My dear brother priests, deacons, religious and faithful of the Diocese:

I am writing to inform you that after consultation with the Diocesan Presbyteral Council, the Diocesan Finance Council (Stewardship Council) and the Diocesan Tribunal Staff, there was unanimous support that diocesan fees attached to the process for petitioning for an annulment of a marriage no longer be required. In the past, these needed revenues contributed significantly in allowing the Diocesan Tribunal for Marriage to accomplish its work. However, in prioritizing the areas of mission within the Diocese, with a particular emphasis upon evangelization, the aforementioned consultative bodies agreed that it would be opportune to offer this ministerial service without charge. It should be noted that it has always been the policy of the Diocesan Tribunal to adjudicate cases even when parties were unable to pay the stated fee; this was never an obstacle for petitioning for an annulment of marriage.

In order to effect this policy, namely discontinuing all diocesan fees attached to cases submitted to the Diocesan Tribunal seeking an annulment of marriage, in the most just way possible and in accordance with the already established budget for the forthcoming fiscal year July 1, 2014 - June 30, 2015, this policy will become effective July 1, 2014.

To those who have contributed to the cost of maintaining the Diocesan Tribunal over the years through the payment of fees, I wish to express my gratitude. Please be assured that you have helped many of your sisters and brothers to be healed, reconciled and to find peace. You have assisted our Diocese in reaching a new level of ministerial outreach. As you can well understand, those petitioning for an annulment are at a very sensitive moment in their lives and should find in the Church a place to receive counsel, advice and support. The attaching of a fee to this process can deter some from seeking the Church’s guidance in this matter. It is my hope that diocesan resources raised through the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) will be able to support this ministry and, even more importantly, that this policy will cause those who previously may have been hesitant to approach the Diocesan Tribunal due to concerns about the cost to avail themselves of the Tribunal services.

Allow me, also, to take this opportunity to recommend to all our faithful that they pray for all married couples and ask that the Lord sustain them in their love for each other. Let us also pray for those experiencing trials

A "Rosary Thank You" from Focus

Recently, a number of rosaries made by St. Louis parishioners were given to Focus Pregnancy Help Center (located at 86 University Ave. Rochester) through the St. Louis Rosary Making Ministry. The rosaries were given as a “Gift from the St. Louis Parish.” The following is a heartfelt thank you received from Focus.

Dear St. Louis Church,

We, at the Focus Pregnancy Help Center, want to thank you for the beautiful rosaries that you blessed us with! These will be given to our clients so they can get closer to the Lord and Mother Mary. Thank you again for your spiritual support of Focus. May God bless you always.

Sincerely,
Mary Jost, Director

Thank you for joining us in worship and for contributing your share to support our parish.

We pray that your experience of liturgy here was uplifting, and helped you experience God’s presence in the Word proclaimed, the prayers prayed, the music sung, the Eucharist offered and shared. If you were able to contribute, we are very grateful!

Thank you for your generous contributions to the last weekend’s Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. The Real MiracleGro!
Each of our readings this weekend emphasize growth. Not just any growth; abundant, bountiful, prodigious growth. Isaiah invites us to consider how God sends rain to water the earth and provide for crops. But that is just the half of it! God’s Word is the real miracle. It always accomplished the end for which it was sent. Accept Isaiah’s invitation. Look at the wonder of the natural world around you this week, and see God’s hand at work.

Psalm for the Week
Psalm 65 resonates with our 1st reading from Isaiah. It also sets the stage for the Gospel. If you haven’t picked up our Bible and prayed a psalm in a while, consider spending some time with psalm 65 this week. It will do your spirit good!

Birth Pangs
Groaning is seldom as firmly attached to hope as in this passage we hear from Romans today. St. Paul addresses suffering in the lives of believers by taking the wide view. He tells us that all creation is groaning, straining toward redemption, about to give birth to a new creation. We too are groaning. We have been baptized into the life of Christ, tasted mercy, forgiveness and new life, but the process is not complete. It is ongoing, complete only when we are reborn into eternal life beyond this world. In one of his most creative images, after stating a familiar truth, that we do not always know what is right to pray for, St. Paul proceeds to speak of the very Spirit groaning, interceding for us with groans too deep for utterance. Groaning can give birth to hope. Can you identify with prayer that is groaning, beyond the power of our words? Have you ever thought of the Spirit interceding for you?

