Whose Image and Inscription?

It seems Pharisees and Herodians often plotted how to trap Jesus. This week: “Let’s force him to offer an opinion on paying the Roman tax. Folks hate that tax, especially having to use Roman currency, with the Emperor’s image, and the words ‘Divus et Pontifex Maximus’ (divine and high priest). A sacrilege! Ah hah! Let’s ask him whether folks should pay the tax. Say no, he gets in trouble with Rome, say yes, folks will consider him a collaborator.” But Jesus turned the tables.

They were on Temple grounds. Rome permitted the Jews to mint coins without graven images, for use among themselves, especially in the Temple precincts. (Remember the money changers? They insured worshippers had Jewish, non-blasphemous coins). Jesus asks for a coin. What are good Jews doing with Roman coins in their pocket in the Temple precincts? Having turned the table, Jesus brings it home: ‘Return to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and give to God what is God’s.’ His followers could hear: ‘get that blasphemous coin out of your hands, and give it back to the blasphemer who minted it. Then make an offering to God. Only God is worthy of worship, not the Emperor. Of course, the authorities would have heard, he’s teaching them to pay the tax.

The point? Whose image are we in? Genesis is clear: We were created in the image of God! As to inscriptions, God tells us in Isaiah 49:16: ‘I have inscribed you on the palm of my hand...’ Considering our image and that we are in God’s hands, how do we repay God, for all God has given us? Starting with the big picture: We belong to a parish. As a community, we support ministries essential to parish life. We are a diocesan family, that provides vital services and ministries a single parish could never accomplish alone. We are a worldwide communion, the Catholic Church. Finally, we each have various charities dear to our hearts.

The Bible mentions tithing 17 times. It commends 10%. Realizing we give to the Lord in more than one venue, an ideal might be 5% for church ministries: our parish, the CMA and Peter’s Pence, with 5% going to other charities we value. Concretely, an annual income of $50,000 would mean a church tithe of $2,500. Recognizing the importance of both parish and local church (diocese), this could be $2,000 to St. Louis ($40 a week) and $500 pledged to the CMA (a pledge, with several reminders through the year). At $20,000 a year, a goal might be about $17 a week to the parish, $100 to the CMA. But if you haven’t given to the CMA before, could you please consider $50 this year? Recall last year’s Christmas book, Life’s Greatest Lesson? As with many things on our journey, look at where we are, set our eyes to the goal, and strive to keep moving toward the goal as best we can.

May God bless you on your journey, Fr. Bob

This weekend, October 21/22, we celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support young mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay teachers serve some of the poorest of the poor. PLEASE KEEP THE Missions in your prayers and be generous in this week’s collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Joining together in support of St. Louis makes it possible for amazing things to happen here. When we join together with parishes around the diocese through the annual Catholic Ministries Appeal, amazing things happen both here and around the diocese. We depend on many of the services provided by the various offices and ministries of the diocese. So do those in need throughout our 12 county Diocese. Please be generous in supporting our CMA. To those who have already given, God bless you!!

Majestic and glorious is Your work,
Your wise design endures forever.
Psalm 111:3
Unexpected Hero
Imagine. The people had been in exile in Babylon for over a generation. Some had come to accept the new home and culture. Others hoped and dreamed of a return to Jerusalem, their true home. They prayed for years that God would send deliverance, a savior, a messiah, like the heroes of old. But a Gentile? A foreign king? A heathen?

Never second guess how God will answer prayer. Isaiah proclaims in our first reading that indeed Cyrus the Great, the Persian king who overthrew Babylon, was God’s anointed. While the Babylonians saw exiling the Jews, destroying their Temple and their culture as politically expedient, God put in Cyrus’ heart a different view. Let the Jews return to Jerusalem and rebuild their Temple, on the condition that prayers be offered there for him. How could this miracle happen? “For the sake of Jacob my servant…. I have called you by name, giving you a title, though you knew me not.” God can inspire anyone! Never second guess how God will answer prayer, or who God can use to be a blessing!

Isaiah the prophet/poet also includes in today’s reading a beautiful image that we hear in the Eucharistic Prayer. “Toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me.” Anointing a king of Persia to overthrow Babylon and release the Jews to return home certainly proves the point!

How to Pray
Though not instructions, by example St. Paul lets us in on an inspired way to pray. Give thanks for others, call to mind their faith and love, their endurance, and how they were chosen. When praying for those experiencing hardship, calling to mind their endurance is an excellent way to enter into prayer.

Would you like to offer some of your time in prayer as a ministry here at St Louis? Contact our Pastoral Care Associate, Cathy Malik (staff directory pg. 10) for more information.

What Does Belong to God?
The encounter retold in today’s Gospel reflects tensions and conflicts in the first century. But the final truth has a relevance today. The inscription on the coin handed to Jesus captured the arrogance of Caesar, naming him divine, thus worthy of worship, worship that, by Matthew’s time, took place in temples throughout the empire. We may not worship those whose images are on our coins or currency, but is worshiping money a temptation? Put another way, what is our ultimate concern, money, or God?

