it plainly
or hope, among the three theological virtues, no. Paul puts fortitude, or restraint? No, as important as those are. Faith any other? One of the cardinal virtues, prudence, justice, unity: our unity with God, and our unity with one another.
Our Gospel today allows us to overhear Jesus praying for

Becoming One

Death is an ending, right? Not in God’s plan! Our 1st reading from Acts of the Apostles recounts Stephen’s ‘falling asleep’. Rather than a tragic account of brutal death, bringing an end to Stephen’s life, Luke points out the real significance. Not an ending, his stoning was a beginning. For him, a beginning of life in glory with his risen Lord. For the church, the beginning of the mission to the Gentiles.

The result of the persecution culminating in Stephen’s death? The apostles’ faith was strengthened by the witness of how he forgave his enemies and entrusted himself to Christ. With that witness, the apostles fled Jerusalem.
They began preaching in the diaspora, and the mission to the Gentiles began. Paul is present at the stoning, thus, in an ironic way, present as the Gentile mission is about to begin. (And he will benefit from Stephen’s prayer that his persecutors be forgiven!)

God often brings purpose and blessing out of tragedy.
When have you seen that happen? Take a moment or two this week to pray about it!

Don’t Forget the Bleach

The 2nd reading speaks about washing our robes. Is that just about the day we were baptized? Well, baptism is when we received a white robe. Keeping it clean is not easy. Sin has a power not to be underestimated! But Jesus’ death and resurrection bring us forgiveness, allowing us to wash our robes. Our participation in trials and sufferings out of love, when tied in with the sacrifice of Jesus, help bleach away our selfish ego. How do each of the sacraments help us to ‘wash our robes’? Pray about that a bit!

Our Gospel today allows us to overhear Jesus praying for
unity: our unity with God, and our unity with one another.
What virtue is presented more in the New Testament than any other? One of the cardinal virtues, prudence, justice, fortitude, or restraint? No, as important as those are. Faith
or hope, among the three theological virtues, no. Paul puts it plainly – the greatest of these is love. Unity is only possible when we put love first. Bringing it home, where is unity lacking among my relationships right now? How could love make a difference?

Colorful Pentecost - Wear Red!

Purple is a somber, penitential color for the vestments at Mass during Lent. We shift to white, a joyful color during the Easter Season. But the Easter Season closes with red, used for martyrs, but also for the Holy Spirit. Be on fire with the Holy Spirit next weekend. If you always pull out something green to wear for St. Patrick, why not something red for the Holy Spirit!

Are you visiting with us today? Welcome to St. Louis! We love to have you with us, and hope that you felt warmly welcomed, at home even. Our home is your home! We pray your prayer with us and experience of liturgy was uplifting, and helped you experience God’s presence in the Word proclaimed, the prayers prayed, the music sung, the Eucharist, offered and shared. If you were able to contribute, we are very grateful! Have you ever formally registered to be a member of our parish? If not, please consider picking up a registration form, calling the office, or registering online at StLouisChurch.org. We would love to welcome you into the St. Louis parish family!

Pentecost Pondering

As we prepare to celebrate Pentecost, please, reflect on how the Holy Spirit pours out gifts upon all of God’s people. Pray, and listen: Have I developed the gifts God has given me to the full? After all, just like the skills of athletes, musicians, artists, and others, gifts must be exercised if they are to develop to full potential! Do I encourage others to share their gifts; help them develop those gifts for the sake of the common good? Is it time to encourage others to step into a role I have been doing for years? How can I help foster an environment of stewardship here at St. Louis?

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Compass Care

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Rochester Community Supplemental Burial Fund

Acting out of the core values of our Christian faith, the Greater Rochester Community of Churches Faith in Action Network (GRCC) gathers congregations and people from diverse communities to build relationships and support initiatives based on spiritual and community values that advocate, model, and celebrate basic human rights. They work toward the day when every child, youth, and adult feels safe, experiences support and care, and can discover ways to use their gifts for the good of the beloved community.

In 2010, GRCC with Monroe County formed the Rochester Community Supplemental Burial Fund to offer burials for individuals with no resources and often no family. GRCC has organized and held burial services, including providing faith leadership and attendees for over 100 funerals and has provided grave markers for over 300 unmarked graves.

Visit grcc-fian.org and catholiccourier.com/articles/community-fund-aids-with-burial-costs to learn more.

Volunteers Needed

We are in need of adults to serve as substitutes for our volunteer money counter teams that count, record, and prepare reports for weekend and other collections. The time commitment is Monday mornings for 2 or 3 hours, called in as substitutes are needed. If interested, please contact Laurie Martin at Laurie.Martin@dor.org or 585-586-5675, ext. 222.

Next week, our second collection is for the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. Fifty percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/ccc.

Let us walk with you.

Saint Louis School is excited to announce that its Lego team, The Eight Magneteers, has been selected from more than 40,000 teams worldwide as one of 20 semi-finalists advancing to the Ninth Annual FIRST LEGO® League Global Innovation Award in San Jose, Calif., USA, June 30-July 2. The team is being recognized for creating Magnetic Dodgeball, a game that combines magnets and microgravity to improve astronaut fitness, flexibility and mental focus.

At the award event, the team will spend three days collaborating with other student innovators from around the world. They will learn to pitch their solution to investors and showcase their solution to a judging panel. Three top teams will be selected for cash awards to further develop their solution. Before returning home, our students will get trained as Lego Innovation Ambassadors, so they can represent Lego and inspire others at local events.

To be selected is a rare honor and achievement - Saint Louis School is so proud of their innovation, creativity and teamwork!
