St. Louis Celebrates

Pentecost is always a great celebration; the birth of the church, the pouring forth of the Holy Spirit, the great conclusion of the Easter season. On Saturday, June 7th at 10:30 AM at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Bishop Matano will be ordaining new deacons for our diocese, including some who will be ordained to priesthood the following year. Among them – Carlos Sanchez, who was with us for his Pastoral Year last year. It is a big celebration for the diocese, and will spill over to St. Louis. It will be a memorable year here at St. Louis, with three, we have big events on Pentecost Sunday.

Fr. Al Delmonte will preside and preach at the 11AM Mass on June 8, celebrating his Golden Jubilee, his 50th anniversary of priesthood with us. There will be a reception following the Mass. Watch for details, and mark your calendars now. Then at the 5PM Mass, Carlos will join us to serve his first Mass as a deacon here at St. Louis – a wonderful event as well. Following the 5PM, there will be a reception. But, not just any reception! Victor has shared a Hispanic tradition of celebrating Pentecost with food, music and fun. Parishioners from 11 countries in Latin America will be bringing a taste of their culture both to the 5PM Mass and to the reception. What’s wrong with making Pentecost Sunday an all day celebration! It all ties together perfectly.

Don’t think things will be slow here from now until Pentecost! There is a Fruit of the Vine session on Tuesday evening, a casual opportunity to talk about things happening in the church, from the small scale, the domestic church (aka the household), our local parish, our diocesan church, and even the world wide church. Why stop there – we can even talk about the church through the ages if folks are so interested! Thursday is the Sunshine luncheon, a great tradition here at St. Louis, an outreach to those who can’t always get out to the parish on weekends, and in some ways, like an ‘old home week’.

This coming Saturday, we will be having a Bereavement Mass at 9AM, followed by a light reception. If you know anyone who could use some encouragement, who might benefit from praying together with others who have lost someone dear, please invite them, and consider coming with them. Perhaps it would be just right for you as well.

And these are just the things happening ‘on campus’. Add to that, the joy of graduations on campuses around the country, and there is much to celebrate. So mark your calendars, and join us as you can. Blessing to you and all of those you love, Peace, Fr. Bob

Meeting the Needs of the Day
On the surface, our reading from the Acts of the Apostles this weekend is a foundation text for the institution of the Deaconate, centered in the practical service of those in need. Yet we know from elsewhere in Acts that two of the seven (Stephen & Philip) were most remembered for their preaching and evangelizing. This isn’t just about being waiters! Who are Hebrews & Hellenists? There were the Jews who came to believe in Christ who were native to Jerusalem and Israel. But as the Christian community expanded beyond Israel, Jews from the Diaspora, who spoke Greek, came into the fold. This passage tells us of the effort to keep the groups together, legitimizing the leadership of the Hellenistic Jewish communities, and also making sure the needs of all were met. Lay ecclesial ministry is the current adaptation of this teaching; ministries need to be established, and develop and grow as needs change.

Oy!
Often images are used rather fluidly in the scriptures. Put another way, a word or image can be taken two ways, and many times both are intended. So in 1 Peter we read about our being ‘living stones’ built into ‘a spiritual house’. The word used for ‘house’ in the original Greek is ‘oikos’. It can mean ‘house’ as a building (the community is the new temple, where our spiritual sacrifices are offered), or it can mean ‘household’; we are bound together in love as a family. Is it either/or? No, it is both/and, Christ is the cornerstone, the apostles, the foundation, and in each generation God finds a place for each of us, as figuratively part of a structure, and a member of the family.

But Wait ….
John packs plenty of deep theology in our Gospel today. Yet at the same time, we can certainly relate the questions of Thomas and Philip. To use a contemporary expression, Thomas and Philip were just starting up the learning curve. As we progress on our own learning curve, it is often helpful not just to focus on the words and concepts in a passage. While we can’t literally see the body language, or actually hear the tone of voice in Jesus’ response to Thomas and Philip, we can try to put all the clues together, and then try to picture the scene in our mind’s eye, and spiritually hear Jesus. What do you picture? Do you hear the compassion, the patience in his voice?

Looking Ahead:
SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

One Additional Voice
Fruit from Tuesday morning’s Bible study: Perhaps the ‘having life more abundantly’ Jesus speaks of at the conclusion of today’s Gospel relates to having a life shaped and guided by love and kindness, not driven by competition. Are you free Tuesday mornings from 7:30-8:30AM? Please join us for Bible study in the Manse!

Funeral Still Fresh in Your Mind?
Spring flowers, trees and shrubs blooming, new life bursting everywhere – the Easter season can be a beautiful time of year, but difficult at the same time. Mother’s Day, Father’s Day – the first year without mom or dad; graduations, 1st communions, weddings, all can trigger a memory, or evoke an unexpected wave of grief. It helps to know we are not alone with these feelings, not alone trying to find Easter joy when loss takes hold. The Feast of All Souls is not the only time we should come together to pray for peace of heart, and pray for those who have died. We will have a Spring Bereavement Mass on Saturday, May 24th, 9:00 AM. Come, as we pray together, pray for our dear ones, and draw consolation from community. Following the Mass, our Pastoral Care Committee will host a light reception. Please be sure to invite anyone you know who has experienced the loss of a loved one this past year.