ALL SOULS’ DAY
In November our thoughts turn to the last things. The month begins by celebrating All Saints (November 1), then on the 2nd praying for All Souls, especially our deceased loved ones. Each year we especially remember those who have died in the previous year. The 11 AM and 7 PM Masses on Thursday, November 2, All Souls’ Day will be special Masses of Remembrance. The names of those whose funerals were held at St. Louis during the last year will be read with prayer, our Pastoral Care Team is sending invitations, and all are invited to Mass on All Souls’ Day to remember those who have been called home to God. There will be a reception immediately following the 11 AM and 7 PM Mass. All are welcome to attend.

Preparing for Next Weekend:
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Exodus 22:20-26
You were once aliens yourself

2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10
You serve the living and true God

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40
You shall love the Lord with all your heart

Hearing God’s Word
Did you know our church is fitted with a hearing assistance loop? If you have a hearing aid with a Telecoil setting, simply use the “T” switch; sound from the microphones will be transmitted directly to your hearing aid, without other sounds in the church being amplified and interfering. The loop covers the entire main seating area of the church. Microphones used in the sanctuary and side choir area would compromise the effectiveness of the system, so those areas have not been ‘looped’. If you do have a hearing aid and use the “T” switch, you may wish to try sitting in different areas to see where the ‘perfect’ location is for your personal hearing level.

St. Louis School Annual Coat Drive

During the month of October, please consider donating a new or gently used coat for Saint’s Place, a very worthwhile service organization. Collection bins are located at:

St. Louis School
11 Rand Place
Pittsford, NY 14564

The mission of Saint’s Place is to aid legal immigrants who have come to the United States to escape war and poverty. At Saint's Place, the newly arrived refugees receive needed resources and support that provide the basic necessities for them to rebuild hopeful lives in their adopted homeland.

They are desperately in need of warm men’s, women’s and children’s coats. Please make sure gently used items are clean and that the zippers work. A coat will keep someone warm as they walk to the market, school, or wait for the bus.

There is a special need for small and medium men’s coats.

Warm hats, boots, and gloves are also greatly appreciated.

Donated items can be brought to Saint’s Place if school is closed.

Habitat Interfaith Partnership Pie Sale . . . Volunteers Wanted

In 2016, St. Louis's Habitat partnership coalition successfully built its 6th Habitat house since 2001. Our next house project will be in 2019. Until then, we will be raising funds needed for its construction.

Our next fund raiser, the Annual Thanksgiving Pie Sale is coming soon. Kelly’s Farm Market in Hilton bakes the pies, and we sell them and receive 40% commission. All pies will be $17.00 with choices of Apple Crumb, Apple Raspberry, Pumpkin and Holiday Crumb (apple, cranberry & pineapple) and, Apple Crisp will be $12.75. We will be taking orders before and following Mass the weekends of October 28/29 and November 4/5. Pies will be distributed Tuesday, November 21, two days before Thanksgiving.

We are looking for a few people to assist with taking pie orders or helping to distribute the ordered pies. If you are interested in being involved, please contact Bob or Rosemary Scholl (call: 381-3760 or reply by email: schollroch@gmail.com).
Refugees coming to Rochester, as you well know, are fleeing from unbearable circumstances...famine, civil war, ethnic cleansing, crippling poverty. Recently a Sudanese mother arrived with six young children, who had only months before witnessed their father being executed. They arrive in Rochester, ranked tenth poorest city in the United States. Poverty is a vicious enemy which strips people of their dignity, and self-worth. For newly arriving legal refugees, it is another daunting obstacle to overcome.

At Saint’s Place we want to prevent the refugees from becoming victims of poverty. We want to give more clothing, more household items and more educational opportunities to the refugees. We must encourage and support them to achieve the American dream. The importance of education in overcoming poverty cannot be minimized. We are preparing to launch a scholarship program so refugees can acquire higher skills or continue their education, thus ensuring them better paying jobs and a brighter future.

Often, we are asked: “Why do you do this? Why help strangers when here in the United States, we have so many living in poverty? The answer is simple, because we can and we must. It is our mission, privilege and responsibility, to “Welcome the Stranger”. The refugees are so grateful, they smile, clap their hands, hug us and best of all, they return with success stories!

May God bless you throughout this year and the next and know the deep gratitude the refugees and Saint’s Place have for your Patron Saint gift.

Sincerely, Isabel Miller, Executive Director

In Their Own Words . . .
Sunday Communion Service Minister

My name is Marge Mancine and I am a Communion Service Minister. I have been in this ministry for several years at the nursing homes of Highland/Laurelwood and Heather Heights. Even though this has been for so many years, it always seems like the first time.

It is so rewarding to me to serve the residents at these nursing homes that are not able to get to church because of physical limitations. They are so grateful to us [St. Louis Ministers] for coming and I am grateful to be there, to have the Service for them, and to give them Communion. They look forward every Sunday to these Services because they feel they have fulfilled their Sunday duties and their participation is so important to them.

It is such a rewarding Ministry. The feeling is so spiritually uplifting when you are with the residents because they make you feel like family. They are so very welcoming!
