Advent

The beginning of the Church’s new year is birthed in darkness. The light of day grows short. In the lengthening night we cry out, prisoners of the past, comfortable in what is known. It is not easy leaving aside the old. Endings and the end things are always frightening. In the darkness and shadows we face our deepest fears. Wondering, watching, waiting, we hold on in hope.

This old year must give way to the new, the unknown. This year, this time, will the dawn slip across the horizon?

For, in the rising sun, the light is born, shattering the dark. In the morning, light our hearts, stretch to grasp the new.

Then the full light of the Son will reveal this is not the end—only another beginning.

~ Carol A. Gura

During these four weeks of Advent, reflect and pray upon your leaving behind the past to make space to birth a new way of life.

Sunday Communion Service - December 4
The Highlands - Richard Caruso  Heather Heights - Jim Haefner
Preparing the Way:
First Sunday of Advent

1st Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5
_They shall beat their swords into plowshares_

2nd Reading: Romans 13:11-14
_The hour to wake from sleep_

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44
_Stay awake, be prepared_

Envisioning the End Times
As we enter Advent, we hear from Isaiah, the prophet most quoted in the New Testament. We will hear from this great prophet throughout Advent, and into the Christmas Season. Today’s reading illustrates why. During Advent, we begin with some focus on the coming of the Lord at the end of time, but then move into preparing to celebrate the birth of Christ, celebrating the joy of Emmanuel, God with us. Sections of Isaiah are among the most joyful passages to be found in the Old Testament. While some pictured ‘the day of the Lord’, the end times, as a time of doom and destruction, Isaiah has a much different focus. For him, in the days to come, nations will stream to the restored and renewed Jerusalem, Mt. Zion and temple. While Isaiah doesn’t write judgement out of the picture; rather, the judgement is not doom and destruction, but an end to war, and taking the resources used for war and turning them into tools to help feed all people. Walking in the light of the Lord … a good thing to contemplate as we enter into Advent! Do you have any swords or spears tucked away that could be beat into plowshares and pruning hooks. Think about it!

The Armor of Light
The movie _The Armor of Light_ pulled its title right out of today’s second reading. After hearing St. Paul tells us today to put on the armor of light, you may want to watch the movie. It raises a critical question. Is it possible to be pro-gun and pro-life? Not a soundbite, the movie explores our nation’s gun culture through a moral lens, examining our fractured culture, yet providing hope. It is possible for folks to find common ground, even through explosive differences. But back to St. Paul: it is time to wake from sleep, throw off deeds of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Spend time asking in prayer: “Lord, help me see deeds of darkness for what they are. Help me throw off any that have crept into my life. Help me see how to put on the armor of light, that is, to put on Christ. Show me practical ways to walk in the light, protected by light.”

Stay Awake
How would you explain the meaning of this weekend’s Gospel to someone who has no knowledge of the Bible or of the faith? As I thought about it, I would probably say “well, we should always be prepared for the Lord to reach out to us, to come to us in our struggles, or challenge us in our complacencies.” But next it would be important to make clear, this is not about being physically awake, it is about being spiritually awake. That’s the easy part. The more difficult? How would you describe being spiritually awake? That is a key focus as we begin Advent. Give it some thought and prayer. Better yet, find someone you can have a discussion with to help sort out your understanding! That would be a good way to prepare!

Looking Ahead:
Second Sunday of Advent

1st Reading: Isaiah 11:1-10
_The wolf shall be a guest of the lamb_

2nd Reading: Romans 15:4-9
_The encouragement of the scriptures lead to hope_

Gospel: Matthew 3:1-12
_Prepare the way of the Lord_

Join us for “Candlelight Night” in Pittsford, December 6th, from 5:00-8:00pm. Find our parish table on the northeast corner of Main and State where we will offer the community hot chocolate and donut holes. Members of the St. Louis School Glee club will be singing close by on the steps of Tom Hartzell’s Law Office. We will have invitations to our next series of Discovering Christ and will be selling Christmas ornaments to benefit Fr. Rick Frechette’s efforts at St. Damien Pediatric Hospital in Haiti. As the Year of Mercy closes, this outreach to the community demonstrates that mercy continues to be a part of life at St. Louis Church.

