THE MISSAL CONNECTION

This weekend, for the opening prayer at Mass, we pray: “O God, who founded all the commands of your sacred Law upon love of you and of our neighbor, grant that, by keeping your precepts, we may merit to attain eternal life.”

Recall Jesus’ answer to the lawyer who asked him which commandment was the greatest? His answer, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind’…. and ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself’ is the source of this prayer. It fits very well with the scripture passages we will be hearing this weekend and next, readings that are a clarion call to social justice.

While deeply connected, social justice and charity are not the same. Amos was not asking the wealthy to provide food for the local food cupboard; to be more generous in helping the needy. His prophecy was a judgment on the systems, and abuse of them, that made it possible for the poor to become ever more destitute, while at the same time the wealthy continually amassed more and more holdings and wealth. Social Ministry is about both charity and justice.

The church teaches that ‘Action on behalf of justice is a constitutive dimension of preaching the Gospel’ (Justice in the World, 6) We are called to use our resources to help feed the hungry, cloth the naked, provide for those in need. At the same time, we are called to work with others to help build a more just society. The church’s teachings about social justice are sometimes called the church’s greatest secrets. For a reminder, precepts central to Catholic social teaching:

1) The common good
2) The life and dignity of the human person
3) Rights and responsibilities
4) Dignity of work and rights of workers
5) Option for the poor and vulnerable
6) Care of God’s creation
7) Living solidarity

After hearing readings including Amos’ stark prophecies, Jesus teaching about dishonest wealth, and how one cannot serve both God and mammon, to the story of the rich man and Lazarus next weekend, we’ll provide an opportunity next month to explore Jesus’ teaching, the church fleshing those teachings out in Catholic social thought, and how that teaching plays out in the parish, and your life and mine. Mark your calendar now for the 4th Tuesday in October, Fruit of the Vine.

Between now and then, learn more about ‘Living our Strengths’, this coming Tuesday. We can’t all do everything. Some folks have gifts that can be turned into strengths for organizing our efforts at charity. Others have a mind and passion that can be turned into a strength in working for justice. How well do you know all of your gifts? Living Our Strengths is a great way to get a clearer picture, and discover how gifts, interests and passion can be turned into a strength to help build a better world.

God’s peace to you in all you do, Fr. Bob

Sunday Communion Service - September 29
The Highlands: George Kimber/Dick Reddington

Special Intentions
We invite you to have a Sanctuary Lamp lit at the Blessed Sacrament to have your very special intentions remembered for a week.

To arrange this, please call or visit the Ministry Center. The Thursday Holy Hour Ministry will offer special prayers for your intention.

Requiem Aeternam
Raymond Mahar
Susan Everdyke
expresses the blessing this way: “May you be witnesses to God’s charity, so that the afflicted and needy who have known your kindness may one day receive you thankfully into the eternal dwelling of God.” Who will welcome us home at the end? The Gospel and this blessing let us know.

Relocated
Tuesday morning Bible study has a new home, the Manse meeting room, where the Monday morning men’s Bible sharing, and Bible basics also meet (the Manse is the brick building just North of the church). The nice library cases in the corner have also been stocked with a number of relocated Bible study resources. Ever consider doing some Bible study with others? We host lots of opportunities!

It’s All About Sunday!
In the book, Rebuilt (which the Pastoral Council is reading this Fall), the authors mention repeatedly just how central the weekend Mass is to each individual and each family’s faith, and how crucial to the health and life of the parish. Sounds like the liturgy committee has a really important role? We will meet Monday, September 23 at 7:30PM. Perhaps this is a way you could become more involved at St. Louis, adding knowledge to your interests and developing strengths in the area of liturgy and worship!

Annual Pet Blessing
Once again, we invite you to bring your favorite pet for a blessing next Sunday, September 29. We will have a brief service on the front steps of the church at 12:15 pm to honor the feast day of St. Francis, our patron of animals.

All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful:
The Lord God made them all.

