Singing of Service Again
Last week Isaiah provided beautiful images for the Feast of the Epiphany. Today we hear the second servant song. Who is the servant? If looking for one name, we may be out of luck. Texts in the scripture with a long history are often multivalent – they have multiple meanings, and the mystery is rich enough to hold them all. A message can be reapplied, through the Holy Spirit, generation after generation. So the servant can point to the nation: You are my servant, Israel; it can refer to the faithful remnant, to the prophet himself, to the Messiah, and for Christians, to Jesus. Even more, as followers, disciples of the Lord, the message is to the church, to our community, and to each of us. Take it to heart … God is our strength, and we can be a light! (Layers of meaning are so much richer!)

The Church in Corinth
Corinth, on the main north – south road, linking mainland Greece and the Peloponnesse, has quite a history. It prospered for centuries, having two fine ports, one on the east opening it to Asia Minor, and one on the west, to Italy. But being on the wrong side when the Achaean League went head to head with Rome, Corinth was destroyed by the Romans in 146 BC. Julius Caesar began rebuilding it in 46 BC. Thus in Paul’s day it was a fairly young, prosperous, cosmopolitan city. A close read of Paul’s letters to Corinth indicate that the church consisted of small groups who met in homes for Eucharist, while the ‘whole’ church also gathered at times for Eucharist, but in a larger home. Thus the upper limit of the whole church was around 50. As we hear from Paul’s letter to the Corinthians in the weeks ahead, just think: if a small church had to overcome so many relationship issues in the congregation, imagine how much folks in a large church need to work at being patient with each other!

Wonderful Discovery
Luke’s Gospel speaks of Mary and Elizabeth being kin (but doesn’t give a specific relationship), with John the Baptist ‘leaping in the womb’ when the expectant Mary visits her expectant elderly relative Elizabeth. Yet we hear the adult John the Baptist saying twice in the Gospel of John today ‘I did not know him’. Distant relatives? Family didn’t gather often? Actually, neither Gospel writer intended to write a biography of Jesus or a history. Luke speaks of an orderly account ‘of the events fulfilled among us.’ Fulfillment is the key word here! John is even clearer about why he is writing: ‘But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.’ It isn’t about cold facts and historical detail, it’s about salvation history. So in today’s Gospel, John the Evangelist is letting us know what he has come to know, the wonderful discovery about who Jesus is: the Messiah, the preexistent one, the Son of God, the one who baptizes us with the Holy Spirit. John the Baptist came to this faith as well. But indications are, it took him time to put together all that he experienced there at the Jordan, and what it truly meant. Isn’t that true for us as well; the real meaning of things we experience emerges over time?

Pastoral Care Team
The Pastoral Care Team will meet on Thursday morning, January 19 at 9:30 am in the Parish Meeting Hall to discuss upcoming activities for the new year including the Good Friday Blood Drive on April 14, the Sunshine Luncheon on Thursday, May 18, developments in the new bereavement ministry for men, and ongoing ministries. In addition, we will be reviewing the Advent card and angel ornament distribution to homebound parishioners. Our meetings are brief, fun and usually an hour in length. New members are always welcome to join our team. Please feel free to contact Peggy O’Neil Midgley at (585) 383-8879 or email: pomidgley@yahoo.com if you have additional items for discussion.

Thank You, Letter Writers!
Hearing our 2nd reading today, can you imagine how encouraged the Christians in Corinth were when St. Paul’s letter arrived? And then, as it was read: ‘He called us holy! He says we have been called, sanctified!’ To those of you who took an address during Advent, and sent a card to one of our shut-ins, thank you! You brought that same joy, and helped that person feel called, sanctified and connected. Paul, too, wrote to make sure people in all of the churches he founded felt connected to one another, to the other churches, to him, and to Christ. So card senders - God bless you!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Project Rachel

Project Rachel is a 501(c)(3) program that provides Catholic outreach of healing and reconciliation to women and men who are experiencing the emotional and spiritual pain after an abortion. It involves a sensitive, confidential process for post-abortion healing that enables the person to find forgiveness and a sense of hope again. Project Rachel trained personnel, including many priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople throughout the diocese, desire to be the instruments to enable those who are hurting and wounded to experience the mercy and peace of Christ.