Unwrap That Gift!
The Bible, God’s Word, is a tremendous gift to us. Don’t leave it sitting unwrapped! How do we unwrap it? Pick up your copy of _At Home with the Word_. You know how you make sure a gift from someone you love is in a special place? Put _At Home with the Word_ in a special place. Unwrap and enjoy God’s gift!

You Are The Best!
Thank you to all who have already made their pledge to our annual Catholic Ministries Appeal. We are over halfway to our goal, ahead of where we were this time last year. We are blessed to be a part of a diocese that makes a difference in so many people’s lives. Help support those ministries by making a generous pledge today!

I Want To Be More Involved
Our new parish ministries resource folder has been in process for quite some time. Complete now, it is a folder with pages outlining the various facets of parish life, ministries offered here, ways to be involved, and contact numbers. Pick one up soon.

There will be a second collection this weekend, November 26 & 27 for the support of Catholic University and other American Catholic Higher Education Institutions.

Ending the Year Well
We are deeply thankful for every contribution to St. Louis of Pittsford, no matter how large or small; we deeply appreciate your generosity and faith filled commitment to our ministries! Many people choose to make year-end gifts and donations. If you do, in addition to a contribution to the parish, please seriously consider a generous contribution to our Catholic Ministry Appeal (CMA) if you have not yet made a pledge. We really would love to reach our goal before Epiphany - it would be an Epiphany! Here are two important things to keep in mind:
- If your intention is to make a stock donation, please contact Birdie Proctor at the Ministry Center, 586-5675, for further details.
- Per IRS regulations, any contributions for 2016 will need to be received by December 31, 2016.

Do not neglect hospitality, For through it some have Unknowingly entertained Angels. Hebrews 13:2

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT HOMEBOY INDUSTRIES

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ST. DAMIEN PEDIATRIC HOSPITAL - HAITI

St. Damien Pediatric Hospital is Haiti’s only children’s hospital free to the indigent, located near Port-au-Prince founded by our parish friend, Fr. Rick Frechette, Passionist Priest and physician.

One-third of Haiti’s population is under 14 years old. Due to malnutrition and cholera, pneumonia yearly kills 4,000 Haitian children under the age of 5. Zika virus is further compounding Haiti’s usual systemic poor health conditions.

Now add to this:
The 4+ months of the national doctors’ strike. Government hospitals are closed. Not-for-profit St. Damien Pediatric Hospital works steadily and efficiently to fill the huge gap. Since the strike began, Fr. Rick’s St. Damien Pediatric Hospital has had a 20% increase in both ambulatory and general pediatric care, 9% increase in emergencies and a 73% increase in surgeries. They need our help and our prayers.

AND please view the St. Louis website and elsewhere in this bulletin to see how you can further help as you do your Christmas shopping.
Generosity

Thanksgiving Blessings
Many thanks to all who brought in non-perishable food and paper products to the Thanksgiving Day Mass for the Pittsford Food Cupboard and the cloistered Carmelite nuns at their Jefferson Road Monastery. Your generosity to share your abundance with others is appreciated very much. We are also grateful and give thanks to those who took time from their holiday weekend to deliver the items.

Blue Christmas
On Tuesday, December 13th at 7PM we will be holding a Blue Christmas’ prayer service. Despite the joyful sights and sounds of Christmas, for many folks, Christmas can surface some deep sadness. It may be the first Christmas without a loved one. Or perhaps one very dear to us has been gone for longer, but the pain of Christmas without them is still there. It may be some other loss, or broken relationship. Perhaps a loved one is overseas, and not able to be ‘home for Christmas’. Come to a peaceful, prayerful, healing time of prayer this Advent. Pray with others who know why a bit of blue is part of Christmas this year. If you were not able to make the All Souls Remembrance Mass, this may be a perfect prayer service for you. Or perhaps you know someone who could really use some quiet, peaceful, healing time of prayer. Invite them and bring them on the 13th. All are welcome.

