Combing This Lent

Ash Wednesday is just around the corner, and plans for a powerful season of Lent are coming together. We Believe. We Pray, Fast and Give. Prayer, sacrifice and almsgiving are three disciplines that define the season of Lent, but this way of life is also part of who we are as disciples of Jesus all year long. Prayer is far more than saying memorized prayers, or attending Mass. During the Fridays of Lent, we’ll offer a variety of styles and ways of prayer, explaining how they can be a path to a life giving relationship with Jesus. Fasting is more than picking something to give up for 40 days. Think Jesus’ image in John’s Gospel about pruning the fruitful vine so that it may bear more fruit as you consider fasting and sacrifices in Lent. Almsgiving is more than writing a check or putting money in a Rice Bowl, as important as those are. Ideally charity has a human face and beating heart; almsgiving is about caring for the challenges some folks face, responding, and making a compassionate connection. Prayer, fasting and giving, properly understood, are all holy practices that help to open our hearts, part of our living relationship with Christ.

Lent is a time of conversion, in every sense. Those preparing for baptism are turning their lives over to Christ, with the help of Lenten disciplines, the Rite of Election, Scrutinies, and the support of the community’s prayer and encouragement. Watch for details, pray for our catechumens, and put the Easter Vigil on your calendar! Those who have drifted away but are now hearing the call to come home to the community of faith also find Lent a graced time of conversion. Watch for extended times of confession, as well as the Day of Penance; opportunities to ritualize a welcome and return. Consider inviting someone to take another look, and give faith a chance. The Lord may use your voice and personality to seek out a lost sheep. But then no one is excluded from the call of conversion. One of the songs in the Breviary puts it well: "We all have secret fears to face, our minds and motives to amend; we seek your truth, we need your grace, our living Lord and present Friend.” (H.C.A. Gaunt)

Why am I writing about Lent in January, when it seems we have just barely finished up the Christmas season? Ash Wednesday is less than a month away. It often sneaks up on me. Rather than taking the first couple weeks to catch on that it is Lent, it is much better to be prepared as Ash Wednesday rolls around. Why miss the first few opportunities in Lent because they didn’t get on your calendar? Why make a hasty decision about how sacrifice will fit in your life during Lent, because Ash Wednesday snuck up on you? Why not give advance thought to how almsgiving might be more powerful if combined with giving of time? We Believe. We Pray. We Prepare. Isn’t just for Advent! Peace, Fr. Bob

The Amazing Word of God

Our Weekend Scriptures:
3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20
I will raise up for them a prophet

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35
I should like you to be free from anxieties

Gospel: Mark 1:14-20
A new teaching with authority

The Rest of the Story

What is the connection between our 1st reading and Gospel this weekend? As the story goes, Jonah preached repentance, the people of Nineveh responded, and they are saved. In the Gospel, Jesus preaches that it is the time for fulfillment and a decision, he calls for people to repent and believe the good news, and Peter, Andrew, James and John respond: they drop their nets and become disciples. Jonah should be happy we only hear excerpts in the first reading, not the whole story. As the story goes, God calls Jonah to preach repentance in the evil city of Nineveh (capital of Assyria, an archenemy of Israel). Hating the Assyrians, what does Jonah do? He tries to go as far in the opposite direction as possible (ever try running from God’s call like that?). God will not allow him to escape so easy. A storm blows up, he is blamed by the sailors and thrown overboard, swallowed by a whale, and coughed up on the shore near Nineveh three days later. Reluctantly he preaches repentance, the people repent, God relents, and Jonah gets angry! He hoped the city would be destroyed. So Jonah sits sulking, a gourd grows overnight offering shade, a worm causes the plant to wither, and Jonah is furious. God says “Really? You are concerned about the offering shade, a worm causes the plant to wither, and Jonah is furious. God says “Really? You are concerned about the plant, which grew one day and perished the next, and I should not be concerned about a great city of 120,000 people?!” Loving our enemies never has been easy!

Looking Ahead:
4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20
I will raise up for them a prophet

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35
I should like you to be free from anxieties

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28
A new teaching with authority

Listen to Prophets

Next weekend’s 1st reading speaks of the prophetic office in Israel: God will continue to send prophets like Moses, who will teach with authority. That is the link to the Gospel, Jesus is THE ONE, sent by God, who speaks with such authority that he can command unclean spirits, and they obey.

Keep It Simple

By the time he wrote Romans, Paul began to realize that the last days might not come immediately. But when he wrote Corinthians, he was still convinced Christ would return any day, the world soon be destroyed, and a new world would begin. With that in mind, next week we’ll hear Paul suggest: remain single, it is simpler, and might make pleasing the Lord easier in the short run. Remember, these letters are occasional literature: written to offer immediate advice to a specific group of people about a pressing concern at the time. Yet when understood in that context, there is tremendous value to seeing how an apostle, guided by the Spirit, sorted through issues of the day. The timeless insight: regardless of when Christ returns, we are called to please the Lord. We should think twice about things that so compete for our time and attention as to pull us away from our relationship with Christ. With the longer view of history, and the Spirit’s guidance, we now know that marriage is a sacrament, a privileged place to experience the Lord. Living the sacrament faithfully is one path to pleasing the Lord. (Married folks, have you marked your calendar for our Valentine’s Day celebration of marriage on February 13th?)

