sick, reminding us of their vital place in the life of the community, offering support, while celebrating that suffering is not meaningless, it can draw us deeper into the paschal mystery.

Next Saturday will be Ultreya, a chance for anyone to come, share a pot luck supper, do some faith sharing, be inspired by a witness, and conclude with peaceful prayer in the church. For those who find silence a privileged place to encounter and commune with God, our first Friday in Lent will include a soup luncheon, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, time in Adoration, and Benediction. For those beginning the journey, there will be an RCIA social on the 21st. Yet another form of prayer for those who find that music can be transporting: Friday evening, February 27th we’ll have an evening of Taize prayer. And on it will go through Lent.

Please look through this bulletin, and through the bulletin each week as we journey into and through Lent. All things to all. There are opportunities to experience the Lord’s presence in Christian fellowship for those who are single, those who are married, for families, for individuals. Learning about the faith with others often leads to epiphanies: there is a whole page full of learning opportunities. In the weeks ahead there will be varied ways to pray, some very familiar, some new. Hopefully, there will be something for everyone in the next couple of months. Where will you fit into the picture? Blessings to you and those you love, Fr. Bob

Requiem Aeternam

Things Can Change in a Heartbeat
Try to imagine. As the story of Job begins, he is one blessed man! Good health, a warm, loving family, a wife, 10 adult children: seven sons, three daughters, many servants; huge property holdings. In one day, unimaginable disasters strike, one after the other, taking everything. Shortly after, even his good health is taken away. His prayer shifted from praise and gratitude, to the lament of today’s first reading. Two ways to enter into this challenging reading: 1) realize that at any given moment, there are refugees, victims of disaster, folks suffering in our world today who could easily echo Job’s very words – pray for them! 2) try to imagine how truly keeping the Sabbath, a day of rest, family, enjoying the good things of this world, gratitude could transform a dismal view and experience of life as drudgery. Sabbath: a gift, and break from the drudgery.

An Important Skill
Beyond revealing conflicts St. Paul had opponents in Corinth, the passage we hear today gives insight into St. Paul’s effectiveness. Some folks have a “this is the way I am, take it or leave it” attitude when approaching others. Being a good steward can suffer as a result. Quite the opposite is Paul. Clearly a strong and forceful guy, he is willing to become weak to save the weak. He is not above entering the world of the other on their terms, if that is what communicating the Good News of Jesus requires. How are we at stepping out of our world, to step into the world of another? Our Lenten journey can help, through the Stations, fasting, Operation Rice Bowl, or whatever almsgiving we choose.

A View from the Inside
Jesus heals Peter’s mother-in-law; her fever leaves, and she waits on them. For just a moment, try to get inside this short pericope. You are the woman of the house. Hospitality gives meaning to your life. You have a most important guest visiting, and you can’t even get up to welcome them at the door! The hardships of illness can be far more than just not feeling well. When Peter’s mother-in-law is healed and waits on them, it is not as a servant. It is her home, and she has been restored to her place. We aren’t talking menial labor; she can now be the hostess, a role sickness had taken from her.

Welcome Back
Next week, we’ll hear how leprosy isolated people from the community in a dreadful way, we’ll see Jesus heal and restore a leper back into the community and Paul will give very brief, practical advice on discipleship. Don’t miss it!

Preparing to Prepare
"What are you giving up for Lent?" I've answered so many different ways over the years. Usually it's "giving some things up"; making commitments for extra mass attendance, increased almsgiving and prayer, going to confession, etc. Moreover, I typically thought about this and "made my deal" (!) with God on Ash Wednesday.

This year, I'm using the "ordinary time" before Lent to prepare for my Lenten journey. Part of my "ordinary" frustration of daily life is not having/making the time to connect with people in my life. To prepare for this holy season, I've made a list of 40 people to whom I plan to write letters or cards each day. I'm using this time to locate their mailing addresses in hopes of them having something to physically hold when they read my greeting. Some of these friends may be suffering or going through a rough spot; others are persons whose faith and generosity have witnessed to me in a special way; still others are just people I've lost touch with over the busy years. Making the list has already given me cause to thank God for gifting me with so many wonderful people whose life journeys have intersected mine. I've already received grace in this simple preparation for Lent. It will be amazing to see what graces come during Lent itself, Easter and beyond! From the 3rd pew, right side.

