Rising to the Occasion

The transformation must have given folks a whole new appreciation of the possibility of change in a person’s life. Last week we heard about St. Paul’s transformation; from a zealous persecutor of Christians, he was transformed into the church’s fearless apostle and preacher. Yes, folks do change, and sometimes it can leave us amazed: ‘Is this the same person?’

On Mother’s Day, I wrote a bit about my conversion and call to priesthood, and how my mother adjusted, accepted, and made peace with her son’s new faith and life’s vocation. On this Father’s Day, my reflections take me to another change in our family, to me equally dramatic.

I feel tremendously blessed to have had great parents. Growing up, I saw my dad as a Rock of Gibraltar type. Along with a full time job, he also managed the small farm we called home, where my grandparents had moved when they left the city. No matter what the challenge, things needing repair, equipment breaking down, well running dry, adverse weather, crop damage, dad always found a way to plow through it. Given how he was raised, he was not one to show his feelings, and was a traditional kind of dad, always there, always providing. He did all the ‘man’s’ work, while mom took care of the house, meals, shopping, etc. Dad never liked the phone (for better or worse, I think I got that trait from him); when my sisters or I would call home, if he answered, which he almost never did, right after hello we would hear ‘I’ll get your mom.’

In the past year and a half, my mom has had increasing health challenges, along with some memory issues and confusion. Watching the transformation in my dad as this has unfolded has sometimes left me speechless. From helping mom with things around the house, he has moved to basically taking care of everything. While a powerful work ethic was always front and center, patience is not a gift we would likely have ascribed to dad. Now, watching the patience with which he handles things, it is as if there is a new person in the house. He was never big on going visiting, whereas my mom was always very outgoing. Now he makes a point to see that they get out visiting friends and relatives several times every week. The first time I saw on caller ID that I was getting a call from mom’s cell phone, and it turned out dad was on the other end of the line, I nearly fainted.

It is one thing to say God gives us the grace we need when we need it. What a priceless gift to see that actually happen. Dad has risen to the occasion in astounding ways, and while I was proud of him before, now I find myself truly in awe at times. Yes, God can give us the grace to rise to the occasion. May God bless all the fathers of our parish, and peace to you all, Fr. Bob.

REQUIEM AETERNAM
Ann Maloy

St. Louis Church, Pittsford, NY
June 16, 2013
11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: 2 Samuel 12:7-10
David’s sin

2nd Reading: Galatians 2:16-19-20
I have been crucified with Christ

Gospel: Luke 7:36-50
Anointing Jesus with great love

Sent the Holy Spirit… for the forgiveness of our sins

This weekend we can see this truth, from the prayer of absolution, in action. In the David/Bathsheba story (chapters 11 & 12 of 2 Samuel), the Spirit gave the prophet Nathan the courage to confront the king with his sin, as well as the wisdom to do so through a parable. On his own, David could see the sin of the rich man in the parable. The Spirit opened David’s eyes when Nathan said ‘You are the man!’ The Spirit moved David to acknowledge his sin. The Spirit also empowered Nathan to announce to David that the Lord had forgiven him. Has the Spirit ever led you to help someone see their sin, or helped you to accept another person’s efforts to lead you from sin to conversion and grace?

St. Paul and St. Patrick

St. Patrick and St. Paul have much in common. Like Paul, Patrick was a fearless missionary to those who knew nothing of the faith. His list of hardships for the sake of the Gospel is not unlike Paul’s. Paul had a profound awareness of being ‘in Christ’, as he says in the letter to the Galatians, that Christ lived in him. Here are words attributed to St. Patrick: Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me. Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

Ignatian Prayer

Today’s vivid Gospel is perfect for Ignatian prayer. After preparing to encounter God in prayer, read over the Gospel. Picture the scene. Try to place yourself in the scene. Be Simon, watching it unfold, skeptical at first, but hopefully eventually getting it. Be the woman anointing Jesus’ feet. Get in touch with her love, which led to such an extravagant act. Hear Jesus speaking to you, as he spoke to her. Enter a conversation with the Lord. Not familiar with Ignatian prayer? Check out IgnatianSpirituality.com

Pastoral Council Update

Last week Pastoral Council had our last meeting of the season, thanking Ed and Estelle O’Connell, Joe Miskey, Tom Cummings, Mike Moore and Carol McManus for their generous service, and welcoming on board Jacek Woloszuk, Christine Bouchard, Paul Dolan, Karl and Piroska Mersich & Michael Drew. Jeff Stid was re-elected as chair for the coming year, Suzy Ward vice-chair, and Christine Bouchard, secretary. Topics included great news about how things are looking for our school next year, with enrollment up and the new pre-school/pre-K/and K move shaping up; plans for the driveway project to begin soon, a review of some major software updates coming on-line for the Ministry Center this summer, designed to help our staff serve everyone better, a review of the role of Pastoral Council, and a Cursillo presentation - all told, a very up-beat meeting!

