If you would like to remember your loved ones with the celebration of the Eucharist, stop by the Ministry Center and schedule a Mass time that is convenient for you. You may wish to have a Mass offered on the anniversary of death, a person's birthday or a significant date in the person's and your life. You can also arrange this by calling Sue or Shannon at 586-5675.
Even in Death
Including St. Louis Church, School or Saint’s Place in your will is a wonderful way to support ministries that we value even after God calls us home. Another way to extend the blessing: Let our family know that, in lieu of flowers, contributions can be offered to St. Louis Church, School or Saint’s Place. Upon the death of a loved one, think prayerfully – where would my dear one want contributions to be made in his or her memory? A beautiful way to let folks know what we believe is truly important!

We are also part of a diocesan family, which we support through the Catholic Ministries Appeal. To all who have already generously responded to the CMA, thank you!! Our diocesan family is at over 84% percent of goal. Our St. Louis goal for participation is 700 donors. Please remember, the CMA is our fair share for ministries that serve people throughout our diocese. Chaplains at colleges and hospitals, folks at Catholic Charities, those who provide HR, IT, Faith Formation, and many other services to each parish are funded through CMA contributions. Any shortfall comes out of our parish budget, so your generosity is important!

If you haven’t participated in the past, PLEASE consider making a pledge to this year’s campaign. Please go to (www.dor.org), click on Catholic Ministries Appeal, and donate whatever you can to the CMA. God bless you! St. Louis, Pittsford, parish # 300.

This past year, the cupboard provided food supplies to over 4,000 households, totaling over 9,400 people. The Cupboard typically serves over 400 families per month. PFC relies on its staff of over 100 volunteers. The Cupboard has a variety of flexible volunteer programs that make it easy for members of the community, adults or students, to get involved and volunteer at group or individual levels. Besides collecting food, assisting clients, helping with office work, stocking shelves or picking up food, volunteers can “Adopt-A-Shelf” hold can and bottle drives, or be a sponsor and coordinate food drives at their organization. Donors to the Food Cupboard include civic groups, churches, schools and scout troops.

For details, visit www.pittsfordfoodcupboard.net or contact Suzy Ward directly at 585-746-5676, Thank you for your prayers, your food donations, and your critical financial support.
A Wakeup Call
1 Samuel, part of a two volume work that recounts the beginning of the monarchy in Israel, opens with Hannah weeping and praying for a son. She vows that if her prayer is answered, she will dedicate her son to the Lord. Observing her at prayer, the priest Eli promises that God has heard her plea.

Chapter 2 reveals that Eli’s sons were not worthy of their office. Who will be worthy to replace them? Chapter 3 opens telling us that the word of the Lord was rare in those days. Visions were not widespread. The old priest Eli’s eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see. But none of that precluded Eli being a good mentor.

The Lord calls to Samuel just before dawn. Once Eli understands what is happening, he offers advice that still works today. “If He calls you, say: ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” Samuel does, and the rest is history.

What can we take home? If we are confused about something we believe the Lord is telling us, a second opinion is very helpful, from someone who knows us and knows the Lord’s ways. Asking the Lord to clarify is also effective. We might also be wise to pay attention in the hour before dawn. In that liminal place, when we have greater access to the unconscious, and our conscious filters are less likely to be an obstacle, God may very well send us a message, a mission, or guidance. Instead of shaking off sleep and getting on with our day, we would do well to respond just as Samuel did, following the wisdom of Eli: “Speak Lord, your servant if listening!”

Temple Etiquette
In our second reading this week, Paul is trying to combat sexual immorality that was apparently a problem in Corinth, a very cosmopolitan port city, and an attitude: ‘what difference does it make?’ What does sexual behavior have to do with faith or spirituality? Paul’s answer is quite clear: your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, that’s what! God shaped and formed us, wedding spirit and flesh. We are called to glorify God in our life, in our body. Here is a way one might approach an examination of conscience! How should a sacred temple be cared for? What would be acceptable in a temple? What would be scandalous and diminish the sacredness of the temple? Our body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. The same answers apply.

