Describing the Indescribable

Not an easy task. Folks who have studied such things tell us that powerful experiences of God, by their nature, are ineffable; beyond the power of our words. Crank it up to a whole room full of people simultaneously having a powerful experience of God’s presence, and we are really at a loss. So Luke does the best he can: a noise like a strong driving wind (but inside the house), tongues of fire, pressure of speech, and as the action moves outside, there is a miracle of communication. The room shaking—we may have experienced that. Feeling on fire—not just for the day of Pentecost either. And the message of the scripture and the Good News suddenly making sense in a way it never did before—isn’t that part of every journey of faith? I’m pretty sure Luke would say yes!

About Those Gifts

Paul’s main thrust in Corinthians is to heal divisions and conflicts that seem to have plagued the community. Thus the focus on the variety of gifts, yet one source; that gifts are given for the building up of the community, and then of course his analogy of the body: many different parts, each depends on the other, to make one working whole. He doesn’t go into how we discover our gifts. We aren’t born with a catalog outlining our gifts. In fact, many are just seeds. The ones that get watered and tended grow and produce fruit, others may lie dormant until needed. Sometimes we grow to recognize gifts on our own, when we think about our experience. Sometimes others see our gifts better than we do, and tell us what they see. What have you learned about the gifts of the Spirit from your experience?

Peace, Mission and Mercy

Today’s Gospel is great for lectio divina, or holy reading. Read it once, to get the basic message. Read it again, letting various words or phrases grab your attention (and your heart). Then read it, hearing it as Jesus speaking directly to you, and no one else. Move into a quiet, listening attitude of prayer. Peace, mission and forgiveness …. Let them settle into your soul!

You are invited to join our Adult Choir on a pilgrimage through Michigan this September! The choir will be singing at historic St. Anne’s Catholic Church on the beautiful Victorian Mackinac Island.

We will bus from Rochester over to the charming Bavarian village of Frankenmuth, Michigan. This delightful town is home to Bronner’s Christmas store, the largest in the world! We will celebrate mass at the famous “Cross in the Woods” along our way to the island. Three nights on the island with lunch at the famous Grand Hotel and lots of activities for you to choose from are included in your stay. If you have seen the iconic movie, “Somewhere in Time”, you are aware that cars are not allowed on the island. You may rent horses, bikes, take a carriage ride, or simply sit and enjoy the terrific waterfront scenery.

We will complete the trip with an overnight at Thunder Bay Caribou resort where we will stay in rustic lodges and enjoy a 5-course home cooked meal paired with Michigan wines and accompanied by storytelling by the family who owns the ranch.

The trip is scheduled for September 4-9, 2019 and is all inclusive for $1,250.00. Space is limited, but we would love to have you join us! Please contact Stephanie Honz shonz@rochester.rr.com for a brochure and more information.

Do You Journal Your Prayers?

A prayer journal is a way to mark the moments in your spiritual journey. Record your struggles, questions, doubts, epiphanies, joys, answered prayers, spiritual growth. Why not try it this summer? Here are some tips to get you started.

Write a letter to God. Pour out your heart to him. Talk about the challenges in your day, your questions, your fears, your needs. Be sure to date your entries. It can be powerful to look at your journal entries over time and see how God’s been at work in your life and how your prayers have changed.

Keep track of your prayer requests. How often do you tell a friend you’ll pray for them – and then forget to do so? It’s helpful to keep a record of prayer requests and continue to pray for them. If a prayer has been answered, note that, too, and praise God for His great goodness.

Pray through a verse. Write the verse down and meditate on it. Let it sink in. Then respond to God by describing how that verse is important in your life.

Start with a question. What questions do you have for God that are weighing on your heart? Write one down at the top of the page and use that as the base for your conversation with him.

Write a gratitude prayer. Some days we just need to focus on gratitude – especially when we start to feel anxious or worn down, or feel ourselves becoming too focused on our own concerns. So, in your prayer journal, fill a page with all the blessings in your life.

MISSION DAY
St. Louis School sponsors an annual event to benefit our sister school in Kenya, Africa, which has also been named St. Louis School. Due to the generous support of families, our “sister school” has already been able to build numerous classrooms, a fresh-water well and latrines. Along with that, the monies raised have allowed the purchase of uniforms and shoes for the school children and additional land for building.