Stewardship in Action - In Their Own Words
"Practice, practice, practice", "if you want to get better you need to practice". Who hasn't heard that growing up and even as an adult. Doesn't sound like much fun, takes a lot of time and seems as if talent really isn't in the mix. Does it sound more like drudgery? Maybe, but when I am using my God-given talent in a way that I love, it isn't work at all. It becomes, for me, a time of prayer. When I sing, there is a peace and a oneness that fills me and I know that I am part of something special. It is joyous fun and hard work at times, too. But, I am using the gift I was given and sharing it and that is a wonderful thing. I also know that, despite my mistakes, it enhances the worship of us all. In a very real way, I cannot not use this gift; the music wells up in my soul and, just as with Jeremiah, I must use the gift, I must let it out. It wasn't given to be horded but to be shared and so I give of my Time and of my Talent. How can I not when it gives me a glimpse, only a pale reflection really, of the true music which awaits?

Little Blue Books
Who would think that six minutes a day could change your whole experience of Advent? Yet read the odds and ends about saints and various traditions on the left side of the page, work your way through the infancy narrative of Luke's Gospel, and spend some time with the Lord, and you will be amazed at what advent can become in your life! Pick up a little blue book and keep it handy every day!

SAINT’S PLACE
ANGEL TREES ARE HERE!
The true spirit of Christmas is giving and sharing. Saint’s Place gives new items to each arriving family – household items, clothing, food gift cards, and so much more throughout the year. Over 1,200 gifts were donated last year through our Angel Tree. These items, large or small, generously donated by you, bring such happiness to the recipients. They are so appreciative. Without your generosity this would not be possible.

Last year our supply of new items lasted until August.
That was an awesome feat! This year we are hoping to increase the number of gifts, so we will be able to give a few new items to families that arrive even in the Fall of 2017.

This past fiscal year, Saint’s Place has assisted a record number of 950 newly arrived refugees. Thank you for helping provide Christmas miracles all year long.

Got Calendars?
At this time of year, we all seem to receive unsolicited calendars from charities, home services, etc. Rather than throw them out – please save them for Saint’s Place to be part of our household setups for refugee families. They are happy to receive a calendar.
The calendars can be put in the Saint’s Place drawer in the north entrance (piano side) of church. Thank you

PREPARING FOR THE CHRIST CHILD

An Advent tradition at St. Louis is to make available addresses of those individuals from our parish who are homebound or in area nursing facilities. Baskets containing these addresses will be at each entrance throughout Advent. You are invited to take one or several addresses and send an Advent/Christmas greeting to the individual.

Each year we receive many, many notes of appreciation from the recipients who are delighted to have been remembered by so many people. It is truly a highlight of their Christmas holiday. Thank you for helping us to continue this joy-filled tradition.

On our 23rd Anniversary of the Men’s Spirituality Group, we invite any man in this parish to join us in the Manse Monday mornings at 6:30 a.m. We have a one hour discussion of the first reading and gospel message for the coming Sunday and its relationship to our personal and professional lives. Light refreshments are served. Discussion leaders are rotated, encouraging many points of view to be aired. We look forward to meeting you!

Jeff Mason, Facilitator, 381-5534

Twenty years ago Rev. Gregory Boyle, SJ founded Homeboy Industries in the heart of one of the most economically deprived areas of Los Angeles. He started businesses there such as landscaping, silk screening, a bakery and a restaurant, hiring unskilled workers, including gang members. Homeboy Industries is now the largest gang intervention, re-hab and re-entry program in the nation. Author of New York Times bestseller “Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion”, he has received numerous honorary degrees, awards and recognitions including the Civic Medal of Honor. St. Louis is helping sponsor this presentation through a tithing contribution to Homeboy Industries. Please come and discover what we can do to bring hope into the city! Fr. Gregory Boyle will also speak on Wednesday, November 30th at the Church of the Assumption in Fairport at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome.