Come and See!
John has some deep things going on in this week’s Gospel. Some key words make a difference. ‘What are you looking for? ’ is not simply about looking around. It would be better translated what are you seeking, searching for, what do you intensely desire? Next we have the disciples asking “where are you staying?” Staying would better be rendered ‘dwelling’. The gospel of Christmas day told us that the Word made his dwelling among us. No accident then that the call of the disciples begins with “Rabbi, where are you dwelling?” Throughout the Gospel, the answer will be the same – the Word dwells among us. But there is another dynamic one can see here as well. How does Jesus form us into disciples? He asks about our deepest longing, searching, our deepest desires. He then invites us to come and see where he abides (with the Father). See what he does, see how he loves, forgives, heals, and finally offers his life, all in union with the Father. Come and see. Now, go and do the same!

What Is Bible Study?
Not sure just what it means to ‘study the Bible’? There are many ways to engage the scriptures, becoming more At Home with the Word. Here at St. Louis we have a variety of options. For those more comfortable with self-study, we provide At Home with the Word (we still have copies available). The bulletin each week gives a few thoughts, and FORMED provides many resources. The Monday morning men’s group reflects on the coming Sunday’s readings, as does the Tuesday morning bible study. We offer more formal opportunities like Great Adventure Bible Study with DVD lectures, Acts, etc. Then of course there are homilies, talking with friends after Mass, and reading the Bible prayerfully on your own (after asking the Holy Spirit for guidance). Certainly one of the options can work for you!
Simple acts of kindness

Jesus was clear that he wants us to be kind to everyone. In the famous parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus told of a man who was robbed and left for dead. The man was passed by a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan man helped him. The Samaritan – supposedly an enemy – demonstrated true kindness. Jesus told us to do the same (Luke 10:37).

Teach children to value people first. When Ashley tripped playing basketball and missed the game-winning basket, her teammates gave her dirty looks and passed as she lay on the floor holding her ankle. It was a member of the other team who was kind enough to help her up.

Encourage acts of kindness. Gerry noticed that the new boy at school seemed sad. It turned out that Sammy’s dad lost his job and money was tight. Gerry began packing an extra sandwich in his lunch for Sammy, sat next to him in the cafeteria, and played together at recess. Both boys made a good friend.

Scripture Lesson

Mark 1:21-28, More than just a teacher

In this Gospel reading, we read that Jesus entered the synagogue at Capernaum with his apostles to teach. Most teachers would draw from the writings of other scholars for authority, and would begin, “Thus says the Lord...” but Jesus said, “I tell you...” As God, he already knew what the Scriptures meant without leaning on someone else’s teaching.

Jesus taught as one who had the authority of God and that astonished his listeners. Even the unclean spirits who were torturing a man at the synagogue recognized Jesus as “the Holy One of Israel.” Clearly, this was no ordinary teacher!

Jesus showed his authority again when he performed an exorcism on the man. The unclean spirits had no choice but to obey him when he commanded them to depart, despite their reluctance.

What can a parent do? Jesus shows us that God’s power and love are greater than any evil. Teach children that they can talk to Jesus about anything that happens, good or bad. At the same time, stress that Jesus is God and deserves to be worshipped and obeyed.

Feasts & Celebrations

Jan. 7 – Epiphany of Our Lord (1st Century). Epiphany is Greek for manifestation. When they honored the infant Jesus with gold, frankincense and myrrh, the three wise men bore witness to the fulfillment of God’s promise of a savior.

Jan. 8 – Baptism of the Lord (1st Century). Jesus began his public ministry by getting baptized by St. John the Baptist. Jesus was free of sin, but he allowed himself to be baptized in order to “fulfill all righteousness” (Matthew 3:15). By his baptism, Jesus declared his willingness to fulfill God’s saving plan. It is also at this time when God revealed Jesus as his “beloved Son” (Matthew 3:17).

Jan. 17 – St. Anthony of Egypt (356). Born to a rich family around 250 A.D. in Egypt, St. Anthony gave up his riches to live a life of simplicity in the desert. Eventually, other monks seeking the same lifestyle followed him into the desert and he founded a community of hermits. He is the founder of monasticism.

