We Remember

I remember vividly. Mom, Dad and I were talking about 5 or 6 years ago, and the topic of funerals came up. Mom was all about keeping it simple. “I don’t want to have calling hours or a service, it’s too much on everyone. Just some simple prayers at the cemetery.” I offered how valuable calling hours and a funeral can be to family and friends, tucking in my mind that we should have a more serious conversation in the future. But life moved too fast. The conversation didn’t happen, mom died unexpectedly, so dad, my sisters and I sat with the funeral director to sort things out. Very simple plans had been registered, but we all knew that for our sake, for that of mom’s many friends, and out of love for her, we had to have calling hours, and a funeral service.

The new pastor of First Baptist Church in Delmar didn’t know mom as granddaughter of a founder of the congregation, life-long organist, oft times Sunday school superintendent, and pillar of the church. He barely knew her at all. We decided I would conduct the funeral, inviting him to offer a closing Benediction. It was a hybrid service, structured largely from elements of our Catholic Order of Christian Funerals, but with modifications, so that mom’s Baptist minister and our many Baptist and Methodist friends and family members would feel at home, able to grieve without distraction. For instance, the Ave Maria is my signature funeral mediation piece, a powerful prayer for me. But planning services is a vital time for reliving memories. I recalled mom telling me one day: “Every Sunday after church, no matter what I play, Mr. Levin Lowe tells me I played his favorite song. I played Ave Maria for the first time, and he made sure to tell me ‘that wasn’t my favorite’.” Many Baptists are afraid to give any honor to Mary, or to enjoy all that a relationship with her can bring – it’s too Catholic. OK, it’s Precious Lord, not Ave Maria.

Gathering with family and friends at the wake was a tremendous comfort. Sharing memories, hearing other’s experiences of mom, their condolences. The funeral service was also clearly the right thing for everyone. I am sure mom understands. The meal afterward. Celebrating Masses for mom back here at St. Louis (thank you again to all who sent Mass cards!). So healing and consoling.

It’s November. Have the conversation! Find out more about our Catholic funeral rites – the rites truly get it right, among the most beautiful and effective of our liturgies. The Funeral Mass brings Jesus, his love, his mercy, the power of his resurrection, his loving presence in the Eucharist to what can be a very emotional, disorienting and painful time. Our funeral rites – wakes, the funeral Mass, prayers at the cemetery – are all tremendously helpful to the unavoidable journey of grief. We Believe. We Belong. We Remember, with Jesus at our side. What peace that brings! Peace to you all, Fr. Bob

SPECIAL INTENTIONS
We invite you to have a Sanctuary Lamp lit at the Blessed Sacrament to have your very special intentions remembered for a week.
To arrange this, please call or visit the Ministry Center. The Thursday Holy Hour Ministry will offer special prayers for your intention.

Light a Candle for Me
So go the lyrics of an inspiration song by Avalon. Their encouragement is wider though: Light a candle for the children who need more than presents can bring … for the hungry, the home-less, the broken and the forgotten.
We Believe. We Belong. We Remember our own, and those who have no one to light a candle for them.

Requiem Aeternam

Felipe Martinez

Please pray for all of those inscribed in our Book of Remembrance.

Saturday & Sunday, November 15 and 16
Thank you, faithful servants!

Sunday Communion Service - November 16
The Highlands: Richard Caruso Heather Heights: Darlene Huver
The Mother Church

Seeing St. Peter’s in Rome so often in the media, backdrop to glorious canonizations, papal elections, audiences, special liturgies with the Holy Father presiding; no wonder few folks can name the true cathedral church for the Diocese of Rome. Like all Popes, Pope Francis is the Bishop of Rome; St. John Lateran Basilica is actually Rome’s Cathedral. The Latin inscription above this church: ‘This is the mother and head of all churches in the whole world’. So the Dedication of St. Peter’s is not a feast marked throughout the world, but the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is. We Believe. We Belong. We Remember our roots, our mother church, its dedication, and the unity we share with every Catholic in the world.

Preparing for Next Weekend:
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31
She reaches her hands to the poor

2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
You are children of the light

Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30
Returning with increase

The Gospel Connection

Yes, next weekend’s first reading is included among the choices for a wedding, or for the funeral of a loving wife. But it is paired with our Gospel next week because the wife being praised uses her gifts generously, for others. Not only does she provide for family and home, but she is ‘reaching out her hands to the poor, and extending her arms to the needy.’ Good stewardship!

At Home with the Word

We Believe that the scriptures are God’s precious gift to us. To put a more positive spin on St. Jerome’s famous quote, ‘ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ’, We Believe knowledge of scripture is knowledge of Christ. We Belong to a community formed by the scriptures, where the Word is proclaimed at every Mass. For that reason, we make available At Home with the Word, so you can prepare in advance to hear what will be proclaimed at Mass, and pray with the scriptures during the week. Please Remember to keep At Home with the Word in a special place, and use it throughout the year!