It is estimated that there are over 5,000 abortions each year in our diocese. Nationally, about 1/3 of women that undergo an abortion list themselves as Catholic. Since abortion has been legal in New York State for over 40 years, there are potentially many, many thousands of women (and men) in our area that are wounded and hurting because of their abortion act. Yet this tremendous grace-filled healing process of Project Rachel is still not widely known to many people even after 20 years of existence in the diocese. It is the hope of this program that the funds be used to further publicize the program and its services, especially via modern communication means (think social media, for example), and continue to train individuals in our diocese to share this process of healing. Most dioceses in the country have 5 or 6 people trained, whereas over 200 people have taken the 6 hour training day in our diocese. Coordination of Project Rachel activities in the Rochester diocese is through a team of volunteers, led by Deacon Dave Snyder. The overall program depends on the generosity of parishes and individuals within the diocese. Team volunteers and others willing to be trained are also being sought.

Dear St. Louis Parishioners:

It is a new year, and with it comes hundreds of resolutions. Saint’s Place is trying to be realistic and go for at least fifty resolutions.

Our overwhelming resolution is to continue to provide clothing, tutoring and apartment set-ups for the incoming refugees. A recent article in the January 3, 2017 D&C reported the refugee worldwide crisis and then told the readers that more than 1200 refugees will come through the doors of Rochester. The challenge will be daunting for Saint’s Place! But with the help of God and the parishioners of St. Louis, it will be achievable. We will prevail and always seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

A recap is always in need as you leave one year behind and move forward to another: Saint’s Place raised $20,000.00 to offset the price of our new truck which cost $31,000.00. The checks continue to arrive. We have seen a record number of NEW refugees at our two tutoring centers. Now, 110 refugees come on a weekly basis to learn English. Their commitment is inspiring. Our warehouse is filled with furniture but as fast as we receive the donations, the goods are being delivered to the apartments of the refugees. It is literally a revolving door. We brought on 34 new volunteers but we always need more help.

A new relationship flourishes with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. They have provided four of their missionaries to volunteer on our van and truck, and two of their church members volunteer at the Clothing Closet. 2016 witnessed amazing generosity on the part of Cub Scout troops, Girl Scout troops, Middle School and High School students, and clubs from multiple counties who organized clothing and toiletries drives for the refugees. Our Advisory Board hosted a fund raiser netting us $5000.00. Great progress was made by contacting new Foundations and Grant providers. And of course, our Annual Super Sale held in July is our largest fundraiser.

In 2017, we would like to open another tutorial location and aggressively market the success stories of our refugees in terms of their getting good jobs and improving the education of their children. We will pursue new relationships with key manufacturers to guarantee the consistent flow of household items and furniture. We are actively seeking more volunteers. There is an urgent need for men to help with pickups and deliveries.

All of us at Saint’s Place extend to you our wish that 2017 is filled with joy, happiness and the desire to help one another.

Executive Director
The St. Louis Consistent Life Ethic Team invites you to join others from around the Diocese in two January pro-life events. March for Life in DC: 7 buses will leave Thursday night, January 26 and return Friday, January 27 by midnight. Join Bishop Matano as he concelebrates 10 am Mass at the Basilica, and gathers near the Mall to march with Diocesan parishioners at 12:45 pm.

Diocesan Mass for Life: celebrated by Bishop Matano at 10:30 am on Sunday, January 22 (the 44th Anniversary of Roe vs Wade), at Holy Apostles Church, 7 Austin St., Rochester. This Mass is a local celebration to give thanks to God for the gift of human life and to pray for the legal protection of unborn children. Fr. Tony Mugavero says his parish is looking forward to hosting this, and to providing a reception for all afterwards!

