God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen.

Jesus knew the scriptures well. When he, like the Israelites, was tested in the desert, what did he rely on in confronting Satan? The scriptures! Tempted by Satan, he quoted this very passage. While the Israelites succumbed to temptation repeatedly, and as a result wandered for 40 years, the Gospels tell us Jesus overcame temptation with the help of God’s Word, and departed the desert victoriously after 40 days.

Our refrigerators and cupboards at home may be filled with nutritious food, but unless we cook and eat it, it does us no good. Not By Bread Alone

Spend time with Bible, participating in a Bible study, and one of the rich discoveries will be seeing the vital links between the Hebrew Scriptures (the Old Testament) and the Gospels. Not only do the connections deepen our appreciation of God’s Word; they also help us know Jesus better, and grow in our relationship with him. Take our first reading this weekend. Participation

A key word in our second reading this weekend is ‘participation’. Bishop Matano has declared this coming year a Year of the Eucharist, to provide the firmest foundation for our celebration of the diocese’s 150 anniversary. Read his pastoral letter; ‘participation’ is a key concern there as well. Every Sunday we are called to participate in the Eucharist, to use Paul’s words, participating in the Body and the Blood of Christ. That participation brings us together not only as a community of believers, it forms and shapes us into the body of Christ, and brings us into communion with him. The better we understand the spiritual depth of the Eucharist, the more we are nourished for our spiritual journey. We also come to experience that we do not make the journey alone. We journey together with Christ and with one another. Please pray about how this Year of the Eucharist can be transformative for you and your family.

The Real Presence

Jesus taught through the life he lived, the company he kept, the love and forgiveness he showed, the healings and miracles he performed, and often with words as well. In the Sermon on the Mount, he covered a variety of topics, which he did at other times as well. But in chapter 6 of John’s Gospel, he is single minded in his focus. He is the true bread come down from heaven, and in the Eucharist, which he will institute at the Last Supper, he truly gives us his flesh and blood. As we hear so clearly in today’s Gospel, the Eucharist is not a symbol, it is not just a remembrance, or historical reenactment. “Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.” It was a hard teaching at the time, and still can challenge our faith. But accepting his word as truth opens the door to acceptance, wonder, and life in him. When we receive his Body and Blood, he enters not only our mind, but our very body. Communion! It is this precious gift we celebrate every week, but in a special way on this Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ!

Looking Ahead:

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:10 – 13
I entrust my cause to the Lord

2nd Reading: Romans 5:12 – 15
The grace of God overflows for the many

Gospel: Matthew 10:26 – 33
Speak in the light

June 18, 2017
Sign Me Up!

Have you been coming to Mass at times for quite a while? Beginning to feel like this is where you belong, but you haven’t yet taken the step of being initiated or welcomed into the Catholic faith by receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist? Why not check out what would be involved to take the next step? Contact Fr. Bob, Fr. Juan, Fr. Peter, or our Pastoral Associate for Evangelization, Kathryn McAlarney, or just call the office and let Shannon or Sue know you would like to speak with one of us. We would love to help you take that next step!

Speaking of evangelization, when was the last time YOU invited someone to come to Mass with you? No matter how they react, you have planted a seed. Pray about it at least! Quite possible the Holy Spirit will bring someone to mind that you should ask, and may even water that seed you plant!

Hearing God’s Word

Did you know our church is fitted with a hearing assistance loop? If you have a hearing aid with a telecoil setting, simply use the “T” switch; sound from the microphones will be transmitted directly to your hearing aid, without other sounds in the church being amplified and interfering. The loop covers the entire main seating area of the church. Microphones used in the sanctuary and side choir area would compromise the effectiveness of the system, so those areas have not been ‘looped’. If you do have a hearing aid and use the “T” switch, you may wish to try sitting in different areas to see where the ‘perfect’ location is for your personal hearing level.

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT

DIOCESE OF ROCHESTER HISPANIC MIGRANT MINISTRY

Lupita is someone your heart would go out to. Her husband had to go back to Mexico, so she has become a single mother trying to work and raise her three children in our area. She works hard in her demanding job, as well as trying to be the best mother she can for her children. Central to her role as a parent, is passing along the treasure of her Catholic faith to her children. She knows firsthand that it has been her faith which has sustained her in the many struggles she faces as a migrant worker and parent.

Since she doesn’t have a car, one of Lupita’s challenges is finding transportation to get her children to the faith formation sessions, especially those that prepare her children for the Sacraments of First Communion or Confirmation. Here is where the outreach of our Diocesan Hispanic Migrant Ministry team is so critical. They make sure Lupita’s children have a ride to their education classes and also visit the family to see if there are other ways they can provide support.

Catholic Migrant Ministry is rooted in the church’s teaching that we all are sisters and brothers. It seeks to build up migrant workers as people of faith. It also fosters a mutual sharing of gifts, both material and spiritual, between all migrant workers and the other faith communities of the Diocese of Rochester.

Through our Migrant Ministry efforts, we embrace the growing number of migrants, actively reach out to identify their needs, provide support for their faith formation, promote community, solidarity and justice, and offer support in crisis situations. Twenty thousand migrant workers labor in our fields, dairy farms, factories, greenhouses, and restaurants. Migrant workers have been coming in to our diocese from Mexico, Central and South America in increasing numbers. The majority of migrant workers are Catholic.

The Hispanic Migrant Ministry team receives funding from the Diocese. Some of the parishes in whose territory migrant families live, are facing their own financial difficulties and can no longer keep up their contributions to help “the least of our brothers and sisters.” This ministry needs financial support to continue their outreach to some of the most vulnerable and needy people in this part of our Catholic Community. Fr. Jesus Flores, is the Diocesan Coordinator for the Hispanic Migrant Ministry.

Come, join a new ministry team! We have specific, short-term goals so our efforts will be very focused. Your time will be valued and you are sure to meet new people. We will meet once a month through summer and fall.

Program Promo Team: We have opportunities in our parish to learn more about our faith and to grow spiritually, and many more people will benefit from these offerings if we can get the word out effectively. We are forming a team to strategize and implement ways to advertise our great adult faith programs and resources.

RCIA Team: We plan to restructure our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program so that it offers options that accommodate busy schedules and provide a better understanding of our faith. Would you like to be part of a team that develops a good foundation for preparing and welcoming new Catholics to our faith?

No need to be an expert! Come try it out for a session to see if it is your cup of tea! We love to see new people participate. Please contact Kathryn for more information at Kathryn.McAlarney@dor.org.