MEET Rev. Mr. Kevin Carges and LEARN more about Catholic Relief Services

Deacon Kevin Carges will be visiting St. Louis Church next weekend, November 15 - 16. Deacon Kevin is part of a national effort, through Catholic Relief Services, to raise awareness of the poor overseas. CRS is our official international relief and development agency, assisting the poor and vulnerable in 100 countries on our behalf, and that of fellow Catholics throughout the US. In preparation for our Holiday Bazaar Fair Trade sale after all masses that weekend, Deacon Kevin will shine a spotlight on how purchasing Fair Trade items can change lives and futures in the third world. He will also be updating us on CRS efforts in the Ebola crisis. Let’s give him a warm welcome!

Children’s Books

In the Narthex, and in each of the side entrances of the church, you can find a basket with a variety of children’s books. If your little one is getting fidgety at Mass and you are caught without a book on hand, these are available to borrow for just that very situation!

When we come together for Mass, we truly are a temple of the Spirit, God dwelling right here! Thank you for believing, belonging, remembering; thank you for embodying the dream we hear in Ezekiel today. We come to the water, blessing ourselves and remembering our baptism as we enter the church. Then, after we pray and praise, offer and receive, we are sent forth. The little trickle of water flows out, grows deeper and deeper, and God's love and mercy, grace and life flow out to our families, our schools, our neighborhoods; to every place we carry it. See you next week!

As you heard last week, we will be keeping our Catholic Ministries Appeal brief this year, by asking you to respond as generously and as soon as you can. Remember, this appeal is also a vital part of our vision of building the Kingdom of God. What could be better than 100% participation! Let’s reach the top of the thermometer before Christmas, celebrate the accomplishment, and then move on to the many other important tasks of being a community and living as a community. To all who have already given, God Bless You!!

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTION

THIS WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ANGEL CARE

NEXT WEEK’S TITHING WILL SUPPORT ST. JOSEPH’S HOUSE OF HOSPITALITY

St. Joseph's House of Hospitality practices all of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy because it was established upon the belief of the God-given dignity of every person. Seven days a week, it provides a hot meal to about 100 people (mostly homeless), clothing, overnight shelter from the winter cold and the summer heat, ecumenical spiritual care, and genuine hospitality.

The Catholic Worker movement was founded in New York City by Dorothy Day in 1933 and arrived in Rochester shortly thereafter. Located at 402 South Ave., “St. Joe's” is one of 185 Catholic Worker communities in the USA. It not only provides immediate help, but also works with the indigent to transition from the devastating effects of substance abuse into a stable lifestyle. Some St. Joe guests become capable of moving on into the Dorothy Day House across the street or into Alex House on Alexander St. It must be incredible to be offered help for a fresh start in life.

With no outside funding, St. Joe's relies totally on the generosity of the local Greater Rochester Community. We are part of that community on whom they rely, although they never ask us.

To carry on their awesome work, they need: prayers, money to buy the basic essentials for their guests, money to maintain the 3 buildings, and money to pay the small stipend to the interns who staff the facility. They need volunteers of all ages around mealtime to help prepare and serve meals and to offer hospitality to anyone who attends. They could use some tradespeople to rehab the 3 buildings, some drivers for migrant outreach projects, English language tutors, and bread bakers and deliverers. To volunteer call: 232-3262 or email st.joes@frontier.com. More info at www.saintjoeshouse.org

Dear Friends at St. Louis Church,

Thank you for your tithing donation of $2612.00 to the Rochester Area Interfaith Hospitality Network on May 1, 2014. Your support strengthens the organization and we are most grateful. We are very thankful, too that St. Louis is also a RAIHN Support congregation giving volunteers to help the program run. As our community struggles with all the effects of a downturn in the economy, it is the financial support and generosity of congregations, like yours, that help us serve the needs of impoverished families.

RAIHN is an affiliate of Family Promise, a national network with over 182 affiliates like ours all over the USSA. Thank you again for your generous donation to RAIHN. When we count our blessings, we count our wonderful donors who make this work possible. We appreciate all you do. Thank you for being an angel of RAIHN.

Bill Tierney, Chairman Kim Hunt-Uzelac, LMSW

REMEMBERING NYS FALLEN MILITARY
As we celebrate Veteran’s Day, let us not forget to remember the NYS military that have died in the Iraq and Afghanistan wars. Unfortunately we can not provide histories of all the 300+ NYS service persons who sacrificed their lives for our freedom. You can honor them by adding the name of any deceased service person in our Book of Remembrance in the sanctuary.

The Book of Remembrance is now in its honored place in the sanctuary. You are still welcome to enter names of any deceased you wish to remember for this community of faith to lift in prayer to God throughout the month of November.

PASTORAL CARE COMMITTEE
The Pastoral Care Committee will be meeting in the Parish Meeting Hall on Thursday, November 20 at 9:30 a.m. to discuss upcoming activities for Advent including the cards for the homebound and poinsettia flower delivery, ministry to the homebound, and the bereavement ministry. In addition, we will review our special All Souls' Day Mass and reception. Our meetings are very short usually about an hour and are held 4 times a year. Our committee always welcomes new members. For more information, please contact Cris Wensel at: cwensel@dor.org or crissw@yahoo.com or Peggy O'Neil Midgley at pomidgley@yahoo.com or call 383-8879.

