Opening Our Treasures

The magi traveled far, and brought great treasures to offer the newborn Savior. Physically the trip for us is much shorter, from home to church. In other ways it may be much farther. But this is a journey worth more than any other journey we will ever take! The magi opened their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. We not only make an offering from the many things with which the Lord has blessed us; we open up the treasure of the gifts and talents the Lord has given us, and most importantly, we open up our heart. Blessings to you this Epiphany, and always!

Let the Children Come to Me

Through Children’s Liturgy of the Word at the 11 AM Mass, young children get to know Jesus early on, as he speaks to them in the Gospel, and invites them to pray for their concerns. After proceeding to their own area for Children’s Liturgy of the Word, the children listen to some of the Scriptures we listen to during the Mass. (Often one passage is omitted, acknowledging a yet-to-grow attention span.) The leader, using resources provided, engages them to focus on a point or two in the scriptures. Following that, they move on to kid friendly prayers of the faithful, and finally the children return to Mass as the altar is prepared. Pray about it. Is this just the ministry for you? You can start as an assistant with one of our Season leaders, to better discern whether God is calling you to be part of the team. Contact Bea Hack (bhack@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 231) or Fr. Bob (ring@dor.org or ext. 225) if you have some interest!
Echoing Through Art
Read through today’s Gospel. Do you see any camels? Through the centuries, Christian artists have depicted countless scenes from the New Testament and the Old. Their starting point is a given passage and the description it offers. But many other images from the Bible swirl around in the imagination as well, as the artist approaches his or her medium. No doubt Matthew was aware of the passage from third Isaiah that we hear this Sunday, for he sees in the magi a fulfilment of prophecy. But he only includes the notion of kings from afar, and the gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh in his sketch. Many artists felt the need to include more details, to let the viewer know that these kings came from afar. The means of transportation? Back to Isaiah – let’s put camels in the painting/mosaic/fresco. And now you have the rest of the story!

As you reread this passage, look beyond the physical details, to the emotional/spiritual message. Sense the joy, even a radiant joy, the hope, the wonder, the abundance we find when we come to Christ.

One Big Family
Prior to the birth of Christ, while Jews, through the diaspora, where living throughout the world, among themselves, and to their Gentile neighbors, it was clear, there are a people set apart. In just a few words, the passage we hear in Ephesians today reflects a sea change. Christ and the Gospel bring Jews and Gentiles together, members of the same body, partners sharing the Good News side by side.

Subliminal Inspiration
How did the magi know that Christ was born? Was it just an unexplainable astronomical phenomenon that set them on their journey? To get to their final destination though, they needed additional help – the chief priests and scribes helping them know what the prophets had said; the clues in divine revelation. God was their ultimate GPS.

Bless Our Home
There is an ancient tradition of blessing one’s home on the Feast of the Epiphany, connected to the magi coming to the home in Nazareth. Here is one approach:

Leader: Peace be to this house.
All: And to all who dwell herein.

Leader: From the east came the Magi to Nazareth to adore the Lord; and opening their treasures they offered precious gifts: gold for the great King, incense for the true God, and myrrh in symbol of His burial.
All Pray: the Our Father
Leader: Let us pray. O God, who by the guidance of a star didst on this day manifest Thine only-begotten Son to the Gentiles, mercifully grant that we who know Thee by faith may also attain the vision of Thy glorious majesty. Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen.

Leader: Let us pray. Bless, O Lord God almighty, this home, that in it there may be health, purity, the strength of victory, humility, goodness and mercy, the fulfillment of Thy law, the thanksgiving to God the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. And may this blessing remain upon this home and upon all who dwell herein. Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen.

After the prayers of the blessing are recited, the initials of the Magi, (Caspar, Melchior & Balthasar) may be inscribed upon the doors with chalk. (The initials, C, M, B, can also be interpreted as the Latin phrase "Christus mansionem benedicat" which means "Christ bless this house", 20XX for the year.)
Example: 20 + C + M + B + 16.
ST. LOUIS Eucharistic Adoration – Q&A

Q. “What is the atmosphere during Adoration at St. John’s? Who should I expect to be there with me?”

A. These are some of the popular questions that have been asked to date. The St. Louis Eucharistic Adoration program is held at the side chapel of St. John of Rochester (8 Wickford Way, Fairport), attached to the church. With few exceptions, the atmosphere is generally intended to be one of quiet prayer time for anyone present in the chapel. The exceptions can include publicized holy hours, such as a periodic children’s prayer hour on certain Saturdays. In addition, adoration is suspended during daily Masses (which are held in the chapel) and weekend and holyday Masses (which are held in the church). Adorers are not scheduled during these Mass times.

