The Well Trodden Path

As with any Gospel, the point of today’s Gospel is not to file away as ancient history Jesus’ encounter with the man born blind, but to find ourselves in the story, to discover that how what we hear can open our eyes in new ways. While At Home with the Word provides only the short form of today’s Gospel, please don’t leave it there. Pick up your Bible and read the whole story. Only then can we appreciate how the man’s understanding of Jesus grows, where his journey of faith leads.

First asked who healed him, the formerly blind man simply says “that man called Jesus”. When pressed, while the Pharisees demean Jesus, the man begins to realize, Jesus is a prophet. Next he defends Jesus as a man from God. Finally, he affirms Jesus is the Son of Man, and is able to see that Jesus is his Lord, worthy of worship.

Think back. When in your spiritual journey did you simply know Jesus as a figure in history, who you learned about in religious education, that man called Jesus? When did it begin to sink in, Jesus is more than just some man, he was (and is) a prophet? In other words, when did you realize Jesus knows more about you than you even know yourself? Most likely, recognizing Jesus as a man from God, even the Son of Man, may have followed closely, or happened at the same time. The last two leaps are the biggest, most likely taking quite a bit longer than John’s condensing the journey of the blind man into one chapter. First, to recognize Jesus is divine, is the Lord. Finally, not only is Jesus the Lord, but as the journey leads us to true discipleship, we accept Jesus as our Lord. The one we choose to follow, the one we worship by offering our life in service. Let’s try to find some time this week to review our journey of faith thus far (with the humility to realize there is yet farther to go!).

Now for one more application, a community building one. Let’s pray for the Lord to open our eyes, to realize that among those who come to church with us, there are people at each of these stages in the journey. Some with mostly questions about Jesus. Others who have come to know him as a very important person. Yet others who recognize him as their Lord, and have come to know him intimately in the breaking of the bread. The way the Pharisees spoke with the blind man did not help him come to faith. Jesus’ love, patience and understanding did. How might we best help each other to continue on a journey ever closer to the Lord, with eyes ever more open, with spiritual as well as physical sight? Great Lenten questions to ponder and pray! Peace in both, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - April 2
The Highlands - Richard Caruso    Heather Heights - Darlene Huver
THIRSTING FOR FAITH

Fourth Sunday of Lent

1st Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6–7, 10–13a
The spirit of the Lord rushed upon him

2nd Reading: Ephesians 5:8–14
Live as children of the light

Gospel: John 9:1–14
I can see!

Really Seeing

Last week’s Gospel, this week’s and next week’s have a finely tuned focus for adults preparing for baptism. Our catechumens are invited to see their own journey in the journey of faith that unfolds for the woman at the well, the man born blind, and Lazarus. Jesus encountered the Samaritan woman at the well, right where she was, but led her to move from drawing well water, to thirsting for the living water of the Holy Spirit. The man born blind has his eyes opened, gaining not just physical sight, but spiritual sight, as he comes to understand who Jesus is more and more through the story. Like Lazarus, those to be baptized, and all of us are called out of the tomb, the isolation and death sin can bring, into new life.

How do we pray for our catechumens? We pray that God help them identify where they need to be strengthened; how and where they need God’s grace in the conversion process. If there is any question about what kind of ‘sight’ our readings this weekend encourage us to contemplate, the 1st reading answers it. How was David chosen to be the future king, with whom God would make a lasting covenant? Not by looking at outward appearance! God looked into the heart. But this passage from Samuel is not telling us to run out and judge the hearts of others. We are to let God look into ours. Then God can help each of us identify our own weaknesses, our own strengths, and discern as well where and how God is calling us. This passage also reminds us: What we see when we look at others, and what God sees, may be very different!

Into the Light

Paul in his letters, and John in his Gospel and letters often speak of walking in the light, no longer walking in darkness. That is one way to describe conversion. Before coming to Christ, repenting, embracing the Christian life through a process of conversion, we were in darkness. Without the light of Christ, we stumble, often wandering off into selfish, dark alleys. But now, following the light of Christ, we know what goodness really is (God centered, in service of others, not self-centered); we know truth about God, ourselves, and the world we live in. We know the Scriptures, tradition, and believers who have been at it longer. All of these help us know what is pleasing to the Lord – all provide light.

Sleeper Awake

How important are the hymns we sing? Paul (and other New Testament writers) found the songs of their day very valuable. Enough to quote hymns as a way to bring home a vital truth. The last sentence we hear in Ephesians today was from a hymn, probably about baptism. The hymn writer meanwhile had looked to the scriptures for text, and found Isaiah to be a rich source. It all connects!

