Who Was Amelek?

According to the biblical tradition, Amelek was a descendant of Esau (Jacob’s brother, whom he tricked into selling his birthright). His descendants, the Amalekites were traditional enemies of Israel. But that isn’t essential to finding the spiritual message in this passage.

The staff Moses held was the same one he used in his encounters with Pharaoh, and that he used to strike the rock to give water to the people, but you don’t need to know that to get the point either.

Just picture Moses. He is tired. There were the confrontations with Pharaoh. Leading the people through the desert. Holding up his hands isn’t meant to be magic. It’s a way to say that he was praying and interceding for the people. But he was aging and weary. Even the great Moses needed help. He couldn’t sustain the needed prayer on his own, so he leaned on Aaron and Hur.

Have you ever been too tired to pray? Have you ever held up another person in prayer when they couldn’t pray? Then you understand what the mountain, and Moses, Aaron & Hur are telling us.

St. Jerome and Beyond

St. Jerome quoted St. Paul, “Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.” From there, he went on to say: “If the man who does not know Scripture does not know the power and wisdom of God, then ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” Our second reading this weekend builds on that, telling us: “All Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.” How equipped are you? Keep reading the scripture page in the bulletin. Use At Home with the Word on a regular basis, especially if for some reason you have to miss a Sunday Mass. Come to one of the Bible studies here at St. Louis. Lots of ways to get equipped, and, through knowledge of Scripture, to grow in knowledge of Christ! (A few weeks before Advent, we will be distributing the copies of At Home with the Word for the coming liturgical year. Perhaps using it regularly would be a good Advent resolution!)

Persistence

The judge in our Gospel today certainly is not an image of God, for he is pretty indifferent and uncaring, the opposite of God. So the point of the Gospel is not that we need to wear God down. Rather, it is simply that we need to stay with prayer, growing in persistence, not give up. Why? Because in time change does come about, in us, and in those around us. Prayer invites the action of God into our lives and the lives of others, removing the obstacle to God’s will for us and for our well-being.

Looking Ahead:

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18
The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds

2nd Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18
The Lord stood by me and gave me strength

‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner’

Are You More “Mercy Minded”?

As this Extraordinary Year of Mercy comes to an end, are you more “mercy minded”? Please join Fr. Jacek Mazur and Rick Paolini at St. Louis Church in Pittsford on Wednesday November 9th where we will look more deeply into the significance of God’s mercy in our world and in our lives. We are called to be “mercy minded” not for just for one day or one year. Whether you are a student of The Divine Mercy Devotion as revealed to St. Maria Faustina by Jesus or not, you will not want to miss this presentation “Divine Mercy a Way of life”. We look forward to seeing you November 9th at 7 pm at St. Louis Church, 64 S. Main Street, Pittsford NY. For more information call 586-5675.

Next week, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Its theme this year is “Mercy Changes the World.” Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay teachers serve some of the poorest of the poor. PLEASE KEEP THE Missions in your prayers and be generous in next week’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
I Would Love To Do That!
Have any experience in grant writing? We already write for grants for Saint’s Place, recently applied for one for Faith Formation, and have also applied for various school grants. With a little more help, we could probably even apply for, and get additional funding for various programs here at St. Louis. Is this an area you know well? Isabel Miller, Fran Barr, Laurie Martin or Fr. Bob would love to hear from you!

In Lieu of Flowers
It is a simple way to honor a deceased loved one’s memory, supporting what was important to them. Inviting people, in lieu of flowers, to make a contribution to St. Louis Church, or School, or Saints Place is a great way let folks know what your mom or dad or other loved one truly valued.

Sister Stan Terese Mario Mumuni is a Ghanaian national who has worked as a missionary in West Africa for over 18 years. Her dream was to establish a new orphanage to care for the “spirit children” of her local region of Northern Ghana. With almost 8 acres of land and the blessing of both her Bishop and the local Muslim village chief, Sister Stan and the Marian Sisters of Eucharistic Love were able to design and raise funds for a new orphanage, which is now complete.

The Catholic Diocese of Yendi is a very rural diocese in the North-eastern corner of Ghana. Poverty is the lot of the people of Northern Ghana, and the majority of the people are illiterate. There is just one primary school and one health clinic to serve over 5000 people in this diocese. One of the most commonly held traditional beliefs of this area is that a child who is born with any physical deformity or disability, and also twins, are automatically "spirit children", i.e., children who are bad omens for the family and the community at large. These children are traditionally killed. Sister Stan describes her response to this evil: "We give ourselves to God for the service of persons who are poor. We meet the needs of our dehumanized brothers and sisters, the most abandoned, the marginalized, and those cut off from the sunlight of human companionship in our large human family. We are called to the vocation of love."