Looking Ahead: 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1st Reading: Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1
A spirit of grace and petition

2nd Reading: Galatians 3:26-29
Baptism - clothed in Christ

Take up our cross

Perhaps you have seen pieces in the bulletin about Cursillo, but still are not quite sure. Cursillo is about forming leaders for the parish community who are rooted in faith, have a renewed relationship with the Lord, have experienced just what Christian community can be, and have been exposed to a process that can carry them through the good times and the hard times in living out their faith and serving the community.

The weekend formation experience begins on a Thursday evening and ends Sunday afternoon, but as with most true spiritual experiences, at the end of the weekend you won’t know where the time went, and will wish the experience could go on forever. There is still time to apply for the upcoming women’s weekend, July 25-28. The next men’s weekend is November 7-10. Ask Msgr. Krieg, Fr. Ray or Fr. Bob for details.

Chair Repair Needed!

Do you – or someone you know – refurbish wooden chairs with rush-seats? We have several of our “Church Chairs” that need the seats re-done … and if there’s a handy-person with a flair for that work, we’d love to enlist him/her to offer TLC to these furnishings! Contact: Sally at the Ministry Center, 586-5675 or sschrecker@dor.org. Thanks!
Thank you for your support of our parish. While many of our parishioners travel or have summer parishes in June, July and August, our bills continue. Your generosity is especially helpful at this time of the year!

Thank you for your generosity in last week’s collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Because of your support, millions of faithful can gain a deeper understanding of their faith through Catholic resources on the Internet, television, radio, and print media. Remember, half of your donations are staying in our diocese to support local communication projects. To learn more about the important work supported by the Collection for CCC, please visit www.usccb.org (search for “Catholic Communication Campaign”). Did you know, CCC supports Bustedhalo.com, specifically to reach out to young adults in their 20s and 30s? Check it out!

Future of the Church
Next Sunday, June 23rd we will hear St. Paul tell us: "...you are all children of God in Christ. For all who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourself with Christ." Words straight out of the Rite of Baptism! We will be celebrating the Baby Blessing Mass June 23rd at the 9 AM Mass, honoring the newly baptized and blessing them and their families. If your child was baptized this past year, please drop off a picture at the box in the Narthex, or at the Ministry Center, and try to join us as rejoice with you in celebrating God’s precious gift.

It’s not too late to help!
Our retired priests and seminarians are counting on us!

Finance Council
Last week our Finance Council reviewed the last few month’s numbers, discussed and approved a budget, and discussed the recent audit, staffing, and other issues related to how best to effectively coordinate the various ministries of the parish from the financial perspective. Knowing that a whole new accounting software package is being rolled out by the diocese, as well as a new parish information software package that can keep track of registered families, be integrated with religious education classes and such information, and greatly enhance the ways we can communicate with parishioners, the council was encouraged, and looking forward to watching the result of all the changes.
Annual Super SALE

COUNT DOWN FOR OUR ANNUAL SUPER SALE HAS BEGUN…

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR JULY 10 – 13

Are you willing to give your time and talents?

We would greatly appreciate any assistance you could give us during this time. Set up starts Wednesday, July 3rd at 9:00 AM. There is no set up on Thursday, July 4th, but we resume set up on Friday and Saturday, July 5th and 6th, 9:00 AM until 4:00 PM.

Are you willing to part with some of your treasures?
We are looking for good quality, almost new, items to sell. This is your chance to clean out your china cabinet, gather up those gifts that you have never even opened and drop them off at 46 South Main Street. If you have any large furniture pieces, in good condition, that you would like to donate, please call Michele at 385-6860 to arrange for a pick-up time.

WE CANNOT ACCEPT THE FOLLOWING ITEMS:
Holiday decorations, luggage, clothing, typewriters, computers, outdated electronics, heavy duty tools, exercise equipment (including skis), encyclopedias and medical supplies. If you have a question about an item, please call us at 385-6860.