Unclean Spirits

In the ancient world, people believed the world was filled with spirits, some good, but many, evil and dangerous. On top of that, another ancient Hebrew category we aren’t so familiar with is clean and unclean. Unclean wasn’t so much a moral category, it was a term for anything that ‘didn’t fit’, was incomplete, imperfect or ‘out of order.’ Without our modern insight into medicine and psychology, illnesses and psychological aberrations were often attributed to possession. Fact is, the literature of the time includes a variety of leaders who performed successful exorcisms. But usually there were a variety of parts to the exorcism. Jesus is the only one to be able to successfully heal people with a word of command, and Mark has Jesus begin his ministry revealing that the power of evil must now face a worthy opponent – the Son of God.

Warm-up Exercises

Lent can be a great time to develop a new, healthy habit, or to break an old, not-so-healthy one. But would you start a marathon without warming up first? Use these weeks before Lent as a warm up. Want to develop a new healthy daily habit? Try it a few days a week between now and Lent, and then go full out. Want to break an old habit that needs to go? Try abstaining a few days a week now, and be warmed up when Ash Wednesday arrives!

Bedtime Reading

Want to be more At Home with the Word? Try putting your copy on the night stand. On Sunday night, reread that weekend’s Gospel. Monday, reread the 1st reading, Tuesday night, the 2nd. Wednesday, start looking ahead, with the upcoming 1st reading, Thursday the upcoming Gospel, Friday the 2nd reading. Watch how much more you get out of Sunday Mass!
Thank you for joining us for Mass, and for all you do to support our parish, our wider church, and our outreach efforts. If you were visiting with us today welcome! If you wish to know more about our parish family and parish life, visit our webpage at www.StLouisChurch.org, or e-mail Fr. Bob (ring@dor.org) and set up a time to meet with him.

Shopping with Jesus

Well, not quite. But why would one bother to shop for food cupboard items, when writing a check is so much easier? Believe me, the food cupboards we support welcome and are most grateful for any assistance they receive. But the idea of thinking of the hungry, shopping with their need in mind, and pausing to say thank you to the Lord for being so blest: it is a long, and cross cultural tradition. Shopping with Jesus, stepping into Jesus’ shoes as you shop, shopping for Jesus, any of these work. Holy Thursday is the only day when the Roman Missal specifically mentions bringing food for the poor, and then bringing it up to the altar when the bread and wine are brought forward. But the link between caring for the hungry and bringing the gifts to the altar can and does happen at other times as well. Did you know that there is more than one reason for the priest washing his hands as part of preparing the altar? As is often the case in ritual, a practical matter was given a spiritual meaning, and then the spiritual focus took over and became primary. “Lord, wash me of my sins, and cleanse me of my iniquity” doesn’t explain totally why that gesture occurs at that point in the Mass. After being at a pilgrimage center in India, and being handed, along with the bread and wine, bags of rice, vegetables, and a few live chickens, all to be distributed to the poor immediately after the Mass, I understood the origin of the priest washing his hands at that point much better!

Have you considered EFT (Electronic Fund Transfer)?

Your monthly contribution is automatically transferred from your checking or savings account to St. Louis Church. Benefits of giving through EFT: You control the amount and timing of your monthly offering to St. Louis Church, plus related Diocesan/National appeals as well as Holy Days. You can spread your contributions evenly over the entire year, and the Church can count on an even flow of contributions. You receive an annual statement by e-mail or regular mail, including Diocesan/National and Holy Day collection amounts, important for those who itemize contributions on their tax returns. To use EFT, please complete the Authorization Form and return it with a voided personal check. EFT forms are available in church; or you can call the Ministry Center (585-586-5675) to have one mailed; to download a form go to www.stlouischurch.org/parish-support.

One Hour a Month??

Elderberry Express needs additional dispatchers; can you help? Dispatchers come to the Elderberry Express office (3750 Monroe Ave) at 3PM and spend one hour making calls to volunteer drivers, to get rides for clients the following day. Dispatching is usually a one hour task. If you can dispatch once or twice a month, that would be a great service to the Pittsford community!

Many thanks to all who brought in food last weekend to help stock the shelves of Pittsford Food Cupboard!
Life Pray-ers Program Returns

The CLE Committee is re-introducing a program that ties each Consistent Life Ethic tenet to a particular sacrament. The pairings purposely intend to encourage prayer towards life issues by focusing on the sacramental graces that God provides, together with God’s love and mercy to those affected by the life issues.

Each weekend over five weekends, parishioners write their name (or family name) on a card to be hung on a beautiful, large banner in church. The card simply states that the person/family will pray for that week’s life issue. A committee member collects cards after each Mass and hands out a relevant reflection. Names on display also encourage other parishioners to join in.

