Year of the Eucharist

Our diocese will celebrate the 150th anniversary of its founding on March 3, 2018. To mark this anniversary, Bishop Matano has proclaimed a Year of the Eucharist, which began June 18, 2017, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and will conclude on Sunday, June 3, 2018, on the same solemnity.” [You can find the Bishop’s pastoral letter on the diocesan website, www.dor.org.]

What will a “Year of the Eucharist” mean? It is Bishop Matano’s desire that parishes and families will make a comprehensive effort to renew and deepen our understanding of the Eucharist, that every Catholic household will recommit to reverent, weekly participation in the celebration of the Mass, and that celebration of the Eucharist will be “the heart and center of our Sesquicentennial Celebration … and the driving force for our Diocese’s pastoral, apostolic and charitable works.”

In conjunction with this Year of the Eucharist, the Bishop has made two specific requests concerning our practices at Mass. Paragraph #42 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states: “A common posture, to be observed by all participants, is a sign of the unity of the members of the Christian community gathered for the sacred liturgy: it both expresses and fosters the intention and spiritual attitude of the participants.” In light of this, our Bishop is asking that all the faithful kneel during the Eucharistic Prayer, from the end of the “Holy, Holy, Holy” to after the “Great Amen.”

This of course is our present practice at St Louis. However, kneeling has not always been the traditional communal posture for Christian prayer of praise, which the Eucharistic Prayer is, and thus some individual parishes in our Diocese and around the country, as is the norm in other nations, have had the custom of standing during this Prayer. As people go to Mass in various parishes with different traditions, things can become awkward, and the sense of unity can be lost.

The same is even more the case prior to communion. To re-establish the sense of unity, the Bishop asks that we kneel prior to Communion, after we sing the “Lamb of God”, through the distribution of Holy Communion. When the General Instruction of the Roman Missal and the third edition of the Roman Missal were promulgated, the decision about posture at this point of the Mass was left to the local Bishop. In 2002, the common practice in our Diocese was to stand until after Holy Communion had been received, and Bishop Clark decided to leave it that way. Since then however, practice has shifted, so often some stand and some kneel – again, awkwardly dividing congregation. Consequently, Bishop Matano is asking all parishes to kneel in reverent preparation for receiving Holy Communion.

Beginning this weekend, let’s accept the Bishop’s request for the sake of unified, communal prayer, let’s attend to other issues about reverence during Mass, commit to faithful participation, and let’s truly use this Year of the Eucharist to deepen our faith and understanding. Peace! Fr. Bob

And So It Happened
Our 1st reading is a prophecy of Zechariah, who foresees a restoration for Israel. Reminiscent of the golden days of the kingdom, he foresees God’s plan to bring about a universal kingdom (from seas to sea) through a humble messiah, one not riding in on a warhorse, but riding on a colt, the foal of an ass, a beast of burden, reminiscent of the days when the king was a shepherd, a pastoral leader.

The case can be made that Jesus was very aware of this prophecy, and of his role, when he rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday just as Zechariah describes. This in contrast, and perhaps challenge to, a procession that was taking place on the opposite side of the city at the same time: Pilate riding into Jerusalem from his luxurious palace at Caesarea Maritima, coming into the city to preclude any nationalistic fervor and incidents during Passover. He came accompanied by legionaries in a military procession, very different from Jesus’ entry. Who was the real king? After the resurrection and the descent of the Holy Spirit, there can be little doubt!

That Matthew also saw Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem as a fulfilment of Zechariah’s prophecy is pretty clear. In his Gospel the disciples are sent to fetch an ass and its colt. He may not have caught that the passage in Zechariah was referring to one animal, not two.

Our take-away – Jesus is a humble messiah. To follow him, that virtue needs to find a home in our life.

Flesh and Spirit
Tons of ink has been spilled sorting out how St. Paul uses the terms flesh and spirit. Bottom line: by flesh he does not mean our physical body, which is somehow bad, nor is spirit somehow a holy part of us trapped in the body. That understanding is to mistakenly use Greek philosophy to try to interpret Hebrew thought. Paul doesn’t separate the person in that way. By flesh he means all of the person before being redeemed, body and soul. By ‘being in the spirit’ he means being redeemed by Christ, again the body and soul. But we don’t need to sort it all out to get the main point: we are to live in grace, letting the life of Christ come to life in us, not hanging on to the way we were before we allowed the saving love of Jesus to bring us to new birth.

