Try It, You’ll Like It!

While not a term that slips off the tongue, or that you are likely to include in a conversation any time soon, here it is anyway. Sacraments are ‘ecclesial acts’. The expression isn’t essential, but the faith it describes is not only essential, it is a game changer. A life changer, in fact. Ekklesia is the term the New Testament uses for church. So the study of what the church is, what it means, and how it functions is called Ecclesiology. An ‘ecclesial act’ is an action of the church. Sacraments are not private, individual affairs. They are ‘ecclesial acts’. They flow out of the mission of the church. They help form and shape church. The priest or bishop acts on behalf of the church. Sacraments relate to our life as members of a community, in the church. They bring us into communion, keep us in communion, and restore us to communion. The implications are many.

Why would we have baptisms at Mass? Or why schedule more than one at a time? Because baptism is an ecclesial act. “What do you ask of the church?” (Baptism, or entrance into the church, or faith). Addressing an infant, the presider says: “The Christian community welcomes you with great joy. In its name I claim you for Christ our Savior ….” While serious reason may lead to baptism taking place with just one family, even then, it isn’t a ‘private baptism’. There is no such thing. By its nature, baptism is public, an ecclesial act, by the church, welcoming one into the church, and building up the church, the body of Christ. That is a great thing to understand, even better to experience!

What about bringing communion to someone at home or in the hospital? It is an ecclesial act too. Someone is deputed, on behalf of the church, to bring communion from a Eucharist that was celebrated by the community, to a sister or brother who is part of the church family, to help strengthen the individual’s communion with the Lord, and with the Lord’s people, the community, the church. Very healing!

Ah: what about confession? Now there is a private sacrament. Listen closely. While the confession of sins takes place in private, the priest is present as a minister of the church, the reconciliation affected is not just about God’s forgiveness, and the individual’s conscience; it is also about being restored to right relationships, within family, church and in the world. The words of absolution are clear: “through the ministry of the church…. ” Coming into the confession, one may feel separated; leaving, one is reconnected. Not just to God’s grace, but to the body of Christ, the church.

There are ecclesial acts for the beginning of life (Baptism), for our ongoing life’s journey (Eucharist, Marriage, Orders), for times we have fallen from grace (Reconciliation), for times when we are ill (Anointing of the Sick), and for the end of life (the Funeral Mass). Pray about it! Peace, Fr. Bob

Last Week at St. Louis

May 18, 2014

Attendance ............ 1,568
Collection ............ $15,038.00

Thank you for your generous support!

Help Needed: We NEED adult teachers for our Vacation Bible School program. VBS will be June 30th through July 3rd from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm everyday. Our guarantee to you: fun, knowledge that you have given back to the community, and have done something that will touch some of our children’s lives, and a guarantee that you will not only see many smiles, but will be able to take one home with you. Please contact Sue Payne at spayne@dor.org or phone, 586-5675 if you can teach.

Dear Fr. Ring and St. Louis Parishioners,

Thank you for your most generous continuing support of Elderberry Express in the form of your contribution of $2,348. In November 2013, we provided over 194 rides to seniors who cannot drive. There were 54 volunteers who drove more than 3500 miles during this time. (Drivers logged over 38,500 miles in 2012.) These are very important trips for seniors as they get to doctor appointments, banking activities, grocery shopping, meetings at weekly senior center activities, etc.

Our efforts to provide needed transportation to senior citizens are of great importance to the Pittsford community. This needed service has given back to many of our seniors a sense of independence that was lost when they could no longer drive their own cars. The support St. Louis Parishioners have given for this worthwhile service is greatly appreciated.

Once again, I thank you for your contribution on behalf of Pittsford’s senior citizens.

Sincerely, Gilbert P. Landry, Executive Director

“Helping The Needy”

Many thanks to all who brought food last weekend to help keep the Sister Regis Food Cupboard stocked. If the third weekend of the month doesn’t always work for you to bring in food, at the entrance by the grand piano at the front of church, there is a drawer for contributions to the food cupboard where you can donate any time. There is also a basket in the Narthex near the handicap entrance for contributions of non-perishable food anytime.

Remembering With Prayer and Gratitude

Gracious God, with sadness, yet gratitude, we remember this Memorial Day the men and women who have died in the service of our nation since 1776.

Loving God, please look with mercy on our brave and selfless brothers and sisters, who did not shrink from their task but gave themselves completely to the cause of defending and protecting us all. Bless all who have given their lives for the sake of liberty, and grant them eternal rest.