~ Cecil F. Alexander, Hymns for Little Children
Thank you for your contributions to the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development! Your generous gifts will help CCHD end poverty in America through better education, improved housing, and overall economic development. Through CCHD and its beneficiaries, we manifest Catholic social teaching and carry out Jesus’ mission to “bring glad tidings to the poor... To proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free.” (Lk 4:18)

Birthright of Rochester’s annual Walk for Life is this Saturday, September 21 from 1-3PM at the Roberts Wesleyan College campus and this Sunday, September 22 from 1-3PM at the St. John Fisher College campus. This enjoyable event is a beautiful way for you, your friends, and family to show support for the unborn. Since 1971, Birthright of Rochester has been caring for women with pregnancy-related issues. This concern and care extends to the mother, the unborn baby, and the rest of the family. Thank you to those who signed pledge forms last weekend. Pledge forms are still available in the Narthex. If you have further questions, please feel free to leave a message with the Elizabeth Ministry voicemail at 586-5675 ext. 345. The Walk is a major annual source of funds for Birthright, and they greatly appreciate St. Louis’ support!

“I Was Hungry And You Gave Me Food”
Many thanks to all who brought in food last weekend, to help keep St. Andrew’s Food Cupboard stocked. If the third weekend of the month doesn’t always work for you to bring in food, at the entrance by the grand piano at the front of church, there is a drawer for contributions to the Pittsford Food cupboard where you can donate any time. There is also a basket in the Narthex near the handicap entrance where non-perishable food can always be donated.

No Waste Here!
Posted in the kitchen of the Parish Meeting Hall is a list of places that accept donations of left-over, perishable food, whether from coffee hour, or any other function. Thank you helping get food to where it is needed and appreciated!

42ND ANNUAL CORN SALE RESULTS:
WE ARE HAPPY TO SHARE GREAT NEWS!
With your generous support of this year’s Corn Sale, $3,026 was raised for St. Damien Pediatric Hospital, Haiti’s only free pediatric hospital. With the promise of a matching grant, Fr. Rick Frechette’s hospital will actually receive $6,052. May God bless all of you who worked on the sale, especially Joanne and Dick Thomas (chairs), Gary Eisenhart (photographer) and Marie Stekloff (Coordinator of sellers). The sick children made well at St. Damien send the biggest “Thank You” to the Powers Farm Market family on Marsh Road for planting, caring for, harvesting, and transporting the corn to St. Louis Church totally free of charge.
Musical Opportunities at St. Louis Come and Make a Joyful Noise!

Adult Choir - The adult choir practices on Wednesday evenings September through May and provides music for the 11:00 Sunday liturgies along with special services such as the Triduum liturgies. The choir sings a variety of styles of music with varying levels of difficulty. There is no need to be able to read music! Please consider joining us by contacting Stephanie at shonz@rochester.rr.com for more information.

Resurrection (Funeral) Choir - This is one of our newer ministries that we are very proud of here at St. Louis. This group provides music for funeral liturgies which are usually held on weekdays at 11:00. Though there are NO regular practices for this group, these singers don't get much notice when a funeral comes along. Again, there is no need to be able to read music. We have a small body of literature that is used at most of the services with an occasional request from a family to learn something new. This group consists of 26 singers, but due to the short notice we receive, we could really use some more people to help us out when we get a rush. Sometimes we go weeks with no funerals, whereas last week we had four of them! Please consider becoming a part of this beautiful ministry that means so much to a grieving family. Contact Stephanie Honz at shonz@rochester.rr.com.

Teen Ensemble - This group is geared towards teens age 12 and up, but is also open to those adults who are "young at heart". We sing the first Sunday of each month from October through June at the 5:00 mass. We have one massive jamming session for one hour before each of the masses. Our music has a bit of a different character than that of the other choirs. This year we lost seven of our very accomplished seniors. We could really use your help either as a singer or an instrumentalist. Please consider joining us for the first October mass on the 6th. Besides, there is usually a free dinner offered after mass!

