How Do I Love Thee? Let Me Count the Ways.

When it comes to understanding God’s forgiveness, borrowing Elizabeth Barrett Browning’s words provide a good start. You see, say sin, and God’s forgiveness, and one steeped in Catholicism will naturally think sacramentally. The Sacrament of Penance would likely come to mind first. Certainly it is THE sacrament for the forgiveness of mortal sin, and a sacrament that is recommended for conversion and forgiveness of all sin. If nudged ‘come on, what else?’, a Catholic might land on the Sacrament of Baptism as yet another means through which God extends forgiveness. Regarding Baptism and forgiveness, we are in agreement with all Christians. But is that all? What about the Eucharist? It makes present to us Jesus’ sacrifice for our sins, it plunges us into the Paschal mystery, the source of divine forgiveness. We have a penitential act to begin the Mass; the Eucharist itself is a sacrament of mercy and forgiveness. From the Catechism: 1436 Eucharist and Penance. Daily conversion and penance find their source and nourishment in the Eucharist, for in it is made present the sacrifice of Christ which has reconciled us with God. Through the Eucharist those who live from the life of Christ are fed and strengthened. “It is a remedy to free us from our daily faults and to preserve us from mortal sins.” A side note in chapter three of the Catechism is of note: “Part Two of the catechism will deal explicitly with the forgiveness of sins through Baptism, the sacrament of Penance, and the other sacraments, especially the Eucharist. Here it will suffice to suggest some basic facts briefly.” Have we exhausted the possibilities yet? What about the Sacrament of the Sick? Here are the words that accompany anointing: “Through this holy anointing, may the Lord in His love and mercy help you with grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin, save you, and raise you up.’

Other paths of forgiveness? Praying the Our Father. The Act of Contrition. More ideas from the Catechism: 1434 The interior penance of the Christian can be expressed in many and various ways. Scripture and the Fathers insist above all on three forms, fasting, prayer, and almsgiving, which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others. Alongside the radical purification brought about by Baptism or martyrdom they cite as means of obtaining forgiveness of sins: effort at reconciliation with one’s neighbor, tears of repentance, concern for the salvation of one’s neighbor, the intercession of the saints, and the practice of charity "which covers a multitude of sins."

One path which you may not have experienced, but which we have scheduled for March 24th: in addition to three sacramental forms of the Rite of Penance, the Rite also includes an appendix, with sample Penitential Services. Quoting: ‘It is desirable to prepare the Christian community for a fuller sharing in the paschal mystery by penitential celebrations during Lent.’ More on that next week. Peace, Fr. Bob

Many of the elements suggest an apocalyptic vision. Why Moses and Elijah? The law (Moses) and the prophets (Elijah) set the stage for the events about to take place in Jerusalem, Jesus’ death and resurrection. More on the characters: why Peter James and John? They were prime witnesses to the resurrection.

Mount Tabor
Don’t forget, Monday, March 24th after the 11AM Mass, bring a brown bag lunch to the parish meeting room, for slides of the Holy Land, including the Mount of Transfiguration. What do peacocks have to do with the Transfiguration? Come and find out!

Looking Ahead:

Stewardship Prayer
Loving God, you are the source of every good gift; gifts of creation that surround us, the mysteries and gifts of human life within. We praise you and thank you for all these treasures, and for your tender, faithful love.

Center us in gratitude. Open our eyes to how blessed we are, and what a blessing we can be. Teach us the joys of generosity. Give us the courage to give as freely as we have received. Help us open our hands and hearts, becoming a blessing to others, to your honor and glory, Amen.
Believers Ball
What's with a parish Gala? Well, our school galas are wonderful evenings that help create a powerful sense of community among our school families, while also raising substantial revenue for the school. What parish doesn't have some form of fund-raiser to supplement Sunday collections? Celebrating community, having fun together, honoring our retirees, while also raising funds for a serious tech upgrade (more detail next week) --- Stewardship Council saw the words 'Parish Gala' in flashing letters!

CRS Rice Bowl Reflection: Kenya

Let us pray this week for our brothers and sisters in Kenya and all around the world, that we may respect and uphold the sacredness of life and dignity of all people.

CRS Rice Bowl Reflection: Guatemala
This week, CRS Rice Bowl invites us to enter into solidarity with the people of Guatemala. Continuing Opportunities to Help Habitat

Although St. Louis as part of HIP will not begin our next house project until fall of 2015, there are other opportunities to help Habitat in the interim. Nearly every year, Flower City Habitat has a half dozen or so house projects underway and can use construction volunteers from the general public. Just call Habitat’s Volunteer Coordinator, Kayla, at 546-1470 (ext 315), or visit www.RochesterHabitat.org.

