Gratitude & Blessing

Who exactly is Melchizedek? The name means king of righteousness, and the Bible tells us he was king of Salem, priest of the Most High God. He only appears, briefly, in two places in the Old Testament: here, and in Psalm 110. Each time, little is said. Yet once we see how things work in Scripture, little being said makes room for lots of speculation. We might say Melchizedek came out of nowhere and disappeared into nowhere. Hebrews 7:3 goes quite a bit further, suggesting that he was “without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest forever.” From there, Hebrews speaks of him as a prototype of Christ. Rather than strain to bring into focus this mysterious figure, we would do well to connect the dots for our Feast today: Abram had done well in battle. In gratitude, he goes to Melchizedek, and this priest of the Most High makes an offering of bread and wine to God on Abram’s behalf (foreshadowing Eucharist). Abram receives a blessing (we are blessed at Mass), then Abram offers one tenth of the spoils to Melchizedek (tithing’s origin). For more on tithing, Malachi 3:10 “Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,’ says the LORD of hosts, ‘If I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

The Very Words of Jesus

Where did we get the words of consecration at Mass? The Very Words of Jesus: An offering of bread and wine

Looking Ahead: 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Most Holy Trinity

1st Reading: Genesis 14:18-20
An offering of bread and wine

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
Do this in remembrance of me

All ate & were satisfied

Take, Bless, Break and Share

Most Catholics know that at Mass, we are commemorating the Last Supper, doing what Jesus did, and using his words. But what may be less well known: the origin of the structure, the action of the Eucharist precedes the Last Supper. That is why on the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we hear a Gospel about the multiplication of the loaves. The rhythm: see hungry people, take, bless, break and share what you have, is a foundation of the Eucharist as well. Try connecting it the next time you are at Mass. As you look around at the folks in the pews around you, see a hungry crowd (hungry for spiritual food). Imagine Jesus teaching the disciples: talking isn’t enough. Don’t send them home hungry. We need to feed them! Now look through the words and actions of the Eucharistic prayer to see Jesus taking the loaves and fish, looking up to heaven, blessing, breaking the bread, and distributing to everyone. See in the consecrated hosts going to the tabernacle the 12 baskets left over. Our being nourished – the way we connect with Christ as we participate in these holy mysteries!

Gospel in Action

“Then taking the five loaves and two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.” With folk’s busy schedules, and many parishioners away at times during the summer, we could certainly use more disciples to help distribute Eucharist at Mass. What about you? Is it time to step forward? Come to one of our next two training sessions to learn more and be trained as a Eucharistic Minister or Liturgical Assistant: Wednesday, June, 5 at 7:00 pm or Tuesday, June 11, at 7:00 pm. Both sessions will be held in Church. If you are interested but unable to attend either session, please contact Bea Hack at 586-5675, ext. 231 or let Fr. Bob know.

This Week’s Tithing Will Support St. Martin’s Place

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Isaiah House

Isaiah House is a two bed home for the dying located in the city of Rochester. They opened their doors in 1987 in a home given to them by one of their donors. Inspired by the vision of retired director, Kathie Quinlan, and the energy and passion of current director, Kristin Catalano, Isaiah House has been blessed with the opportunity to serve over 400 residents and their families. It is their philosophy to seek out and serve people with the greatest needs and the fewest supports. There is no cost to stay at Isaiah House. They provide a residence for persons with irreversible illness who have been determined to be within the last three months of their lives, and they affirm life without hastening or postponing death. Their commitment flows from a belief in the dignity and value of every person. Having experienced the tender compassion of God, they welcome everyone with this unconditional love. Thank you for your support of Isaiah House, and for your prayers for both the dying and those who humbly serve them.

Supporting Our Parish

This summer, we have several major projects slated: putting in the new sidewalk, repaving and improving the entrance off Rand Place, as well as modifications to Reddington Hall classrooms to accommodate the transition of Reddington Hall into our pre-school and kindergarten academy of excellence. With many parishioners away during the summer, we could really use some extra help in the Sunday collection, and any special gifts that you might be able to make. Thanks in advance for your generous response!

Perhaps you have seen pieces in the bulletin about Cursillo, but still are not quite sure. Cursillo is about forming leaders for the parish community who are rooted in faith, have a renewed relationship with the Lord, have experienced just what Christian community can be, and have been exposed to a process that can carry them through the good times and the hard times in living out their faith and serving the community. The weekend formation experience begins on a Thursday evening and ends Sunday afternoon, but as with most true spiritual experiences, at the end of the weekend you won’t know where the time went, and will wish the experience could go on forever. There is still time to apply for the upcoming women’s weekend, July 25-28. The next men’s weekend is November 7-10. Ask Msgr. Krieg, Fr. Ray or Fr. Bob for details, or come to Ultreya Sat. June 8 at 6PM, get your questions asked and find a sponsor!