Angel Voices It’s that time of year again, and our Children’s Choir will begin rehearsing last week. If your young angel loves to sing, do encourage him or her to join the junior choir! Contact Beatrice Hack at bhack@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 231.

Got Rhythm? If you love music but are not a singer, try your hand at being a ringer in our Bell Choir. No prior experience necessary. Come join the fun. We have a handbell or handchime for you! Adults and teens are welcome to join this unique form of musical ministry. Contact Beatrice Hack at bhack@dor.org or 586-5675, ext. 231.

Angels Needed Now!

If you are one of those women who like to iron and have a willingness to serve Our Lord in a special way, this request is for you! Come join a group of holy and humble women who maintain the purificators used to wipe the chalice at Mass. You have seen the cloth that is used when you receive the precious blood of Christ. Please consider making a sacrifice by giving one week of your time once a year to assist. Please phone Marie Vasile at 248-0064.

A New Season of Fruit of the Vine

Begins This Tuesday, September 24

St. Louis Parish Meeting Hall

Living Your Strengths

Fr. Bob Ring

Wine Tasting 7:00PM  Discussion 7:30PM

With Living Our Strengths, take inventory of your gifts and talents, and turn them into strengths in service. Learn more about your strengths, and how to live them effectively. Mark your calendar now!

Is Pastoral Care Calling You?

The Pastoral Care Committee will meet this Thursday morning, September 26 at 9:30 am in the Parish Meeting Hall to set goals and to plan for this year's numerous activities including the November 2nd All Souls' Day liturgy and reception, cards for the homebound during Advent, and Christmas poinsettia delivery. We will also review our service to the homebound and hospitalized including communion visits. All are welcome. For additional information, please contact either Cris Wensel, Pastoral Associate at 586-5675 ext. 224 or email cwensel@dor.org; or Peggy O'Neil Midgeley, Chair at email pomigley@yahoo.com or at 383-8879.

Help Wanted: Volunteers to Teach 6th-8th Grade Religious Education

Crossroads, the middle school religious education program, is looking for volunteers to help teach. We meet Monday nights, October through April from 6:45-8:00 pm. Teaching volunteers will work in pairs with small groups of about 12 students. Lesson plans and materials are provided. You do not need to be an expert in the faith, just have a desire to learn and work with kids. If you are interested or have questions, contact Robin Hill at walimu@hotmail.com.
St. Louis School students from Pre-school to Grade 6 have daily opportunities for prayer. Preschool 4 children are learning this prayer which is said at the opening session of their school day:

God in heaven hear my prayer,
keep me in thy loving care.
Be my guide in all I do,
Bless all those who love me too.

Winter Coats Needed - All Sizes - Adults and Children

With the arrival of fall, and the cooler weather, there is an urgent need for CLEAN, warm winter coats. If you have a coat that you seldom wear, one that is too small or too big, or that looks like something you already have, consider donating it to a very worthy cause. Your gently used coat will keep a person very warm as they walk to the market or wait for a bus to transport them to school or work. Taking the extra time to wash and make sure the zipper works on your coat will ensure that a newly arrived refugee will receive the respect and dignity that they so deserve.

Imagine what is must be like to spend years in a refugee camp, waiting, and then to finally arrive in a foreign country, your new home. You don’t speak the language and you are frightened and bewildered by all the hustle and bustle surrounding you and your family. At the Monroe County airport, you are greeted by a Catholic Family Center case worker and handed warm coats, hats and perhaps gloves. It’s late fall and the air is bitter cold as you walk to a car in which you will be transported to an apartment. Imagine how surprised you are to learn that all these mostly new-to-you furnishings and household items, even simple beds with blankets, have been selected especially for your family by Saint’s Place. Stewardship in action! With your donations, you are serving refugees in need. You might never meet this particular family: mother, father, three young school-age children, but you and your generosity are part of the “welcoming committee.” It’s been a long time or perhaps never that these people have experienced human kindness. Most refugees have had no reason to smile. But, your stewardship, your generosity will always be remembered and bring a smile to their faces. “At it’s best, giving is an act of worship!” Cornelius J. Dyck (1740-92)
Extending a Personal Invitation

