THE RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL THE BAPTIZED

Today, our Parish sends to Bishop Matano at Sacred Heart Cathedral our catechumens Lauren Hall Lily, Ruthie Wagner, and Randy Gelser for the Rite of Election, and Anthony Petruso and Andra Maguran for the Rite of the Call of Continuing Conversion. Lauren, Ruthie and Randy are preparing to be fully initiated at the Easter Vigil. The Rite of Election celebrates their election by God for these sacraments, and that election or choice is made through the Church in the person of the Bishop. Anthony and Andra are candidates for the sacrament of Confirmation, seeking to complete their initiation into Christ at the Easter Vigil. As Saint Peter says, “There is cause for rejoicing here!” (1 Peter 1:6) And we rejoice with them and the whole Church.

Although this may seem like a private affair for these folks, it absolutely is not. For one, sending them off to the cathedral this evening is a clear reminder to them and to us that they are being initiated into the whole Church, not just a parish community. It has been the lived faith of the community that helped them meet Christ Jesus, hear his voice in invitation, and respond to him in faith. The Rites this evening also remind us and them that Catholic Christian faith is not a private affair, but a public lifestyle; the grace of Christ permeates and transforms every aspect of our lives. Take note of the following:

“The People of God, as represented by the local church, should understand and show that the initiation of adults is the responsibility of all the baptized. Therefore, the community must always be fully prepared in the pursuit of its apostolic vocation to give him to those who are searching for Christ. In the various circumstances of daily life…, all the followers of Christ have the obligation of spreading the faith according to their abilities.”

This strong statement from the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA, paragraph 9) makes several things clear: (1) again, the process of coming to faith and the initiation of adults and school-age children (through Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion) is not a private matter; (2) it takes place within the community of the faithful; (3) every baptized member of the Church has a role to play by testifying to their faith (= evangelization) and supporting and witnessing to those who searching for the nurture of a spiritual home; and (4) all this happens within the ebb and flow of ordinary daily life.

As we see our sisters and brothers walk more deeply into Christ and his way of life, I ask each and all of us to take our responsibility seriously. Talk with the people you know who are searching for meaning or direction in their lives; be unafraid to speak about your faith in God, and even your questions and doubts, with family members, friends, co-workers and neighbors; and be sure your words and actions reflect Christ to others. That way we will fulfill our duty to bring one another to Christ.

Christ’s peace to you, Father Bob Kennedy

Not Just a Practical Matter

It’s not hard to figure out – for a parish to exist, to have a church in which to gather, ministries for worship, education, pastoral care, and the many other facets of parish life, there needs to be financial support, and the primary way that happens is through the Sunday offering. But our 1st reading today makes it clear – it isn’t just about human practicalities, it is about divine worship. Why take up the collection when we do? During Mass there is a logic to the flow of our prayer: We gather. We acknowledge our need for mercy. We pray. We listen to the Word. We intercede. In the second half of Mass, our worship flows from the paschal mystery. Jesus offered himself for us, so we join our offering (our contribution, and our very selves) with his. We remember the Last Supper, so that our offering is connected to that central event. You know the rest of the story. But hear it in our first reading, long before Jesus’ incarnation. Bring your offering, set it before the Lord, and bow in God’s presence. So we are instructed, and so we do!

The Mailbox Is Full

We may hear that when trying to leave someone a message, but when we call upon the Lord, as St. Paul encourages us through the letter to the Romans, we will never get that response! Could Paul be any more clear? “For ‘everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved’.” As you use the little black book through Lent, think of it as a great time each day to ‘call upon the name of the Lord.’ How would you describe the way you spend those 6 minutes each day of Lent?

Right Priorities

The Spirit led Jesus into the desert, the symbolic place of testing, and each temptation was dramatic. But look closely – at the heart of the temptations: put yourself first. Abandon obedience to God and the commandments, to fulfill your needs, to win power, to put yourself as the top priority, rather than putting God at the center of your life. At Home with the Word has excellent reflections on the Gospel, the other readings, and the ‘Practice of Faith’, specifically fasting. Check it out.