One can also help Habitat through Habitat’s ReStore operations. ReStore is a retail improvement store open to the public, filled with donated furniture, appliances, fixtures, windows, doors and other building materials. All of ReStore’s proceeds go to Flower City Habitat for Humanity’s building efforts. As a result ReStore keeps as much usable building material out of landfills as possible, while using the proceeds from sold items to build Habitat home. Habitat homes are helping low-income families earn their chance at being homeowners, moving these families out of poverty housing, and turning around declining neighborhoods. Restore is located at 755 Culver Rd., Rochester, NY 14690, across from East High School. For store hours or other information, call (585) 697-2012 or email: restore@rochesterhabitat.org.

Donate
Individuals as well as companies can donate used (like new or in good working condition) furniture, appliances, fixtures, cabinets, or building materials to ReStore.

Volunteer
From working the register, to helping clean/organize donated items, to giving your expertise on one of Habitat’s committees, ReStore is always looking for volunteers ages 14 and up.

Shop
By shopping at ReStore, not only are you saving yourself money by purchasing often like-new items, but the proceeds from your purchases support Habitat building operations.

To learn more or get involved with ReStore, call (585) 697-2012 or visit www.RochesterHabitat.org. Contact Bob Scholl, St Louis HIP Coordinator (585-381-3760) to learn about our Habitat Interfaith Partnership.

How Can We “Transform” Ourselves

For the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus’ retreat to the desert to his Transfiguration. Each year on the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel tells the story of Jesus’ temptation in the desert. On the second Sunday of Lent each year, we hear the story of Jesus’ Transfiguration.

On a mountain in today’s reading, a voice affirms that Jesus is God's Son in words reminiscent of the voice at Jesus' baptism. In addition, the appearance of Moses and Elijah on the mountain connects this story with God’s relationship to the people of Israel. Moses and Elijah represent the Law and the Prophets, respectively. Together with Jesus, they represent God’s complete Word.

The Transfiguration occurs in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples: Peter, James, and John. In Matthew's Gospel, those disciples are among the first whom Jesus calls. The three men are identified as an “inner circle” among Jesus' disciples when Jesus asks them to accompany him to the Garden of Gethsemane just before his arrest.

As a family, talk about some of your times of highs and lows. How have you been able to use the good times and experiences to sustain you in the difficult ones? Jesus' Transfiguration may have been an event from which Peter, James, and John drew courage when they faced the difficult events of Jesus' Passion. Pray a prayer of thanksgiving for the good times and experiences that your family has had together. Pray that your family will use these experiences to sustain you during times of difficulty. Pray together that we will recognize Jesus as God's Son in our lives and listen to him as God told us.

NOT JUST FOR PARENTS

On Tuesday, March 18th at 7:30 PM, join the parents of those preparing for First Eucharist! Is Eucharist strictly a noun, or a verb as well? Something we receive, something we do, or both? How do the parts of our Eucharistic celebration fit together and flow in one act of divine worship? How do we move from watching the stream of grace flow by, to plunging in? What are your questions about Eucharist? Do you have things to share about your experience of Eucharist? While required for parents preparing their children for the sacrament, this evening of reflection in church comes highly recommended for everyone. Have you felt the spirit nudging you to become a Eucharistic Minister, perhaps through the nudging of someone you know? This opportunity would be a great place to start! Are you interested in becoming Catholic? You might want to put this on your calendar as well.

Life! in Focus

Pope Francis celebrated the Inaugural Mass of his Pontificate on the feast of St. Joseph. It was from St. Joseph - his roles in the Holy Family and his surrounding world - that the new Pope drew unique inspiration that day.

"In the Gospels, St. Joseph appears as a strong and courageous man, a working man, yet in his heart we see great tenderness, which is not the virtue of the weak but rather a sign of strength of spirit and a capacity for concern, for compassion, for genuine openness to others, for love."

www.foryourmarriage.org - Pope Francis Gives Families Food for Thought

Consider: Reading Pope Francis' Inaugural homily. It gives great insight into our beloved new Pope who reaches out to us with so much love and hope. Just go to www.vatican.va and look for the date March 19, 2013 under "homilies."

AECHMEA FASCIATA TO ZAMIA FURFURACEA

~~ the Houseplant Spiritual Director is in ~~

Ok, it is a stretch. But the title 'plant doctor' is already taken. Growing plants can be a prayerful activity, connecting us, through creation, to the Creator. Don’t wait for your Spring flowers to come up. On Sunday, March 30th at 2:00 PM, learn about house plant care, see a spectrum of unique plants, including some with positive biblical or spiritual connections, like Euphorbia splendens (Crown of thorns) or Maranta leuconeura erythoneura (prayer plant). We’ll have fun checking out bad boys as well, like two species named ‘devil’s backbone’, Cissus quadrangularis & Pedilanthus tithymaloides. Bring your questions, you can even bring troubled plants in need of healing. (and Latin is not required!)

See you then, Fr. Bob
