Tell Me How!

Each year, on Good Shepherd Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, we Catholics celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Remember when Jesus said: “The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers to his harvest. (Luke 10:2)”? We should do that often, with particular fervor as we hear about shepherds and shepherding in our readings. (Jesus loved pastoral metaphors that spoke to the experience of his listeners.)

So how do we pray for vocations? Well, we can certainly start by praying “Dear Lord, in our day too, the laborers are few. Please send more priests and religious to serve your people.” Fine for a start, but I am not sure we should consider our praying done after that brief prayer!

Right before the words about praying for more laborers, Jesus urges three individuals to follow him. No excuses. Don’t put it off. Make it a priority. Immediately following, Jesus sends his disciples out, with instructions for sharing the Good News. Doesn’t that say pray about your own vocation, and how best to respond to Jesus’ call? When better than on a day when people around the world are praying about vocations? Solidarity is a great thing! To borrow a line from the Lenten ‘Little Black Books’, we can reflect on our vocation, where it has taken us thus far, where it might lead next, and then ‘spend some quiet time with the Lord’.

Still not time to quit. What about others? There are many vocations, all important. On this one day each year we are invited to focus particularly on vocations to priesthood and religious life. Praying for those who have begun the journey, seminarians, postulants and novices, would be a natural next step in prayer. Our bulletin boards at the church entrances and in the hallway by the Parish Meeting Hall have posters of the seminarians of our diocese. Praying specifically for a few by name would be most welcomed, to be sure!

But to really take the invitation seriously, get to the root of the matter. Pray for young folks who have not yet begun discerning what to do with their life. Pray that something might inspire them to consider priesthood or religious life. Do it in general, or with specific family members or others we know in mind. And then, why not get really serious? Or religious life. Do it in general, or with specific family members or others we know in mind. And then, why not get really serious? Pray for young folks who have not yet begun discerning what to do with their life. Pray that something might inspire them to consider priesthood or religious life. Do it in general, or with specific family members or others we know in mind. And then, why not get really serious? Or religious life. Do it in general, or with specific family members or others we know in mind. And then, why not get really serious? Pray for young folks who have not yet begun discerning what to do with their life. Pray that something might inspire them to consider priesthood or religious life. Do it in general, or with specific family members or others we know in mind. And then, why not get really serious?

Imagine being a young person, unsure of yourself, full of questions. Then imagine a respected adult, maybe even a parent or family member saying “You know, I see some great qualities in you. I can picture you becoming a great priest or religious. Have you ever thought about it? I’m praying the Holy Spirit will help you be open to wherever the Lord needs you.”

Just do it! Peace, Fr. Bob

Changing Course

Sure we have all heard the term ‘repent’ many times. After walking in one direction, we realize we are headed the wrong way, and we turn around. Peter’s call in our first reading: you were headed in the direction of thinking Jesus was NOT the Messiah, and you rejected him, or failed to accept that he was the one sent from God. Turn around! Don’t let those who couldn’t accept Jesus’ message lead you astray. Start following Jesus. Receive the Holy Spirit. Walk in the way of new life! Peter was preaching after Pentecost. The invitation is to us as well, as we move closer to Pentecost.

Powerful Words

The second reading today is filled with powerful phrases and images. Be patient when you suffer for doing good, this is a grace; Christ suffered for you; He returned no insult; he didn’t threaten; by his wounds you have been healed; follow in his footsteps. Pick a phrase and just spend time with it. Read the whole passage slowly several times. Imagine Peter speaking or writing specifically to you. Either way is sure to help our spiritual life. How is yours? Let Jesus through Peter enrich your spiritual life!

Hearing His Voice

How do you hear Jesus speaking to you? What do you imagine a good shepherd’s voice might sound like? Not sure? Pray with the 23rd Psalm. Ask the Lord: Lord, in a world with so much noise and distraction, help me to recognize your voice. Help me not only to hear it, but to be moved by your voice to follow you, so that, as you so deeply desire, I might have life and have it more abundantly.

Now I Can Hear!

Do you have a hearing aid? Since we added the hearing assistance loop to the main body of the church, did you give it a try! Simply use the 'T' switch, or telecoil setting on your hearing aid and find the spot in the church that is perfect for your personal hearing level (the two side chapels are not looped, as microphones in the sanctuary would interfere there). Many thanks to the benefactors who made the system possible!

On May 13, 1917, three shepherd children named Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco saw a vision of Mary who was dressed in white and holding a rosary. The apparitions continued for 6-1/2 months with Mary bringing messages of prayer, repentance and reparation to the children. Next Saturday, May 13 is the 100th Anniversary of Our Lady of Fatima and her message of peace. Jacinto and Francisco were beatified by Pope St. John Paul II on May 13, 2000. Pope Francis will canonize both children in Fatima on May 13, 2017.

SURE I CAN COUNT!

Each week, the envelopes, checks, the money so generously contributed to support the ministries of our parish needs to be counted and prepared for bank deposit. Thank you counters! There is a well-established procedure, but most important is a willingness to give time, and some facility with counting and numbers. Several of our counters have either retired after years of service, or moved out of the area. Is this a way you could give back to the Lord for his goodness to you, contributing a few hours of your time? Pray about it, and consider giving Fr. Bob or Laurie Martin, our Finance Director a call to find out more about how it works. (contact information on page 10 of this bulletin).

LAST CALL!