Not Just a Practical Matter

Yes, Lent is upon us. Once again the parish offers you a Lenten gift, a Little Black Book. These are great prayer starters, convenient to carry, and with a wealth of interesting and inspiring facts, 6 minute scripture reflections, and the invitation to spend some quiet time with the Lord every day.

Lenten Regulations

The following regulations for Lenten sacrifice are based on the 1983 Code of Canon Law.

- All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat for Catholics over age 14. Anyone with a chronic illness or in a weakened condition receives dispensation automatically.
- Ash Wednesday (March 6) and Good Friday (April 19) are days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. Fasting means taking only one full meal and two smaller meals that, taken together, do not equal one full meal.
- Throughout Lent, Catholics are especially encouraged to perform voluntary acts of penance.

The Remarkable School of the Holy Childhood and How Its Graduates Continue to Become Good Citizens of Rochester

Their spirit and their work in the community is a blessing even for people who don’t know it. Come and get acquainted with or celebrate what you know.

Youth Ministry Update: Prayer Partners needed!

First of all, my thanks to everyone who has welcomed me here so warmly. You have truly shown me the love of God! I would also like to ask for you to consider signing up as a youth and young adult ministry prayer partner! As we enter into a "brainstorming phase" (Forming a teen Youth Council, a Parent Core Team, exploring mission trips, fun nights, service projects, conferences, etc.) we’d like to have plenty of prayer power behind it for the glory of God.

I’m reminded of St. Theresa of Calcutta who sought out people to serve as prayer support for every one of the Sisters in her order the Missionaries of Charity. She asked people to offer up their suffering, sacrifices and prayers so the work of the Sisters for God would be fruitful and truly blessed and miracles would happen! If you could like to commit to pray for youth and young adult ministry in a special way, send me your name and contact information at: dominic.salamida@dor.org.

Thank you so much and God bless!

~ Dominic Salamida. Youth & Young Adult Minister

PARISHIONERS IN ACTION

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Saint Louis parishioner, Bob Scholl, has been a dedicated volunteer and coordinator with Habitat for Humanity for 15 years. Trained as a city planner, Bob was inspired by then President Carter, to look for an opportunity to directly help others in need. He immediately was drawn to the focus of Habitat on revitalizing Rochester’s most desperate neighborhoods.

“Home ownership has a profound impact on the quality of all the family. As a former resident in Albany, NY’s inner city, I learned the critical role that ‘owner occupancy’ plays in neighborhood upkeep and stability. And I simply love the opportunity to create something with my own hands, a great change of pace from a career working ‘on paper’ . . . in a cubicle.”

Bob says that meeting a broad spectrum of fellow parishioners who live their Christianity is gratifying and inspiring, as well as “Working side-by-side with people of different backgrounds than myself – racial, religious, career, and cultural – has been interesting and very enlightening.”

Habitat Project - Call for Construction Help

Habitat InterFaith Partnership (HIP) invites all parishioners 16 years of age and up to volunteer and lend a hand with on-site construction. Since on-site professional construction supervisors provide on job training, no skills or previous experience is required. There are several options for volunteer shifts: just the morning (9-12) or the full day (9-4) from Wed – Sat. On Tuesdays there is the option of a half day (1-4).

Some years, HIP has committed to a full build, which starts with the excavation of a hole for the foundation, and building the house from foundation to roof. But this year, HIP has been asked to do a “Rehab”, so the work is lighter duty; sanding, painting, trim, door hanging, cabinet and shelf installation, fence construction and landscaping.

To date, 40 St. Louis parishioners have expressed interest in lending a hand in the construction of our 2019 Habitat project. This is a good start but we do need more volunteers, as the adage explains . . . many hands make light work! So following each mass this weekend (March 9 & 10) volunteer coordinators will again be available in the Narthex to provide information, answer questions, and sign up those interested in helping. Construction starts March 19 and continues through to the end of May.

If you cannot stop by the Narthex this weekend but want to learn more or possibly volunteer, call Rick Cusker (747-9062). For more information on the mission of HABITAT go to www.rochesterhabitat.org