During the quiet prayer times, silence is requested, both for reverence and so as not to interrupt others. You may be alone or you might be sharing the hour with one or more St. John’s adorer(s) or even another St. Louis adorer. Also, people from around the area may drop-in to pray at any time during the day or night, and may stay from a minute or two up to an hour or more – these are unscheduled visits, and St. Louis parishioners are invited to do this as well, even if they already have a scheduled hour on another day and time. Some people pay a daily visit to the chapel as part of their regular prayer routine. One of the advantages of a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration program is to be able to drop-in and pray in the presence of Our Lord at any time.

If you have a general question about Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, would like to be an adorer, or would like to know more about St. Louis Eucharistic Adoration at St. John’s, please see Deacon Dave or Barb Snyder, or contact them at stlouisadoration@gmail.com (note the new contact information for this program). You may also fill out one of the yellow sign-up cards located in the church pews and leave it with an usher or at the parish office, or drop it in a gold-colored Eucharistic Adoration box located at the church side entrances and in the Narthex.

Finding Time for the Bible

Lent will be fast upon us this year. Along with the Tuesday morning Bible study where we explore the coming Sunday readings, several other Bible study opportunities will be offered. Watch for a Bible study on Luke’s Gospel, one on Matthew’s Gospel, and, catch this great title, "Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible." Why, it almost sounds like opening the Door of Mercy! Gathering with a group of folks to discuss what we hear in a given passage, while also utilizing great resources, truly does open a door into the scriptures. With several of the studies, it is possible to miss sessions yet, get the content on-line. We are talking very user friendly Bible study! Watch for details.

Being Fed

Hungry? Need some good nourishing food for body, mind and spirit? Ultreya is the answer! Saturday evening, January 10, give it a try. We begin with a pot luck supper at 5:45PM that will definitely feed the body. Then for the soul, we do some sharing, in small groups. We reassemble to hear someone give a witness about their faith, reflect together, and to close the evening, proceed to the church for closing prayer. Never been on a Cursillo weekend? Please come to Ultreya. You will be well fed, and believe it or not, that could just be an appetizer!

Moms & Dads ... Share Your Thoughts!

We will hold the focus groups at Siena Catholic Academy in Brighton on January 6, 2016 at 6:30 PM and at St. Mary’s in Canandaigua on January 7, 2016 at 6:30 PM. A Stranger and You Welcomed Me

In the Gospel of Matthew (25:35) Jesus tells his disciples, "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me." The call to welcome the stranger plays an important role in the lives of faithful Christians and has a particularly central place for those of us who work in the migration field. The migrant, who moves from one country to another is truly a stranger in the midst. Often unfamiliar with the local tongue of the new country, not to mention its customs, the migrant needs the support of local communities so that she [or he] can better adjust to her [their] new surroundings. National Migration Week 2016 picks up on the theme of welcome and, in doing so, calls on each of us to welcome the stranger among us.”

“Our world, caught up in wars, violence, and various forms of injustice, is witnessing an unprecedented movement of peoples. How we deal with them is a test of our humanity, our respect for human dignity, and above all our solidarity with our brothers and sisters in need.” ~ Pope Francis, 11/27/15

Please Pray for World Peace

Saint’s Place reopens on Monday, January 4 at 8:30 am. Angel Tree gifts can still be brought to Saint’s Place. There is NO time limit on Angel Tree gifts. Saint’s Place shares the spirit of Christmas 352 days a year.

At this time of year, we all seem to receive unsolicited calendars from charities, home services, etc. Rather than throw them out – please save them for Saint’s Place to be part of our household setups for refugee families. They are happy to receive a calendar. The calendars can be put in the Saint’s Place drawer in the north entrance (piano side) of church or in our red Angel Tree bins. Thank you!