The Journey of Faith

Last week, the Gospel invited us into the encounter of the woman at the well with Jesus. We watched her go from knowing nothing about Jesus, to being a believer, to becoming an evangelist: her witness to her fellow townsmen brought many to Christ. She also went from someone on the margins, going to the well at noon, when no one does, as a way of avoid hassles, to a person to be admired and imitated. She opened her heart to what Christ had to offer, and then didn’t hesitate to share the faith she found with others. This week, more characters fill the story, including neighbors, Pharisees and the parents of the blind man. Yet still, we can watch conversion and growth in action. The blind man grows into a believer, a disciple, and one who tries to help the Pharisees see and understand. Unfortunately, even as he experiences healing, has his eyes opened, and becomes a believer, the Pharisees only grow more hostile to Jesus, more unwilling to be healed. Jesus saw in the blind man a precious child of God to be healed, while the Pharisees could only see a sinner. Here is another Gospel urging us to take a deeper look, and let the Lord open our eyes.

Looking Ahead:

Fifth Sunday of Lent

1st Reading: Ezekiel 37:12–14
I will put my spirit in you

2nd Reading: Romans 8:8–11
Let the Spirit of God dwell in you

Gospel: John 11:1–45
Lazarus, come out!

“Creation is not some possession that we can lord over for our own pleasure; nor, even less, is it the property of only some people, the few: creation is a gift, it is the marvelous gift that God has given us, so that we will take care of it and harness it for the benefit of all, always with great respect and gratitude.” Pope Francis, (5/21/14)

How Does That Work?

Thank you for your faithful support of our parish! Thanks to your generosity, we are able to tithe 10% of our Sunday collections to make a difference beyond our parish boundaries. Learning along the way, we have simplified the formula in the past few years. Previously, the entire 10% went to the designated organization. In order to adequately support our ministry to refugees (Saint’s Place), a commitment had been made that a designated number of Sundays would be assigned to Saint’s Place. Part of the problem: the size of the tithe varied significantly from Sunday to Sunday (the first Sunday of the month generally much larger), and a snow storm could really impact the amount an organization might receive. Two moves corrected the discrepancy, with side benefits as well. Each Sunday, the designated charity/organization receives $1,000. The remainder goes into a tithing fund, from which the amount promised to Saint’s Place is taken. This fund also serves as the emergency fund, which was periodically slated as a Sunday tithie in the past. In addition, because the fund always has a modest balance, when the bishop has requested parishes taking up a second collection for emergencies, (natural disasters, the request for money to assist poor families with heating costs, etc.), we can now write a check and get it to the emergency immediately. With support of the Parish Council, Finance Council and Stewardship Team, the changes have made the tithing process smoother and more equitable, and the thank you letters keep rolling in!

This Week’s Tithing Will Support Ministries of Holy Family Catholic Church, Booneville, KY

Next Week’s Tithing Will Support Eight 4 World Hope

Eight 4 World Hope’s mission is to give hope to the voiceless, one community at a time, by providing a safe, stable learning environment that fosters long-term opportunity for individuals and families. Established shortly after a college reunion at St. John Fisher College in 2009, many were inspired and moved by the lives that their classmate, Kevin Carges, had touched as a deacon for the Diocese of Rochester. His passion for the people of Haiti, Jamaica, and other developing countries sparked a desire to do what they could to help those who need it most. Eight 4 World Hope, stands for the founding members and the symbolic presence of Jesus’ guidance.

Their current project is Davis Primary School in Old Harbor Jamaica. Built in 1973 for 200 children, 700 children are packed into deteriorating classrooms with many sitting on the floor. The teachers understand that an education is the only way to escape the severe poverty the children were born into, so they try to teach as many children as humanly possible. Due to the poor conditions, many children aren’t meeting the requirements of the Ministry of Education of Jamaica.

Eight 4 World Hope was asked to help before the school would be closed due to unsafe conditions. Eight 4 World Hope agreed to raise $153,000 (and have raised 82% of amount needed) towards this project that includes the build of 6 additional classrooms in 2 standalone buildings. Your support (and prayers) will help to have the remaining classrooms open by September 2017, and 200 children on a waiting list will be able to attend school at Davis Primary. Read more about their work at www.eight4worldhope.org.