Parent Talk

I was mad! I emailed Kara’s teacher asking that he move her away from Joey, a boy who was distracting her. A week with no response and I was sure he was ignoring my request. I wanted to fire off an angry email, but instead waited for a reply. When Mr. Heinz finally phoned, I explained my concern. He explained that he has educational reasons for assigning seats and, while he tries to accommodate parent requests, his goals must take priority.

Still, he had taken a few days to observe Kara and Joey and found they worked well together. He paired them for a geography activity and they did A-quality work. More importantly, he asked Kara if she wanted to move and she didn’t. She liked working with Joey.

Clearly this was a thoughtful teacher. I hung up the phone and decided I would trust him to run his own classroom.

As Saint’s Place begins its 20th year of helping refugees in the Rochester area, we are in awe of the support of our parishes. All the parishioners have so willingly answered our pleas for help and provided us the base on which to grow and thrive. You have been so willing to share your time, talents and treasures with strangers. People you will never know, who speak a different language, but like you and I desire to live in peace and safety.

As Saint’s Place reflects on all the refugees we have assisted, we realize how blessed we are to live in a country where we can speak freely and worship without fear.

In the last months, Saint’s Place has started a new educational initiative as part of our Patron Saint’s program to assist refugees in continuing their education. A very proactive committee has been formed. Many refugees arrive in the United States with no formal education. At age 18 -22 years, they do not easily fit into a high school setting. They often opt to accept a minimum wage job, with no prospect of advancement. At first, it may seem like a lot of money to them, but the reality is that you live in poverty the rest of your life. Saint’s Place is working to encourage young adults to continue or start an education; learn English, attend Monroe Community College or a vocational program. Saint’s Place has already awarded two refugees laptop computers to continue their education at MCC. These two young adults attended Making A Connection (MAC) a Rochester School District program that teaches young adults English and prepares them to receive their GED. In the coming months, we are supporting the educational endeavors of several students in our tutoring programs, under the direction of Geri Dolan.

We are currently working with the Rochester International Academy, a Rochester city school program for newly arrived refugees to select at least two of their seniors for the purchase of textbooks and partial tuitions for vocational programs.

In 2018, we pray that more refugees can enter the United States and that we can welcome them and help them to achieve the American dream.

If you have not had an opportunity to visit Saint’s Place and see our operation, please call us and make an appointment. We would welcome the opportunity to show you a typical day at Saint’s Place.
A Gift to You: Please take a copy of At Home with the Word. Read the introduction to the Gospel of Mark, the Gospel of John, and to St. Paul and his letters. Use At Home with the Word to prepare for the bible readings you will hear at Mass, increasing your ability to really engage those passages. In time, you will have stepped into every part of the Bible. Each week At Home with the Word offers a section, Scripture Insights, which provides just enough background to open up readings, while helping the beginner get their feet wet. Happy New Year!

January 5, 2018
Memorial of Saint John Newman

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Sadly we recall last September, Hurricane Maria tore through Puerto Rico and left the island devastated. Since then hundreds of thousands of Puerto Ricans have moved to the U.S. mainland, hundreds to the City of Rochester alone. Our parishes and Catholic agencies have worked tirelessly to extend a warm welcome to those displaced by the disaster, and will continue to be a bridge for those who need assistance transitioning to a new home. In turn, our faith communities have already benefitted from our newest members, who are powerful witnesses of faith through times of struggle. They have begun to plant new roots in our Diocese, and we all will reap the fruits of that harvest. I encourage all Catholics in the Diocese of Rochester to Reach out and welcome our brothers and sisters in Christ as they begin this new journey.

In this Year of the Eucharist, let us all continue to live as a Eucharistic people who are able to transcend difficulties and hardship brought by tragedy and embrace the new life promised to us in Jesus Christ!

Asking God’s blessing upon our Diocese in this New Year, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Salvatore R. Matano

The Word of Life, a sentence of Scripture, is offered monthly as a guide and inspiration for daily life. We read that sentence and the commentary (which is translated into 96 different languages and dialects and reaches more than 14 million people worldwide), and then offer our thoughts about how it applies to our lives. At the start of the next session, we share how we applied that verse in our lives as we encourage each other to imitate Christ.