For further information, please contact Suzanne Stack, Life Issues Coordinator, at (585).328-3210, ext. 1304, sstack@dor.org, or contact Deacon Dave.

Saturday, January 21 - Sunday, January 29: 9 Days for Life is an annual period of prayer and action focused on cherishing the gift of every person's life.

PRAY for the respect and protection of each person's life; GATHER together in prayer, action, and fellowship with others; SHARE your stories online!

You can receive the novena prayers online, via text message or on the web. The novena intentions include an end to abortion, the death penalty and domestic violence; and that those near the end of their lives receive medical care that respects their dignity and protects their lives.

Save the Date for: A Morning with Immaculée Ilibagiza

Immaculée Ilibagiza is a motivational speaker and a living example of Catholicism. Immaculée's life was radically transformed during the 1994 Rwandan genocide where she and seven other women spent 91 days huddled silently together in the cramped bathroom of a local pastor's house. Her book "Left to Tell" goes on to describe how her faith led to her survival and eventual forgiveness of those who killed her family.

Come and learn about her faith in God during this time and her love of Mary as well as the Rosary.

Our beloved Bishop Salvatore Matano will once again be presiding at the 8:45 am Mass!

PRAYER FOR ALEPPO

Catholic Relief Services’ January Prayer:

Lord Most High,
The first martyrs of the Christian world were children.
We look to Aleppo and hear the cries of your children again.
Make us their protectors.
Make us their advocates.
Make us their deliverance.

Make us like the Good Shepherd,
Keeping the flock from harm,
Standing watch when the wolf comes.

Lord, you are the friend of endangered children
everywhere,
May our hands be your hands,
May our eyes be your eyes,
May our hearts be your heart.
May the children of Syria be sheltered in your grace
And be delivered from evil.

Amen.

"The human person is always precious, even if marked by illness or old age." - Pope Francis

Make Your Voice Heard: Death with dignity means proper care, not a lethal drug dose.
Our Diocesan Wide Public Policy Weekend effort to stop the legalization of physician assisted suicide in our state is February 4 and 5. We will participate by gathering signatures on a petition to be sent to New York State Governor Cuomo/New York State Senator/New York State Assembly Member.

We don’t discourage suicide by assisting suicide. Excerpted from: Every Suicide Is Tragic, http://www.usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/respect-life-program/2016/every-suicide-is-tragic.cfm

Doctor Assisted Suicide Escalates Suicide

Advocates of assisted suicide claim it is a private decision, an exercise in personal autonomy that does not affect others. But there is a well-studied "social contagion" aspect to the behavior that can't be ignored.

A recent study, which controlled for other factors that could account for the rise, showed that the permissive assisted suicide laws in Oregon and Washington have caused at least a 6% rise in overall suicide rates in those states. Additional data, although limited, enhances this distressing picture. After suicide rates had declined in Oregon in the 1990s, they rose dramatically there between 2000 and 2010—the years following the legalization of assisted suicide in 1997. By 2012, suicide rates in Oregon were 42% higher than the national average.

We know that suicide is among the health-related behaviors that tend to spread from person to person. When a person ends his or her life, it can affect the choices of that person's friends, as well as the choices of people at least three degrees of separation away: the friends of his or her friends' friends. Additionally, publicized cases of suicide lead to clusters of copycat cases—known in social science as the Werther Effect. A 2003 Swiss study, for example, showed evidence of suicide contagion following media reports of doctor-assisted suicide. No one is an island.

Legalizing Doctor-Assisted Suicide Wrongly Communicates That Some Lives Are Not Worth Living

Finally, the law itself is a teacher. Our laws shape cultural attitudes toward certain behaviors and influence social norms. Laws permitting assisted suicide communicate the message that, under especially difficult circumstances, some lives are not worth living. This tragically false message will be heard not only by those with a terminal illness, but by any person struggling with the temptation to end his or her life.
