Happy Father’s Day!

It is a special day for all fathers, a special Father’s Day in our diocese, and a particularly blessed Father’s Day here at St. Louis. At our Masses throughout the weekend, there will be people giving thanks for their fathers, and fathers reflecting on and praying about their vocation in the family. A time of gift giving and celebrating for some; a poignant time of lighting a candle and praying for a deceased father for many. For others, it may be a time of grieving the absence of a loving father, for some, a time of waiting for their first child to be born. Whether a time of joy or sorrow, or a time of healing or hurt, our being together in prayer, together with the Lord always holds some blessing.

Why special day in our diocese? Well, toward the end of his retirement, Bishop Clark had a joyful problem. Vocation efforts had yielded abundant fruit, and the number of those in seminary programs increased to more than double. To fund their education, he began a campaign, Our Legacy, Our Future, Our Hope, aiming to raise a goal of $14 million, to ensure the education and training of these priesthood candidates. Many of us supported that campaign, and now, we can rejoice in some of the results. This Saturday morning, four men were ordained to priesthood, and these newly ordained Fathers will be celebrating their first Masses this weekend.

Why a particularly blessed Father’s Day here at St. Louis? At the 9:00 AM Mass this weekend, we will be celebrating the Baby Blessing Mass, with a reception hosted by our Elizabeth Ministry. What better way to add to the joy of Father’s Day, than celebrating with parents who recently had a child baptized here? For many it was their first child. We have quite a few baptisms waiting in the wings as well.

At the 11:00 AM Mass, we will be celebrating with one of those newly ordained priests, Fr. Carlos Sanchez. Father will be offering his first Mass here, and following, we will have a reception in the gym. At the end of the month, Fr. Carlos will be moving to his first priesthood assignment, Peace of Christ parish in the city (St. Ambrose, St. James & St. John the Evangelist). Not only is it quite the Father’s Day; it will be quite the week as well! On Monday evening we have Godspeed for our 6th graders, celebrating their achievements and sending them along to the next chapter in their school career with our blessing. Tuesday we will be celebrating our 5th graders, and likewise honoring their achievements and blessing them on their way. Wrapping it all up, on Wednesday morning Bishop Matano will be joining us to celebrate a Mass closing this school year.

You are invited to all of these celebrations. God bless all of our fathers. Blessings too, to all of our High School graduates, and to all having special celebrations this month. Peace to you always, Fr. Bob

Christian Initiation for Children

When infants are baptized, preparation for baptism is to prepare the parents for the celebration itself, and for their role as their child’s primary teachers in the life of faith. As their child grows, parents share their faith with their son or daughter, teach them to pray, give them training in the virtues, and help them grow into being a well formed Christian. As a community of faith, we assist parents in all of the above through our various faith formation and sacramental preparation programs.

What of older children who haven’t been baptized? When children are old enough to understand something about prayer, and God, and our Christian faith, and want to belong, there is a process to prepare them to receive the sacrament of Baptism, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC).

Not unlike the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA), this is not intended to be an explanation of everything one ever needs to know to being Catholic. It’s getting started on the path. Is this a ministry that might use your gifts well? Want to learn more?

Do you have a child who is asking about belonging, and might be a candidate for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Children? Give us a call and let us know!

Contact Cris Wensel at cwensel@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 224.

A Prayer for Fathers

God our Father,

We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Amen
No matter how long it has been since you were baptized, in light St. Paul’s words today, ask yourself: How have I become a new creation? Can others see that I have been clothed in Christ? How am I dressed today?

The Barque of Peter
One of the rich images for the church through the ages is that of the barque of Peter. In our Gospel today, a violent storm came up. It seems Peter’s boat and all aboard may sink. Jesus calms the sea. Subsequently, church communities found themselves in violent squalls of many different types. Yet when they called out to the Lord for help, he calmed the storm. Not only can the image be reassuring to church communities and the church as a whole. It is also a powerful message for families and individuals. Yes, there will be storms. Sometimes we may fear the ship will sink, or we will perish. But just as the winds and the sea obeyed Jesus, so will the forces that buffet us, so long as we cling to faith. Today, pray for someone who may be facing a storm in their life. If you can throw out a lifeline, don’t hesitate!

St. Paul and Baptisms
Looking for the source of much of the imagery and even the words of prayer we use at baptisms, we need look no further than the letters of St. Paul. Claiming the one baptized for Christ by the sign of the cross – Paul spoke of glorying only in the cross of Christ. In Corinthians, when he caught wind that some in the community were claiming to belong to Peter, or Apollos, or even Paul himself, he was quick to point out – No! We all belong only to Christ! Another connection: the sign of the cross on the forehead evokes St. Paul’s words about carrying the brand marks of Christ.

Skipping ahead to today’s second reading – the words to accompany being clothed in a white baptismal garment after the baptism begin ‘you have become a new creation,’ straight out of this passage in 2nd Corinthians. The second half of those baptismal words ‘and clothed yourself in Christ.’ right out of Galatians (3:26-27) and Romans (13:13-14).

Looking ahead:

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Job 38:1, 8-11
Who set the limits for the sea?

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17
In Christ, we are a new creation

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41
Even the wind and sea obey him

Answering from the Storm
Today we hear just a snippet from the Book of Job. What is going on here? Earlier in the book, Job repeatedly asks for the chance to present the case of his innocence to God. Here God speaks to him out of the storm, and thus Job’s request is answered. Yet God makes it clear: He and Job are in no way equals! Through a serious of questions, God brings Job to realize just how awesome God is, and how small he, and all humans are in comparison. Job’s eyes are opened. In humility, he who repeatedly challenged God repents.