What greater act of love can one make than to give oneself wholly and entirely for the relief of the afflicted? To fulfill her dream of operating a new orphanage and caring for the "spirit children" of Northern Ghana, a new Religious Congregation called Marian Sisters of Eucharistic Love (MASEL) was established. Visit www.sisterstanschildren.org and find them at www.facebook.com/SisterStansChildren for the latest news.

Mayday! Mayday! Mayday!

Saint's Place has experienced a great surge in refugees, particularly refugees with very large families. Last week, we assisted a family of twelve. Our clothing closet desperately needs MEN’S winter coats (small, medium, large), WOMEN’S winter coats (small, medium, large) and CHILDREN’S winter coats (small, medium, large). We also need GLOVES for men, women and children. Please leave them on the back porch of Saint's Place.

Every time we ask St. Louis Parishioners for help, you are there for Saint's Place. Your generous response to our call for sheets was absolutely amazing. At one point, I could not find my desk!!!

Bless all of you for your generosity.

PRAYER FOR MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

Lord Jesus, when you multiplied the loaves and fishes, you provided more than food for the body, you offered us the gift of yourself, the gift which satisfies every hunger and quenches every thirst!

Your disciples were filled with fear and doubt, but you poured out your love and compassion on the migrant crowd, welcoming them as brothers and sisters.

Lord Jesus, today you call us to welcome the members of God’s family who come to our land to escape oppression, poverty, persecution, violence, and war. Like your disciples, we too are filled with fear and doubt and even suspicion. We build barriers in our hearts and in our minds.

Lord Jesus, helps us by your grace,
- To banish fear from our hearts, that we may embrace each of your children as our own brother and sister;
- To welcome migrants and refugees with joy and generosity, while responding to their many needs;
- To realize that you call all people to your holy mountain to learn the ways of peace and justice;
- To share of our abundance as you spread a banquet before us;

To give witness to your love for all people, as we celebrate the many gifts they bring.

We praise you and give you thanks for the family you have called together from so many people. We see in this human family a reflection of the divine unity of the one Most Holy Trinity in whom we make our prayer: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.
Fall Cleanup Help Needed

The garden beds on the St. Louis grounds need to be trimmed and otherwise “tucked in” for the winter. Leaves will need to be raked. We are looking for volunteers on Saturday, October 29 and Saturday, November 12 from 9:00 am – 12 noon. Come for the morning or come for an hour. Anything will be a big help. If any high school student needs service hours, we are happy to provide the documentation. Bring your favorite rakes, blowers and gloves. Refreshments will be provided. Call Sally @ 586-5675, ext. 235 or email sschrecker@dor.org.

Angels Needed Now:

If you are one of those women who like to iron and have a willingness to serve our Lord in a special way, this request is for you. Come join a group of holy and humble women who maintain the purificators used to wipe the chalice at Mass. You have seen the cloth that is used when you receive the Blood of Christ. Please consider making a sacrifice by giving one week of your time once a year to assist. Please phone Marie Vasile at 248-0064. Thank you!

Those who sow in tears will reap with cries of joy.
Psalm 126:5

Children's Interfaith Weekend
This weekend we join congregations from many faith traditions in the greater Rochester area and around the nation celebrating the Children's Interfaith Weekend. With others, we pray for our children, especially those who are most vulnerable, and take action on their behalf. We live in a community with unconscionable levels of poverty and school failure, and we can all be part of making life better for Rochester's children and families. We encourage you to join in the offering of letters to our County Executive, Cheryl Dinolfo, asking for an increase in the allotment to the county budget for child care subsidies. If you did not sign a letter in the narthex, find one on our website. Visit thechildrensagenda.org for more information.

Bible Study on the Gospel of Matthew

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is an exciting study that explores the life and mission of Jesus as recorded in the Gospel. Matthew demonstrates how the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament are fulfilled in Christ as the awaited Messiah who relives the life and struggles of Israel to become the faithful and victorious King. Set in the rich context of Jesus' Jewish culture, this study will help participants understand who Jesus is and what his life and teachings mean for us today.

This video study is also available online, making it convenient to watch missed sessions. Or, you can choose to study at your own pace and complete the course independently online. Join us this fall as we explore sessions 9-15 of this study. The first 8 sessions can be viewed online if you weren't with us in the spring. Whether you catch up on the missed videos or jump right in with us at session 9, I'm sure you will enjoy the benefits of this Bible study.

Where? St. Louis Church, Parish Meeting Hall
When? 9:30-11:15am, Saturdays. Meeting dates are: October 8, 15, 22, 29 and November 5, 12, 19.
Cost? $35 if you did not register in the spring.
