Two by Two

Last week in our Gospel, Jesus sent out the Twelve two by two. Periodically, driving along, or after a knock on the door, you may observe that some folks take that very literally. However, instead of tunic, sandals and walking stick, could be a white shirt, tie and dress shoes. While a ‘lone ranger’ approach is not a good thing, that doesn’t mean that every conversation about faith requires two partners! Often in one-on-one conversations, the opportunity may present itself to help someone from the threshold of trust to curiosity, helping them onto the path of discipleship. What might that look like?

Even on a brief visit to someone in the hospital (realizing that short visits are a kindness), one might have an opportunity. Our friend in the hospital might mention fears. Perfect invitation to share a moment when we were afraid, we prayed, and experienced God’s presence in a way that was reassuring, and that brought a sense of peace! Or they may mention frustration. A possible response: “You know, I was so frustrated when (share an experience). I’m not a very patient person, but I prayed: ‘Lord, help me to find some patience inside’, and my attitude really changed.”

Perhaps a person is sharing a joyful, positive experience. This too could be an opportunity. “I know what you mean. When (share an experience), it was so uplifting. I really felt God’s presence and God’s love.” If a few faith conversations have already taken place, we might even ask: “Did your experience give you a sense that God is good, and not that far away?” Generally, the move from trust to curiosity has to do with concrete experience, not abstract ideas. I’ve had a stranger try to evangelize me by starting a conversation, and shifting quickly to “are you saved?”, then to a barrage of scripture quotes. Even if I wasn’t a priest, it still would have been a poor approach. There was no trust, and curiosity has to come from inside the listener. We can’t make someone curious. But we can share experiences that raise questions and lead into curiosity.

The point of the thresholds is not abstract. Understanding how people come to faith helps us work with the natural process, and not beat people over the head with our belief system. Back to Jesus sending out the twelve two by two: it is not that we need a person at our side if we are going to help people get to know Christ. Rather, we need friends, fellow believers with whom we can share our experiences of sharing our faith. If it went well, it is a gift for our friend to hear. We can celebrate together. If not, after listening, they may be able to help us see what went wrong, and help us learn from it.

When have you felt the Lord close this week? Have you told anyone? It could be a priceless gift! Peace, Fr. Bob What’s New?

Jeremiah couldn’t say much good about Zedekiah the king, or the ruling elite. Conquered by Babylon, the nation had been given a puppet king, Zedekiah, put on the throne by Babylon. His seeking ways to throw off Babylonian rule led to the final exile. Those appointed to shepherd (feed, guide, protect, and care for the sheep) failed, but God would not fail his people. Jeremiah sees a new day in the future, a promise that we believe finds fulfillment in Christ, the true anointed one. Somehow, despite political intrigue, leaders with poor judgement, self-interest center stage, Jeremiah had faith that God was still working to spare the faithful remnant. Can we hear Jeremiah speaking to us through the ages? Despite our disappointment at leadership, how are we at looking for ways that God might be at work in the world today? How do we understand “I myself will gather the remnant of my flock” into 2015? Try praying to Jesus as “the Lord our justice.”

Never Happen!
There were undoubtedly people in the early church who were convinced that Jews and Gentiles could never come together in one community, one church. Certainly those who insisted Gentiles needed to first convert to Judaism couldn’t imagine any way to reconcile differences. Yet by the time Ephesians was written, the differences were bridged and a path had been found. Meditating on Christ, his sacrifice, and the wisdom of the cross did the trick. The fact that the Missal includes two different Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation tells the story. Here is how the spirit of this reading is expressed in one of those prayers of the church: “Even more, by your Spirit you move human hearts that enemies may speak to each other again, adversaries join hands, and peoples seek to meet together. By the working of your power it comes about, O Lord, that hatred is overcome by love, revenge gives way to forgiveness, and discord is changed to mutual respect.” Pray that Christ Jesus, who “broke down the dividing wall of enmity” might do the same in our day. Pray peace into the conflicts that come to mind as you pray.

Varieties of Tiredness
There is the tiredness of doing grueling work because we must; it is especially exhausting if we see no point. Perhaps we see the point, but the work is just against our nature. There is a different kind of tiredness that follows exerting ourselves doing what we love. The disciples in our Gospel needed rest because of travel, and doing God’s work. Apparently that kind of tiredness doesn’t rule out compassion, and rising to the occasion. Words or phrases to pray with: come away and rest, being moved with pity, rising to the occasion, fulfillment.

Sign Me Up
Our next baptismal preparation session for parents will be July 26th. Parents are invited to attend the 11AM Mass that morning (there will be a baptism), and then we will meet after the Mass. Please call Birdie (586-5675) at the office to sign up!

Public Policy Advocacy Works!
On Public Policy Weekend in February, parishes across the Diocese generated 10,362 signatures on letters or petitions to NYS Assembly members, asking them to separate the Women’s Equality Act into individual bills, and to pass the provisions that truly benefit women, while rejecting the provisions regarding abortion. Our efforts were successful. Bills passed included legislation regarding pay equity, banning sexual harassment in all workplaces, attorney’s fees in sex discrimination cases, protection for parents in the workplace, banning housing discrimination for domestic violence victims, establishing electronic orders of protection, protection for trafficking victims, and reasonable accommodations for pregnant workers.

This Week’s Tithing Will Support

Pittsford Food Cupboard (PFC)

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support

St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard

St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard, 890 Portland Avenue, serves an area of highly concentrated poverty in the 14621 Northeast quadrant of Rochester. St. Andrew’s mission is to provide the best nutrition they can offer. They also provide diapers, some baby needs, and include toiletries with each household order. Clients are offered recipe and food handling advice and access to free clothing, coupons, used books and magazines, and phone usage. Furniture assistance through the adjoining St. Vincent dePaul Society is also available. Most importantly, they try to build relationships with those who come in need.

