Rediscover Jesus
Matthew Kelly’s great book suggests many ways to get to know Jesus better. Here is another. Spend time with the Songs of the Suffering Servant in Isaiah. The book of Isaiah includes four poems, Servant Songs, and today we hear the third one. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week we will hear the other three at Mass. Who is the suffering servant? Many Jewish scholars see these passages as referring to the nation itself. Some see them as prophecies about the Messiah. Under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the apostles and evangelists recognized Jesus in these powerful poems. The songs can also refer to Christ’s body in the world today, the church. At any rate, want to understand Jesus better, especially his passion, death and resurrection? Look no farther than the Songs of the Suffering Servant.

Sing It Brother!
The Psalms are not the only songs to be found in the Bible. Those who study the Bible generally agree, the passage we hear from Philippians today is St. Paul, quoting a song the community in Philippi probably knew and loved, as a way to remind them of what following Jesus looks like. In short, to follow Jesus, let your attitude be the same as his. He humbled himself. He emptied himself. He was obedient, even to the point of death. This led to his exultation; it will lead us to eternal life. This is the Paschal Mystery. Dying to self is the path to a newer and fuller life in this world, and blessed eternal life in the next. Paul also recognized in the Paschal Mystery the way the communities’ problems could be resolved. Facing a challenging situation? Wonder what Jesus would do? Don’t be sure until reviewing the two songs we hear today, and the Passion!

From Bethany to Calvary
In the middle ages, the idea of walking in the footsteps of Jesus led to the devotion we now call Stations of the Cross. In today’s Gospel, we have an even fuller opportunity to walk with Jesus through his last days. Here is the journey, with the rich cast of characters. Scene 1: Bethany, a meal, and an unnamed woman who pours perfumed oil on Jesus’ head. Disciples complain: wasteful! Jesus: she is anticipating my burial. See the love. See too Judas’ betrayal as he heads off to hand Jesus over. Scene 2: Jerusalem, locating the room for the Passover. It’s just as Jesus said! Scene 3: The Upper Room. Passover/Last Supper. Jesus predicts his betrayal and Peter’s denial. Join them all at the table! Scene 4: Gethsemane. Jesus prays, Peter, James and John fall asleep. Judas betrays. Jesus arrested. High priest’s servant loses ear. Jesus heals. Disciples flee. One runs off naked: asked to follow Jesus, now he even leaves his clothes rather than stand by Jesus. Jesus totally abandoned. He understands abandonment! Scene 5: High priest and Sanhedrin, false witnesses, Jesus condemned. How many innocents condemned these days? Scene 6: Courtyard. Peter denies knowing Jesus. Cock crows. Peter weeps. Should we at times? Scene 7: Off to Pilate. Barabbas enters the story. Crowd stirred to hate: Crucify him! How often are folks stirred into hate around the world today? Scene 8: The praetorium. Soldiers mock Jesus, strike him. Has the mocking and disrespect ended yet? Scene 9: Carrying the cross. Simon pressed into service. Jesus crucified with two others. Crowds, chief priests and scribes mock him. Dark descends. Jesus cries out. The details make Jesus’ humanity clear. A centurion acknowledges – this is the Son of God. Scene 10: Joseph of Arimathea takes Jesus down, wraps the body and places him in a tomb.

Looking Ahead:
Easter Sunday of Resurrection of the Lord

Święconka
Different Catholic cultures each have various traditions to make Easter special. A Polish, Ukrainian and Slavic tradition: bringing a basket with some of the food for Easter morning breakfast, to be blessed at church on Holy Saturday. For more on the tradition, search “Polish Easter basket.” To participate: we will be blessing Easter baskets Holy Saturday at 12:00 PM in the church. P.S.: You don’t have to be Polish, Ukrainian or Slavic to make this one of your Easter traditions!
Thank you for celebrating Palm Sunday with us! Welcome one and all! If you are not often with us, we are delighted that you were here today, and hope you felt warmly welcomed. We also hope and pray that the scripture readings, the Passion, our listening and responding, praying and sharing Eucharist truly moved you in some way. If you were able to contribute to the support of ministry here, we are very grateful! Please consider yourself part of the St Louis family. Our home is your home. We invite you to join us again this Easter, and whenever you can.

Funding Mercy
Long before this special Year of Mercy, St. Louis has been funding works of mercy through our parish tithing. Your generous support of our parish makes it possible for the parish to tithe as well. Tithing? That is a Biblical principle, or goal: returning to the Lord 10% of what the Lord has provided us. St. Louis, our parish, tithes 10%, to various named charities, and to support Saint’s Place. We invite you to consider tithing, with a goal of 5% to the parish and its ministries, and 5% to other charities, whether formal (organizations) or informal (friends or relatives). God’s Word tells us there are blessings to be found when we return to the Lord from the blessings we have received. Many who tithe today didn’t begin with 10%. But as they saw the value of returning to the Lord with increase, the 10% goal gradually became not only achievable, but a priority. Pray about beginning that journey.

The Story of Centro Latino
Centro Latino, a Catholic Charities-supported non-profit, works alongside the Latino population in the Archdiocese of Louisville, Kentucky. That work includes what you may expect: distributing food and clothing, and providing opportunities for education. But Centro Latino also recognizes the importance of community-and stability.

“We need each other,” says Ursuline Sister Lee Kirchner. Sr. Lee volunteers at the monthly Women’s Meetings, offering reflections for the more than 100 women that gather. “That’s what we’re trying to do: build a community among ourselves.”

For women like Katalina, a three-year attendee of these meetings, the community has given her more than the support she needed to learn English; it serves as an inspiration to give back. Women from the group volunteer at Centro Latino’s food distribution center, assist in their local parishes and, of course, work with their peers in the Women’s Meetings. As Sr. Lee notes, Shelby County is better for the work done by these women.

“When I first started leading these reflections, many women hardly said anything,” Sr. Lee recalls. “Now, so many have opened up with the most beautiful observations, with their desires to improve—not just themselves, but their community, where they are.” For Centro Latino, this is the kind of work that has the most lasting impact.

Global Solidarity
Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Global Solidarity, Jesus tells us to love our neighbors, even though they may be different than us. That means the neighbors who live next door and also those who live on the other side of the planet. Jesus reminds us that we are all part of God’s great family.

February was a record month at our Clothing Closet; we assisted 171 refugees from eleven different countries with winter clothing. We also set up 19 homes, gave away 63 beds and 2 new cribs. Works of Mercy all month long!

Two large grants were received, one from the Sisters of Saint Joseph and one from the Ronald McDonald House. This money was used towards the purchase of 200 twin beds.

In the last month, five very large families arrived from Africa, totaling 46 people! Imagine the challenges these families face: the very obvious ones, like adjusting to cold weather, loneliness, language barriers, food shopping, washing clothing in their bathtub, and then the not so discernible challenges. Navigating the social, educational and health care systems are further compounded by cultural differences, which tend to be huge. Please keep the refugees in your prayers as they adjust to their new home. We welcome the stranger.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!
Lifespan of Rochester is honoring Geri Dolan this year at an event called "Celebration of Aging" for her many years of service tutoring the refugees that come to this country. Geri has been in charge of the Saint’s Place tutoring program for over ten years. She has been the reason the program has thrived and grown. Her personal commitment and dedication to helping refugees go far beyond the tutoring program. All those dark snowy nights driving to and from tutoring and making sure all the refugees got home safe! Making sure the refugees needs were being met. Not an easy job and Geri does it with no complaints! The event is this Thursday, March 24, at the Convention Center, 1900 Clinton Avenue, Rochester, NY. Well deserved, Geri!