As we head down the home stretch of this Year of Faith (ending in about two months from now), it is worthwhile to remember that the overall goal is to strengthen our faith and to draw the world to faith by our personal example. This column has placed an emphasis on strengthening our own faith in previous weeks, however those last words have been highlighted to show that each of us has a personal call to spread the Gospel message to others, a personal call to evangelize (quick, without looking it up – what Gospel passage proclaims that call?) We also know that everything we do in life is seen by someone, whether we know it or not, whether we like it or not, whether we want it to be or not. And, of course, we know that our culture can pose tremendous challenges to our faith in everyday life, so a few ideas will be floated over these next few weeks that can involve only a small amount of personal time and effort but which may provide fantastic results.

Here is the first idea. The USCCB.org website suggests inviting a friend to Mass on its list, “10 Ways Catholics Can Live the Year of Faith,” adding, “The Year of Faith may be global in its scope, focusing on a renewal of faith and evangelization for the whole Church, but real change occurs at the local level. A personal invitation can make all the difference to someone who has drifted from the faith or feels alienated from the Church. Everyone knows people like this, so everyone can extend a loving welcome.”

Challenging? It can be. But remember, you are only asked to extend the invitation – and, then say a prayer to the Holy Spirit to do the rest.

For further information, or help on how to do this, see me after Mass sometime, or contact me at Ideacondave@gmail.com.

God bless, Deacon Dave

Social Justice

Each of us, as we are born into this world, are not equipped with everything we need in order to develop bodily or spiritually. We need each other. Differences in individuals are due to age, physical abilities, intellect, moral aptitude, the benefit of social commerce and the distribution of wealth. Thus, while we are all equally valuable, created in the image and likeness of God, our innate personal gifts are not distributed equally and we are not born into the same social situation and opportunities.

The Catholic position on these differences is that this is part of God’s plan. God builds these differences into us so that we are required to receive from others what we need both bodily and spiritually to flourish. Differences among us encourage and oblige persons to practice generosity, kindness, sharing of goods. On a larger scale, these differences foster the mutual enrichment of cultures.

Each should be given what they are due, and fairness is required in all our mutual agreements and exchanges. For example, the relationship between owners and employees, and between sellers and buyers should be characterized as just. Justice may lead to laws against unfair monopolies, or to laws upholding truth in advertising, or to laws ensuring a just wage, safe working conditions, and reasonable working hours.

The purpose of justice is, ultimately, to protect the dignity of persons and our rights which flow from this dignity. The very differences among us, given our abilities, our situations and our station in life, demand and encourage that love of one another that is the distinctive hallmark of the gospel of Jesus. In loving one another, we are giving ourselves to kingdom values and to the God who is our Creator and author of that kingdom. It’s about acting responsibly with what we have.

Talk with your children about some things that they have done to show that they can be trusted. Talk a bit about what it means to be responsible. Responsibility often means that we put aside something of passing value for something of greater value, what social justice is all about. Talk about the importance of responsible use of money and our material possessions. As a family, commit to one action that you will take this week to show that your family serves God and not money.

St. Louis CYO Basketball Recruiting Coaches

St. Louis Church with its CYO basketball Program is committed to providing a ministry that helps bring youth to their full human potential. The Catholic Youth Organization provides opportunities for young people to develop strong moral character, self-esteem, and leadership qualities through activities of a social, educational, recreational and athletic nature. Over the past 10 years, St. Louis CYO basketball has enabled over 1,000 3rd through 12th graders to participate in the CYO basketball program. The continued success of this program depends on volunteer coaches. Last year there were 17 teams. We are in need of coaches to continue the accomplishment of the program. Please consider coaching!

The program begins early October and ends the first or second week in March. Typically practices can be scheduled on a set schedule to accommodate the coaches and players. Practices are once or twice during the week and games are on Saturdays and/or Sundays. The CYO schedule consists of 12 games.
