Growing Through God’s Word

Our Weekend Scriptures:
Palm Sunday

1st Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7
Speaking a word to the weary

2nd Reading: Philippians 2:6-11
Emptying oneself

Gospel: Mark 14:1-15:47
The Passion

Looking Ahead:
Easter Sunday

1st Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43
Peter preaches the Resurrection

2nd Reading: Colossians 3:1-4
We have been raised with Christ

Gospel: John 20:1-9
The tomb is empty!

Songs of the Servant
The book of Psalms in the Bible is actually a collection of songs composed over at least five centuries; poems written to be sung. That’s why we sing the responsorial psalm at Mass. There are other songs scattered throughout the Bible, including the four ‘servant songs’ in Isaiah, one of which we hear on Passion Sunday (the songs are written in poetic verse, not prose, like the text that surrounds them.)

Good musicians need to be good at listening as well as singing. Apparently the same is true for God’s servant in these four servant songs. God gives the servant a well-trained tongue, but also, morning after morning, opens the servant’s ear. As we hear this passage, imagine Jesus, who knew the scriptures, having this ‘song’ play in his head as he prepared to face his passion. We can also take home a good morning prayer for ourselves. Along with Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will proclaim your praise, we can pray Lord, please open my ears today, that I may listen!

Another Song in the Bible
Include a song when preaching? St. Paul didn’t hesitate to include a song when writing his letter to the Philippians! In his letters, St. Paul included sayings, excerpts from liturgies, and even a song or two that were familiar to his audience, to bring his message home. Most scholars agree that the second reading today is St. Paul quoting a song that the church in Philippi sang. His message – put what you sing into practice. You sing about how Jesus humbled himself; emptied himself, and how that led to his exaltation. Give it a try! Be humble, empty yourself, be obedient to the Father as Christ was. Do that, and the conflicts in the church are sure to be resolved! For us, when anger or frustration is building, or when we find ourselves in conflicts, chapter 2 of Philippians is a good place to go. Read that chapter a few times, slowly. Hear God speaking to you through Paul, and watch the spiritual growth that can happen!

From Bethany to Calvary
Mark invites us to make an incredible journey through the Passion. We also are to learn from the characters we encounter along the way.

Scene 1: Bethany, a meal, an unnamed woman who pours perfumed oil on Jesus’ head.
Disciples complain: Wasteful!
Jesus: She is anticipating my burial.
What was in HER mind?
Judas: Off to hand Jesus over.

Scene 2: Jerusalem, locating the upper room, for Passover.

Scene 3: Upper room, Passover/last supper, Jesus predicts betrayal & denial. What are the twelve feeling?

Scene 4: Gethsemane, Jesus prays, Peter, James & John fall asleep, Judas betrays, crowd arrests Jesus, high priest’s servant loses ear, disciples flee, one seized, but runs off naked, Jesus is totally abandoned. Asked to leave everything to follow Jesus, now one leaves even his clothes to get away from Jesus and his fate!

Scene 5: High priest and Sanhedrin, false witnesses, Jesus condemned. What does this reveal?

Scene 6: Courtyard, Peter denies knowing Jesus, cock crows, Peter weeps. For himself, or Jesus, or both?
Scene 7: Off to Pilate, Barabbas enters the story, crowd stirred to hate, Crucify Him! What goes on inside of Barabbas, or those in the crowd, now? Later?
Scene 8: The praetorium, soldiers mock Jesus, strike him.
Scene 9: Carrying the cross, Simon pressed into service, Jesus crucified, with two others, crowds, chief priests, scribes mock him, dark descends, Jesus cries out. The details make Jesus’s humanity clear, a centurion acknowledges this is the Son of God. From a distance, the women look on.
Scene 10: Joseph of Arimathea takes Jesus down, wraps the body and places him in a tomb. Discipleship isn’t easy!

Looking Ahead:

Thank you for joining us this Passion Sunday! We hope and pray we have helped you enter into Holy Week, a time that can truly deepen our spiritual growth. Thank you too for your offerings! Your generous contributions fund all the ministries of our parish, not just for Holy Week, but throughout the year. You also make it possible for our parish to tithe to vital ministries here and around the world. God bless you!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Aid to the Church in Need

Encounter Our Neighbors

We encounter Jesus this week in Jerusalem, a community he knew well. We prayerfully enter our own communities too, encountering those who are hungry and thirsty, those who need our help. How does our Lenten journey motivate us to serve those we meet in our daily lives? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Portrait of Loyda Hernandez, 18, Cesia Hernandez, 21, Haydee Gomez, 53, and Esther Hernandez, 7, at the family kitchen in Aguas Calientes Community, Somoto, Nicaragua.

YouthBuild program is changing perspective and empowering girls to get trained in life skills, vocational training, entrepreneurship, savings groups and community service in the kind of positive environment young people need to flourish. Some like Cesia and Loyda are doing jobs that where considered man jobs and breaking stereotypes.

CRS is adapting its YouthBuild program to rural areas in and around Somoto. YouthBuild offers youth vocational training in beekeeping and honey production, livestock services, and tourism—activities that are closely tied to market demand in this rural region. Youth ages 16-24 attend training three days per week during eight months. At the end of the which, they are encouraged to develop business plans to market and sell the products they learn to make, such as dairy products or supplements for livestock, and the services they learn to provide.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Catholic Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. This collection also helps to preserve sacred shrines. Wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.
The Sacred Triduum

A liturgy that lasted three days? That is the intent of the Triduum, the Holy Three Days, Holy Thursday evening, the Good Friday Celebration of the Lord’s Passion, and the Easter Vigil. The Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday evening opens this moving liturgy. Unlike other Masses, there is no final blessing, no dismissal, no closing song. Instead, we process to a separate place after communion for prayer and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, continuing in a prayerful frame of mind into Good Friday. The Celebration of the Lord’s Passion doesn’t begin with a welcome, an opening song, a greeting or sign of the cross; we are not starting a new liturgy, we are picking up where we left off the night before! We continue in a prayerful awareness that we are celebrating the most important days of Jesus’s time on earth, and the heart of our life of faith, until we gather around a fire on Holy Saturday evening, to enter the Easter Vigil. Then we pull out all the stops! We celebrate Christ as the light of the world, and our lives. We listen to the scriptures, the unfolding of salvation history. We may celebrate initiation; we always renew our baptismal promises, culminating in a joyous celebration of the Eucharist. The Lord invites you to join this liturgy-over-three-days!