We remember also our brave men and women now serving in our Armed Forces, both at home and abroad. Lord, send out your angels to protect them all. Help them discharge their duties honorably and well. Please bring them safely home to their families and loved ones.

Please bring Your peace and mercy to our troubled world. We ask this, Father, in the name of Jesus, Your Son, and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Geographical Story Line

In his Gospel, and in Acts of the Apostles, Luke often uses geography to move the story along, while making important theological points. In the Gospel, Jesus’ ministry moves around Galilee, even into Gentile territory, but at a decisive point, Jesus predicts his passion, sets his face toward Jerusalem, and begins his fateful journey there. As the Acts begin, the Apostles are gathered in Jerusalem, the center of the world for a religious Jew. With the stoning of Stephen, and subsequent persecution of followers of Jesus in Jerusalem, the community is scattered. But the tragic events were not without purpose, or a blessing: as a result, the Good News begins its journey to the ends of the earth. Today the message and faith in Jesus take hold in Samaria, the first step in outward expansion. Eventually, with Paul’s journeys, the message will spread throughout the eastern Mediterranean, and ultimately to Rome, center of the Gentile world. Yet Luke wants us to know that the community remained united – hence Peter and John affirm the mission of Philip by praying over those he had baptized. As with last week’s readings, the Spirit keeps the Hebrew speaking and Greek speaking communities in communion. Acts will later document how Jewish Christians and Gentile Christians stayed in communion. Does your spiritual journey include any geographic markers?

Baptism Part Two

The letter of Peter is quite realistic about baptism. On one hand, it outlines beautifully the union with the Lord effected in baptism, reminding us that through baptism, we become a ‘chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own.’ Yet it also reminds us that the Lord we are joined to experienced hardships and persecution, and we should be prepared for the same. We should even be prepared to at times suffer for doing good. Haven’t you experienced that in your journey?

Spiraling Deeper into the Truth

Our Gospel passage today begins and ends with loving Jesus and keeping his commandments. Yet in a style John perfected, he circles through several other themes. We hear of Jesus’ departure. He promises that he will send us an Advocate, to be with us when he is no longer physically present. He teaches about indwelling. Thus when we return to loving Jesus and keeping his commandments, we haven’t returned to exactly the same place, we have spiraled down to a deeper level and deeper understanding of that loving and keeping of commandments.

A Big Day at St. Louis

On Pentecost Sunday, the Sacrament of Holy Orders will be front and center. At the 11:00 am Mass, our Pentecost celebration will include marking the 50th Anniversary of Fr. Al Delmonte’s ordination to priesthood. A reception will follow in the gym, as we wish Father well, and thank him for his 50 years serving our diocese as a priest.

At the 5PM Mass, our Pentecost celebration will include celebrating Carlos Sánchez’ ordination to the Diaconate, and his first Mass serving as a deacon. A multicultural reception will follow, with food, music and south-of-the-border festivities. Join the celebration of Holy Eucharist, and the reception at 6:15 pm in Reddington Hall gym.

FAMILY FAITH

Pentecost and More
The Gift of the Holy Spirit

The mystery of the Trinity can be difficult for us to grasp. Today's Gospel invites us to consider how the three persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – work together so that God's salvation is made known to us. Jesus' mission is continued through the tivity of the Holy Spirit in the lives of his disciples. We have received this same Spirit through our Baptisms. The Spirit, living and working within us, reveals the mystery of God's love for us. Just as the first disciples were not left orphaned, we are not orphaned; we remain in God's embrace through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus uses the term Advocate to describe the Holy Spirit, whom the disciples will receive. Another word used to describe the Holy Spirit is Paraclete, a legal term meaning “one who offers defense for another.” Note that Jesus says that he will send “another Advocate.” Jesus himself is the first advocate, interceding for his disciples with the Father.

In today's reading Jesus contrasts his impending departure with the permanence of the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus will leave to return to the Father, but the Holy Spirit will remain with the disciples.

Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples will come to know and appreciate the unity of the Son and the Father. They will also understand that they too participate in the communion between the Father and the Son: “On that day you will realize that I am in my Father and you are in me and I in you”.

Gather your family and invite each family member to say what he or she knows about the Holy Spirit. What does Jesus say the Holy Spirit will do for the disciples? Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we come to share in the love of God made known to us in Jesus.

THE DESIRE FOR GOD

The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for:

The dignity of man rests above all on the fact that he is called to communion with God. This invitation to converse with God is addressed to man as soon as he comes into being. For if man exists, it is because God has created him through love, and through love continues to hold him in existence. He cannot live fully according to truth unless he freely acknowledges that love and entrusts himself to his creator.*