Men's 89 Looking for a powerful retreat experience that can open your eyes to all that faith can provide, and truly change your life? The team has been preparing the next men’s Cursillo for months already. Fr. Bob and Fr. Ed Palumbos, together with the other 25 members of the team, invite you to Men's 89, the evening of July 24th thru July 27. What is Cursillo? Ask Cursillistas Fr. Ray, Msgr Krieg, Victor or Fr. Bob (Victor can tell you about Cursillo in Columbia).
THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT
ST. JOSEPH’S NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT
NOTRE DAME LEARNING CENTER

Since many Rochester city children of low income families have poor study habits and lack basic reading and math skills, the Notre Dame Learning Center helps children do better in school. By helping children learn, they are empowering them to become good adult citizens. The Center is located at 71 Parkway with a staff of 3 full time School Sisters of Notre Dame and 80 volunteer tutors. This year-round and after school grassroots program charges no tuition. To make a difference in the lives of the beloved children of poor caring parents, please support next week’s tithing to NDL and consider calling Sr. Evelyn Breslin at 254-5110 to volunteer your time to tutor, teach computer skills, help with fundraisers or become a committee member. There is always a waiting list of children waiting to be inspired to be the best they can be.

THURSDAY NOON, MAY 22
The annual Sunshine Luncheon in the gym is a beautiful ministry at St. Louis. We need your help - especially with food preparation and helping the elderly guests in & out of the vans!

Contact Lisa DePalma at 738-4884.

INCHING UP SOME MORE
The final bell has not sounded, and our contributions to the CMA (Catholic Ministry Appeal) continue to climb. We are now at 93.77% of our goal! Could you help us get to 94? Envelopes are available on the counter top at the north side entrance of the church.

THIS WEEKEND, MAY 17 AND 18,
WE SHALL OBSERVE DIOCESAN MISSIONS SUNDAY. This year, we honor the Sisters of St. Joseph’s fifty years of presence in Brazil. We also acknowledge the missionary efforts of the /Sisters of Mercy in Chile. We are called to take part in the missionary work of the Church. We may not all have to move to another town or city to do so, but impelled by the Holy Spirit, each one of us is to move beyond our daily concerns, important as they are, to help others live in the faith that sustains us. Bishop Salvatore Matano calls us to a responsible sharing in the missionary works of the Diocese of Rochester. No diocese is truly a diocese unless it extends beyond its own borders and allows itself to be touched by the presence of other churches. May we share the gift of faith today by helping our missionary friends with our prayers and a generous gift.

On behalf of hospital patients in our community, thank you for your commitment to the American Red Cross blood program. As a dedicated blood drive sponsor, your leadership in the coming months will help prevent blood shortages.

BABY BLESSING MASS

On Sunday June 15, our Elizabeth Ministry invites all families of recently baptized infants to the 9:00 am Mass for a special blessing of children and parents, followed by a light reception. Please enter it on your calendar now!
“I Am the Way and the Truth and the Life”

In the same way, we can learn about God our Father by getting to know his Son, Jesus. In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus teaches us that we can come to know his Father by coming to know him.

Members of the same family often bear close resemblances to one another. Sometimes physical resemblances are shared within a family, but often the similarities are behavioral characteristics and mannerisms. We hear this observation affirmed through a number of common phrases: “He's a chip off the old block” or “She's her mother's daughter.” Today's Gospel points to a mystery of faith that might be examined in light of these familial relationships. In Jesus we see and know the Father. Likewise, the Father is known through the life and work of the Son, Jesus.

Talk together as a family about whether people outside of your family recognize common traits of your family. Are there physical resemblances that people recognize and so know each individual as a member of your family? Are there mannerisms that are shared by members of your family? What are some common interests and work that people might associate with your family? Members of the same family share many characteristics, even though each person in the family is an individual. What does Jesus tell his disciples about his relationship with the Father? The relationship between the Father and Jesus is so close that Jesus says that those who have seen and known Jesus have also seen and known the Father. Jesus promises his disciples that because of their faith in him and the Father, they too will be able to do the work of the Father as Jesus did.

The connection between Jesus and his Father, between Jesus’ work and the work of the Father, is made clear in today’s Gospel. Jesus is in the Father, and God the Father is in Jesus. As God spoke his name to Moses, “I am,” so too Jesus speaks his name to his disciples: “I am the way and the truth and the life.”

ELIZABETH MINISTRY

Since September 1999, Elizabeth Ministry has been an active ministry here at St. Louis. As we will hear in next weekend’s gospel, upon hearing of her cousin Elizabeth’s pregnancy, Mary visits her to celebrate her pregnancy and stays to love and serve Elizabeth during this special time. Elizabeth Ministers seek to follow Mary’s example as we listen, serve and celebrate the gift of all life.