Discovering Taize
It is an ecumenical community in France, but also a wonderful style of prayer. Get a taste of this mystical, musical prayer style on February 27th at 7:00 PM. MUSICIANS: interested in helping that evening, and learning more about the music of Taize? Please e-mail Fr. Bob, Ring@dor.org

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES ASSISTANCE
FOR EBOLA VIRUS VICTIMS IN WEST AFRICA

Bishop Matano has requested that diocesan parishes assist Catholic Relief Services (CRS) in its efforts to battle the deadly Ebola virus and its victims in West Africa. St. Louis will be tithing the weekends of February 14/15, 21/22 & February 28/March 1 to support CRS, the official overseas relief agency of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops. Among its many efforts, CRS has committed to training thousands of health workers and facilities in infection-control procedures, ensuring safe and dignified burials for victims of Ebola and developing and implementing prevention awareness programs, as well as providing food to more than 120,000 people who have lost their source of income or can no longer meet their food needs due to the outbreak’s effect on local economies. Please keep the Ebola virus victims and the CRS workers in your prayers.

ALL ABOUT FAITH

A Little Voice In Our Heads...

How often have we heard either a small whisper or a louder challenge from a voice in our head? Some call that voice our conscience; some, just a thought; and others, a call or nudging of the Holy Spirit. Then, when hearing that voice, how do we respond?

Like many people who have come into full communion with the Catholic Church, it was that nudging of the Holy Spirit that helped them to begin the journey of becoming Catholic. If you or someone you know has ever experienced that nudging of the Spirit to find out more about becoming Catholic, we invite you to take that first step to respond.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is an on-going process to assist individuals to discern this call and provide the necessary guidance and information to begin this journey. If you are interested in finding out more about the RCIA, we encourage you to contact Father Bob (ring@dor.org) or Cris Wensel (cwensel@dor.org).

Each video is preceded by a lively group discussion. Materials purchased for the previous study can be used. If you did not participate in the previous study you can still join us. The cost is $45 to cover The Bible Timeline study kit. We meet on Saturdays at 9:30 am in the Parish Meeting Hall. If you have questions regarding the study or the materials, please contact Kathryn McAlarney at mcalarney1@gmail.com.

Life Pray-ers Program Continues

The Life Pray-ers Program ties each Consistent Life Ethic (CLE) tenet to a particular sacrament. The pairings encourage prayer towards life issues by focusing on God’s sacramental graces, together with God’s love and mercy to those affected by the life issues.

Each weekend, parishioners write their name (or family name) on a card to be hung on a beautiful, large banner in church. The card simply states that the person/family will pray for that week’s life issue. CLE committee members collect cards after each Mass and hand out a relevant reflection. Displayed names also encourage others to participate. Last weekend, participants prayed for God’s mercy on all affected by poverty – the Eucharist was the sacrament for reflection. Similarly, this weekend, violence is paired with Confirmation. Next weekend will be the last weekend of this year’s program, and Euthanasia will be paired with the Sacrament of the Sick. The banners remain until Lent, to “catch-up” anytime. Please email Deacon Dave (deacondave@gmail.com) with questions. God bless and please know that everyone’s prayers are needed and important!

Model of Life of Prayer

Today’s Gospel completes a picture of Jesus’ ministry: preaching, curing the sick, driving out demons, and then moving on to continue this work in another place. Jesus' compassion and healing of the sick is a sign of the Kingdom of God. The Church continues to extend Christ's healing presence to others in its ministry to the sick. In the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, the Church prays for spiritual and physical healing, forgiveness of sins, and comfort for those who are suffering from illness.

In today's Gospel, we also notice the importance of prayer in Jesus' daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. When the disciples found him, he told them that it was time to move on. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives.

We know from last week's Gospel that Jesus gathered and prayed with the community in the synagogue. Today we learn that Jesus also took the time to pray alone. Following the example of Jesus, we also pray together with our community, and we take the time to pray alone. Our children observe our prayer with others. We might want to take the opportunity to talk with them about our private prayer, so that through our example, they may learn to make private prayer an important part of their daily lives.

Gather as a family and talk about the ways in which your family prays together (at Mass, grace before meals, bedtime prayers). Invite each member of the family to talk about his or her private prayer: When do you pray? Where do you pray? How do you pray? How do you pray for? Jesus modeled for us a life of prayer. received from God in prayer? Ask God to bless your times of prayer so that you can know and follow God's ways.