OUR MISSION
Your support allows us to fulfill our mission of assisting legal refugees to get a fresh start in a new country. This is a daunting task but we manage to assist about 750 refugees a year. How do we do this? We are able to accomplish much of this by your generous donations, but we do need to purchase those items not donated, e.g. beds, pillows, underwear, etc. We use the proceeds from the sale to purchase these items as well as to pay for the costs of running our ministry, which includes operating our van and truck and the rental of warehouse space. This sale is our biggest fundraiser of the year. Please help us to make this sale a great success!

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS and Girls: YOU ARE INVITED to help with setting up for our Annual Super Sale

ABORTION EXPANSION IN NEW YORK STATE . . . WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Now that the language for this bill has been released, here is what is proposed as a part of the Women's Agenda. Please ask yourself if these changes to NYS Law help women and protect our rights such as conscience protection (analysis provided by legal counsel for the NYS Catholic Conference).

This bill:
- Repeals the "duly licensed physician" requirement from Penal Law.
- Empowers the Health Department with unlimited discretion to define who can perform abortions; giving them unreviewable authority to define the "scope of practice" for health professionals (it is no longer even a requirement to be a licensed medical professional in the state!).
- Immunizes from criminal prosecution anyone who directly tries to cause the death of an unborn child (for example, domestic violence against a pregnant woman).
- Explicitly repeals the current Penal Law crime and penalty for coerced or involuntary abortions.
- Removes the requirement that any abortion must be done with maternal consent.
- Allows late-term abortions after 24 weeks for the undefined "health" of the mother (not the "life" of the mother as is current law) - a procedure much more dangerous to the woman than delivery, especially late in pregnancy.
- Specifically cites Roe v. Wade as the definition of abortion rights, since that decision incorporated a definition of "health" so broad as to include "all factors – physical, emotional, psychological, familial, and the woman's age – relevant to the well being of the patient." In essence, that authorizes abortion for any reason at all up until the moment of birth.
- Using the standard of Roe v. Wade only and not later Supreme Court decisions (such as Planned Parenthood v. Casey) means they are attempting to codify a version of abortion law that is much farther reaching than prevailing federal abortion law.
- Permitting the abortion of any child that is not "viable" - a term left undefined in the bill, leaving it entirely to the discretion of the abortionist to determine that key factor.
- Failing to define "health care provider" makes it impossible to determine if conscience protection is given to individuals, institutions, or both. This lack of clarity also means that non-medical institutions, such as Catholic schools and other charities, could be compelled by state regulators to counsel or refer people for abortion or risk losing state contracts and licenses that are necessary for them to operate.
- If abortion is made a fundamental right, it will never be possible to limit taxpayer funding of abortions or add any common-sense regulations such as waiting periods or parental consent. These reasonable regulations on abortions, which have been upheld as constitutional, would be highly unlikely to withstand a New York court challenge under the Governor's proposed bill.

THIS COULD BE THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE TO THE DIGNITY OF HUMAN LIFE THAT HAPPENS IN YOUR LIFETIME.
NYS already has the highest abortion rate in the nation (33% - double the national average). Over 100,000 abortions are performed in our state each year. There is not a problem with current access to abortion.

Please contact the Governor and your legislators to tell them NO to abortion expansion in New York State. The current session ends on June 20, so contact them today!

Go to www.nyscatholic.org for an easy way to send them a message.

You may also contact the Governor's office by phone (518) 474-8390 or mail: The Honorable Andrew M. Cuomo, Governor of New York State, NYS State Capitol Building, Albany NY 12224.

Further questions: Kathleen McMahon, kcmahon@dor.org or 586-5675 x228.

"The church must suffer for speaking the truth, for pointing out sin, for uprooting sin. No one wants to have a sore spot touched, and therefore a society with so many sores twitches when someone has the courage to touch it and say: “You have to treat that. You have to get rid of that. Believe in Christ. Be converted.”"

~ Oscar A. Romero, The Violence of Love
A GREAT TIME WAS HAD BY ALL...

Once again the Sunshine Luncheon was a success! Over 150 individuals enjoyed a great meal, fine music, and wonderful fellowship at the luncheon. We are so grateful to St. Louis School for the beautiful decorations, entertainment and hosting of our tables. Thank you to all who helped in anyway with the food, parking, greeting, visiting and especially caring for those who joined us from area nursing facilities and individual residences. This wonderful day could not happen without each one of you!

We believe that God wants to be known, and can be known. To be human is to search for God, the ultimate truth. We can come to know God in the Eucharist, in reading the Bible, and in the teachings of the Church. Sharing this faith by how we live (witness) and what we say puts evangelization into action.

