God Bless Our Fathers and Grandfathers!

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity, God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. We also celebrate Father’s Day, and ask God’s blessings on our fathers, grandfathers, and all the fathers in our parish. While the Sunday readings this weekend are brief, the passage from St. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians not only speaks of the Trinity, in its farewell doxology, it also offers a bit of Father’s Day inspiration.

According to the Acts of the Apostles, St. Paul founded the church in Corinth. He had a fatherly concern for that community. When physically absent from Corinth on his missionary journeys, he remained present to that church through his letters. What father can’t identify with his parting wishes and words in the passage we hear today? Conflicts were an issue for the church family there. Just as a father wants to see his children getting along, so Paul deeply desired that his spiritual children be at peace.

After a substantial letter addressing the various concerns, and offering paternal guidance, Paul concludes so simply: Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you. Truly a father’s desire for his family! (In addition to so many other things, St. Paul provided much of the text of our Mass. The opening greeting at Mass comes from this passage, as does the kiss of peace before communion. St. Paul is the earliest source of the words of consecration … the list goes on.)

Looking back to last weekend provides one more inspiration for Father’s Day. It was a wonderful weekend, as we celebrated the glorious Feast of Pentecost, celebrated with Fr. Al his 50 years as a priest, and celebrated with Deacon Carlos the beginning of his ordained ministry. Such wonderful celebrations are only possible when the church family works together. God bless the many, many folks who worked together and made the events of last weekend such a success. In his thanking our community, Fr. Al highlighted a theme that was perfect for Pentecost – namely: the inspiration of seeing so many people here at St. Louis so generously using their gifts for the good of the community, and for others. What father doesn’t want his children to discover their gifts, develop them well, and find joy in sharing them? It is a very paternal instinct!

And so, fathers, God bless you in your vocation. May God help you to guide your family in peace and love. May you see those gifts blossom in your children. For those times when, as with St. Paul’s family in Corinth, your family experiences conflicts, divisions, or other human struggles, may you have patience, understanding, and help work through the issues with the help of the Holy Spirit. Peace and blessings to you always, Fr. Bob

Christian Initiation for Children
When infants are baptized, preparation for baptism is to prepare the parents for the celebration itself, and for their role as their child's primary teachers in the life of faith. As their child grows, parents share their faith with their son or daughter, teach them to pray, give them training in the virtues, and help them grow into being a well formed Christian. As a community of faith, we assist parents in all of the above through our various faith formation and sacramental preparation programs. What of older children who haven’t been baptized? When children are old enough to understand something about prayer, and God, and our Christian faith, and want to belong, there is a process to prepare them to receive the sacrament of Baptism, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC). Not unlike the RCIA, this is not intended to be an explanation of everything one ever needs to know to being Catholic. It’s getting started on the path. Is this a ministry that might use your gifts well? Want to learn more? Contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 224. Do you have a child who is asking about belonging, and might be a candidate for the RCIC? Give us a call and let us know!

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS NEEDED
Saint’s Place is looking for musical instruments. Refugee students will learn how to play a musical instrument, discovering the joy of music while enjoying a safe past time. If you have an instrument that is collecting dust, let’s put it to good use by donating it to a program that is helping students in the city school district learn the wonders of music.

Thank you again for your continued support and help.

Planting a garden this summer? Wondering what you will with all the extras? All those tomatoes, eggplants, zucchinis, lettuces, radishes – all ripe at the same time? Consider donating your extras to Saint’s Place and we will distribute them to the refugees at our Clothing Closet. The refugees would be very grateful to receive homegrown vegetables.

You may drop off your labors of love at 46 South Main Street and we will deliver them to the refugees as soon as possible. So, go ahead and plant that garden and add a few extra for our newly arriving refugees. Thank you!

TOGETHER IN BAPTISM

Baptism Congratulations!!!
We rejoice with these families who have brought their children to be initiated into the faith of our Church community. May God’s love & light grow ever stronger within them, and may their families always be a place of blessing.

Sisters of Mercy

Envisioning a just world for people who are poor, sick and uneducated, the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas commit their lives to God and their resources to serve, advocate and pray for those in need around the world. They sponsor ministries that respond to particular singular needs (such as distributing food and clothing) and work for systemic change (as they did in Selma, Alabama). Locally those ministries include for example Mercy Outreach Center, Mercy Residential Services, Mercy Bridges, Melita House, Andrews Center, Steuben County Rural Ministry and others.