A Glorious Invitation
Jesus is speaking to each of us in the Gospel today (as he always does): “come to me all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest”. He is meek and humble of heart, the messiah foretold by Zechariah. Rather than the yoke of the law, which had been before, he invites us to the yoke of love: live with him, love with him, let him share our labor and burdens. The yoke of the law, expounded by the rabbis, each person was responsible to bear; a single yoke. The yoke Jesus enjoins upon us he bore first, and he invites us to step into the other side of that double yoke. Whoever we are loving, or whoever we are worried about, whoever we are serving, whoever is a cross to us, Jesus was there first, in his side of the yoke, inviting us to be yoked with him. How would realizing that Jesus is bearing our burdens with us change our life? Spend some quiet time in prayer with him and see!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Elderberry Express

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Pittsford Food Cupboard

The Pittsford Food Cupboard is a food pantry serving more than 4,000 households in Monroe County “Feeding Hope One Family at a Time.” Suzy Ward, a St. Louis Parishioner, is the current Executive Director. The Pittsford Food Cupboard’s mission is to help alleviate hunger for families in need who live in a six zip code area between the City of Rochester, Pittsford, Brighton and East Rochester by supplementing 10 days of food supplies, ultimately contributing towards clients’ independence. Clients come from all walks of life, many just needing a little help to get through a period of unemployment or illness. Others need assistance because of inadequate fixed incomes, a disability, uninsured medical bills, single parenthood or an increased in household size.

This past year, the cupboard provided food supplies to over 4,000 households, totaling over 9,400 people. The Cupboard typically serves over 400 families per month. PFC relies on its staff of over 100 volunteers. The Cupboard has a variety of flexible volunteer programs that make it easy for members of the community, adults or students, to get involved and volunteer at group or individual levels. Besides collecting food, assisting clients, helping with office work, stocking shelves or picking up food, volunteers can “Adopt-A-Shelf,” hold can and bottle drives, or be a sponsor and coordinate food drives at their organization. Donors to the Food Cupboard include civic groups, churches, schools and scout troops.

For details, visit www.pittsfordfoodcupboard.net or contact Suzy Ward directly at 585-746-5676. Thank you for your prayers, your food donations, and your critical financial support.

- Discover the remarkable connections between the Old and New Testaments See how the sacraments, the Church and our entire Catholic Faith is rooted in Scripture
- and much more!

“To intercede means to send someone an angel.”
[Martin Luther, 1483-1546]

“As Abraham intervened by his prayer for the inhabitants of Sodom, as Jesus prayed for his disciples, and as the early Christian community looked “not only to [their] own interests, but also to the interests of others” (Phil 2:4), so too Christians always pray for everyone – for people who are dear to their hearts, for people who are not close to them, and even for their enemies.
[Youth Catechism §§2634-2636, 2647].

We can all pray for each other. Join us in building a new ministry of prayer! As the Body of Christ, we can help each other out and hold each other up by putting our hands together in prayer for one another. The beautiful thing about prayer is that it can be done in the comfort and quiet of your own home, privately in a public place or with the assembly of God’s people. Prayer is an activity open to people of all ages. There are truly no limits!

We will accept prayer requests, share them with only those in the network, and pray for each other and our loved ones and friends through the challenges of life. If you would like to help start this new prayer network for the needs and people of St. Louis Church, please call Cathy Malik in the Ministry Center at 586-5675, ext. 228.

Come, join a new ministry team! We have specific, short-term goals so our efforts will be very focused. Your time will be valued and you are sure to meet new people. We will meet once a month through summer and fall.

Program Promo Team: We have opportunities in our parish to learn more about our faith and to grow spiritually, and many more people will benefit from these offerings if we can get the word out effectively. We are forming a team to strategize and implement ways to advertise our great adult faith programs and resources.

RCIA Team: We plan to restructure our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program so that it offers options that accommodate busy schedules and provide a better understanding of our faith. Would you like to be part of a team that develops a good foundation for preparing and welcoming new Catholics to our faith?

No need to be an expert! Come try it out for a session to see if it is your cup of tea! We love to see new people participate. Please contact Kathryn for more information at Kathryn.McAlarney@dor.org.

BEGINNING EXPERIENCE OF ROCHESTER (BE) will be sponsoring a 10-week hope and healing program for the widowed, separated and divorced. Weekly sessions will be held from 7-9 p.m. in Pittsford, NY beginning Monday, July 17. The course will follow the book, "Rebuilding When Your Relationship Ends" by Dr. Bruce Fisher. For more information or to register please call BE at 585-987-1750, or send an email to beofrochester@gmail.com, or visit the BE website at www.beginningexperiencerochesterny.org.

CELIAC DISEASE

If you have celiac disease, are gluten intolerant, and cannot receive the Eucharist in the ordinary form of the host that we use, there are two options available. You could choose to receive Christ only as the precious blood, from the chalice, or we can consecrate special hosts that are gluten free.

If you would like to receive a gluten free host, please contact the Liturgical Assistant prior to Mass so that they can be certain a gluten free host will be consecrated. One of the communion ministers in the center aisle will then have a ciboria with a small container on the side with your host.

We ask the rest of the community to refrain from dipping the consecrated host into the cup as even that small action can make the cup a concern for a person who suffers from Celiac Disease, and as intinction (as dipping is called) should be a rare practice, according to church directives.

Emerging Churches
Next weekend, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church in over 20 countries, many of which are still struggling to recover in the aftermath of Soviet rule. Funds from this collection support pastoral care, catechesis, building renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection next weekend. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/ccce.

Thank you for taking the time to read the bulletin.