Way to Sow!
C.H. Dodd defined a parable this way: "At its simplest the parable is a metaphor or simile drawn from nature or common life, arresting the hearer by its vividness or strange-ness, and leaving the mind in sufficient doubt about its precise application to tease it into active thought." Jesus taught with parables, hoping to tease his hearers (and us) into deeper thinking. But the disciples and evangelists had difficulty with the open-endedness of parables, so they often pushed for an explanation, turning parables into allegories. Leave out the interpretation offered for the parable of the sower, and the focus may change. Rather than emphasizing the various kinds of soil, perhaps Jesus wants us to see the sower, who casts seed everywhere, as generously as possible, knowing some will take root and flourish. The harvest (a hundred fold) is unheard of. A lesson about what is possible with God. See if the parable on its own can tease your mind into active thought!

Looking Ahead:

Are You Seeking a Christian Counselor?

Everyday we see people whose relationships are suffering, whose kids are in trouble, as well as those who just can't seem to get out of bed to accomplish the simplest task. We see those who have drug, alcohol and sexual addictions and those who suffer from unspeakable trauma as well as those who are dealing with the pain of grief. Sometimes we need to seek the help of a professional counselor who can walk with us through these and many other problems.

Agape Counseling Associates is a non-denominational non-profit organization and views its mission field as supplemental to the work of established Christian churches of all denominations. As a supportive arm of the church, we provide services to local churches as well as many other organizations like employers, schools and physicians. In addition to counseling, we provide seminars, workshops and consultations.

AGAPE’S PSYCHOLOGICAL MODEL

Agape is committed to a philosophy of Christian counseling that integrates Biblical truth with the healing process, having a goal to help each person become whole and achieve his or her emotional and spiritual maturity.

Biblically, we believe:

- The Bible to be the inspired, infallible, authoritative Word of God.
- In one God (eternally) existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- In the deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His death as atonement for the sins of all who believe in Him, in His bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven, and in His personal return in power and glory.
- That man was created in the image of God, and that he sinned and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God.
- That all who become children of God must receive by faith Jesus Christ, and be born of the Spirit, and must personally accept His sacrifice as justification for their sin on the grounds of His shed blood.
- In the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ, and the commitment we share to spread His Word and to minister to the needs of one another.

Psychologically, we believe:

Each person has specific concerns that must be addressed individually; therefore we are familiar with, trained in and draw intentionally from a variety of approaches including Psychodynamic, Cognitive-behavioral, Family systems and Person-centered models.

If you or someone you know could benefit from these services it only takes one step to begin the journey. Contact Agape Counseling Associates at 385-6030 or on-line at infor@agaperoc.org.

Life! in Focus

"How do we love as Christ loved? How do we take Christian love from the realm of theology to the realm of practice? Mother Teresa did it one small act of mercy at a time. Today her Missionaries of Charity comfort the destitute and suffering around the world. Eunice Kennedy Shriver began with the same modest steps. The Special Olympics movement started more than 50 years ago as simple games in the backyard of Eunice and Sargent Shriver's home. The Shivers had a profoundly Catholic love for children with intellectual disabilities, and once they began, they never stopped helping persons with disabilities discover their God-given dignity and skills. Today the Special Olympics movement includes 4.2 million athletes in more than 170 countries."

Being Like Good Soil

Throughout the discourse of today’s Gospel, Jesus offers a parable to illustrate for his listeners what he means by the kingdom of heaven. It is the parable of the sower, which appears rather straightforward – of course seeds grow best in good soil. Seeds that miss the soil, are sown on rocky ground, or are sown among other plants will not grow. The surprise in the parable is the enormous yield of the seed that is sown on good soil.

Jesus then explains his use of parables. Jesus seems to suggest that he uses parables to teach because the meanings of parables are not self-evident. The hearer must engage in some degree of reflection in order to comprehend the message of a parable. In this way, the medium — the parable — models the point of the parable of the sower. Those who are willing to engage themselves in the effort to understand will be rewarded by the discovery of the message and will bear fruit.

To bring home the point, Jesus interprets the parable of the sower to his disciples. The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are metaphors for the disposition with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom of heaven. Some will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out. Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce abundant fruit.

Today’s Gospel reminds us that in order for God’s Word to take root in us and produce abundant fruit, we must endeavor to be like good soil. Families, in particular, hold the responsibility for “preparing the soil” so that the seeds of God’s Word can grow strong. There are many ways in which families do this – family traditions in which faith is celebrated, prayer and reading of Scripture, and instruction on the faith. In these ways, parents fulfill the promises they made at their child’s Baptism.
