A Prophecy Fulfilled
Right from the beginning of Luke’s two volume work (Luke-Acts), he has faithful, devoted Jews, Anna & Simeon offer prophecies about Jesus. By Gospels’ end, the prophecies are fulfilled. Early in the Acts of the Apostles, in the verses omitted in our 1st reading, Gamaliel, a wise Jewish leader and member of the Sanhedrin offers advice, a prophecy that will be fulfilled by the end of Acts. "So in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or action is of men, it will be overthrown; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found fighting against God." Did you know that in Christian tradition, Gamaliel and his son eventually converted to Christianity, were baptized by Peter and John, and that Gamaliel is venerated as a saint?

All About Worship
If anyone ever tells you “I don’t get much out of Mass”, patiently ask what they mean. Listen with love. Just saying “You only get out of it what you put in” is likely to shut the door and not open one. Instead, after listening, let them know you will think about what they said. Then, you might say “I guess I see things differently”. Our second reading, and much of the book of Revelation offer great insight into worship (and thus Mass). Worship is not about satisfying the needs, wants and personal tastes of the worshiper. It is about focusing, centering on God. Praising God for who God is and what God does. Centering on Christ; his life, death and resurrection, which is our hope and our salvation. When Revelation was written (not unlike today), there were terrible things going on in the world. Beasts and evil abounded. Believers kept focusing on God, engaging in true worship, and broke the power of evil for believers. If you decide to read through Revelation, notice how the scene constantly shifts from evil and destruction on earth, to worship and heavenly liturgy. The early chapters capture the story of chaos and suffering on earth, with brief scene shifts to worship around the throne. The proportions continually change. By book’s end, evil has been defeated, absent from the last two chapters. That structure is no accident. Think about it!

Symbols: Not Just In Apocalyptic
The Evangelist, John, was a master with symbols. Recall Peter warming himself around a charcoal fire in the Passion on Good Friday? Hmm … three denials, now we hear three opportunities to profess his love for Christ, and there is that charcoal fire again. A huge catch of fish, but the net is not torn? Jesus predicted he would not lose any of those the Father gave to him, except the one destined to betray him. Fish and bread to feed his disciples – the multiplication of the loaves and fish come to mind. And glorification? God is glorified in Jesus’ offering himself and his sacrificial death; today the risen Christ lets Peter know that his martyrdom will glorify God.

Hearing God’s Word
Did you know our church is fitted with a hearing assistance loop? If you have a hearing aid with a Telecoil setting, simply use the “T” switch; sound from the microphones will be transmitted directly to your hearing aid, without other sounds in the church being amplified and interfering. The loop covers the entire main seating area of the church. Microphones used in the sanctuary and side choir area would compromise the effectiveness of the system, so those areas have not been ‘looped’. If you do have a hearing aid and use the “T” switch, you may wish to try sitting in different areas to see where the ‘perfect’ location is for your personal hearing level.

Sharing Our Blessings

Last Call!

We are about to wrap up this year’s Catholic Ministry Appeal. If you have not yet made a contribution or pledge, please consider doing so before we make up the difference from our ordinary parish income. To those who have helped us get ever so close to our goal, THANK YOU!

Thank you for your Contributions to the Catholic Home Missions Collection Last Weekend

Many dioceses right here in the United States do not have enough priests and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training.

“I Was Hungry And You Gave Me Food”

Many thanks to all who brought in food last weekend, to help keep the Pittsford Food Cupboard stocked. If you miss the third weekend collection, food may be left anytime for Pittsford Food Cupboard. There is a drop off drawer in the entry way near the grand piano at the front of church. There is also a bin in the Narthex near the handicap door. Contributions of non-perishable food can always be donated. Thank you!