We are about to wrap up this year’s Catholic Ministry Appeal. If you haven’t yet made a contribution or pledge, please consider doing so before we make up the difference from our ordinary parish income. To those who have helped us get ever so close to our goal, THANK YOU!

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ST. MICHAEL’S WOODSHOP

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT MERCY BRIDGES

Mercy Bridges, a ministry of the Sisters of Mercy, provides basic literacy services and English as a second language for adults. Sisters, Associates, and friends of Mercy teach those who may not qualify for, have access to, or had success with, other literacy programs. Mercy Bridges is a ministry that serves the whole community regardless of religious faith or affiliation. Mercy Bridges is completely funded by grants and donations. Tutoring is provided on a one-on-one basis utilizing practical, real life materials. Mercy Bridges is unique in its services in that tutors, while teaching, build relationships with the learners by helping them become all that they can be. Many students live below the poverty level and do not have the means to continue their education, so free services are critical to help overcome poverty and to promote growth in the areas of employment and community involvement.

They currently have 51 tutors serving 64 learners. 33 are Basic Literacy Learners while 31 are (ESL) English as a Second Language Learners. During the ministry’s nine years of service, they have interviewed and worked with over 500 learners from the Rochester community. Their tutors work one-on-one with adult learners and are supported through workshops and chat sessions conducted by trained consultants. Their learners are immigrants, people who never finished high school, people who were professionals in their own country, as well as those wishing to increase their literacy skills. All desire to enhance this contribution to their family life and society. Several learners have gained citizenship, earned a HSE/TASC (formerly called a GED), obtained employment or earned a job promotion. New tutors are always welcome. Volunteer opportunities include maintaining their resource library, assistance with clerical tasks, grant writing, assessment of students, and events. For more information, contact, Co-Directors, Sr. Dolores Ann Stein or Sr. Katherine Ann Rappl at 585-288-2710 ext. 121.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTRIBUTION LAST WEEKEND, APRIL 29 & 30 TO THE CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS COLLECTION.

Many dioceses right here in the United States do not have enough priests and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training.

Next weekend, May 13 & 14, St. Louis will participate in a national voluntary collection for the Trinity Dome to complete the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC, before its 100th anniversary in 2020. Also known as America’s Catholic Church, the National Shrine has been a century in the making, built by and for the faithful of our great nation in honor of our Blessed Mother, the patroness of the United States. We will have clearly marked boxes available where people can place checks or an offering. Please make out your checks to St. Louis Church with “Shrine” in the memo/notes field. This is an opportunity to become a part of the legacy of our National Shrine. For more information, please visit www.trinitydome.org.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

The following are pertinent things we should know about Vocations*

What Is the Common Vocation of All Christians?* [CCC 1533:1544-1545]
The sacraments of initiation call all Christians to holiness, to be witnesses and servants of Christ's gospel. They give the graces we need to live Christ-like lives for others. Baptism and confirmation moreover, initiate each of us into the common priesthood of the faithful. By definition a priest is an intermediary between God and people. Jesus, of course, is the mediator par excellence, the one mediator between God and us. When we are joined to Jesus in baptism we share in his priestly function, that is, we are his servants helping in his work of salvation. The Lord commissions all members of his body to preach the good news of salvation. We do this through prayer, loving service of others, healing and reconciliation, acts of justice and mercy shown to the poor and oppressed, and through any work on behalf of God's kingdom.

What Is the Function of the Ordained Ministry?* [CCC 1546-1547]
Although all baptized Christians are called to ministry and to share in the priesthood of Jesus Christ, there is a need in the Christian community for certain members of the Lord's body to "minister to the ministers." The Christian community is also an organization; it needs order, fixed structures, clearly defined duties, and visible leaders to organize the massive efforts necessary to carry on Christ's mandate to preach and to live the gospel to the very ends of the earth. Ordained ministers serve in one of the structured ministries of the church; they are entrusted with leading the church through a special ministry of service to the Christian community and by extension to the whole world. The ministerial priesthood is essentially different from the common priesthood of the faithful. Its main function is to help unfold the baptismal graces of all Christians.

What Is the Sacrament of Holy Orders?* [CCC 1536-1538; 1548-1553; 1591-1592]
It is through the sacrament of holy orders that Christ Jesus continues the ministry he entrusted to the apostles. Through the service of ordained ministers, especially that of bishops and priests, Christ himself becomes visibly present to the church as its head and high priest of his redemptive sacrifice. Furthermore, the ministerial priesthood also acts in the name of the whole church when worshipping God on behalf of the church.

By means of ordination the Lord consecrates certain men to one of three degrees of a sacred order: episcopacy (bishops), presbyterate (priests), and diaconate (deacons). The sacrament of holy orders confers a gift of the Holy Spirit that allows those ordained to exercise a "sacred power" on behalf of Christ for his church.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the priesthood of the faithful and the ministerial priesthood (ordained ministers) are interrelated. Each of them participates in a special way in the Lord's own priesthood.

The ministerial priest, by the sacred power he enjoys, molds and rules the priestly people. Acting in the person of Christ, he brings about the Eucharistic sacrifice, and offers it to God in the name of all the people. For their part, the faithful join in the offering of the Eucharist of their royal priesthood. They likewise exercise that priesthood by receiving the sacraments, by prayer and thanksgiving, by the witness of a holy life, and by self-denial and active charity (Church in the Modern World, 10).

Bishops, priests, and deacons must proclaim and teach God's word to all people, lead the Christian community in worship, and rule God's people by imitating Jesus' model of humble service.