Next weekend, our parish will take up the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). This collection communicates the Good News through Catholic social media activities and enriches our faith through podcasts, television, radio, and print media. Half of all proceeds remain in our diocese, so please be generous in this Collection. CCC is how the Good News gets around to you.
Dear St. Louis Parishioners,

Thank you for your recent donation of $2,154 to the St. Joseph’s Neighborhood Center. As always, we are so grateful for your investment in the work of the Center, and want you to know that you directly touch lives in healing ways with your gift.

We are in interesting times in health care, especially as 2013 opens up. By October of this year, the New York State Exchanges or marketplace should be ready for everyone to acquire the best and most affordable health care for their financial situation.

It is our firm commitment to continue to give the best health care delivery while this health insurance transition is taking place.

We are also prepared to work with all our patients and clients in transition so no one falls through any crack in any system.

Most important is your support. We cannot navigate these big changes and give the care we give without your help. You are the key to successfully keeping the human touch in the bureaucracy - the relating in the relationships.

Thank you,
Christine Wagner, SSJ
Executive Director

Dear Members of St. Louis church,

Thank you for your contribution to Rochester Area Interfaith Hospitality Network (RAIHN) of $2917 on January 30, 2013. We are grateful for your concern for Rochester’s families served through RAIHN. We are also very happy to have you as a long time Support congregation.

Family homelessness is a growing problem nationally as well as locally. In all of 2012, we were unable to serve 239 families who needed shelter. There are few shelters which can house an entire family with male/female head of household together. When there is an older male child in the family, the housing is even more complicated and not widely available. RAIHN is able to keep families together and housed as long as needed contrary to government subsidized shelters. RAIHN saves the taxpayer money as much is given by the participating hosts and support congregations in the way of food and shelter. We served 30 families last year at a much lower cost than government subsidized shelters. Graduated families from the RAIHN program continue to be able to access RAIHN’s part-time case manager for assistance in staying out of homelessness.

Our volunteers in the hosting and support congregations listed at left provide a caring, supportive, unquestioning and gracious environment for our guest families.

Thank you again for your generous contribution to RAIHN.

Sincerely,
Bill Tierney, Chairman RAIHN Board of Directors

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Hospitality is the basic Christian act of sharing what we have with others in need.

With deep joy, we at Bethany House, say THANK YOU for your extremely generous donation of $2,401.

You willingness to open your hearts to those in need will enable us to continue our ministry of hospitality to homeless women and children. Together we can become the hands and heart of God in this world.

As we look to a future sustained by faith, may each new day bring a feeling of excitement, joy and a wonderful sense of expectation.

Peace,
The Staff, Women and Children of Bethany House

Dear Friends at St. Louis Church,

Thank you so much for the abundant gift we received from you for our work at St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard.

It was a mighty gift and we were so happy to receive it. We continue to have a 10% increase in the families who come to us. The cost of food purchases also continues to rise which curtails our food collections. However, when friends like you come to our aid with such gifts of food and camaraderie, we know that God is with us through you.

Blessings,
Margaret Oberst, Chairperson

CELIAC DISEASE

There are a number of people who are gluten intolerant and cannot receive the Eucharist in the ordinary form of the host that we use. They can do two things: drink only from the cup or use a special host that is gluten free. We would be pleased to provide information about these special hosts and discuss the manner of their use. Give Fr. Bob a call if we can be of assistance to you in this matter.

The rest of the community should refrain from dipping the consecrated host into the cup as even that small action can make the cup a concern for a person who suffers from Celiac Disease. Intinction (as dipping is called) should be a rare practice as the Lord told us to: “Eat and Drink.” We thought you should know!

The Heavenly List Has Grown … Part Two!

Last week, we noted that Pope Francis recently canonized the first saints of his pontificate. They included a large group of about 800 martyrs from Otranto, Italy, and two Latin American religious Foundresses, Mother Laura Montoya and Mother Maria Guadalupe Garcia Zavala.

This week, we look at some numbers and some history. Rather than trying to answer the impossible-to-determine “How many saints are there?” or nearly-as-difficult “How many saints are recognized?” (the latter depends on so many criteria that numbers vary widely), we can settle with a somewhat easier “How many saints are recognized by the Catholic Church?”

During most of the first millennium, sainthood was determined by popular affirmation or “spontaneous local attribution.” There was no central procedure for canonization until 993, when Ulrich of Augsburg was made the first recorded saint, by Pope John XV. The process was formalized in 1588, when Pope Sixtus V established the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. In 1988, an authoritative listing of the 285 saints recognized by the Congregation was published. Blessed John Paul II added another 480, more than doubling the total before him, and Pope Benedict canonized another 45 to bring the total to 810. If we add the 111 canonized by popes since the first papal canonization in 993, then we have an overall total of 921. Before Francis, that is … (See catholicexchange.com for much of above information).

In this Year of Faith, we are encouraged to learn about the saints’ lives, as we are all called to be saints, in our own life circumstances. In many ways, they are models for us to grow closer to God, through teaching, missionary work, charity, prayer, but also to please God in the ordinary actions and decisions of daily life.

For further information, see me after Mass sometime, or at 1deacondave@gmail.com.

God bless, Deacon Dave