Jesus Took a Towel

We do as Jesus instructed on Holy Thursday. We celebrate the Last Supper. As Jesus did, we wash feet as well, with a spirit of humility and service. It is a powerful action, and when we do with our bodies what we believe in our minds, the truth reaches a deeper level. Please join us Holy Thursday evening. You will be invited to participate if the Spirit moves you, by having your feet washed or washing feet, or both. We will have a procession to the Chapel of Repose in the Parish Meeting Hall, with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until 10pm. Feel free to leave after liturgy and return, or if you cannot make the service, by all means come for Adoration.

The BIG Church Family

While Sacred Heart Cathedral serves as a parish church, it is also home for diocesan celebrations, the mother church of our diocese. Among diocesan liturgies: Ordinations, Confirmations, the diocesan Jubilee Wedding Anniversary Mass, the Rite of Election. But the pre-eminent diocesan celebration is the Chrism Mass, this year on March 27th at 7:00PM. All priests are invited, that we might renew our vows to serve God and God’s people. The Holy Oils used throughout the diocese for the coming year are blessed. It is a Holy Week event for the whole diocese. Never been to a Chrism Mass? Consider making this the year!

The Divine Office

No, it’s not a spacious office space in the heart of town with a terrific view. It’s another name for the Liturgy of the Hours, a prayer of the church that is indeed spacious, having a four week cycle and prayers for various hours of the day. It provides a terrific spiritual view as we pray the psalms with Jesus, listen to a passage of scripture, pray a canticle, intercessions, and pray the Lord’s Prayer. Plan to come to church on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, at 9:00am for Morning Prayer – check the office out!

Divine Mercy Sunday

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops is encouraging Cathedrals and parishes throughout the country to join together in prayer and adoration seeking God’s mercy for ourselves and for our nation for offenses against life, marriage, and religious liberty.

> “Who can say that he is free from sin and does not need God’s mercy? As people of this restless time of ours, wavering between the emptiness of self-exaltation and the humiliation of despair, we have a greater need than ever for a regenerating experience of mercy.” ~Bl. Pope John Paul II, Regina Caeli message, April 10, 1994

Join us in a novena beginning on Good Friday. Here is the schedule if you’d like to pray the Divine Mercy novena with us at church:

- March 30, 31 after the 9:00 a.m. prayer service
- April 1 after the 11:15 a.m. Mass
- April 2-6 after the 11:00 a.m. Mass
- April 7 after the 9:00 a.m. Mass

How to be the perfect parent

Imperfection is a sad consequence of our human condition. It is deeply unrealistic to expect to be a perfect parent, but we can strive to be the best parent for the children we have. Consider these ideas:

Fill them with faith. Think ahead to the day your children are on their own. What role do you hope faith will play in their lives? Decide how prepared you are to achieve this and identify the resources you may need to shore up your own faith and skills.

Choose good company. If you don’t live what you believe, you will come to believe what you live. Therefore, surround yourself with solid companions who share your values. These are the people who will help influence your family.

Stand on strong shoulders. Do you have a relative, friend, or other role model who inspires you – someone you can call up as a model of strength, determination, generosity, devotion? Such people can act as concrete examples of faith lived for both us and our children.

Look for progress, not perfection. Parenting is a long-haul job and it is unrealistic to think we will never blunder or our children err. When we or our children lose our way, it is best to admit mistakes, ask for forgiveness, get back on the right track and keep moving.

St. Margaret Clitherow
St. Margaret Clitherow converted to Catholicism soon after she married, at a time when Catholicism was illegal in England. Yet, St. Margaret continued to practice her faith. Her husband was not Catholic, but allowed her to hide Catholic priests in their home so they could say Mass secretly. Margaret was arrested when royal officials found a cupboard filled with vessels used for Mass. Her peaceful, joyful attitude during her imprisonment, trial, and execution inspired those around her.

Don’t rush fixes
It is said that good teachers show students where to look but don’t tell them what to see. Good parents, too, give youngsters a chance to find solutions to their own problems. Coaching without fixing for them teaches children confidence, self-reliance and resilience.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics give up meat on Fridays in Lent?

The practice of giving up meat on Fridays in Lent is a reverential offering honoring Jesus’ sacrifice on Good Friday. We abstain from eating meat as a reminder that Jesus gave up his flesh for us.

Fasting from certain foods during Lent can be a form of prayer. It helps us to focus on Christ. Fasting is also an outward sign of our faith. The Church asks that we observe all Fridays as penitential days of abstinence, even outside of Lent.

“For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?” (Luke 14:28).

Year of the Eucharist

Want practical suggestions about growing spiritually in this Year of the Eucharist? Check out the bulletin board in the back of the church! You will find lots of suggestions in a variety of categories, all of which can help you grow in a Eucharist centered spirituality. Just take a slip and give it a try! Or take more than one ... but don’t let the opportunity pass you by. The Easter season would be a great time to consider something new. With 50 days in the Easter season, there is plenty of time to try out several possibilities. Check it out!!