They respond to the needs of our times with prayer at the Mercy Prayer Center; and collaborate with the Sisters of St. Joseph in their good works and with Sister Grace Miller at the House of Mercy for the homeless. They render pastoral services in our Rochester hospitals and churches. Advocating for social justice, the Mercy Volunteer Corp gets involved locally and internationally becoming companions in mercy in Haiti, South Sudan and South America knowing well that education is the key to ridding the world of social injustice to women. They carry out all 7 Corporal Works of Mercy as well as the 7 Spiritual Works of Mercy. Their motherhouse is located at 1437 Blossom Rd. next to their high school, Our Lady of Mercy -a School for Young Women.

In 1950, the Rochester Sisters of Mercy established our own St. Louis School in addition to several other area Catholic schools.

Please pray for these dedicated women who have given their lives to bettering our community and the world at large. To learn more about the many works of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas and to see if you would like to consider becoming a Mercy Associate or a member of their Volunteer Corp, visit: www.SistersofMercy.org
Close Encounter
Our first reading, from Exodus, describes the closest encounter any human being had with God in the Hebrew Scriptures. Those who think God in the Old Testament is a God of wrath need to spend time with these verses. Moses is presented in the Hebrew Scriptures as closer to God than any human being. He is called to proclaim God’s will to the people, while also advocating for a sinful people before God. What does Moses learn of God’s nature in this close encounter on Mt Sinai? The Lord is merciful, gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity. This is one of the most repeated and quoted statements about God in the Tanak (the Hebrew Bible). Can you name other places in the Old Testament that portray God as tender and loving? (Hint: Hosea and later chapters in Isaiah are good places to look.)

Family of Believers
Though at times St. Paul could get pretty upset with folks in the churches he founded, even so, his deep love comes through in his letters loud and clear. He often uses family relationship language, and even speaks of how much he anguishs over the community’s well-being. The sentiments in today’s reading could easily capture those of any parent of a large family. This Father’s Day, hear his words as the desire a father has that his children get along in peace with one another. We hear this reading on the Feast of the Holy Trinity because Paul concludes his letter with the Trinitarian formula, the very words with which the priest greets the church community at the beginning of Mass.

Heart of the Mission
What exactly was Jesus’ mission? In our Gospel today, John breaks it down to the simplest terms. Jesus was sent into the world out of love, that he might save us, and open the door to eternal life. How would you explain this to the uninitiated? Saved from what? Can you articulate just what Jesus has saved you from, and how he has done so?

Men's 89 Looking for a powerful retreat experience that can open your eyes to all that faith can provide, and truly change your life? Want to discover what life in the Spirit and life in grace might look and feel like? The team has been preparing the next men's Cursillo for months already. Fr. Bob and Fr. Ed Palumbos, together with the other 25 members of the team, invite you to Men's 89, the evening of July 24th thru July 27. What is Cursillo? Ask Cursillistas Fr. Ray, Msgr. Krieg, Victor or Fr. Bob (Victor can tell you about Cursillo in Columbia).

Day of Ignatian Reflection June 28

God's Love For Us!

Because of God's great love for us, he sent his Son, Jesus, to save the world. Jesus, in turn, sent the Holy Spirit so that our faith in God and his love would be strengthened. The nurturing experiences of family life also help us to understand and have faith in God's love.

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Today's Gospel talks about why and how God acts. We come to know who God is by what God does for us. God sent Jesus to save the world because God loves the world. The Holy Spirit is given to us so that we might believe that God loves us and wants to give us eternal life. The Trinity is a way that we talk about how we experience God's love for us.

A Note from Mrs. Barr . . .

St. Louis School's Mission Day is an annual event sponsored by the 5th and 6th grades to benefit our sister school in Kenya, Africa, which has been named St. Louis School. Mission Day begins with a Morning Prayer Service. Our gym is transformed into a carnival and each classroom attends to play games and win prizes. Proceeds from this event benefit our sister school in Kenya, which was started in 1998 with 75 children. Today, they have 600!

Due to the generosity of our families, our sister school has been able to build numerous classrooms, a fresh water well and latrines. Their next project is electricity and a library!

God's Blessings,

Mrs. Fran Barr,
Principal

Calling all men……..

Advent House would like to thank your church for your continued support over the years. We are able to minster to the dying and their families because of the generosity of the Fairport community and our church families. Currently we are forming a “Maintenance Committee” that would consist of a group of men with various “talents” that we can pool together on an as-needed basis.

We need men gifted at plumbing, electrical work, gutter cleaning, moving furniture, appliance repair…..you name it – we have a need for it! If you have a “gift” you can share – please give us a call at 223-6112 for more information. Many hands make light work…and what a wonderful way to be the hands and feet of Jesus in this wonderful ministry.