Fruits of Evangelization

When one of my friends becomes a Christian, which happens about every 10 years because I am a sheep about sharing my faith, the experience is euphoric.

I see in their eyes the trueness of the story.

~ Donald Miller

Sister Stan Says “Thank You”!

We are happy to announce an upcoming visit from Sister Stan Mumuni of the Nazareth Home for God’s Children in Ghana, Africa.

On Tuesday, June 18, Sister will travel from Buffalo, NY, where she is continuing her mission appeal to the Diocese of Buffalo, to spend the day with us.

Through the efforts of the Family Faith “Called to Serve” program and the generosity of our wonderful parishioners, we were able to donate another $4200 in addition to our mission appeal collection of $7000 on her behalf last August 2012.

She is very thankful and truly touched by our efforts and has asked to make a special visit to our parish to show her appreciation.

Two welcoming receptions will give parishioners a chance to meet & greet her, watch a video of our parishioners’ visit to Ghana this past January, and enjoy light refreshments!

Tuesday, June 18 after the 11:00 am Mass or 7:00 pm – both in the Parish Meeting Hall

Come and see how your generosity has made a difference in the lives of Sr. Stan’s beloved orphaned children.

CELIAC DISEASE

There are a number of people who are gluten intolerant and cannot receive the Eucharist in the ordinary form of the host that we use. They can do two things: drink only from the cup or use a special host that is gluten free. We would be pleased to provide information about these special hosts and discuss the manner of their use. Give Fr. Bob a call if we can be of assistance to you in this matter. The rest of the community should refrain from dipping the consecrated host into the cup as even that small action can make the cup a concern for a person who suffers from Celiac Disease. Intinction (as dipping is called) should be a rare practice as the Lord told us to: “Eat and Drink.” We thought you should know!
Feeling Good About Forgiveness

Jesus attended dinner as a guest in a church official’s house. While they ate, a woman, whose sinfulness was well known in the community, came into the house. She wept and washed Jesus’ feet with her tears. She dried them with her hair and then poured expensive oil on his feet. The Pharisee complained about such extravagance. Indeed the presence of the sinful woman in his home embarrassed him.

Jesus knew that the woman had great sins in her life. He knew that the church leader hadn’t sinned nearly as much. To show that the woman especially needed God’s love, Jesus told a parable about two people who owed money. The person they owed the money to said they didn’t have to pay it back. The Pharisee knew that the person who owed the most money would be the happiest about this. Jesus said it was the same for the person who had the greatest sins forgiven.

We believe, as Catholics, that our sins need to be recognized and presented before God. In most cases our sins are not mortal, but still they get in the way of our relationship with God. Our Church offers two important opportunities for us to ask God to forgive us. Every time we go to mass, there is “penitential rite” when we can tell God that we are sorry for our actions that keep us apart from God. God hears our sorrow and forgives us. Through Christ, bishops and priests can forgive our sins. We confess our sins to them in the sacrament of reconciliation. Whenever we say we are sorry for doing something wrong, whether we are sorry to God or to another person, we must also be willing to change so that we do not commit that sin again.

Our Church provides an opportunity for us to tell God we are sorry for doing something that separates us from God. The sacrament of reconciliation is a time when we present ourselves to a priest or bishop who acts in the place of Jesus. The priest hears our sins and forgives us. He gives us some ideas of ways we can show that we are sorry for what we did (or didn’t do). To show that we are truly sorry for what we have done, we need to try very hard not to commit the sin again.

Is there someone you need to go to this week and say you are sorry? Or is there someone who needs your forgiveness?

Prayer for Selecting a Bishop

Lord, God, you are our Eternal Shepherd and Guide. In your mercy, grant to the Diocese of Rochester a shepherd who will walk in your ways and whose watchful care will bring us your blessing. Inspire our Holy Father, Pope Francis with wisdom, knowledge, discernment and right judgment. In Your love for us, give us the joy of receiving a shepherd who will be an example of goodness to your people and who will fill our hearts and minds with the truth of the gospel. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Stewardship: Ministry Directory

Have you checked out the latest issue of our St. Louis Ministry Directory? Available at the entrances of church, it is a great snapshot of the amazing variety of ministries here at St. Louis; the many ways you can take the next step in your faith journey – from believing, to action. Get a copy to put with your Bible, or in a prayer corner, or somewhere that you can look up contact information for a ministry you may need, or for who to contact when you discover how you have gifts and ministry to offer. Two conversions we all undergo at some point in our life: realizing we need others (accepting ministry), realizing we are called to offer ministry.