The main referral source for clients is word of mouth from those who have talked about the high level of service and quality of food received. Their caring volunteer staff treats everyone with dignity and compassion. An interview process is arranged for a new client after a 1st come 1st served sign in process. Clients need to provide proof of address and residency in the service area for anyone over 18, provide two forms of ID including a picture ID, and have various types of records to prove household make up, income and expenses, and the reason they ran out of food. Referrals can be made to other agencies and groups to better assist the client. Referrals also come from other agencies, advocacy groups, churches and schools.

Donors and Volunteers learn about the Cupboard through Churches, businesses, Bulletins, and word of mouth. Groups can take tours of the Cupboard when food collections are delivered.

New volunteers are always welcome. Volunteers help to pre-pack orders for 3 days of food using an inventory style list. Volunteers do pick-ups at Foodlink and unload the cases when they return. Volunteers help with food preparation such as assembling toiletry packets, placing produce in plastic, and stocking shelves. Volunteers also help with office work such as answering the phone, filing, “working the desk” and interviewing clients after completing a training program. Volunteer commitments are flexible based on personal availability.

To learn more about St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard or to set up a donation collection program, please contact Margaret Oberst at 338-1760 (Cupboard), 254-3093 (home) or email moberst@dor.org. Volunteers come in on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday from 9:00 – 11:30 am. (Note: St. Louis collects food for St. Andrew’s every 3 months.)

One Other Possibility The last Sunday of this month, we will shift from Mark’s Gospel to chapter 6 of John’s Gospel, the discourse on the Bread of Life. It seems the perfect time to move forward in replacing our breakable communion wear with ciboria and cups befitting the dignity of the Eucharist. If you would like to contribute a communion cup or ciboria in memory of a loved one, please let Bea Hack, bhack@dor.org or Birdie Proctor, bproctor@dor.org, know.

Thank You Knights of Columbus

Many thanks to our St. Louis Council of the Knights of Columbus! Their recent fundraising effort with Denny’s Restaurant provided a nice contribution to Saint’s Place, and they were a great help throughout the Super Sale. Well done, good and faithful servants!

The Grand Army

Truly it was a grand army of volunteers who made the Super Sale such a great event! Thank you, thank you, thank you! God bless each and every one of you, and Isabel and Michelle for providing such tremendous leadership and inspiration. The preview night was a terrific success. Bishop Matano and Fr. Dan White couldn't believe their eyes! Rain couldn't dampen high spirits, shoppers loved it, and most importantly, volunteers and shoppers together raised much needed funds to provide a holy welcome for the refugees who come to our shores. Praise the Lord!

This week we take up a Second Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports Catholic organizations that provide affordable shelter and train seminarians in a region that still struggles from the effects of Soviet rule. By providing pastoral care, catechesis, and funding for building renovations, your donations help to restore the Church and build the future in the region. Please give generously. Visit www.usccb.org (search “Church in Central and Eastern Europe”) to learn more.

(again!)

Don’t miss the sales . . .
They are incredible!

The “Back to School” Sales have already started and prices are great! This past year Saint’s Place filled and delivered 277 backpacks for students ages 4 to 20 years old. So, we need your help to continue this important work for this school year.

School supplies and backpacks are needed for refugee children who are arriving in Rochester this summer and who will start school for the first time in September. Saint’s Place supplies each school-aged refugee with a backpack filled with needed school supplies. During the month of August, school supplies are at their lowest prices of the year. Many items such as notebooks are as low as 50 cents or one dollar.

If you can help by purchasing one backpack and/or supplies for a backpack, it would be greatly appreciated.

A Special Thank You!

Although the weather has been rainy and somewhat chilly, Camp Stella Maris (CSM) is off to a great start! We are so grateful for the generosity of the parishioners at St. Louis, the St. Louis chapter of the Knights of Columbus and Saint’s Place for sharing your treasure with CSM and the kids from the House of Mercy! We received approximately $800 along with many, many items the kids needed at camp. The Knights provided us with the “bins” to pack each child’s clothes and camp necessities. Saint’s Place provided many clothes for the children as well as a few sleeping bags!

The first group of kids from the House of Mercy attended camp last week and we have two more groups coming in August. We could not provide all the things the children need without your help. Thank you so very much!

Organizing a Library Remember receiving a copy of Rediscovering Catholicism this past Christmas? Many folks have commented that it was the first Catholic book they had read in ages, and it was tremendously inspiring.
Around campus, we actually have a wide variety of excellent books tucked here and there, ranging from an excellent series of great Spiritual Writers, resources on scripture, for beginners as well as those in Bible studies, books for the young and the old. We hope to bring them together this Fall, in a little lending library. Would you like to help make that happen?? Please let Fr Bob know soon, as we prepare for our first organizational meeting. Contact Father at Ring@dor.org or call the office.

THE SPIRITUALITY OF POPE FRANCIS AND MORE...

- Has Pope Francis’ prayerfulness and ministry of healing and wholeness caught your attention?
- Do you desire to learn how to pray more deeply and experience this living spirituality yourself?
- Do you desire to know and love God more?

If you answer yes to any of these questions, please consider making the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Retreat at Mercy Spirituality Center. This 30 week retreat begins in September 2015. Participants meet weekly for input and spiritual guidance and establish a daily prayer practice. Sessions are held Wednesday morning or evening.

Note: Beginning in September, MSC is piloting a second option for making this retreat using podcasts. This option will benefit people outside of the greater Rochester area or persons unable to attend the in-house Wednesday sessions.

If you are interested in considering this “life-changing” retreat experience in either format and would like more information, contact Mercy Spirituality Center at 585-473-6893, ext. 113. Applications for the retreat are on a “first come” basis.