Special Pastoral Care Meeting, Thursday, April 6

The Pastoral Care Team members are invited to meet Cathy Malik, our new Pastoral Associate for Pastoral Care at 9:30 am on April 6. Cathy is eager to meet each of you and learn what aspect of pastoral care you are involved with. (Our Thursday, April 27 meeting is still scheduled and that agenda will be available soon.) If you have any concerns or ideas, please email Cathy at cmalik@dor.org or call 586-5675, or email Peggy at pomdigley@yahoo.com or call 383-8879.

Faith Formation & Sacramental Registration, &
In-House Registration 2017-2018

Again this year we will be offering an online registration for Faith Formation, Youth Ministry and Sacraments available along with an in-house option in the gym both on Sunday mornings and Tuesday evenings prior to and after Faith Formation.

We will begin the in-house option this weekend, March 25 & 26 and continue until the first week of May. If you choose this option, you will need to have your registration fee at the time of submitting your paperwork. It is IMPERATIVE that families register as soon as possible to help us keep our costs down for materials and shipping. We will be communicating soon when the online option will be available. Please be sure to check the bulletin as well as your email for important information regarding Kindergarten – 12th grade Faith Formation and Sacraments. For questions, please contact Michelle Andrews-Smith at mandrews-smith@dor.org or 585-586-5675.

At what age should I sign my child up for Faith Formation and Sacraments?

➢ We begin Faith Formation for children enrolled in Kindergarten of the upcoming school year. Our Kindergarten curriculum lays the foundation of creation, sacrament, God, Jesus and prayer which is important as they continue forward in their faith journey.

➢ The expectation of our parish, our Bishop and the larger Church is that children will continue to learn and grow in their faith into adulthood. Consistent learning of faith is one of most important roles as parents as “primary educators of children in ways of faith.” Consistent = every year. It is a Diocesan policy (a sound one too!) that in order for a child to prepare and receive the Sacraments of Eucharist and Penance, they need to be attending Faith Formation in Kindergarten and First grade.

Please feel free to contact Michelle Andrews-Smith with any questions.

THE BIBLE and the VIRGIN MARY

JOURNEY THROUGH SCRIPTURE

March 25th  The Annunciation of the Lord

The Bible and the Virgin Mary

In this dynamic twelve-part video series, Matthew Leonard beautifully explains the Catholic truths about Our Lady, showing how she has been a part of God’s plan to bring salvation to the world since the beginning of time. In addition to explanation of dogmas, answers to common objections, and demonstration of Mary’s presence in the Old and New Testaments, this study discusses Church-approved Marian apparitions that play an important role in Catholic Tradition. Find this under “PROGRAMS” then “Bible Studies”.

Who Am I to Judge?

What is “right” and “wrong”? Is what’s right for you right for me? We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Edward Sri explores the classical view of morality and helps us discover that it’s not merely a set of guiding principles for theoretical situations — it is an entire way of life.

Encounters of Hope

Call to Family, Community and Participation

In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature – we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community — whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

Encounter Maria

Maria de la Luz Lugo Martinez remembers growing up in Ejido Hidalgo, Mexico. “We said we were rich because we had a lot of corn, beans and animals.” But now, with few jobs and even less rain, young people – including Maria’s children – are leaving the community in search of a better life. To help families like Maria’s, CRS launched a greenhouse project empowering women with meaningful work and community. Women visit their community greenhouses to grow cactuses to sell – but they also go for so much more. “…. we laugh, we talk, we spend time together. Sometimes we leave our homes angry or sad. But working with the plants, we forget our problems for a while,” says Maria. As the cactuses grow, so do the economic opportunities. Even though they live far away, Maria remains close to her family. “I give thanks to God that he gave me all my children and grandchildren.” “They give me strength and courage to work hard. My children call and say, ‘Don’t give up, Mom. Have faith in God.’”

Page Seven  St. Louis Church, Pittsford, NY  March 26, 2017
After over 15 years of wear and tear, and due to the changes in the Order of Mass, we must replace our current hymnals. We need 750 hymnals for our parish and hope to raise the money and purchase new Gather hymnals before Easter Sunday 2017. Each hymnal is valued at approximately $20.00. You can donate as many hymnals as you like. Each hymnal you donate can be dedicated to the memory of a loved one or in honor of your family or friends. A nice remembrance!

Your generosity and commitment will ensure our success, and anything you can give toward the purchase of our new hymnals will be greatly appreciated. Thank you for considering a donation toward the purchase of our new hymnals.

If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to contact me. I will follow up with a phone call in the next couple of days. Sincerely in Christ,

Stephanie Honz, Pastoral Associate of Music and Liturgy