Mass of Remembrance – All are welcome to Ascension Garden for their annual Mass of Remembrance, this year, celebrated by Bishop Emeritus Matthew Clark on November 15 at 8:30 AM. Ascension Garden is located at 1900 Pinnacle Rd. Henrietta, NY 14467. You are by all means welcome to attend and pray for deceased loved ones, even if they are not buried at Ascension Garden!

Out of the Box
Why does the church have an interest in Fair Trade? To get us thinking 'out of the box', more deeply than our consumer driven culture would like. Our church, our faith tells us that profit is but only economic criteria. Justice, and the right of all God’s people to earn a living wage for the work that they do is a God given right. Box stores negotiate the lowest price possible from producers, so that 'mark up' gives the greatest profit possible to shareholders. Good for investors, not for the poor trying to put food on the family table. Fair Trade, like One World Goods, or our Holiday Bazaar and Fair Trade Sale gives artisans access to consumers, without cut-throat middlemen. We Believe in justice. We Belong to the family of all God's children. We Remember that our shopping decisions have an impact on our brothers and sisters. See you at the Sale!

Baptism Congratulations!!!
We rejoice with these families who have brought their children to be initiated into the faith of our Church community. May God’s love & light grow ever stronger within them, and may their families always be a place of blessing.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults…RCIA
Bringing people into a relationship with Christ, into the community of faith, and into the sacramental life of our church is why we are here! The RCIA is the process for welcoming adults into the Roman Catholic Church. Whether a person has never been baptized, has been baptized in another church but wishes to become Catholic, or was baptized Catholic, but never was fully initiated (being confirmed and receiving 1st Eucharist), we have a process to help with the next steps, leading to life in Christ, community, and all that the Lord offers us through the sacraments. Even if you are not sure if you are ready for the next step in a journey of faith, it doesn’t hurt to learn how it works! If you are interested in learning more about this process, please contact Father Bob or call the office.

Hi Teens,

This week we celebrate Veterans’ Day to honor all the brave men and women who have served in our nation’s military to protect our rights and safety. Since the birth of the United States, men and women have courageously answered the call to protect the weak and vulnerable and defend the ideals of freedom and justice.

There are a few special Veterans I will be honoring this week. Both of my grandfathers, Jim Borden and Matt McBride, served in World War II, in France and in Japan. My husband, Ryan was a soldier in the US Army and served in Iraq. The courage and selflessness of these men has inspired me and our family. God calls us to act with these same values in our everyday lives. I believe the best way to honor Veterans is to continue their efforts to defend the weak, stand loyal beside our fellow man and work for peace! Consider what small actions you could take to make our community more peaceful this week! Join us for a Youth Group meeting! We'd love to get to know you!

Have a great week!

Molly Hickey (Mr. McBride's Daughter)

Help Your Marriage – Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi) simply means “rediscovery.” This program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse and a loving relationship in your marriage. Sometimes bad things happen in the best relationships – car accidents, depression, severe illness, death in the family. These things can affect your marriage. Tens of thousands of couples headed for trouble have successfully saved their marriages by attending Retrouvaille. Couples are never asked to share about their problems, but they will learn to communicate with their spouse about their difficulties. For confidential information about or to register for the Fall program beginning with a weekend at Notre Dame Retreat House on November 14-16, 2014, please call 585-293-1552 or visit the web site at www.HelpOurMarriage.com.
THANKSGIVING” AND “PIE”!

A holiday pie sale is again being conducted to raise funds for our next and sixth Habitat house project in 2016 as a member of Habitat Interfaith Partnership (HIP). Like last year, pies are prepared by Kelly’s Farm Market of Hilton. They grow the fruit, so the pies have the freshest ingredients. These extra deep 10” homemade fruit pies, made from scratch without preservatives, weigh approximately 4 ½ lbs., provide 8 to 10 generous servings and are absolutely delicious! The pie selections include Apple Crumb, Apple-Raspberry, Pumpkin, and Christmas Crumb (Apple, Cranberry, & Pineapple), selling for $16.00 each. An Apple Crisp with no crust sells for $12.00. These pies freeze well so consider ordering for both Thanksgiving and Christmas!

Orders will be taken in the Narthex before and following all masses this weekend. Ordered pies will be available for pick-up Tuesday, November 25, 2 days prior to Thanksgiving. This has been a popular fund raiser and profitable since we earn about 40% from each sale. Thanks to all who help fund our next Habitat house project through our pie sale. You are making a difference in the lives of many people, one family at a time. Call Bob or Rosemary Scholl (585-381-3760) with any questions regarding the pies. (New for this year, we are opening up our pie sale to businesses and corporations who would like to order pies for a Christmas time delivery. These orders will likewise be taken during November, and the pies can be delivered directly to the business’s address. If interested, please call Bob or Rosemary Scholl for further information.)

Look for us next weekend, November 15 & 16, at the St. Louis Holiday Bazaar in the Reddington Hall Gym.