Last weekend, participants prayed for God’s mercy on all affected by abortion – Baptism was the sacrament for reflection. Similarly, this weekend, the death penalty (capital punishment) is paired with the sacrament of Reconciliation. Next weekend, poverty will be paired with the Eucharist. The banners will remain until Lent, so you can “catch-up” at any time. Please email Deacon Dave (deacondave@gmail.com) with comments or questions. God bless and please know that everyone’s prayers are needed and important!

RCIA: A Journey for the Entire Parish!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey into discipleship for those participating in the initiation process, becoming a full member of the Catholic Church. It can also help the whole parish take further steps into discipleship! New life in Christ is a gradual journey of many steps and stages. Along the way parishioners have much to share with those looking to come into the Catholic faith. The more we all invest in the process of initiating others into the life of Christ, the more our community is renewed in Christ.

Have you ever considered a new way to share your faith with others? Would you like to walk with others in their journey to Christ? Please pray about it. Ask Fr. Bob or Cris Wensel if you have any questions. Another way to be a part of welcoming into the faith is our Baptismal Preparation ministry. Speak with Deacon Dave or Fr Bob about that great ministry.

Main Street or at our Clothing Closet at the St. John of Rochester former school building. Bring a friend. You may want to consider this as your Lenten almsgiving. JANUARY HAS BEEN A BUSY MONTH AT SAINT’S PLACE

Last week Saint's Place was contacted by a St. Louis parishioner who was working with the United Presbyterian Church. Fifteen homeless men and one woman were found under the bridge when the temperatures were at 4 above zero. We were able to provide warm coats, scarves, long sleeve flannel shirts and sweaters. Within one hour of the phone call, the clothing was delivered to the homeless. Everyone worked together to make this happen!

We addressed the Knights of Columbus Pittsford Council and will also address the Knights of Columbus St. John of Rochester in early February. The more people learn about Saint's Place and the mission of clothing over 1,250 refugees a year, completely furnishing 300 apartments, and tutoring 75 refugee adults and children on a weekly basis, the greater our outreach and success of helping these people. Please keep supporting us with your donations, volunteer time and above all, your kindness.

Remember there is always, always something to be thankful for!

GREAT ADVENTURE BIBLE TIMELINE RETURNS!

Reading the Bible should bring us closer to Christ, but understanding it is often difficult. The good news is that you can understand the Bible, and The Bible Timeline makes it easy.

The Bible Timeline is a Catholic Bible study that can help anyone to make sense of the Bible and to experience the life-changing power of God’s Word. The study takes you on a journey through the entire Bible and brings you deep into each period of salvation history, so that you can discover the amazing story woven throughout all of Scripture. The Bible Timeline has helped hundreds of thousands of people to have a better understand the Bible and a deeper relationship with Christ, and it will help you too.

We began this study during Lent of 2014 and completed the first 8 sessions. Now we will continue our journey and study the next 8 sessions. The study will include a series of eight videos presented by Jeff Cavins. Each video will be preceded by a lively group discussion.

If you did not participate in the previous study you can still join us for this eight week session. If you purchased materials for the first session we will be using those for these sessions as well. If you are just joining us the cost is $45 to cover The Bible Timeline study kit.

The study begins on Saturday, January 24 at 9:30 am in the Parish Meeting Hall. If you have questions regarding the study or the materials please contact Kathryn McAlarney at mcalarney1@gmail.com. We look forward to taking this journey with you.

Diocesan Public Policy Priority: Women’s Equality Act

One of the life-affirming points of the Woman’s Equality Act would protect pregnant women from job discrimination. Pregnant women, especially low-wage women in physically demanding jobs, frequently are pushed out of their jobs or must take unpaid leave when they request a modest, temporary accommodation, like a stool to sit on, more frequent restroom breaks, or temporary relief from heavy lifting. This point provides reasonable accommodation as is already required for other employees with a medical condition. Our Diocesan Public Policy Committee advocates passage of the 9 points that support every woman’s inherent human dignity; Diocesan Public Policy weekend, Feb 7-8, will be our opportunity to let our state legislators know we support 9 of the key points but oppose the 10th. mailto:ssstack@dor.org

Interested in how one becomes a deacon, and what the process looks like? Here is your chance: 7:00 pm Wednesday, February 4, Church of the Transfiguration (Parish Life Center–Double Room) or 10:00 am Saturday, February 21, St. Bernard’s School of Theology and Ministry, 120 French Road, Rochester. We will provide an overview of the 5 year application and formation process and the time commitment involved and answer questions about ongoing ministry. An eligible applicant for permanent deacon formation is a man of strong and active faith who can demonstrate a record of service in the communities in which he lives, works and worships. He must be at least 35 years of age and no more than 62 years of age at the time of ordination, in good health, emotionally mature and stable in his professional and personal relationships. Men may be single or married. Interested men and their wives are encouraged to attend. For more information http://www.dor.org/index.cfm/deacons/ Please contact Deacon John Brasley, Director of Deacon Personnel & Director of Deacon Formation, Diocese of Rochester, 585.328.3228 or jbrasley@dor.org.