ELIZABETH MINISTERS LISTEN. We offer a listening ear to persons experiencing grief or struggles with…
- Miscarriage, stillbirth, loss of a child
- Medically difficult pregnancies
- Hurting from past abortion
- Infertility
- Other pregnancy related concerns.
A mass or prayer service is held for Children who have gone home to God.

ELIZABETH MINISTERS SERVE. We minister to those experiencing unplanned or “crisis” pregnancies by…
- Acquiring material needs for mothers and their babies
- Helping with practical needs to visit support agencies
- Offering non-judgmental friendship and a confidential ear.
We sponsor an annual parish wide service project (e.g. diaper drive) supporting a local agency.

ELIZABETH MINISTERS CELEBRATE. Seeking to make known the words heard at baptism, “The Christian community welcomes you with great joy” by…
- Sending letters of congratulations and prayers from the parish
- Friendship and support for new mothers
- Meals for families experiencing extended hospital stays with children or pregnancy concerns.
A yearly “New Baby Blessing” mass and reception is held celebrating the new lives in our parish.

If you’d like more information about Elizabeth Ministry, we’d love to hear from you. Please call the parish office 586-5675 and leave a message on our voicemail, ext. 345.

Catholic 101
Saints, Crucifixes, and Statues: Do Catholics Worship Images?

In the Old Testament the Jewish people were taught that the name of God cannot be pronounced and God cannot be imaged—no image is adequate to express the Godhead. The Jewish people knew that images representing other so-called gods were idols without meaning because there is only one God.

An image can be both an inanimate thing (a painted or carved figure) and a living thing. Image is encountered early on in Genesis as we are told that God created humankind in the divine image. Most probably the image is in the human’s capacity to plan, to desire, to achieve, to respond personally to one another and God.

In the New Testament, St. Paul uses the concept of image extensively. In his theology, Christ is the “image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.” God, who could not be imaged in the Old Testament, has given us a human image of the divine being. For Paul, the whole Christian vocation can be summed up in the fact that we are all called to be conformed to this image. This transformation does not happen just by virtue and grace. It happens also physically in that we share in Christ’s resurrection by our own physical resurrection.

Sacred images were part of the culture and worship of the first Christians. There is a spiritual reality that the image represents. Christ’s humanity came into existence at the moment of his conception and will continue to exist forever in the further dimension of the Kingdom.

The same can be said of the saints. They truly exist. They are that great ‘cloud of witnesses’ who surround us. They are those who are clothed in white robes in the vision of John. There are spiritual and physical realities in the glorified bodies of Christ and his beloved which the images represent. If the images are lost or destroyed, the spiritual reality remains.

Do Catholics worship saints? To worship someone is to acknowledge that the one who is worshiped is divine, is God. Sometimes we can confuse cultural gestures of reverence for gestures of worship. Catholics hold saints in esteem because they are such wonderful images or mirrors of Christ. Devotion to the saints comes back to the theology of image: Christ is God’s image; the saints are Christ’s image. We honor them because we desire to imitate them. We pray to them the same as we call upon earthly friends to do a favor for us.”

If we look around our homes we may see pictures of family; mom, dad, grandma, grandpa, aunts and uncles. They help us to remember and know our past, our present and our future. Those we love and those who love us. We also may see pictures or statues of Jesus, his mother and his friends. They help us to remember and know all of the same things. Those we love and those who love us.

As Autumn’s Child Rests

90 Winters having passed
She struggles now unsteadily through her final autumn
With churlish innocence and obstinacy
At times refusing to cooperate or agree.
Astonished at her own age
Defeated by the enormity of remembrance.

Time and time again the frightened child peeks out
From the crumbling grey shell,
And speaks of the yesteryears she remembers oh so well,
Sparked only by a brief flicker Of the here and now.

She remembers a time long ago as a child
Living with her mother and father
Working in the store and swimming in the creek
With her big sister Louise
Or playing hide and seek with her younger brother Bill
She smiles as she recalls the past

She gazes at her porcelain birds contentedly and strokes them with affection
To shelter them against the scourges of life
That somehow she should know well.

In an unexpected moment…
it strikes her…And she sees it so..
The burden of too lengthy a life..
That frail shrinking image is really her reflection.

The strange woman gazes back astonished!
She questions… That’s not me!
She turns and searches for herself in the empty dark room.

Sleep rescues her again
As she sees her garden in all of its splendor.
Happier times from long ago with her family and friends
She reaches out to embrace her children and grandchildren.
She recalls walking hand in hand
with Mike through the lilac scented Highland Park,
These images wrap her in warmth and comfort again.

Slumber visits more frequently,
Lingering longer each day
Bringing her soothing dreams of yesterday that become her reality
and replace the vapor of awkwardness that confuses and unsettles her.

As night and darkness fall
Through the light from the welcoming stars
It is her husband Mike that finally comes.
He reaches down to carry her home…

Thank you Mom for all of your love
From your daughter who thanks you for teaching her how to be the woman she has become.
I will miss you but always have you in my heart