The sea bursting forth from the womb? Various Near Eastern creation myths include a taming of the sea in some fashion. The image here is humorous, and priceless. When the mighty sea god was born, Almighty God put on its diaper! The basic message – God is sovereign over the sea. In the Gospel, as Mark seeks to make clear Jesus’ identity, calming the sea is a powerful indicator. This must be God!

Healing and giving life

Peter’s Pence in the 1st Century
Next week’s 2nd reading is a great inspiration for the Peter’s Pence collection. St. Paul collected money for the poor mother church in Jerusalem from among the churches he founded (such as that in Corinth), as a way to strengthen the bonds between the Jewish Christian mother church and the newly founded Gentile churches around the Mediterranean basin. Peter’s Pence likewise strengthens our bond with the mother church in Rome.

Our Gift To The Lord
Returning to the Lord with increase from the many gifts we have been given can take many forms. Each Sunday, grateful that the Lord has given us another week of life and health, we come together at Mass to give thanks. Knowing the Lord has given material well-being, we contribute to our parish. Aware of strengths for ministry God has given, we find ways to offer our time and talents in service. For choosing St. Louis as the place you believe, belong, and return to the Lord with increase from God’s goodness to you, THANK YOU!

Even in Death
Including St. Louis church, school or Saint’s Place in our will is a wonderful way to support ministries that we value even after God calls us home. Another way to extend the blessing: let our family know that, in lieu of flowers, contributions can be offered to St. Louis church, school or Saint’s Place. Upon the death of a loved one, think prayerfully – where would my dear one want contributions to be made in his or her memory?

Sojourner House at Pathstone

Sojourner House offers services for women and their children who have experienced a multitude of life crises, such as homelessness, drug and or alcohol abuse, domestic violence, sexual abuse, family/child separation and mental illness. Sojourner House services include transitional housing with intensive case management and support, supportive housing with family service case management and outreach for families living in the community. For over 27 years, Sojourner House has helped women overcome their challenges and rebuild their lives to achieve their full potential. (Find their history at www.sojournerhouse.org/about/history/)

Sojourner House addresses the needs of over 65 families a year by providing safe shelter, a structured environment, educational and enrichment programs and intensive counseling and case management. Women learn life skills on such topics as parenting, money management, job readiness, cooking and nutrition. A program for the children of these women provides one-on-one tutoring and enrichment programs. This year, a new program Seedlings was launched to provide engaging, enriching activities for kids of all ages during out-of-school times. The Sojourner House operates 24 hours per day, 7 days per week.

We Believe. We Belong. We Share Time and Talent.

Next Weekend’s Peter’s Pence Collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to requests to aid the neediest throughout the world - those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. It likewise provides the faithful with a tangible opportunity to not only empower the weak, defenseless, and voiceless, but also sustain those who suffer.

One night a father overheard his son pray:
Dear God, Make me the kind of man my Daddy is.
Later that night, the Father prayed,
Dear God, Make me the kind of man my son wants me to be.

World Refugee Day

This Saturday, June 20 we stop to acknowledge the 50 million people throughout the world who have fled their homes in search of safety. The UN High Commissioner for Refugees, António Guterres, reminds us: "...that these are mothers and fathers, daughters and sons. People who led ordinary lives before war forced them to flee. On this World Refugee Day, everyone should remember the things that connect all of us – our common humanity."

Prayer for Refugees

Mary knew the weariness of the journey; To Bethlehem, To Egypt, Back to Nazareth. She knew the weariness, The fear, the longing for home, The need to continue moving, moving, The longing for journey's end, The longing for at least a semblance of a home.

To Mary we entrust: the mothers, the fathers, the children who today are holy families migrating in hope, in fear, in longing, for peace, for some security, for something like a home. May they find their journey's end as we open ourselves to their stories, their need, their spirits; We ask for mercy for all migrants and for our communities who are challenged to welcome them, to give them hope for a new life. Amen.

Get to Know Your Father!

Join us for a book study that focuses on God the Father. Our book studies are fun and pretty informal. Learn about our faith while you enjoy a few friendly evenings getting to know other parishioners. In A Father Who Keeps His Promises, Scott Hahn explores the covenant love God reveals to us in the Scriptures, and explains how God patiently reaches out to us – despite our faults and shortcomings – to restore us into relationship with his divine Family.

Cost is $3 for the book. Contact Kathryn McAlarney to sign up at mcalarney1@gmail.com or 490-2745. Come even if you can’t make each meeting!

St. Louis Women’s Bereavement Group Continues on Saturday, June 20 at 5:45pm

Mourning the loss of someone you love is never easy, but there is hope. St. Louis Women’s Bereavement Group is a new support group for women who have experienced the death of someone they love. The group:

- Began Saturday, May 30th and continues for 6 weeks; join us anytime
- Meets in the St. Louis Youth Room
- Starts at 5:45 pm (after the 4:30 pm Mass), and ends at 7:30 pm. Offers a safe place to share your grief with others.
- Provides love and support to help in the healing process.

Be uplifted knowing that the Lord blesses those who mourn. We hope you will consider joining us as we walk this journey together.
